Reſolved, on the Queſtion, that if any Diſpute ariſe in making the Deeds of Conveyance, the Court of Exchequer do ſettle the ſame.

Reſolved, on the Queſtion, that the Court of Exchequer do put this Decree in Execution.

DECREE of the foregoing Notes:

Dame Charity Sands, Widow and Relict of Sir John Sands, Bart. deceaſed, Appellant. John Haltridge, Eſq; and Grace his Wife, Reſpondents.

Decree in Sands's Cauſe.

WHEREAS this Cauſe came to be heard, at the Bar of this Houſe, on Tueſday the 16th of October, 1711, upon the Petition and Appeal of the Appellant, whereby ſhe prayed that the Decree of Diſmiſſion and the ſeveral Orders and Proceedings in the Court of Exchequer, therein mentioned and complained of, might be ſet aſide and reverſed. And alſo, upon the Anſwers of the ſaid Reſpondents to the ſaid Appeal; and, upon due Conſideration of what was offered by Counſel on both Sides thereupon; It is this Day, that is to ſay, Friday the 26th of October, 1711, ordered, adjudged and decreed by the Right Hon. the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Decree of Diſmiſſion, made in this Cauſe, in the Court of Exchequer in Ireland, and all the Orders and Proceedings therein, be and are hereby reverſed. And it is further ordered and decreed, that the Reſpondents do forthwith ſettle and convey Lands to and upon the Appellant, of the clear yearly Value of £200 Sterl. free from all Incumbrances, out of Part of the Eſtate of the late Sir John Sands, during her natural Life, as her Jointure, in lieu of Dower: And that, on the Perfection of the Deed of Conveyance, the Deed of Rent-Charge, made by Sir John Sands, ſhall be delivered up by the Appellant to the Reſpondents: And that the Reſpondents do forthwith account with and pay unto the Appellant, all the Arrears of the ſaid £200 ℔ Ann. from the Death of the ſaid Sir John Sands, the Reſpondents being allowed £20 ℔ Ann. for their Trouble in receiving the Rents and Loſs of Rents. And if the Reſpondents neglect, or refuſe to pay the Arrears of the ſaid £200, and perfect the Deed aforeſaid, that then the Court of Exchequer ſhall iſſue an Injunction or Injunctions, to the Sheriffs of the ſeveral Counties, where the real Eſtate and Chattles real, which Sir William Sands, Bart. deceaſed, died ſeized and poſſeſſed of; as alſo to ſequeſter the Reſpondent John Haltridge's real and perſonal Eſtate, until the ſaid Arrears of £200 ℔ Ann. be fully paid to the Appellant; and the Deed perfected, as aforeſaid. But this Decree is not to hinder Dame Grace Sands, the Widow of Sir William Sands, from receiving her £200 ℔ Ann. Jointure, during her Life. And that if any Diſpute ariſe between the Appellant and Reſpondents, as to what Lands ſhall be ſettled for the Payment of the ſaid £200 ℔ Ann. or in making the Deeds of Conveyance, the Court of Exchequer ſhall aſcertain the Lands, and ſettle the Conveyance. And it is further ordered, that the Reſpondents do pay unto the Appellant £20 Coſts, for the Proſecution of this Appeal; and that the Coſts expended, or to be expended, by the Appellant, in the Court of Exchequer, be taxed by the proper Officer of the ſaid Court, and paid by the Reſpondents to the Appellant. And laſtly; it is ordered, that the ſaid Court of Exchequer do forthwith put this Decree in Execution.

The Lord Chancellor, by Appointment of the Lords, adjourns the Houſe, until To-morrow Morning, at Ten of the clock.

Report on Breaches of Privilege.

The Lord Charlemont reports from the Committee of Privileges, to whom was referred the Complaint of the Right Rev. the Lord Biſhop of Clonfert; that they met, and find, that Teige Togher and Darby Togher were duly ſerved with Summons to appear before the ſaid Committee, on the 22d of this inſt. October, and that they did not appear, in Obedience to the ſaid Summons.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Serjeant at Arms attending this Houſe, do forthwith apprehend and take the Bodies of the ſaid Teige Togher and Darby Togher, for their ſaid Contempt.

The Lord Viſc. Charlemont reports from the Committee of Privileges, to whom was referred the Complaint of the Right Rev. the Lord Biſhop of Oſſory; that they met, and find by the Examination of Sampſon Cox, Eſq; that for theſe four Years paſt, he has been in quiet Poſſeſſion of Forty Acres of Land, in the Town of Knockroebegg, by Virtue of a Leaſe under the See of Oſſory; that he was employed to receive the Rents of the ſaid Premiſſes, for ſeveral Years before he became concerned in the ſaid Leaſe, and all that time he received the ſame, without any manner of Diſturbance, for the Lord Biſhop of Oſſory; that about the Beginning of laſt June, he was informed by his Tenants, that Capt. Charles Connyers brought ſeveral Perſons, with Clubs and a Spade on the ſaid Lands, and broke the Ditches of a Garden on the ſaid Lands, belonging to the ſaid Lord Biſhop of Oſſory: That about the 19th or 20th of the ſaid Month, his Tenants informed again, that the ſaid Capt. Connyers had done the ſame thing again; and that on or about the 27th of the ſaid Month, the ſaid Connyers, with ſix Men, employed by him, came with Staves, and forced their Cattle on the Corn of the ſaid Lord Biſhop's Lands; and ſome time after the ſaid Cox heard ſaid Capt. Connyers own, that by his Orders the ſaid Ditches were broke down, and the Corn deſtroyed: That by the Examinations of Will. Hetherman and Maurice Hetherman, they likewiſe find, that they are Tenants to Part of the Lands of Knockroebegg, belonging to the See of Oſſory, for about Four Years paſt, under Sampſon Cox, Eſq; and held the ſame quietly and peaceably without any Diſturbance, till about the Month of June laſt, Capt. Connyers, William Hugh, Peter Sheehan and Cornelius Coleman, came on the ſaid Lands in their Poſſeſſion, and which they hold, as aforeſaid, under the See of Oſſory, and broke down a Gap, and drove in his Cattle into their Gardens and Fields, and left a Herd to take Care of them there. That they knew the ſaid Lands ſeveral Years before they became concerned therein, when one Denis Hannin held the ſame, under the Title of the ſaid Biſhop of Oſſory, and never heard of any Diſpute of the Biſhop's Title thereto; but all the time of their Knowledge thereof, was held quietly under the ſaid Biſhop's Title.

That by the Examinations of James Naſh, Gentleman, they find, that Capt. Charles Connyers had confeſſed to him, that he gave Orders to break down the ſaid Gap, and deſtroy the ſaid Corn.

Whereupon the ſaid Committee came to the following Reſolutions, which they have directed me to report:

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of the Committee, that Capt. Charles Connyers is guilty of a Breach of the Privilege of this Houſe.

Reſolved, that it is likewiſe the Opinion of the Committee, that William Hugh is guilty of a Breach of the Privilege of this Houſe.

Reſolved, that it is likewiſe the Opinion of the Committee, that Peter Sheehan is guilty of a Breach of the Privilege of this Houſe.

Reſolved, that it is likewiſe the Opinion of the Committee, that Cornelius Coleman is guilty of a Breach of the Privilege of this Houſe.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Serjeant at Arms attending this Houſe, do forthwith apprehend and take the Bodies of Capt. Charles Connyers, William Hugh, Peter Sheehan and Cornelius Coleman, for the ſaid Breaches of Privilege.

Bill to prevent Miſchief by Fire.

The Lord Chancellor, as Speaker, reports, that the Commons, by Mr. Secretary Southwell, had ſent up a Meſſage, acquainting, that their Houſe have paſſed an ingroſſed Bill, intitled, An Act for the better preventing Miſchiefs that may happen by Fire, and deſire the Concurrence of this moſt Hon. Houſe.

Ordered, on Motion, that the ſaid Bill be read the firſt time.

Read accordingly.

Ordered, on Motion, that the ſaid Bill be read the ſecond time on Tueſday Morning next.

Ed. Reily reprimanded,

Ordered, purſuant to the Order of the Day, that Edward Reily be brought in, and reprimanded.

Ordered, on Motion, that Edward Reily be diſcharged, firſt paying the Fees due to the Clerks, Officers and Servants attending this Houſe.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Petition of Edward Reily be entered in the Journal Book, which Petition is, in hæc verba:

To the Right Honourable the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

The humble Petition of Edward Reily, in Cuſtody of the Uſher of the Black-Rod, attending this moſt Hon. Houſe.

Moſt humbly ſheweth,

Petition.

THAT your Petitioner has had the Misfortune of falling under the Diſpleaſure of this moſt Hon. Houſe, for a Breach of the Privilege thereof, by him committed, in directing a Seneſchal's Court to be held in the Name of the Earl of Fingal, on the Lands of Killallan, in the Co. Meath, belonging to the Right Hon. the Lord Viſc. Valentia, of which Lands your Petitioner is Tenant to the ſaid Lord Viſcount Valentia, having purchaſed a Leaſe thereof, made by his Lordſhip's Grandfather, the Right Hon. Arthur Earl of Angleſey, deceaſed, for a long Term of Years, many whereof are yet to come; for which your Petitioner paid £800 Sterl. and is under Covenants to pay £25 Ann. to his Lordſhip, and to preſerve his Poſſeſſion, and never intended otherwiſe.

That your Petitioner, believing, that keeping a Court on the Premiſſes would be of ſome Uſe to the poor Tenants of the ſame, did unadviſedly, and through Inadvertency, give Directions for keeping a Court there. But your Petitioner declares, in the Preſence of GOD, that he did the ſame, without the Privity, Deſire or Directions of the Lord Fingal; and without any Thought or the leaſt Deſign of Diſreſpect or Prejudice to the ſaid Lord Valentia or his Lordſhip's Title to the ſame, or to gain any Poſſeſſion from his Lordſhip for the ſaid Lord Fingal, or any other whatever, but merely for the Benefit of the Tenants; believing, that the ſaid Lord Viſc. Valentia had not the Royalty, but only the Lands, granted to him.

That if your Petitioner had apprehended in the leaſt, that the ſaid Lord Viſc. Valentia would have taken the keeping of the ſaid Court ill, he would never have been concerned therein, upon any Conſideration whatever: And his Lordſhip knows, that before any Complaint was made againſt your Petitioner; and, as ſoon as your Petitioner heard, that his Lordſhip was diſpleaſed at it, he, your Petitioner, waited on his Lordſhip, and excuſed himſelf; and told his Lordſhip the naked Truth of the Matter, without reſerve, and humbly hoped for his Lordſhip's Pardon.

That your Petitioner is Deputy Chief-Remembrancer of the Court of Exchequer, and has the intire Care and Management of that Office, which will ſuffer much by your Petitioner's Confinement, and may prove prejudicial to the publick Buſineſs of the ſaid Court.

Now, in regard what your Petitioner did, was merely thro' Inadvertency and without the leaſt Thought or Deſign or Prejudice to the ſaid Lord Valentia's Title or Poſſeſſion of the Premiſſes; nor has any Prejudice happened to his Lordſhip thereby; and that your Petitioner has a deep Senſe of his Misfortune, in incurring the Diſpleaſure of this moſt Hon. Houſe, and is ready and willing to beg Pardon of this moſt Hon. Houſe in general, and of that noble Peer, your Petitioner has offended, in particular.

Your Petitioner moſt humbly prays your Lordſhips, out of your accuſtomed Goodneſs and Clemency, to diſcharge your Petitioner without Fees.

And your Petitioner, as in Duty bound, will pray,

EDW. REILY

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Addreſs to the Queen, concerning Diſſenters.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, being touched at Heart to find the Members of our Church charged with Oppreſſion and Perſecution by the Diſſenters; and that your Majeſty's Name has been made uſe of in a Letter, dated the 8th of April, 1710, from the Earl of Wharton, then Lord Lieutenant of this Kingdom, to the Lords Juſtices; directing them to order Noli proſequis (thereby putting a Stop to the Proceedings at Law againſt one Fleming and others, who were ſent by the Preſbyterys of the North, to ſet up a Meeting in the Town of Drogheda, where there had been none for 28 Years paſt, to the great great Diſturbance of the Peace and Quiet of that Town) do, upon this Occaſion, think ourſelves obliged, with all Duty and Submiſſion, to repreſent unto your Majeſty, that no Diſſenters through this whole Kingdom have been diſturbed in the Exerciſe of their religious Worſhip, where they had ſettled Congregations, either by your Majeſty's Civil or Eccleſiaſtical Governors, or by any of our Church: And yet, thoſe unjuſt Complainers of Perſecution, whilſt they themſelves enjoyed Eaſe and Security, have exerciſed great Severities towards their conforming Neighbours, by denying them common Offices of Humanity; and by threatening and actually ruining ſeveral, who, in Compliance with their Conſcience, have left their Sect.

In many Towns, they have refuſed to take Apprentices, that will not covenant to go to their Meetings, and wherever they obtain the Majority in Corporations, they excluded all ſuch as were not of their own Perſuaſion; they have alſo obliged thoſe of their own Communion, who were married according to the Office of our Liturgy, to do publick Penance.

And we farther beg Leave to obſerve to your Majeſty, that a Right Rev. Biſhop, a Member of this Houſe, loſt his Biſhoprick, for not taking the Oath of Abjuration in due time, to which he was reſtored by your Majeſty's Clemency and Goodneſs; and yet ſome Diſſenting Miniſters, who are under the ſame Obligation, whilſt they openly refuſe to take that Oath, preach on with Impunity, and in Defiance of the Law.

The Epiſcopal Order hath been ſtiled Anti-Scriptural; our holy and religious worſhip called ſuperſtitious and idolatrous; and our Miniſters have been openly and violently aſſaulted, and hindered in the Diſcharge of their ſacred Offices; and even the Legiſlature itſelf, hath not eſcaped the Cenſure of a bold Author of their's, who hath publiſhed in Print, that "the Sacramental Teſt is only an Engine "to advance a State Faction, and to debaſe "Religion, to ſerve mean and unworthy Pur-"poſes."

Amidſt theſe many and repeated Provocations, we have been ſtill eaſy, and have endeavoured, by gentle Uſage, to melt them down into a more ſoft and complying Temper: But all our Attempts of this kind have proved unſucceſsful. They have returned us Evil for Good; our Forbearance hath only increaſed their Rage and Obſtinacy; and by our Lenity, the Northern Preſbyterys have been encouraged to ſeek out to enlarge their Borders: And, not content with the Enjoyment of the free Exerciſe of their religious Worſhip, in Places where they had ſettled Meetings, have aſſumed a Power to ſend out Miſſionaries into ſeveral Places of this Kingdom, where they have had no Call, nor any Congregations to ſupport them.

And this, we beg Leave to acquaint your Majeſty, they have been enabled to do, by miſapplying that Bounty of £1200 a Year (which your Majeſty hath been pleaſed to extend to them for charitable Purpoſes) to the Propagation of Schiſm, the undermining of the Church, and to the Diſturbance of the Peace and Unanimity of the Conformiſts in this Kingdom.

From this Fund alſo we doubt not they have Supplies to employ and maintain Agents, ſupport Law-Suits againſt the Church, to form Seminaries to the poiſoning of the Principles of our Youth; and, in Oppoſition to the Law, to ſet up Synods and Judicatories, deſtructive of your Majeſty's Prerogative.

And one John Macbride, a Nonjuror, ſtiling himſelf Miniſter of Belfaſt, at a Provincial Synod held there, preached and printed a Sermon, wherein he juſtifies theſe Meetings, and makes them independent on the Civil Power.

By theſe Means, Schiſm, which formerly, in a Manner, was confined unto the North, hath now ſpread itſelf into many other Parts of this Kingdom:

So that we ſhould not be juſt in our Duty to your Majeſty or our Country, if we did not acquaint your Majeſty with the Danger we apprehend from theſe great Advances, which Preſbytery and Fanaticiſm have made; which, if not checked, we doubt not, will, in Time, end in the Deſtruction of the Conſtitution, both in Church and State.

We therefore humbly ſubmit it to your Majeſty, Whether your Majeſty will not think it, in your great Wiſdom, proper to put a Stop to theſe growing Evils, by withdrawing from them your Bounty of £1200 a Year?

And we earneſtly intreat your Majeſty, that, whilſt we do not diſturb the Diſſenters in their way of Worſhip, in their uſual Places of Meetings, your Majeſty will not think it unreaſonable, that we ſhould, by all lawful Means, hinder the ſpreading of Schiſm, in order to preſerve our own Peace and Unanimity, and the Safety and Welfare of this Realm.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Lord Archbiſhop of Tuam, and the Lord Viſc. Strabane, do attend the Lord Lieutenant, and deſire his Grace would give Leave to this Houſe to ſit, until Friday next, to expedite the Buſineſs before them, and to know when and where this Houſe ſhould attend his Grace with the ſaid Repreſentation and Addreſs to her Majeſty.

The Lord Archbiſhop of Tuam and the Lord Viſc. Strabane report, that they attended his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, who was pleaſed readily to comply with this Houſe's ſitting until Friday next, and appointed To-morrow, at Twelve of the clock, at the Caſtle of Dublin, to be attended with the ſaid Repreſentation and Addreſs.

The Lord Chancellor, by Appointment of the Lords, adjourns the Houſe until To-morrow Morning, at Nine of the clock.

Sermon preached 31ſt January at Chriſt-Church, voted a Libel and Reſolved, on the Queſtion, that a Pamphlet, intitled, "A Sermon preached before the State in Chriſt-Church on Monday the 31ſt of January, 1708, by Mr. Staughton, Prebendary of St. Patrick's, Chaplain to the Right Hon. Richard Freeman, Lord Chancellor, dedicated to the Hon. Houſe of Commons," does contain Doctrines deſtructive of the Conſtitution of Church and State, and is a ſcandalous and ſeditious Libel, highly reflecting on the Honour and Piety of the royal Martyr King Charles I. of bleſſed Memory.

to be burnt by the Hangman.

Ordered, on Motion, that the ſaid Pamphlet be burnt by the Hands of the common Hangman, before the Door of this Houſe, To-morrow Morning, at Ten of the clock; and before the Tholſel of this City of Dublin, on Saturday next, at Twelve of the clock.

Report on Petition of Clerk of Houſe,

The Earl of Inchiquin reports from the Committee, appointed to take into Conſideration the Petition of Charles Baldwin, Eſq; that they met, and find, that this moſt Hon. Houſe, on the 1ſt of Auguſt, 1707, addreſſed the then Lord Lieutenant in favour of the ſaid Charles Baldwin, for the Sum of £226 : 10*s*. which the Houſe were of Opinion he very well deſerved, as a Reward for his Service, in copying and briefing the Tranſmiſſes of Bills, under the Great-Seal of Great Britain, being very voluminous, conſiſting of 453 Skins of Parchment; and the copying and briefing thereof very troubleſome and chargeable: Beſides his conſtant Attendance on the Houſe of Lords, to compare the ingroſſed Bills with the original Tranſmiſſes.

And

And that this moſt Hon. Houſe, on the 17th of May, 1709, addreſſed the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty, in favour of the ſaid Charles Baldwin, for a further Sum of £226 as a Reward for the like Service for that preſent and the precedent Seſſions.

That the ſaid Charles Baldwin hath not received any Benefit by either of the ſaid Addreſſes.

That this Committee are of Opinion, that the ſaid Charles Baldwin very well deſerves the further Sum of £226, for the like Service, for this and the laſt Seſſions; and therefore are of Opinion, that an Addreſs be made from this Houſe to the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty, in favour of the ſaid Charles Baldwin, for the aforeſaid three ſeveral Sums.

agreed to. To which the Houſe agrees.

Ordered, on Motion, that the ſame Committee, to whom was referred the Conſideration of the Petition of Charles Baldwin, Eſq; do prepare an Addreſs to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant; who are to meet To-morrow Morning, at Nine of the clock.

Report on the Committee-Clerk's Pet. The Earl of Inchiquin reports from the Committee, appointed to take into Conſideration the Petition of John Carpenter, Committee-Clerk; that they met, and find, that the ſaid John Carpenter hath, for theſe ſix Seſſions paſt, with great Diligence and Application, ſerved this Houſe as Committee-Clerk, and had no manner of Gratuity or Conſideration for the ſame: And are of Opinion, that he very well deſerves the Sum of £100 Sterl. for each Seſſion, amounting, in the Whole, to the Sum of £600 Sterl. and that Application be made for the ſaid Sum of £600 Sterl.

agreed to. To which the Houſe agrees.

Ordered, on Motion, that the ſame Committee, to whom was referred the Conſideration of the Petition of John Carpenter, do prepare an Addreſs to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, who are to meet To-morrow Morning, at Nine of the clock.

Report on Petition of Officers, &c. The Earl of Inchiquin reports from the Committee, appointed to conſider of the Petition of the Clerks, Officers and Servants attending this Houſe; that they met, and do find, that the Money, formerly addreſſed for by this moſt Hon. Houſe, is as follows:

|---|---|
| To the Clerk, for every Seſſion — | £200 |
| To the Clerk-Aſſiſtant — — | 100 |
| To the Reading-Clerk — — — | 80 |

| To the Door-keepers — — — | 40 |
| To the Meſſengers — — — | 20 |
| To the Fire-maker — — — | 4 |
| | £700 |

And that the ſaid Clerks, Officers and Servants, have been paid ſhort thereof, each Seſſion, for theſe five Seſſions paſt £200.

|---|---|
| Kept from the Clerk each Seſſion — | £50 |
| From the Clerk-Aſſiſtant — | 20 |
| From the Reading-Clerk — | 30 |
| From the Gentleman-Uſher — | 50 |
| From the Journal-Clerk — | 10 |
| From the Yeoman-Uſher — | 10 |
| From the Serjeant at Arms — | 10 |
| From the Door-keepers — — | 20 |
| | £200 |

That the ſaid Committee are of Opinion, that an Addreſs be made to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant in their behalf, to pay them what has been paid ſhort of the ſaid former Addreſſes, made in their behalf.

The Committee are alſo of Opinion, that an Addreſs be made to her Majeſty, that the Sum of £700 Sterl. be given to the ſaid ſeveral Clerks, Officers and Servants of this Houſe, for their Attendance the laſt and this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, for each Seſſion.

| To John Smyth, Eſq; Clerk — — | £200 |

Ordered, on Motion, that the Judges be covered.

Addreſs to the Queen, to be printed.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Clerk of this Houſe do, on this Day Fortnight, cauſe the Repreſentation and Addreſs to the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty, relating to the Diſſenting Miniſters, to be printed; and that no other Perſon do preſume to print the ſame.

A Book of Sermons cenſured, and Reſolved, on the Queſtion, that a Book, intitled, "Sermons preached on various Subjects, Vol. I. by J. B. Dublin, printed by S. Powell, for the Uſe of the Author, 1708," is falſe and ſcandalous, and contains Matters highly reflecting on the Legiſlature, and on the Epiſcopal Order.

to be burnt by the Hangman.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Sheriffs of the City of Dublin, do cauſe the ſaid Book to be burnt by the Hands of the common Hangman To-morrow, at Twelve of the clock, before the Tholſel.

The Lord Viſc. Strabane reports from the Committee, appointed to draw an Addreſs to her Majeſty, that they met, and prepared the ſame, which was read, in hæc verba:

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your moſt Excellent Majeſty,

Addreſs to the Queen,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, do, with a juſt Retribution of Thanks for all your Majeſty's Favours, with the higheſt Veneration for your ſacred Perſon and Government, and with the utmoſt Concern for the Welfare and Proſperity of this your Realm, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty.

The grateful Remembrance of the many Obligations you have laid upon us, the ſincere Veneration for your Majeſty's royal Perſon and Prerogative, and the tender Regard we have for the Peace and Tranquility of this Kingdom, could alone prevail on us, thus long to forget the high Indignities offered to this Houſe, by the Commons; and to ſubmit our private Injuries to your Majeſty's more publick Concerns; leſt, by our juſt Reſentment of their Behaviour, when ſo induſtriouſly provoked, your Majeſty's Affairs might be obſtructed, and by that Means, the pernicious Deſigns of evil-minded Men rendered effectual.

How far the Commons have made good their Profeſſions to your Majeſty, of Unanimity, how far they have purſued that Temper, recommended to them by your Majeſty, we ſhall not determine. Yet ſurely, had thoſe Profeſſions been ſincere, they would not (without any Conference demanded or any Opportunity given to us, to explain ourſelves, if we had been miſtaken) have uſed us in a manner wholly unknown to former Parliaments; and in Language more indecent, more opprobrious, than was given by another Houſe of Commons, at a time when they voted the Houſe of Lords uſeleſs.

However, your Majeſty might juſtly approve the Conduct of the College of Dublin in the late Revolution, we did, and do ſtill, humbly conceive, that your Majeſty did not extend your Bounty to them, to promote (in general) Revolution-Principles; Principles, which as explained by the Pamphlets and Libels publickly avowed and celebrated by Men of factious and ſeditious Tempers, and particularly by a Sermon preached on the 30th of January, dedicated to this very Houſe of Commons, without Cenſure or Animadverſion, do, in a great Meaſure, maintain and juſtify the execrable Murder of King Charles I. your royal Grand Father of bleſſed Memory, and on which may be founded any Rebellion againſt your Majeſty or your Succeſſors.

Nor have the Commons, in our Apprehenſion, vindicated themſelves or their Vote, by ſaying, that the ſound Revolution-Principles, mentioned in their Addreſs, neither had nor can have, in the true Conſtruction of the Words, any other Meaning, than what related to the late happy Revolution: For, however they may take upon themſelves beſt to know their own Meaning; yet, we think it hard to deny us the Right of judging, as well as they, of the true Conſtruction of the Words: And we do take Leave to ſay, That the Commons, having in that Vote mentioned the ſteady Adherence of the Provoſt and Fellows of the College to the late Revolution, as one Conſideration of their Application for the £5000, ſince granted by your Majeſty, the ſubſequent Motive mentioned in that Vote, viz.

viz. for the Encouragement of ſound Revolution-Principles, cannot, in good Reaſon or Grammar, be referred to the late Revolution; ſince Adherence to the late Revolution was a diſtinct Motive of itſelf. And it is the known Nature of Principles, to be as well the Rule and Guide of future, as of paſt, Actions.

It never entered into our Hearts to miſrepreſent the Commons to your Majeſty, for their own Actions: they muſt be judged by GOD, and by your Majeſty; but for ourſelves, we do moſt ſolemnly aſſure your Majeſty, that we are heartily thankful to Almighty GOD, for the late happy Revolution: And acknowledge the Neceſſity and Juſtice of it; that we will, at the utmoſt Hazard and Expence of our Lives and Fortunes, defend, ſupport and maintain your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Government, your juſt Prerogative in the Choice of your Miniſters, the Church of Ireland, as by Law eſtabliſhed, and the Succeſſion of the Crown in the illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover, againſt the Pretender, and all who deſign Revolutions, either in Church or State, againſt all your Majeſty's Enemies abroad, and againſt all Papiſts, Jacobites and Republicans at home.

agreed to. To which the Houſe agrees.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Earl of Inchiquin and the Earl of Granard, do immediately withdraw and attend his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, and know his Pleaſure, when and where this Houſe, with their Speaker, ſhall attend him with the Addreſs of this Houſe to her Majeſty.

The Earl of Inchiquin and the Earl of Granard return and report, that they attended his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, to know his Pleaſure, when and where this Houſe, with their Speaker, ſhould attend his Grace with the ſaid Addreſs, who has appointed to receive the ſame in the Robe-Room, before he comes into the Houſe.

Libels cenſured, and burnt. Reſolved, on the Queſtion, that the two Pamphlets, called the Obſervator, one from Saturday, Auguſt the 18th to Wedneſday, Aug. the 22d 1711; the other, from Wedneſday, Aug. the 22d to Saturday, Auguſt the 25th 1711, are falſe and ſcandalous Libels, highly reflecting on the Honour and Juſtice of this Houſe.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Sheriffs of the City of Dublin, do cauſe the ſaid Pamphlets to be burnt by the Hands of the common Hangman, To-morrow, at one of the clock, before the Tholſel.

The Lord Viſc. Mountjoy reports from the Committee, appointed to draw an Addreſs to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, in behalf of the Clerks, Officers and Servants attending this Houſe, Charles Baldwin, Eſq; and John Carpenter, Gent. Committee-Clerk; that they met, and prepared an Addreſs, which was read, in hæc verba:

May it pleaſe your Grace,

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, humbly repreſent, that the Fees allowed the Clerks, Officers and Servants attending the Houſe of Lords, are very ſmall, and no way proportionable to their Labour and Expence: That they have been diligent in their Service, and deſerve a Conſideration for it. Addreſs to Ld Lieutenant

That ſeveral Addreſſes have been made to this Effect by the Lords, in every Parliament, held ſince the Revolution. That Reward has been promiſed upon all ſuch Addreſſes; but the ſaid Clerks, Officers and Servants, have received far ſhort of what was ſo applied for in their behalf: We therefore humbly and earneſtly apply ourſelves to your Grace in their behalf, that £750 may be given out of ſuch Funds as your Grace ſhall think fit, to make good the Deduction made out of the Sums, ſo applied for, viz.

| To the Clerk — — — — | £250 |
| To the Clerk-Aſſiſtant — —— | 100 |
| To the Reading-Clerk — — — | 150 |
| To the Journal-Clerk — — — | 50 |
| To the Serjeant at Arms — —— | 50 |
| To the Yeoman-Uſher — — — | 50 |
| To the Door-keepers — — — | 100 |
| | £750 |

We alſo humbly apply ourſelves to your Grace, in favour of Charles Baldwin, Eſq; and lay his Caſe before your Grace.

That on the 1ſt of Auguſt, 1707, we applied to the then Lord Lieutenant of this Kingdom, in behalf of the ſaid Charles Baldwin, to recommend him to her Majeſty, for the Sum of £226: 10*s.* which we were humbly of Opinion he very well deſerved, as a Reward for his Service, in copying and briefing the Tranſmiſſes of Bills, under the Great Seal of England, being very voluminous, and the copying and briefing thereof very troubleſome, and chargeable; beſides his conſtant Attendance on the Houſe of Lords, to compare the ingroſſed Bills with the ſaid Tranſmiſſes.

And by an Addreſs of the 17th of May, 1709, we humbly applied to her Majeſty, in favour of the ſaid Charles Baldwin, for a further Sum of £226, as a Reward for the like Service for that preſent, and the precedent Seſſion of Parliament, who hath not hitherto received any Benefit thereby.

And we are humbly of Opinion, that the ſaid Charles Baldwin very well deſerves the further Sum of £226 for the like Service, for this and the laſt Seſſion.

And therefore do humbly recommend the ſaid Charles Baldwin to your Grace, as one, who, for his Services, very well deſerves your Grace's Favour, in granting to him the aforeſaid three ſeveral Sums, amounting to £678: 10*s.* which we humbly pray may be paid him out of ſuch Funds, and in ſuch Manner, as to your Grace ſhall ſeem meet.

We alſo humbly apply ourſelves to your Grace, in favour of John Carpenter, Gent. Committee-Clerk attending the Lords' Houſe, that he hath, for theſe ſix Seſſions laſt paſt, with with great Diligence and Application, attended the Committees of the Lords' Houſe.

That he hath not received any Gratuity or Reward for the ſaid Service, for theſe ſix Seſſions paſt, and that there are little or no Fees due to him, and his Labour and Expence very great.

That, upon mature Conſideration of his Service, we are humbly of Opinion, that he very well deſerves the Sum of £600 Sterl. and we humbly apply ourſelves in his behalf, that the Sum of £600 Sterl. may be paid him out of ſuch Fund as your Grace ſhall think fit, for his Labour and Pains.

agreed to. To which the Houſe agrees.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Lord Chancellor, and ſuch of the Lords of this Houſe, as are of her Majeſty's moſt Hon. Privy-Council, do attend his Grace the Lord Lieutenant with the ſaid Addreſs.

Report on Langton's Caſe. The Lord Viſc. Charlemont reports from the Committee, appointed to take into Conſideration the Examinations of Dominick Langton, Clerk, againſt Lewis Meares and other Gentlemen of the Co. Weſtmeath, and the Proceedings thereon; that they met, and came to ſeveral Reſolutions.

Ordered, on a Debate (Whether the ſaid Report ſhould be now made?) that the Examinations and Proceedings thereon ſhall be laid before his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, to do therein as he ſhall think fit.

The Lord Chancellor reports, that this Houſe, with their Speaker, attended his Grace the Lord Lieutenant with the Addreſs to her Majeſty, who promiſed to lay the ſame before her Majeſty.

His Grace the Lord Lieutenant made an excellent Speech, in hæc verba:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

THE ſeveral publick and private Bills, which you yourſelves have agreed to, having all received the royal Aſſent, it is now become neceſſary to give a Concluſion to this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, that you may be at Liberty to attend your own private Affairs, and by a due Execution of the Laws, reap thoſe Advantages which her Majeſty, in her great Wiſdom and Goodneſs, intended for you.

And as we and the Privy-Council have, according to the Conſtitution, tranſmitted ſuch Bills as we judged for the publick Service; and her Majeſty, by Advice of her Council, in Great Britain, has moſt graciouſly concurred therein: So we have not the leaſt Doubt, but that you have very well conſidered of thoſe Bills, to which you have not thought fit to aſſent; and that, if by that Means, any thing is wanting for your Benefit, it muſt be remembered, that in one of them, her Majeſty condeſcended to part with ſome of her Revenue, for the Advantage and Good of her Subjects.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I RETURN you Thanks, in her Majeſty's Name, for the Supply you have given her at this Time, whereby you have enabled her to ſupport her Eſtabliſhment with Honour, and to perform ſuch other Things, as ſhe has judged proper, for the publick Service: It ſhall be my Care to repreſent to her Majeſty, the Chearfulneſs and Unanimity with which it was granted, and the Zeal and Affection of her Commons of Ireland to her Majeſty's royal Perſon and Government.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

THE tender Regard which her Majeſty, from the Beginning of her Reign, has ſhewn for the Welfare and Proſperity of this Kingdom, lays us under the higheſt Obligations of Duty and Loyalty; and her Preſervation of all your Rights, Liberties and Properties, will oblige you, in a moſt ſenſible Manner, in your Stations and Countries, as well in Gratitude as Prudence, to maintain and ſupport the Dignity of the Crown, and royal Prerogative.

As it is my Duty to the Queen, ſo it is my earneſt Deſire, and ſhall be my conſtant Care, that the Adminiſtration of the Government be moſt eaſy, and the Execution of Juſtice moſt equal and impartial, to all her Majeſty's Subjects of this Kingdom.

I conclude with recommending to you what is abſolutely neceſſary to your Happineſs: A good Agreement among yourſelves; that you may enjoy your Share of the happy Influences of her Majeſty's Government, and not be deprived of any of thoſe great Bleſſings, which have been ſo plentifully beſtowed on all her good Subjects, during the whole Courſe of her Reign.

The Lord Chancellor, kneeling, confers with his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, and then, ſtanding on the right hand of the Chair of State, acquaints both Houſes as followeth:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

IT is his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure, that this Parliament be prorogued to Tueſday the 2d Day of September next; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Tueſday the 2d Day of September next.

Parliament prorogued.

☞ The Parliament was, by Proclamation, dated the 29th Day of Auguſt, 1712, further prorogued to Thurſday the 19th Day of February following.

☞ The Parliament was, by Proclamation, dated the 7th Day of February, 1712, further prorogued to Thurſday the 21ſt Day of May following.

☞ The Parliament was, by Proclamation, dated the 6th Day of May, 1713, (which ſtood prorogued to Thurſday the 21ſt*)*

DISSOLVED.

By the Lords Juſtices and Council of Ireland.

A PROCLAMATION.

CON. PHIPPS, Canc$^{r}$ and JO. TUAM.

WHEREAS her Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of her Council of both Kingdoms, for certain weighty and urgent Occaſions, concerning her Majeſty, and this State, and the Defence of this Realm of Ireland, and the Church of the ſame, hath ordained, that a Parliament be held in this Kingdom; and there to have Conference with the Prelates, Peers and other great Men of her ſaid Kingdom, concerning the ſame: THESE are therefore to publiſh and make known, by this our Proclamation, her Majeſty's Pleaſure in that behalf; and that the ſaid Parliament is to be held at Dublin on Friday the 20$^{th}$ Day of November next. Whereof all Perſons concerned are to take Notice.

Given at the Council-Chamber, in her Majeſty's Caſtle of Dublin, the 10$^{th}$ Day of October, 1713.

Ld Lieutenant preſent.

His Grace the Duke of Shrewſbury, Lord Lieutenant General and General-Governor of Ireland, entered the Houſe, with the uſual Ceremonies of Grandeur; the Earl of Kildare carrying the Cap of Maintenance; the Earl of Roſcomon, the Sword of State; the Hon. John Chicheſter, Eſq; ſecond Son to the Right Hon. Arthur, late Earl of Donegal, the Hon. John Caulfeild, Eſq; fourth Son to the Right Hon. William Lord Viſc. Charlemont; the Hon. George Hamilton, Eſq; third Son to the Right Hon. James Lord Viſc. Strabane, bearing the Train; and then his Grace, making his Congé to the Cloth of State, ſeated himſelf in the Chair under the Canopy.

The Lord Chancellor declares, It is his Grace's Pleaſure, the Lords ſhould be covered.

The Lord Chancellor, as Speaker, kneeling, confers with his Grace; and then, ſtanding on the Commons sent for: the right hand of the Chair of State, ordered the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod to acquaint the Commons, that it is his Grace's Pleaſure, they ſhould attend him in this Houſe immediately, with their Speaker.

The Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod returns, and acquaints this Houſe, that the Commons are at the Door.

preſent their Speaker, The Commons called in, and appear at the Bar.

Allan Brodrick, Eſq; makes a Speech, mentioning his being choſen by the Commons of Ireland as their Speaker, and declares his own Unfitneſs for that Truſt and Place.

The Lord Chancellor, kneeling, confers with his Grace; and then, ſtanding on the right hand of the Chair of State, acquaints the Houſe of Commons, as followeth: who is approved of. I AM commanded by my Lord Lieutenant to acquaint you, that his Grace, not doubting your Abilities, and expecting you will endeavour to render this Seſſion quiet and eaſy, and to give ſuch Diſpatch to the publick Buſineſs, as Matters of ſo great Conſequence and her Majeſty's Affairs neceſſarily require, does approve the Choice the Commons have made of you to be their Speaker.

Then the Speaker moves, in the Name of the Commons of Ireland, and humbly demands the Commons may have Freedom of Speech in their Debates, may be protected in their Perſons, Eſtates and Attendants, and may have free Acceſs to his Grace's moſt noble Perſon on all Occaſions.

The Lord Chancellor, as Speaker, kneeling, confers with his Grace; and then, ſtanding on the right hand of the Chair of State, acquaints the Speaker of the Houſe of Commons, as followeth:

Mr. Speaker,

HIS Grace conceives the Petitions you have made, on behalf of the Commons, to be reaſonable, and readily grants them; with an Aſſurance, that his Grace will always endeavour to preſerve, and continue, to the Commons of Ireland, all their juſt and legal Privileges.

The Commons withdraw.

His Grace retires from the Houſe, attended as he entered.

Quo Warranto Bill. Ordered, on Motion, that a Bill, intitled, An Act for rendering the Proceedings on Writs of Mandamus, and Informations in the Nature of a Quo Warranto, more ſpeedy and effectual; and for the more eaſy trying and determining the Rights of Offices and Franchiſes in Corporations and Boroughs, be read the firſt time.

Read accordingly.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Lord Chancellor do report to this Houſe his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

The Lord Chancellor reports the ſame to this Houſe, accordingly.

Ordered, on Motion, that his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Speech be entered in the Journal of this Houſe.

His Grace's Speech is entered accordingly, in hæc verba:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech. HER Majeſty having, by GOD's Bleſſing upon her pious Endeavours, procured a ſafe and honourable Peace, has nothing now to wiſh, but that her Subjects may enjoy the Benefits and Advantages of it: For this Purpoſe, ſhe has called you together, that you may conſider of, and provide, ſuch Laws as you ſhall judge neceſſary for the further Security of the Church of Ireland as by Law eſtabliſhed; and the Advancement of the Trade, and Welfare of this Kingdom.

Her Majeſty has nothing more at Heart, than the Preſervation of the Rights and Liberties of her People, and the ſettling them upon a laſting Foundation, by ſecuring the Proteſtant Succeſſion in the Houſe of Hanover.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

BY the ſeveral Eſtimates and Accounts, which I have directed to be laid before you by the proper Officers, you will ſee what Supplies are wanting to ſupport the Civil Eſtabliſhment, and maintain a ſufficient Number of Forces for your Security, againſt any Danger that may be apprehended from the great Number of Papiſts in this Country.

Her Majeſty does not doubt of your contributing chearfully ſuch Sums, as may be effectual to anſwer theſe Purpoſes; and has commanded me to aſſure you, that there ſhall be no Miſapplication of them, and that what you grant, ſhall, as much as poſſible, be ſpent among yourſelves.

To this End, She has ordered the two Regiments of Foot, which, being upon the Iriſh Eſtabliſhment, are yet in Great Britain, to be ſent over as ſoon as their Accounts can be made up, and their Engliſh Arrears ſatisfied.

The Money, given laſt Seſſions to rebuild the publick Offices deſtroyed by Fire, has been applied to that Service, as far as could be done in ſo little time; and I will take Care, that thoſe Buildings ſhall be finiſhed with all convenient Speed.

As the ſeveral additional Duties will expire at Chriſtmas, her Majeſty, to prevent their lapſing, has ſent over a Bill to be offered to your Conſideration, to continue them for three Months; whereby you will ſtill have an Opportunity further to provide for the Credit of her Government, and your own Safety, by ſuch Ways and Means as you ſhall think proper.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I AM very ſenſible of the great Honour her Majeſty has done me, in placing me in ſo eminent eminent a Station, and of my own Inability ſufficiently to diſcharge ſo great a Truſt: But this I will beg Leave to aſſure you, that no one ever endeavoured it with more Zeal for her Majeſty's Service and your Intereſt, (which I take to be inſeparable) than I am firmly reſolved to do.

I muſt therefore earneſtly recommend it to you, that as the Proteſtants in this Kingdom are united in one common Intereſt, you may all agree in the ſame Means of promoting it; and ſhew, by a dutiful Comportment towards her Majeſty, and by laying aſide all Warmth and Reſentment, that every one of you is equally concerned for her Majeſty's Service and the Good of this Kingdom.

This will appear by the Unanimity of your Proceedings; and you may depend upon it, that I ſhall make a faithful Repreſentation of them to her Majeſty, being aſſured, that ſhe will look upon your Temper and good Agreement as the greateſt Inſtance you can give of your Loyalty and Affection to her Perſon and Government.

Speech to be printed.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Clerk of this Houſe do forthwith cauſe his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Speech to be printed.

Order for Addreſs of Thanks to the Queen.

Reſolved, that the Thanks of this Houſe be returned to her Majeſty, for ſending his Grace the Duke of Shrewſbury, to be our Lord Lieutenant; and for procuring us a ſafe and honourable Peace; and for calling a Parliament, whereby we have an Opportunity of offering to her Majeſty, ſuch Laws as may improve the Peace, obtained by her Majeſty, to the Advantage of this Kingdom, and alſo of providing ſuch other Laws as may give Encouragement and farther Security to the Church, as by Law eſtabliſhed; and farther to give her Majeſty Aſſurance that we ſhall endeavour to act with Unanimity for her Service; and to thank her Majeſty for the Affection ſhe hath, upon all Occaſions, ſhewn for the Houſe of Hanover, and for the many other Bleſſings we enjoy under her Majeſty's juſt and wiſe Government.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Lords undernamed, or any five of them, be a Committee to draw up an Addreſs of Thanks to her Majeſty, purſuant to the above Reſolution; and that this Committee do meet in the Committee-Chamber, immediately after the Houſe riſes; and that this Committee have Power to adjourn from time to time as they ſhall think convenient; and have Power to ſend for Perſons, Papers and Records.

The Lord Archbiſhop of Dublin, ſtanding at the Clerk's Table, reports from the Committee, appointed to draw up an Addreſs of Thanks from this Houſe to her Majeſty; that they met, and had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which was read at the Clerk's Table, in hæc verba:

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

Addreſs to the Queen.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, readily embrace this firſt Opportunity of returning our moſt ſincere and humble Thanks for the ſafe and honourable Peace, which, by your Majeſty's great Wiſdom and Goodneſs, has been procured for your People, notwithſtanding the Artifices uſed to prevent it, by thoſe who delight in War.

Your Majeſty, by calling this Parliament, gives us Leave of offering to your Majeſty, with our Duty, ſuch Laws as will further ſecure our eſtabliſhed Church, with our civil Rights, and enable us to reap the full Benefits and Advantages of Peace.

Your Majeſty's eminent Piety has always influenced your royal Heart to encourage, with your peculiar Favour, the Church as by Law eſtabliſhed. Happy would this Kingdom be, if your Majeſty's illuſtrious Example could remove the Prejudices which too, too many, of your Subjects here, labour under, by the reſtleſs Endeavours of their Popiſh Prieſts and diſſenting Preachers.

Your Majeſty has juſtly deſerved that glorious Title of "Defender of the Faith," not only by ſupporting our moſt Holy Religion at home, but by protecting the Proteſtant Intereſt abroad.

Your Majeſty, by the Affection ſhewed, on all Occaſions, to the illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover, has given us an undeniable Proof how much your Majeſty has at Heart the publick Good of your People, and the Liberty of Europe.

We beg Leave to acquaint your Majeſty, that the ſending the Duke of Shrewſbury to be our Lord Lieutenant, is a great Inſtance of your Majeſty's Favour to us: And we promiſe ourſelves, from his Grace's known Abilities, his Experience in publick Affairs and his unſhaken Loyalty to your Majeſty, that he will faithfully obey your Majeſty's Commands, and make effectual your Majeſty's gracious Intentions towards this Kingdom.

We earneſtly intreat your Majeſty to believe, that we will, to the utmoſt of our Power, concur with your Majeſty's chief Governor in all Things, for your Majeſty's Service, and the common Good, and ſtudy to be unanimous in all our Proceedings, as we are in our hearty and conſtant Prayers, for your Majeſty's long and proſperous Reign over us.

To which the Houſe agrees. agreed to.

The Lord Viſc. Mountjoy, ſtanding at the Clerk's Table, reports from the Committee, appointed to draw up an Addreſs of Thanks to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant; that they met, and had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which was read at the Clerk's Table, in hæc verba:

May it pleaſe your Grace,

Addreſs to L^d Lieutenant.

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, do, with great Satisfaction, attend your Grace to return our moſt humble Thanks for your excellent Speech from the Throne, and to congratulate you upon the conſiderable Part your Grace has had in the late ſafe and honourable Peace, which we are perſuaded will derive many Benefits and Advantages to this Kingdom, under her Majeſty's happy Government, and your Grace's wiſe Adminiſtration.

We are fully convinced, that the Preſervation of our Church, by Law eſtabliſhed, our Rights and Liberties, doth, under God, entirely depend on the ſecuring the Proteſtant Succeſſion in the Houſe of Hanover.

As the beſt Means of preſerving theſe Bleſſings to us, we ſhall uſe our utmoſt Endeavours to diſappoint the treacherous Deſigns of the Papiſts on the one hand, and the bold Incroachments of the Diſſenters on the other, ſome of whoſe leading Teachers, we beg leave to to acquaint your Grace, refuſe to take the Oath of Abjuration; and yet, in Defiance of the Law, preach in publick before numerous Aſſemblies.

We are perfectly ſatisfied, that your Grace has nothing more at Heart, than the Good of this Kingdom; and that no Perſon is more capable of promoting it than your Grace, from the Knowledge we have of your great Abilities, and the Integrity you have always ſhewn in the many eminent Truſts your Grace has diſcharged under the Crown, in the Service of your Country.

Agreed to.

To which the Houſe agrees.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Lord Chancellor do wait on his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, to know his Grace's Pleaſure, when and where this Houſe, with their Speaker, may attend him with an Addreſs of Thanks to her Majeſty, and an Addreſs of Thanks to his Grace.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Breach of Privilege, complained of by the Right Hon. Michael Lord Baron Burke of Dunkellin, againſt Miles Burke of Cahirgall, Servant to Colonel Thomas Burke of Portumna, be and is hereby referred to the Conſideration of the Committee of Privileges.

The Books are brought in accordingly.

Ordered, on Motion, that the ſaid Books do lie on the Table for the Peruſal of the Lords.

J. Cooper examined.

Ordered, on Motion, that Mr. Joſ. Cooper be called in, and ſworn and examined, as to ſome reflecting Words ſpoke againſt the Lord Chancellor.

Mr. Joſeph Cooper comes in accordingly, and is ſworn, and on his Oath declares, that Mr. Richard Nuttall ſpoke theſe Words in or about Auguſt laſt, "That the Lord Chancellor was "a Canary-Bird, a Villain, and had ſet this "Kingdom together by the Ears, and ought "to be hanged;" in the Preſence of Mrs. Nuttall, his Brother's Wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Stowell and Joſeph Cooper.

The Occaſion of theſe Words was thus:

The ſaid Nuttall aſked ſaid Cooper's Son, of three Years old, Whether he was a Whig or a Tory? The Child not anſwering as direct as he had a Mind, he ſpoke the Words, without any other Occaſion given.

He aſked the Child, Whether he loved Dr. Sacheverall, and my Lord Chancellor? Who anſwered, He did, and was a good Churchman and true Proteſtant; for which Mr. Nuttall called him, a prevaricating Raſcal.

JOSEPH COOPER.

On Wedneſday Night laſt, being in Company with Mr. Joſeph Eſpin and Mr. Tho. Jenkins, in Dick's Coffee-Houſe, Skinner-Row, Dublin, diſcourſing of News of the Town, Mr. Eſpin ſaid, "There was an Addreſs or Repreſenta-"tion coming from the Convocation, in "which there were Thanks returned in fa-"vour of my Lord Chancellor, for his Lord-"ſhip's good Services to this Kingdom, and "the Church;" which gave Occaſion to my ſaying, "There was a Man who had de-"clared in my hearing, that he was no Friend "to either." And ſo repeated the Words Mr. Nuttall had ſaid. Upon which I was blamed by the Company for concealing them ſo long: And preſently, one Mr. Davis took me aſide, and made me reduce the Words to Writing, ſaying, they muſt be diſcovered. I told him, I owed Mr. Nuttall Money, and had no mind to diſoblige him. Upon which Mr. Davis aſſured me, he would do me as little Hurt in that reſpect, as he could.

Ordered, on Motion, that a Committee be appointed to withdraw immediately into the Committee-Chamber, to draw an Addreſs to her Majeſty, purſuant to the foregoing Reſolutions; and a Committee was appointed accordingly.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, having taken into our ſerious Conſideration the Calumnies and Reproaches which have been caſt upon Sir Conſtantine Phipps, your Majeſty's Lord High Chancellor of Ireland, and Speaker of this Houſe, and having this Day had under Examination, ſeveral groundleſs Aſperſions thrown upon him by one Richard Nuttall, whereby he was traduced, even whilſt he was one of your Majeſty's Lords Juſtices, as having been a Promoter of all the Diſſenſions which have lately happened in this Kingdom, do think ourſelves obliged, in Juſtice to that excellent Miniſter, in all Humility, to repreſent unto your Majeſty, that we do not find, but that in the ſeveral eminent Stations, in which he hath ſerved your Majeſty, ſince his coming into this Country, he hath acquitted himſelf with Honour and Integrity, as becomes a diſcerning and vigilant Governor; an equal Adminiſtrator of Juſtice; a true Lover of the Church, as by Law eſtabliſhed; and a zealous Aſſertor of the Prerogative, in Oppoſition to a factious Spirit, which hath too much prevailed in this Nation.

We therefore moſt humbly beſeech your Majeſty, that you will not ſuffer any evil Report againſt him (if any ſuch ſhould reach your Majeſty) to make an Impreſſion on your royal Heart, to his Diſfavour.

To which the Houſe agrees.

Proteſt. WE diſſent from, and proteſt againſt, the above Orders and Addreſs.

Ordered, on Motion, that the ſaid Complaint, in Writing, be read.

Read accordingly, in hæc verba:

May it pleaſe your Graces and Lordſhips,

THE Lower Houſe of Convocation, being informed by ſeveral Members of their Houſe, that immediately after your Graces and Lordſhips, with the whole Clergy, had preſented their Addreſſes to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, on Monday the 21ſt of December inſt. and when your Graces and Lordſhips, with the whole Clergy, were ſtill in the Preſence-Chamber; the Right Hon. Robert Moleſworth, Eſq; did publickly, and in the Hearing of a great many Perſons, ſpeak the following Words, viz. "They that have turned the "World upſide down, are come hither alſo."

We humbly repreſent to your Graces and Lordſhips, that we look upon theſe Words, as uttered by him, to be an intolerable Profanation of the Holy Scriptures, and that his ſpeaking ſpeaking them, at that Time, and in that Place, was with Deſign to caſt an Odium and Aſperſion on your Graces and Lordſhips, with the whole Clergy; and to repreſent us, as a turbulent and ſeditious Body: And we think ourſelves, in Duty, obliged to lay this Matter before your Graces and Lordſhips, not only for the Reaſons before mentioned, but becauſe we conceive it to be a high Affront to her Majeſty, and great Diſreſpect to her Repreſentative, our Lord Lieutenant.

And we humbly pray your Graces and Lordſhips, to take ſuch Methods of doing Right to yourſelves, and to us, in vindicating the whole Clergy from this wicked Calumny, as to your Graces' and Lordſhips' Wiſdoms, ſhall ſeem moſt proper.

The Houſe re-aſſumes.

The Lord Viſc. Valentia reports from the Committee, appointed to prepare what is fit to offer to the Commons, at the Conference-Chamber, relating to the Complaint, in Writing, made by the Lower Houſe of Convocation, of ſome Words ſpoken by the Right Hon. Robert Moleſworth, Eſq; that they met, and prepared what they thought proper to offer to the Commons, at the Conference-Chamber, which was read, in hæc verba:

Paper for Conference.

THE Lords, who are always deſirous of preſerving a good Underſtanding between the two Houſes of Parliament, have deſired this Conference with the Commons, before they would proceed to do Juſtice to that venerable Aſſembly, the Convocation, ſince they obſerve the High Crime ſo juſtly complained of by them, was committed againſt the Convocation, by the Right Hon. Robert Moleſworth, a Member of the Commons' Houſe.

The Lords cannot entertain the leaſt Suſpicion, but that the Commons, upon full Proof of the Words charged upon Robert Moleſworth, Eſq; which they may have from ſeveral Members of the Lower Houſe of Convocation, of indiſputable Characters, will do Juſtice upon their Member to that venerable Body, the Convocation.

That they will highly reſent the great Diſreſpect to our excellent Lord Lieutenant; the Words being ſpoken before his Grace was withdrawn out of the Room. The Affront to Majeſty; the Words being ſpoken in the Preſence-Chamber, at the Caſtle: And will make him ſenſible of the horrid Crime laid to his Charge, of impiouſly profaning the Holy Scriptures, thoſe lively Oracles of GOD.

The Lords entertain this Aſſurance of the Readineſs of the Commons to do Juſtice in all theſe Particulars, from the Zeal they have obſerved by the Commoners, in former Parliaments, expreſſed againſt Toland and Aſgil.

We leave with the Commons, a Copy of the Paper tranſmitted to the Lords by the Convocation: And though their Privileges are equally dear to the Lords, as their own; yet that the Commons may not want Proof of a Crime of this deep Dye, that ſo great an Offender may be puniſhed, the Lords give Leave to the Members of the Lower Houſe of Convocation, to give Evidence before the Commons, in relation to this particular Fact.

The Queſtion being put, Whether the ſaid Paper ſhould be re-committed?

It paſſed in the Negative.

Ordered, on Motion that the ſaid Paper be read, Paragraph by Paragraph.

Read accordingly.

Reſolved, on the Queſtion, that the ſaid Paper, now read, be the Paper to be delivered to the Commons, at the Conference.

Meſſage to Commons for Conference.

Ordered, on Motion, that Dr. Uſher and Dr. White, two of the Maſters in Chancery, do repair to the Houſe of Commons, and acquaint them, that this Houſe deſire a Conference with the Commons, in the Conference-Chamber immediately.

Ordered, on Motion, that any Member of the Lower Houſe of Convocation, have Leave to attend the Houſe of Commons, to give Information touching Words complained of to be ſpoken by the Right Hon. Rob. Moleſworth, Eſq; a Member of the Houſe of Commons, at the Caſtle of Dublin, the 21ſt of this inſt. December.

Ordered, on Motion, that the ſame Lords, who were appointed a Committee to prepare a Paper to deliver to the Commons at the Conference, be Managers for this Houſe, at the Conference.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Lord Viſc. Charlemont and the Lord Viſc. Mount Caſhell be added to the Managers.

Dr. Uſher and Dr. White return, and report, that they acquainted the Commons, that this moſt Hon. Houſe deſired a Conference with them in the Conference-Chamber, immediately.

To which they ſaid, They would ſend an Anſwer, by Meſſengers of their own.

The Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod acquaints, that ſome Members of the Houſe of Commons are at the Door.

Ordered, that they be called in.

They come in accordingly, and ſtand at the lower end of the Houſe.

The

The Commons approach the Bar, with three Courteſies, and deliver their Meſſage to the Lord Chancellor: which done, the Commons withdraw, and the Lords re-aſſume their Places.

Commons agree to Conference.

The Lord Chancellor, as Speaker reports, that the Commons, by St. John Brodrick, Eſq; attended by ſeveral of the Commons, had ſent up a Meſſage, acquainting, that the Commons agree to a Conference, as deſired.

The Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod acquaints, that the Commons are in the Conference-Chamber.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Managers withdraw to the Conference.

The Managers withdraw accordingly.

Report from Conference.

The Lord Viſc. Valentia reports from the Managers, that they had delivered to the Managers for the Commons, the Paper, ordered to be delivered them, together with the Copy of the Complaint, in Writing, from the Lower Houſe of Convocation.

His Grace Charles Duke of Shrewſbury, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland, entered the Houſe, with the uſual Ceremonies of Grandeur; the Earl of Kildare carrying the Cap of Maintenance; the Earl of Roſcomon, the Sword of State; the Hon. James O'Brien, Eſq; Son to the Right Hon. William Earl of Inchiquin; the Hon. John Skeffington, Eſq; Son to the Lord Viſc. Maſſareene, and the Hon. John Bellew, Eſq; eldeſt Son to the Right Hon. Richard Lord Bellew, bearing the Train; and then his Grace, making his Congé to the Cloth of State, ſeated himſelf in the Chair under the Canopy.

The Lord Chancellor declares, It is his Grace's Pleaſure, the Lords ſhould be covered.

Commons ſent for:

The Lord Chancellor, as Speaker, kneeling, confers with his Grace; and then, ſtanding on the right hand of the Chair of State, ordered the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod to acquaint the Commons, that it is his Grace's Pleaſure, they ſhould attend him in this Houſe immediately.

The Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod returns, and acquaints this Houſe, that the Commons are at the Door.

Ordered, that they be called in.

they enter with a Money-Bill;

The Commons enter the Houſe, with their Speaker before them, with a Bill in his Hand, intitled, An Act for granting to her Majeſty an additional Duty on Beer, Ale, ſtrong Waters, Tobacco, and other Goods and Merchandizes, being conducted to the Bar by the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod, with the uſual Ceremonies.

The Clerk of this Houſe receives the ſaid Bill from the Speaker of the Houſe of Commons, and lays it on the Clerk's Table.

to which Royal Aſſent is given.

The Lord Chancellor calls to the Clerk of the Crown to do his Duty, who, ſtanding on the left Side of the Clerk's Table, reads the Title of the Bill following; and when he read the Title of the Bill, the Lord Chancellor, kneeling to his Grace, and then ſtanding up, makes a Sign to the Clerk of the Parliaments, who, ſtanding on the Side oppoſite to the Clerk of the Crown, pronounces the royal Aſſent to the ſaid Bill.

An Act for granting to her Majeſty, an additional Duty on Beer, Ale, ſtrong Waters, Tobacco, and other Goods and Merchandizes.

L^d Lieutenant retires.

His Grace retires, attended as he entered.

M. Tucker examined.

Ordered, on the Queſtion, that Martin Tucker, Eſq; be called in, and ſworn at the Bar of this Houſe, true Anſwer to make to all ſuch Queſtions as ſhall be demanded of him by the Lords of this Houſe.

Martin Tucker, Eſq; comes in accordingly, and is ſworn and examined, and on his Oath declares, That Lieut. Gen. Ingoldſby deſired him, the Examinant, to go to Alderman Gore's about a Week before the Common-Council of Dublin was ſworn, and to deſire him to frame a Common-Council, without letting the Aldermen have any Hand in the framing it; and that he would ſecure him £500, having a Power ſo to do.

Says, that he then anſwered the ſaid Lieut. Gen. Ingoldſby, That he could not go to the ſaid Mr. Gore, unleſs he could ſay ſomething to the Purpoſe. To which he ſaid, He would engage, that £500 ſhould be paid him; and then pawned his Honour for the Payment.

Says, He does not know whether General Ingoldſby was then in the Government, or not, but believes he may.

Says, That the Lord Chancellor never ſpoke to him on that Subject, directly or indirectly, nor did he ever offer any Money.

Says, That when he went to Alderman Gore, and produced a Liſt of Perſons' Names to him: The ſaid Mr. Gore then ſaid, He had juſt ſuch another. Denies, that he ever read the Liſt; but left the ſame with ſaid Alderman Gore. Says, It could be no Advantage to him, the Examinant: And ſays, That he was not to have any Gratuity or Reward for it.

Says, There is a Gratuity generally given from the City to the Lord Mayor; but does not know: But heard, that the City could hinder him from it. Depoſeth, That he believes, that the Lord Chancellor had no Hand in, or Knowledge of, the ſaid Offer of this Examinant to Mr. Gore. Says, He never had any Diſcourſe with the Lord Chancellor about the the Liſt; and that, neither directly or indirectly, in the whole Courſe of his Life, he had not any Diſcourſe with the Lord Chancellor about the framing the ſaid Common-Council, or the giving £500, or the ſaid Liſt, or any thing relating thereto. Says, He does not now remember, how he came by the ſaid Liſt, or whoſe Hand-writing it was; but ſays, That when he ſhewed it to the ſaid Mr. Gore, he then ſaid he had a Copy of the ſame.

Says, That Gen. Ingoldſby deſired him, the Examinant, to ſpeak to the ſaid Alderman Gore to do what the Law required of him; and not to permit the reſt of the Aldermen to have any Hand in the Nomination of a Common-Council.

Denies, That he ever ſent for ſaid Mr. Gore to Mr. Sampſon's to Supper, or that he ever ſaw Gen. Ingoldſby and Mr. Gore in Company, at Mr. Sampſon's.

Does not know who made, or framed the Liſt: Says, He ſaw one Copy of it in the Hands of one Kirkwood, and another in the Hands of one Thorne; but never ſaw one with the Lord Chancellor.

Denies, that he ever offered the ſaid Alderman any thing more than the ſaid £500; but ſaid to him, That he might have a good Opportunity of ſelling his Timber and Boards to the Publick Buildings.

Denies, That ever the Lord Chancellor had any Hand, directly or indirectly, in that Matter, nor did he deſire the Examinant to ſpeak to the ſaid Alderman: And verily believes, that the ſaid Lord Chancellor never had any Hand in the offering the ſaid Money, or making the Liſt.

Says, that he told the ſaid Alderman, That he, ſelling Deal-Boards and Timber, it might recommend him to the Undertakers of the Publick Buildings, to Capt. Burgh, to the Caſtle, and the College. Says, that he had not any Directions to ſay that from either Lieut. Gen. Ingoldſby or the Lord Chancellor, but ſpoke it of himſelf.

That he, the Examinant, is a Builder; and that he recommended ſeveral Gentlemen to the ſaid Alderman, for their Cuſtom.

Says, He never offered the ſaid Alderman any Bill, but ſaid, If he would not take his Word, he would give him a Bill either on Cairnes or Burton, for it.

That the ſaid Examinant, being aſked by the Lords, What might be the Reaſon, why Lieut. Gen. Ingoldſby offered £500? He made Anſwer, That he believed it was, that he might return a Common-Council of honeſt, true Churchmen.

Ordered, on Motion, that all the Orders for this Day, which are undiſpoſed of, be and are hereby adjourned, until To-morrow Morning.

Ald. Gore's Examinations.

WHO, being duly ſworn on the Holy Evangeliſts, and examined, upon his Oath, ſaith: That in the Year 1711, when this Examinant was Lord Mayor of the City of Dublin, one Market-Day, in the Morning, he called at Martin Tucker, Eſq'rs. Houſe, in the ſaid City, who told this Deponent, That he heard the City intended the Deponent £300; and that there was £500 otherwiſe intended him, or Words to that Effect: And at the ſame time the ſaid Martin Tucker gave this Deponent a Liſt, conſiſting, as he believes, of the number of Sixty-four Perſons' Names, being the double Return of Numbers, or Common-Council-Men, for the Guild, of which, as this Deponent verily believes, thirty-two were marked in the Margin, which the ſaid Mr. Tucker deſired might be the Men choſen, or named, by this Deponent, as Common-Council-Men, or Words to that Effect. He further depoſeth, that thereupon he told the ſaid Mr. Tucker, That he had better Intelligence than this Deponent; for that this Deponent did not know, the City intended him any thing; and would gladly know the Gentleman that put the ſaid Mr. Tucker on offering the Deponent the ſaid £500. The ſaid Mr. Tucker anſwered, What need you care, ſo that you get the Money. Whereupon the Deponent replied, That he was above any thing of Bribery or Corruption, and that he ſcorned the Money, and deſired the ſaid Mr. Tucker to tell whomſoever put him upon it ſo, or Words to that Effect. This Deponent further depoſeth, That this is the Subſtance of the whole Diſcourſe that happened between him and Mr. Tucker at that time, to the beſt of his Remembrance. He further depoſeth, (being aſked in what Month, and on what Days of that Month, the Common-Council were choſen and ſworn) he does not particularly remember; but believes, it was in or about the Month of November, 1711: And being further aſked, How long it was before the Common-Council, or Numbers, were choſen, that the Offer of the £500 was made him by Mr. Tucker? He ſaith, as near as he can remember, it was about four or five Days before the Common-Council were choſen.

And being aſked, Whether it was a Week before? He ſaith, He thinks it was not. And being further aſked, Whether it is not uſual for the City, to make the Lord Mayor a Preſent yearly, of any Sum of Money, or Augmentation above his Salary? The Deponent ſaith, He does not remember any being given to any other Lord Mayor, but to this Deponent, and Sir Samuel Cooke, the preſent Lord Mayor.

And being aſked, What Preſent or Augmentation he and the ſaid Sir Samuel Cooke ſeverally received from the City? He ſaith, that he, the Deponent, received £200; and that Sir Sam. Cooke had the like ordered him by the City, which the Deponent verily believes he received. And being further aſked, Whether he recommended the Men, marked in the Liſt, that Mr. Tucker gave him to be choſen Common-Council-Men? The Deponent ſaith, He did not. And being further aſked, Whether any other Perſon or Perſons gave him a Liſt or Liſts of Perſons, to be choſen as Common-Council-Men? The Deponent ſaith, There were other Liſts given him, viz. one by his Grace the Lord Archbiſhop of Tuam, and one other by the Rev. Mr. John Echlin; and that no other Perſon, to his Remembrance, gave him any other Liſt. And being aſked, Whether his Grace the Lord Archbiſhop of Tuam, or Mr. John Echlin, when they gave him the ſaid Liſts, deſired him to chooſe Common-Council-Men, according to the ſaid Liſts? The Deponent ſaith, That, to the beſt of his Remembrance, they would be good, agreeable Men, or Words to that Effect. And being further aſked, Whether any Perſon or Perſons, belonging to the City, did promiſe the Deponent any Sum of Money, or a Leaſe, or any other Advantage, if he ſhould chooſe ſuch Common-Council-Men, as they ſhould recommend? The Deponent ſaith, He does not remember any Perſon or Perſons of the ſaid City did. And being further aſked, Whether he did not tell ſeveral of the Aldermen, That he intended to put in a Petition for an Augmentation, and deſired their Favour therein? The Deponent owns, He did; and that they, or ſome of them, promiſed him to favour ſuch Petition. And being further aſked, At what Time or Times he made this Requeſt to them, Whether before or after the Time of chooſing the Common-Council-Men? The Deponent believes he did, both before and after the Time of chooſing the Common-Council-Men. And being further aſked, What induced him to make ſuch Application? The Deponent ſaith, That being under the Difficulty of a late Election, being choſen on Michaelmas-Day, he was under the Neceſſity of making the neceſſary Proviſions, at a greater Diſadvantage than former Mayors had been; which, he thinks, gave him a juſt Pretenſion to expect a Gratuity from the City. And being further aſked, Who thoſe Aldermen were, whom he deſired to favour his Petition? The Deponent believes, he ſpoke to moſt of them all. And being further aſked, Whether the Promiſe made of favouring his Petition by the ſaid Aldermen, influenced him to return Common-Council-Men? The Deponent ſaith, Neither that nor any other Promiſes induced him to return any Common-Council-Men; but that he acted, in that Affair, as he thought he was obliged to do in Conſcience. And being further aſked, Whether any Perſon or Perſons of the City did tell him, that if he did not return ſuch Perſons as were agreeable to them, for Common-Council-Men, they would not favour him in his Pretenſion to his Gratuity, which he afterwards got? The Deponent ſaith, No Perſon or Perſons did that, as he remembers of. And being further aſked, Whether he has had any Leaſe, or other Grant, from the City of Dublin, ſince he entered into the Mayoralty of the ſaid City? The Deponent ſaith, He had not. And being further aſked, Whether the Duke of Ormond was in this Kingdom, when Mr. Tucker made him the Offer aforeſaid? The Deponent ſaith, He believes he was not. And being further aſked, Whether Mr. Tucker told this Deponent, that my Lord Chancellor employed him to offer the ſaid Sum of £500, or any other Sum? The Deponent ſaith, He did not. And being further aſked, Whether my Lord Chancellor, by himſelf, or any other Perſon whatſoever, did, directly or indirectly, offer any Sum of Money to this Deponent, to chooſe a Common-Council? This Deponent ſaith, He did not. And being further aſked, Whether my Lord Chancellor ſent this Deponent any Liſt or Liſts of Common-Council-Men to be choſen? The Deponent ſaith, He never did. And being further aſked, Whether the Deponent had any Converſation with the Lord Chancellor, or any Perſon or Perſons deputed by him, relating to that Matter? The Deponent abſolutely ſays, He had not. And being further aſked, Whether the Deponent did confer with any Aldermen, and whom, or with any other Perſon in Office in the City of Dublin, concerning the chooſing of Common-Council-Men, before the Day of chooſing them? This Deponent ſaith, He did with ſeveral of the Aldermen, whoſe Names he does not remember (and believes the Recorder was preſent) and thought himſelf obliged ſo to do: And the Deponent made it his Requeſt to the Aldermen, if any Diſſenters were returned, that they would not chooſe them. And being further aſked, Whether they had, at the ſaid Conference, agreed upon Men to be choſen Common-Council-Men? The Deponent ſaith, He believes they did. And being further aſked, Whether thoſe very Men, which they had then agreed upon to be choſen Common-Council-Men were afterwards choſen? He ſaith, He believes they were not all choſen; but that there were ſome Alterations made. And being further aſked, Whether he had any Encouragement to expect being made Treaſurer of the City, in caſe the then Treaſurer died? The Deponent ſaith, He had not. And being further aſked, Whether at the Time, when Mr. Tucker offered the Deponent the £500, he did not likewiſe tell him, That if he would chooſe Common-Council-Men according to the Liſt delivered by him to this Deponent, he did not likewiſe tell him, that it would be an Advantage to him, in ſelling his Timber and Boards to the Publick Buildings, if he choſe, purſuant to the ſaid Liſt? The Deponent ſaith, He does not remember any ſuch Diſcourſe. And being further aſked, Whether the £500, offered the Deponent by Mr. Tucker, was his, the ſaid Tucker's, proper Money, or from whence he did then apprehend it was to come? The Deponent believes, it was not the ſaid Mr. Tucker's proper Money, and could not tell, or gueſs, from whence it was to come. And being further aſked, Whether he has ſince had any Information from whence the ſaid £500 was to come? The Deponent ſaith, that he has heard the ſaid Mr. Tucker was examined before the Houſe of Commons, this preſent Seſſion of Parliament: And that he there confeſſed it was to come from Lieut. Gen. Ingoldſby. And being further aſked, Whether any other Perſon, beſides Mr. Tucker, offered him any Money upon the Choice of Common-Council-Men, and whom? The Deponent ſaith, that his Grace the Lord Archbiſhop of Tuam, in about a Day or two after the Duke of Ormond laſt left this Kingdom, in Return of a Viſit his Grace made the Deponent? The Deponent waited on his Grace, about a Day or two afterwards, to the beſt of Deponent's Remembrance; and his Grace then told the Deponent, he heard the City intended this Deponent £300; and that there was £500, otherwiſe deſigned for the Deponent. The Deponent told his Grace, That as to the £300 intended by the City, his Grace had better Intelligence than the Deponent, for that the Deponent knew nothing of it; and as for the £500, the Deponent ſcorned to take it, or Words to that Effect: Upon which his Grace replied, He believed, at the time it was propoſed to him, this Deponent would not accept of it: The Deponent thanked his Grace for the good Opinion his Grace had of him, which was very juſt, or Words to that Effect. After which, his Grace delivered this Deponent a Liſt of Names for Common-Council-Men, which his Grace deſired him to peruſe at his Leiſure, to the beſt of Deponent's Remembrance.

RALPH GORE. T. WHITE.

Reſolved,

Reſolutions thereon.

Reſolved, on the Queſtion, that it does not appear by the Depoſitions of Alderman Ralph Gore, that the Archbiſhop of Tuam did offer him a Sum of £500, or any other Sum, in order to influence him to chooſe Common-Council-Men for the City of Dublin.

Reſolved, on the Queſtion, that it appears to this Houſe, by the Depoſitions of Alderman Gore, that the Lord Chancellor did not, by himſelf or any other whatſoever, directly or indirectly, offer any Sum of Money to the ſaid Alderman Ralph Gore, when Lord Mayor, to chooſe a Common-Council.

Reſolved, on the Queſtion, that it appears to this Houſe, by the Depoſitions of Alderman Ralph Gore, that the Lord Chancellor did not ſend him the ſaid Alderman Ralph Gore any Liſt or Liſts of Common-Council-Men to be choſen.

Reſolved, on the Queſtion, nem. con. that it appears, by the Depoſitions of Alderman Ralph Gore, that he the ſaid Alderman Ralph Gore had not any Converſation with the Lord Chancellor, or any Perſon or Perſons, deputed by him, relating to that Matter.

Reſolved, on the Queſtion, that it appears to this Houſe, by the Depoſitions of Martin Tucker, Eſq; that the Lord Chancellor did not, by himſelf or any other, either directly or indirectly, ſpeak to the ſaid Martin Tucker to give any Liſt, or offer any Sum of Money to influence the Election of Common-Council-Men, when Alderman Gore ſerved for Lord Mayor of the City of Dublin; and that the Lord Chancellor had no Privity of any Converſation the ſaid Martin Tucker had with Alderman Gore on that Subject.

Ordered, on the Queſtion, that the Evidence of Alderman Ralph Gore and Martin Tucker, Eſq; (the firſt taken upon Oath before a Committee of the Lords' Houſe; the ſecond, upon Oath at the Bar) in relation to the Lord Chancellor's concerning, or not concerning, himſelf in the Election of Common-Council-Men, in the Year 1711, when the ſaid Alderman Gore was Lord Mayor, together with the Reſolutions thereupon, be forthwith printed.

Debate thereon.

The previous Queſtion being put, Whether the Queſtion ſhould be now put, That it appears to this Houſe, by the Depoſitions of Alderman Gore and the Confeſſion of Martin Tucker, that there has been a notorious Attempt of Corruption and Bribery by the ſaid Martin Tucker's offering £500 by the Direction of Lieut. Gen. Ingoldſby, then one of the Lords Juſtices of this Kingdom, to the ſaid Alderman Gore, when Lord Mayor of the City of Dublin, in order to influence him in the Choice of a Common-Council for the ſaid City?

It paſſed in the Negative.

The Lord Chancellor, by Appointment of the Lords, adjourns the Houſe until To-morrow Morning, at Ten of the clock.

The Lord Viſc. Strabane, ſtanding at the Clerk's Table, reports from the Committee, appointed to inſpect the Papers relating to Edward Lloyd, the Lord Chancellor's Speech, and ſuch other Papers as ſhould be laid before them, relating thereto; that they met, and agreed to a Repreſentation, which was read.

Report on Lloyd's Papers:

Ordered, on Motion, that the ſaid Repreſentation be read, Paragraph by Paragraph.

The Queſtion being put, Whether in this Part of the Repreſentation, Notice ſhall be taken of a Petition, preferred by Lloyd to the Lords Juſtices and Council, notwithſtanding it does not appear in the Council-Books, that any Order was at that time conceived upon it?

Debated.

It paſſed in the Negative.

The Queſtion being put, Whether in the Repreſentation an Amendment ſhould be made in the Words following, with a Petition annexed, ſaid by ſaid Lloyd to have been formerly repreſented to the Lords Juſtices and Council, which Petition is a falſe and ſcandalous Libel, and tends to divide the Proteſtants of Ireland?

It paſſed in the Negative.

The Queſtion being put, Whether Inquiry ſhall be now made, Whether the Lords Juſtices and Council had good Foundation to repreſent Edward Lloyd to be an Object of Mercy?

It paſſed in the Negative.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Repreſentation, with ſome Amendments, be the Repreſentation of this Houſe, which follows in theſe Words:

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

Repreſentation to the Queen on Lloyd's Caſe.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, having daily Proofs of your Wiſdom, Juſtice and Goodneſs to all your Subjects, humbly beg Leave to repreſent to your Majeſty, that there having been ſeveral ſevere Reflections caſt upon Sir Conſtantine Phipps, Lord High Chancellor of Ireland, on the Occaſion of a Proſecution againſt one Edward Lloyd, and ſome Directions given by his Lordſhip in Council to the Lord Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Dublin, we thought it a Duty upon us, to make the ſtricteſt Inquiry into the Truth of theſe Accuſations; and, from the Entries in the Council-Books and Paper-Office, to lay them before your Majeſty in a clear Light.

The ſaid Edward Lloyd did, in the Month of September, 1712, publiſh in his News-Letter, a Propoſal, that he would print a Book, called "Memoirs of the Chevalier de St. George," and that he would take in Subſcriptions for the ſame.

The then Lords Juſtices and Council of this Kingdom, being informed thereof, immediately ſeized his Papers, whereby a Stop was put to the Printing the Book.

Not content with this, the Lords Juſtices, to ſhew their utmoſt Abhorrence of that Deſign, ordered a Proſecution forthwith againſt the ſaid Lloyd: He was accordingly proſecuted, and a Bill of Indictment was found againſt him in your Majeſty's Court of Queen's-Bench; in which Indictment, the whole ſeditious and treaſonable Libel was recited at large, from a London Impreſſion of it. Upon this, the ſaid Lloyd withdrew into England, and neither rendered his Perſon or found Bail to traverſe the Indictment; but after he was gone, two ſufficient Perſons became Bail for him, for that Purpoſe: And the ſaid Lloyd afterwards petitioned the Duke of Ormond, then Lord Lieutenant of this Kingdom, ſetting forth, that he had no evil Intention or Deſign in publiſhing the ſaid Book, for which he was indicted: That his Poverty rendered him an Object of Mercy; that he had given Evidences of Zeal for her Majeſty's Service, by diſcovering a moſt infamous Libel againſt her Majeſty; and that he would live without any Offence of that kind for the future. His Grace the Duke of Ormond referred this Petition to the Lords: And the Lords Juſtices, in Council, referred it to the Attorney and Solicitor General, who made a Report, That the ſaid Edward Loyd, being no further criminal, than by intending to print and publiſh the ſaid Book, and being in very low Circumſtances, he might be an Object of her Majeſty's Mercy.

Upon this Report, the Lords Juſtices and Council (and not the Lords Juſtices or Chancellor only) wrote a Letter to the Duke of Ormond, of May 23d 1713, that being informed, that the ſaid Edward Lloyd had no evil Intention or Deſign in propoſing to print the Book for which he was indicted, they were humbly of Opinion, that he was an Object of Mercy, and thereby recommended him to his Grace's Favour. His Grace, by his Letter of June 18th 1713, did thereupon require the Lords Juſtices to give Direction, that a Stop ſhould be put to any further Proceedings againſt him upon the ſaid Indictment: And the Lords Juſtices iſſued their Warrant for a Noli proſequi accordingly, which did put a Stop to the Proſecution.

This, may it pleaſe your Majeſty, is a true State of the Fact relating to Edward Lloyd; and upon it, we beg Leave further to obſerve, and repreſent to your Majeſty our humble Opinion, That, as the granting Noli proſequi's is an undoubted Prerogative of the Crown, ſo the iſſuing one, in this Caſe, was an Inſtance of your Majeſty's Goodneſs and Compaſſion; and that the then Lords Juſtices, together with the Privy-Council who repreſented the ſaid Lloyd as an Object of your Majeſty's Mercy, have not, in our Opinion, acted in this Matter contrary to their Duty, or the Proteſtant Intereſt of this Kingdom.

As to the Directions given by the Lord Chancellor, in Council, to the Lord Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Dublin, we beg Leave to obſerve unto your Majeſty, that his Lordſhip then gave no other Directions to them, than what he received from your Majeſty, or was inſtructed to give them by the Privy-Council: The Lord Chancellor, at the Deſire of the Houſe, laid before us a Copy of his Speech, taken from the Original, he having reduced it to writing before he ſpoke it to the Lord Mayor and Aldermen, in Council, the 16th of January, 1712; and for our Satisfaction, ſeveral Lords of the Council, who were preſent when thoſe Directions were given, did fully atteſt, that the Copy produced to us, did agree, to the beſt of their Remembrance, with what he had delivered in Council, which was as follows:

My Lord Mayor and Gentlemen,

Lord Chancellor's Speech to the Lord Mayor and Aldermen

" WE ſend for you by her Majeſty's ſpecial " Command.

" It is to let you know, that her Majeſty " takes Notice, that there are many ſcandalous " and ſeditious Libels and Pamphlets daily " diſperſed thro' this City; and therefore her " Majeſty commands your Lordſhip, the Al- " dermen, and the other Magiſtrates, to uſe " your utmoſt Endeavours to ſuppreſs and " prevent ſuch ſeditious Libels; and to cauſe " the Authors and Publiſhers of them to be " apprehended.

" We are very well aſſured of your Lord- " ſhip's Loyalty to her Majeſty, and of your " Zeal for her Service: And therefore do not " in the leaſt doubt your Performance of your " Duty in this, or any other reſpect. You are " likewiſe directed by her Majeſty, to inquire " into the Fomenters of the late Diſorders in " this City.

" Your

" Your Lordſhip remembers the great Riot " committed in the Play-Houſe on his late " Majeſty's Birth-Day, a Day that we ſhall " be as ready as any Perſons in the World " to celebrate, with all the Reſpect and Ho- " nour due to the Memory of that great " Prince.

" But when things are come to that Paſs, " that Gentlemen think the beſt way to com- " memorate his late Majeſty, is by affronting " her preſent Majeſty, and inſulting her Au- " thority; when Gentlemen (whoſe Educa- " tion ſhould teach them better) ſhall take " upon them, in Defiance of Authority, to " ſpeak a Prologue, which hath been forbid- " den by the Government, two Years ſuc- " ceſſively; a Prologue that ſounds an Alarm, " and invites her Majeſty's Subjects to make " War againſt thoſe, with whom her Majeſty " thinks fit to make Peace; and to take up " Arms to drive the King of Spain out of " thoſe Dominions, which her Majeſty, by " her Articles of Peace, has ſtipulated he " ſhall enjoy.

" I ſay, when Gentlemen carry things to " this Height, it is Time for the Government " to exert themſelves in Defence of her Ma- " jeſty's Authority.

" For what is this, but to rob her Majeſty " of that Part of her Prerogative, which was " always allowed her by the worſt of her " Enemies, the Power of making Peace and " War.

" This was an Offence of that Magnitude, " that we thought it our Duty to lay it before " the Queen, and though her Majeſty is great- " ly offended at it, yet ſhe is pleaſed, in Judg- " ment, to remember Mercy, and hath com- " manded us to ſingle out the moſt flagrant " Offender, and to proſecute him with the " utmoſt Severity of the Law; but is graci- " ouſly pleaſed to diſcharge the reſt from any " further Proſecution.

" We ſhall be ſure to pay Obedience to her " Majeſty's Command; and we hope, that in " this, and all other Caſes, where her Majeſty " is concerned, the Sheriffs will take Care to " return underſtanding Juries, that know their " Duty, and the Obligation of an Oath; Men " of ſuch Integrity and Loyalty, as will take " Care her Majeſty has equal Juſtice with " her Subjects, and that is all which is " deſired.

" And it is to be hoped, it will not ſeem " hard, that her Majeſty ſhould expect Juſtice " from a City, which partakes ſo liberally of " her Bounty.

" There is another Thing, which we re- " commend to you, which is, the preventing " publick Maſs being ſaid, contrary to Law, " by Prieſts not regiſtered; or that will not " take the Abjuration-Oath; or are otherwiſe " diſabled from officiating.

" We have more than ordinary Reaſon to " preſs this, becauſe we ſuffer by your " Neglect: The Country generally make the " City their Pattern; and, after your Exam- " ple, become negligent of their Duty in this " reſpect.

" For, being aſked, Why they permit pub- " lick Maſs to be ſaid? Their Anſwer is, It is " done in Dublin, and, as we are informed, by " the Approbation of the Government, for " elſe it would not be done; and why ſhould " we be more officious than others?

" There are very good Laws made to pre- " vent this; and we have iſſued a Proclama- " tion for the due Execution of thoſe Laws; " and have charged it in the moſt preſſing " terms we could.

" And now we recommend it to you again, " that if there be any Neglect of this kind for " the future, the People may know at whoſe " Door to lay it."

Repreſen- tation ordered to Lord Lieutenant.

Your Majeſty, in your royal Wiſdom, will judge how reaſonable and equal it was, to deſire, that the ſame Juſtice, which the meaneſt of your Subjects enjoy, ſhould be extended to ſuch Caſes, in which the Honour and Safety of your Government are concerned.

We have lately preſumed to addreſs your Majeſty, on the Occaſion of a malicious and villainous Aſperſion on the Lord Chancellor; and we are ſtrengthened in our Opinion of his Lordſhip's having acquitted himſelf with Honour and Integrity, from the further Inquiries we have ſince made.

We do faithfully aſſure your Majeſty, that nothing ſhall ever divert us from proceeding with Unanimity and Temper in the Diſpatch of the publick Buſineſs, and in eſtabliſhing the Peace of this Kingdom, by diſcountenancing the reſtleſs Endeavours of thoſe factious Spirits, who attempt to ſow Jealouſies, and to raiſe groundleſs Fears in the Minds of your Majeſty's People.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Lord Viſc. Charlemont and the Lord Biſhop of Down do wait on his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, with the Repreſentation, and deſire his Grace to ſend the ſame to her Majeſty this Night, if conveniently he can.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Council-Books be delivered back to the Clerk of the Council, immediately after the Houſe riſes; and the Clerk to attend with the ſaid Books, on the firſt Day of this Houſe's Sitting after Chriſtmas.

Ordered, on Motion, that the Debate, Whether the Lords have a Right to proteſt to the Negative, on a previous Queſtion, be and is hereby adjourned, to the firſt Meeting of this Houſe after Chriſtmas, reſerving a Liberty, then, to ſign, if they find Precedents.

The Lord Chancellor, by Appointment of the Lords, adjourns the Houſe until Thurſday the 7th of January next, at Ten of the clock in the Morning.

Then the Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure.

The Houſe was reſumed: And Lords Juſtices preſent.

His Grace Charles Duke of Grafton, and his Excellency Henry Earl of Galway, Lords Juſtices General and General Governors of Ireland, having entered the Houſe, with the uſual Ceremonies of Grandeur; the Earl of Barrymore carrying the Sword of State; the Earl of Bellamont, the Cap of Maintenance, and the Earl of Kildare, the Robe of State; the Hon. Arthur St. Leger, Eſq; eldeſt Son to the Lord Viſc. Doneraile, the Hon. John Chicheſter, Eſq; Brother to the Earl of Donegal, and the Hon. Charles O'Brien, Eſq; ſecond Son to the Earl of Inchiquin, bearing the Train of the ſaid Robe, which was laid on a Table for that Purpoſe, before the Throne: Their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices, making their Congé to the Throne, ſeated themſelves in Chairs under the Canopy, all the Lords Spiritual and Temporal ſtanding robed in their Places, uncovered, till their Lordſhips took their Seats: And the Lord Chancellor, kneeling, conferred with the Lords Juſtices; and then, ſtanding on the right hand of the Chairs of State, commanded the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod to ſignify to the Commons, that it is their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices Pleaſure, they attend them preſently in the Houſe of Peers; who being returned, acquainted their Excellencies, that the Commons were at the Door.

Meſſage from Lords Juſtices for

And being ordered to call them them in,

They were conducted to the Bar by the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod, with the uſual Ceremonies.

The Lord Chancellor, by their Excellencies' Command, ſaid, It is their Excellencies' Pleaſure, that you, Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons, repair to the Place where the Commons uſually ſit, and there chooſe a fit Perſon to be your Speaker, and that you preſent him whom you ſhall ſo chooſe to their Excellencies, here, for their Approbation immediately.

Commons to chooſe a Speaker.

Then their Excellencies were pleaſed to withdraw into the Robe-Room, and the Commons went to their Houſe.

Their Excellencies returned to the Chairs of State; and the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod acquainted their Excellencies, that the Commons were at the Door, and being ordered to call them in, they were conducted to the Bar by the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod, with the uſual Ceremonies, and preſented the Right Hon. William Conolly, Eſq; whom they had unanimouſly choſen to be their Speaker, for their Excellencies' Approbation. And after a ſhort Speech, made by him to their Excellencies, acquainting their Excellencies, that altho' both his Inclination and Duty led him on all Occaſions readily and chearfully to uſe his beſt Endeavours in the Service of his moſt gracious Majeſty, and for the Good of his Country, yet when he reflects how many Qualifications are neceſſary to complete a Speaker, and that Perſons of the greateſt Eminence and Abilities, as well from Endowments of Nature, as the Advantages of their Profeſſion, have conſtantly, hitherto, filled that Place, he acknowledged his own Inſufficiency to diſcharge ſo great and difficult a Truſt; and therefore (with all poſſible Regard to the Senſe and Favour of the Commons) moſt humbly intreated their Excellencies, to direct them to return to their Houſe, and make Choice of a more fit and ſufficient Perſon.

Commons preſent their Speaker.

The Lord Chancellor, by their Excellencies' Command, ſaid:

Mr. Conolly,

THEIR Excellencies have, with Attention heard the humble Excuſe you have made, to exempt yourſelf from undertaking that honourable and important Charge, to which the Commons have elected you, and find many Reaſons to agree to their Choice, none to diſ-approve it: For they conſider the modeſt Diffidence you entertain of yourſelf, as an Indication of thoſe Abilities, which are requiſite to the due Diſcharge of that great Truſt, not an Argument to incline them to apprehend you defective in any of them.

The unanimous Deſignation of that great Body would have had its Weight, though the Perſon by them preſented had wanted many of thoſe Advantages to recommend him, which happily meet in you. But your long Experience and Knowledge of Parliamentary Proceedings; your dutiful Deportment to the Crown, without departing from a juſt Senſe of being a Repreſentative of your Country; and your firm Adherence to the Proteſtant Succeſſion, when it was endeavoured to be ſupplanted; and when thoſe Seeds were ſowing, of which we now reap the bitter Harveſt of an open Rebellion, in one of his Majeſty's Kingdoms, leave no Room to doubt your filling the Chair with great Sufficiency, or acting in it with the profoundeſt Duty to his Majeſty, and Zeal for his and your Country's Service. It is therefore their Excellencies' Pleaſure, to approve and confirm the Choice of the Commons, and to ratify you for their Speaker.

Then Mr. Speaker returned their Excellencies Thanks, for their gracious Approbation of the Choice of the Commons, and Acceptance of his Service; and aſſured them, that the Kingdom hath ſignally manifeſted its Duty and Loyalty to his ſacred Majeſty, and conſulted its own Security, by electing Perſons for their Repreſentatives, who have been ever firm and ſteady to the Proteſtant Succeſſion, in the moſt illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover; and that they are truly ſenſible of his Majeſty's royal Favour and Concern for their Welfare, particularly in appointing his Grace (who inherits the heroick Virtues of his moſt noble Father, ſlain in the Reduction of this Kingdom) and his Excellency (who heretofore gave ſuch Inſtances of his Wiſdom and Conduct in Affairs of the laſt Difficulty, as juſtly claimed the moſt grateful Acknowledgments) to be their Chief Governors, under whoſe Influence and prudent Adminiſtration, they promiſed themſelves much Proſperity and Happineſs: And, begging Leave to diſcharge ſome Part of his Truſt, demanded, in the Name and on the behalf of the Commons, an intire Conſervation of all their antient Rights and Privileges; particularly, that they might have Liberty and Freedom of Speech in their Debates, and not be moleſted in their Perſons, Eſtates or Servants.

That the Miſtakes he ſhould commit, might meet with a favourable Conſtruction and gracious Pardon; and that when the Publick ſhall require, he may have free Acceſs to their Excellencies' moſt noble Perſons.

Then the Lord Chancellor, by their Excellencies' further Command, ſaid:

Mr. Speaker,

THEIR Excellencies are pleaſed to ſay, that they are fully aſſured of the Diſcretion and Temper, as well as of the good Affections of the Houſe of Commons; and as to the Suit which you have made in their Name, their Excellencies do moſt willingly grant to them all their Privileges, in as full a Manner as they were at any time granted or allowed by any of their Excellencies' Predeceſſors: And, as to what you have prayed in relation to yourſelf, their Excellencies will put the beſt and moſt favourable Conſtruction upon your Words and Actions in the Execution of your Duty as Speaker of the Houſe of Commons.

The Lords Juſtices were pleaſed to make an excellent Speech, which was delivered by his Grace the Duke of Grafton, as follows:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

HIS Majeſty, having been pleaſed to appoint us Juſtices and Governors of this his Kingdom of Ireland, we are glad to meet you in Parliament, where you will have an Opportunity of concerting ſuch Meaſures, as may tend to the publick Welfare. Lords Juſtices' Speech.

We heartily congratulate with you, upon the King's moſt happy Acceſſion to the Throne, being fully perſuaded, that you have a due Senſe of GOD's Mercy, in this Act of his Divine Providence, which affords us ſo fair a Proſpect of becoming a flouriſhing People, under the Reign of a Prince, whoſe Wiſdom, Juſtice and Clemency, intitle him to the Love and Obedience of his Subjects at home, as his Reſolution and firm Obſervance of Treaties, have gained him the Reſpect and Eſteem of his Allies, abroad.

We are commanded by his Majeſty to aſſure you, That we will inviolably preſerve our excellent Conſtitution, both in Church and State, the Continuance of which Bleſſing is further ſecured to us, by the eminent Virtues of the Prince of Wales, and by ſo numerous an Iſſue, as GOD hath beſtowed upon his Royal Highneſs.

It is with no ſmall Satisfaction, that we obſerve the Calm which this Kingdom (heretofore the Scene of ſo many Rebellions) at preſent enjoys, whilſt the traitorous Enemies to the King and to our happy Eſtabliſhment, diſcouraged by your early and ſteady Zeal for the Proteſtant Succeſſion, have thought fit to change the Place of Action, and attempt elſewhere to diſturb his Majeſty's Government, whoſe undoubted Right to the Crown of theſe Realms, is founded on the Laws of the Land, and ſecured by the Affections of his People, aſſembled in Parliament.

So deſperate and wicked a Deſign, muſt end in the Confuſion of the Perſons concerned in it, and fix his Majeſty's Throne upon a ſurer Foundation, by diſtinguiſhing the true Friends to to his royal Perſon and Government, from the Abettors of Popery and Slavery. Yet your Conduct will not be agreeable to your accuſtomed Prudence, if you neglect to put yourſelves in the beſt Poſture of Defence upon this Occaſion: For which Purpoſe, his Majeſty has cauſed Arms to be delivered out of his Stores to the Militia; and has ordered an Addition to be made to each Company remaining in this Kingdom, till ſuch time as he can replace thoſe Regiments which the Neceſſity of his Affairs has obliged him, at preſent, to draw from hence, to ſuppreſs the Rebels in Great Britain, wherein your Safety is equally concerned, with that of his other Subjects.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

WE have ordered a State of the publick Accounts, together with a Charge of the Eſtabliſhment, to be laid before you, in the cleareſt and plaineſt Light, by which you will judge what Supplies will be wanting to carry on the Service, and to defray ſuch Expences as you may think proper for your own Security; nor can we in the leaſt doubt, after ſo many Proofs of your Affection to his Majeſty, you will chearfully contribute the neceſſary Aids for the Support of a Government, whoſe Welfare is inſeparable from your own.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

WE have his Majeſty's Orders to acquaint you, that He will readily conſent to ſuch good Laws as may conduce to make you an eaſy and a happy People; and you may be aſſured, we ſhall always concur with you, in every thing that may be advantageous to the Kingdom, for which end, we ſhall willingly receive your Advice.

We muſt recommend to you, in the preſent Conjuncture, all reaſonable Diſpatch in your Proceedings, and ſuch Unanimity in your Reſolutions, as may once more put an end to all other Diſtinctions in Ireland, but that of Proteſtant and Papiſt.

Then their Excellencies were pleaſed to withdraw, and were attended as they entered, and the Commons returned to their Houſe. Lords Juſtices withdraw.

The Earl of Kildare preſented to the Houſe a Bill, intitled, An Act for recognizing his Majeſty's Title to the Throne of Great Britain, France and Ireland, which was received and ordered to be read. Recognition-Act.

Hodie prima vice lecta eſt Billa, intitled, An Act for recognizing his Majeſty's Title to the Throne of Great Britain, France and Ireland.

Ordered, that the ſaid Bill be read a ſecond time on Monday Morning next.

Adjourned till Monday Morning next, at Ten o'clock.

Outlawry

Outlawry or Outlawries remain of force; and that their Lordſhips have Power to ſend for Perſons, Papers and Records, and report to the Houſe.

The Earl of Kildare, from the Committee appointed to draw up an Addreſs to his Majeſty, to congratulate his Majeſty on his Majeſty's moſt happy Acceſſion to the Crown of theſe Realms, reported to the Houſe an Addreſs accordingly, which was read at the Table, Paragraph by Paragraph, and agreed to by the Houſe, with ſome Amendments, and is as follows:

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal aſſembled in Parliament.

May it pleaſe your moſt Excellent Majeſty,

Addreſs to the King.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, lay hold of this firſt Opportunity, humbly to beg Leave to approach your Sacred Perſon, and to congratulate your Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to the Throne of your Anceſtors: We chearfully, and from the bottom of our Hearts, acknowledge your Majeſty to have a rightful and lawful Title to the Crown of theſe Realms, and, with unfeigned Lips, render to Almighty GOD, our humble and hearty Thanks, for the great and ineſtimable Bleſſing of bringing your Majeſty to reign over us, notwithſtanding the malicious Deſigns and evil Attempts of too many, as we have juſt Cauſe to believe, to diſappoint the Succeſſion of your Majeſty, and your royal Family.

The gracious Aſſurances given us from the Throne, that your Majeſty will inviolably preſerve our excellent Conſtitution in Church and State, and the great Care that hath been taken by your Majeſty to preſerve to us the full and free Enjoyment of all our religious and civil Rights, fill our Hearts with the deepeſt Senſe of Duty and Gratitude to your Majeſty.

At this critical time of Danger, we look upon your Majeſty (under GOD) as our great Deliverer and Preſerver. We doubt not, but that the ſignal Hand of PROVIDENCE, which has conducted your Majeſty ſafe to the Throne, and endowed you with all thoſe royal Virtues, which are neceſſary to ſupport and adorn it, will eſtabliſh you and your royal Poſterity thereon, and ſoon reduce to Obedience, the ſtubborn and rebellious Spirits of thoſe ungrateful Perſons, whom neither the ſtricteſt Obligations of Oaths, nor the Laws of GOD or Man, could reſtrain within the Bounds of their Allegiance.

And we humbly crave Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will, to the utmoſt of our Power, maintain, ſupport and defend your Majeſty, in your moſt rightful Poſſeſſion of the Imperial Crown of theſe Realms, againſt the Pretender and all his open and ſecret Abettors: And that we ſhall at all times earneſtly ſupplicate at the Throne of Grace, that your Enemies may be clothed with Shame; and that upon your Majeſty's Head, and that of your royal Iſſue, the Crown may ever flouriſh.

Then the Houſe, according to Order, reſolved itſelf into a Committee of the whole Houſe, upon a Bill, intitled, An Act for recognizing his Majeſty's Title to the Throne of Great Britain, France and Ireland; and after ſome time ſpent therein,

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Earl of Kildare reported, that a Committee of the whole Houſe had gone through the ſaid Bill, and compared the ſame with the original Tranſmiſs, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, with which it exactly agrees, and have agreed to the ſame, without any Amendment.

The Queſtion was put, Whether this Bill ſhall paſs into a Law?

It was reſolved in the Affirmative.

and ſent to Commons, for Concurrence.

A Meſſage was ſent to the Houſe of Commons, by the Lord Chief Juſtice of his Majeſty's Court of Common-Pleas, and Mr. Juſtice Dolbin, to carry down the ſaid Bill, and deſire their Concurrence thereunto.

Whereas this Day was appointed for reading the Roll of Standing Orders of this Houſe; It is ordered by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the ſaid Roll of Standing Orders ſhall be read on Friday Morning next.

The Houſe, being moved, that the Standing Order of this Houſe, N° 20, and the Standing Order of this Houſe, N° 37, be read:

Were read accordingly.

Order relative to eldeſt Sons of Peers.

Ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Clerk of the Parliaments do, To-morrow Morning, bring into this Houſe the Standing Order of this Houſe, whereby the eldeſt Sons of Peers are permitted to come into this Houſe, to hear the Debates thereof.

The Earl of Kildare reported from the Lords Committees, appointed to draw an Addreſs of Thanks to their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices, for their excellent Speech, delivered to both Houſes of Parliament on Saturday laſt, which Report was read, and, with an Amendment, agreed to by the Houſe, and is as follows, viz.

To their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices.

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellencies,

Addreſs to Lords Juſtices reported.

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, with great Satisfaction, heard the many Expreſſions of his Majeſty's gracious Intentions towards his faithful Subjects of this Kingdom, contained in your Excellencies' Speech in the Houſe of Peers, at the Opening of this Parliament.

Nothing is of equal Concern to us with the Preſervation of our moſt excellent Conſtitution in Church and State; nothing can more endear his Majeſty's Perſon and Government to us, than the many Proofs, which he has already given, of his Care for it, and the frequent Declarations made by his Majeſty, that he will inviolably maintain and ſupport it.

Theſe gracious Inſtances of his Piety and Goodneſs, and the Benefits which redound to this Nation from his Majeſty's Care and Protection of our religious and civil Rights, call for all Returns, which loyal and grateful Subjects can make to the beſt of Princes, for a ready and quiet Submiſſion to his mild and gentle Government, a chearful Diſpoſition to ſupport and make eaſy his Adminiſtration of the publick Affairs, and a firm Reſolution to defend his Majeſty's rightful and lawful Title to the Crown of theſe Realms, againſt the Pretender and all his Adherents and Abettors.

And as the wicked Rebellion, which now rages in his Majeſty's Kingdom of Great Britain, ſhews, that the Enemies of our Peace are joined together in the Bands of Iniquity, we promiſe to uſe our utmoſt Endeavours, to unite and confirm all his Majeſty's Subjects of this Realm in their Duty.

To ſupport his Majeſty's Title and Government, and to give his Majeſty all further Proofs of the ſtrongeſt Affection and Fidelity to his ſacred Perſon and Authority.

We ſhall ever acknowledge it, as a great Inſtance of his Majeſty's Affection to and Care of this his Kingdom, that he has been pleaſed to make us happy, in ſending Perſons every way ſo well qualified, as your Excellencies are, to execute ſo high a Truſt. And we aſſure your Excellencies, that we will give the utmoſt Diſpatch to the publick Buſineſs, and retain a grateful Senſe of your Excellencies' Readineſs, expreſſed in your Speech, to concur with us, in every thing that may be advantageous to this Kingdom; what Advice we ſhall at any time offer, ſhall be with that Duty, that is owing to ſo good and gracious a King, as we are bleſſed with; and with that Reſpect, that is due to ſuch wiſe and vigilant Governors.

Ordered, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to their Excellencies by the whole Houſe.

Ld Chancellor to attend their Excellencies, &c.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait on their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices, and acquaint them, that this Houſe has agreed to an Addreſs, to be preſented to his Majeſty, to congratulate his Majeſty's moſt happy Acceſſion to the Crown of theſe Realms: And alſo an Addreſs of Thanks to their Excellencies, for their excellent Speech delivered to both Houſes of Parliament, on Saturday laſt; and humbly to know when and where this Houſe may attend their Excellencies with the ſaid Addreſſes.

Then the Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, and my Lord Chancellor went to the Caſtle.

The Houſe was reſumed,

Report from Lords Juſtices.

And the Lord Chancellor reported to the Houſe, that he had waited on their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices, and acquainted them, that this Houſe had agreed to an Addreſs to be preſented to his Majeſty, to congratulate his Majeſty on his moſt happy Acceſſion to the Crown of theſe Realms: And alſo an Addreſs of Thanks to their Excellencies, for their excellent Speech, delivered to both Houſes of Parliament

Parliament on Saturday laſt, and humbly to know, when and where this Houſe might attend their Excellencies with the ſaid Addreſſes: Their Excellencies were pleaſed to appoint Two of the clock this Afternoon at the Caſtle of Dublin.

The Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod acquainted the Houſe, that ſome Members of the Houſe of Commons were at the Door, with a Meſſage from that Houſe; and being ordered to call them in,

They came in accordingly, and ſtanding at the lower end of the Houſe,

The Lord Chancellor, accompanied with ſome of the Lords, went to the Bar, uncovered.

The Commons approached the Bar of the Houſe, with three Courteſies. And

The Lord Chancellor received the Meſſage from the Commons; and then the Commons retired, and the Lords returned to their Places.

The Lord Chancellor reported, that a Meſſage was brought from the Houſe of Commons, by Mr. St. John Brodrick, and other Members of the ſaid Houſe, to return the Bill, intitled, An Act for recognizing his Majeſty's Title to the Throne of Great Britain, France and Ireland; and to acquaint this Houſe, that they have agreed to the ſame, without any Amendment. Meſſage from Commons,

Adjourned till To-morrow Morning, at Eleven o'Clock.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

Upon reading the Orders of the Day, the Houſe was, according to Order, reſolved into a Committee on the ingroſſed Bill, ſent up by the Commons, intitled, An Act for granting to his Majeſty an additional Duty on Beer, Ale, ſtrong Waters, Tobacco, and other Goods, and Merchandizes, &c. and after ſome time ſpent therein,

The Houſe was reſumed.

And the Earl of Cavan reported, that the Committee of the whole Houſe had gone through the ſaid Bill, and read the ſame, Paragraph by Paragraph, and compared the ſame with the original Tranſmiſs, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, with which they find it exactly agrees, and agreed to the ſame, without any Amendment.

Ordered, that the ſaid Bill be read a third time.

Money-Bill, Hodie tertia vice lecta eſt Billa, intitled, An Act for granting to his Majeſty an additional Duty on Beer, Ale, ſtrong Waters, Tobacco and other Goods and Merchandizes, &c.

paſſed. The Queſtion was put, Whether this Bill ſhall paſs into a Law? It was reſolved in the Affirmative.

A Meſſage was ſent to the Houſe of Commons, by the Lord Chief Juſtice of his Majeſty's Court of King's-Bench, and the Lord Chief Juſtice of his Majeſty's Court of Common-Pleas, to acquaint them, that this Houſe hath agreed to the ſaid Bill, without any Amendment.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to robe.

The Houſe was reſumed.

Lords Juſtices preſent. And his Grace Charles Duke of Grafton, and his Excellency Henry Earl of Galway, Lords Juſtices General and General Governors of Ireland, having entered the Houſe, with the uſual Ceremonies of Grandeur; the Earl of Granard carrying the Sword of State; the Earl of Mount Alexander, the Cap of Maintenance; and the Earl of Kildare, the Robe of State; the Hon. Arthur St. Leger, eldeſt Son to the Lord Viſc. Doneraile, the Hon. John Chicheſter, Brother to the Earl of Donegal, and the Hon. Charles O'Brien, ſecond Son to the Earl of Inchiquin, bearing the Train of the ſaid Robe, which was laid on a Table for that Purpoſe, before the Throne: Their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices, making their Congé to the Throne, ſeated themſelves in Chairs under the Canopy; all the Lords Spiritual and Temporal ſtanding robed, in their Places, uncovered, till their Lordſhips took their Seats.

And, the Lord Chancellor, kneeling, conferred with the Lords Juſtices; and then ſtanding on the right hand of the Chairs of State, commanded the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod to ſignify to the Commons, that it is their Excellencies' the Lords Juſtices' Pleaſure, they attend them preſently in the Houſe of Peers:

Who being returned, acquainted their Excellencies, that the Commons were at the Door.

And being ordered to call them in,

They were conducted to the Bar by the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod, with the uſual Ceremonies.

Speaker's Speech. And Mr. Speaker, after a ſhort Speech, to their Excellencies, in relation to the Bill, intitled, An Act for granting to his Majeſty, an additional Duty on Beer, Ale, ſtrong Waters, Tobacco, and other Goods and Merchandizes, delivered the ſame to the Clerk of the Parliaments, who brought it to the Table, where the Clerk of the Crown read the Title of that and the other Bill, to be paſſed, as follows, viz.

1. An Act for granting to his Majeſty an additional Duty on Beer, Ale, ſtrong Waters, Tobacco and other Goods and Merchandizes. To this the Clerk of the Parliaments pronounced the royal Aſſent in theſe Words, viz.

" Le Roy remercie ſes bons Subjects, accepte
" leur Benevolence, et ainſi le veult."

2. An Act for recognizing his Majeſty's Title to the Throne of Great Britain, France and Ireland.

To this the Clerk of the Parliaments pronounced the royal Aſſent, in theſe Words, viz.

" Le Roy le veult."

Then their Excellencies were pleaſed to withdraw, and were attended as they entered; and the Commons returned to their Houſe.

Dr. Uſher and Dr. Warburton informed the Houſe, that, in Obedience to their Lordſhips' Order of Saturday laſt, they delivered their Lordſhips' Meſſage to the Houſe of Commons, in relation to Mr. Tiſdall, who were pleaſed to make Anſwer, as follows, viz. " The Com- Commons Anſwer concerning Mr. Tiſdall.

GEORGE REX.

His Majeſty's Anſwer to Addreſs.

" HIS Majeſty returns his hearty Thanks " to the Houſe of Lords, for their dutiful " and affectionate Addreſs, and for that Zeal " which they expreſs for his Perſon, Family " and Government: They may aſſure themſelves that his Reſolutions to maintain their " Conſtitution, both in Church and State, " will remain inviolable and unſhaken; his " Majeſty having nothing more at Heart, than " to preſerve the civil and religious Rights of " his People, and to tranſmit them ſafe to " Poſterity."

Addreſs and Anſwer to be printed.

It is ordered by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Majeſty, and his Majeſty's moſt gracious Anſwer thereunto, be forthwith printed and publiſhed.

Ordered, that the Lords Committees, appointed to draw up an Addreſs to his Majeſty, to congratulate his Majeſty on his moſt happy Acceſſion to the Throne, be alſo appointed Lords Committees, to draw up an Addreſs of Thanks for his Majeſty's moſt gracious Anſwer to the ſaid Addreſs; and that they do meet on Thurſday Morning next, at Ten o'clock in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, and adjourn as they pleaſe and report to the Houſe.

T. Willington's Petition.

A Petition of Thomas Willington, Eſq; ſetting forth his Misfortune, in falling under the Diſpleaſure of this moſt Hon. Houſe, on a Complaint made by the Lord Biſhop of Clonfert, for a Breach of Privilege committed by him againſt his Lordſhip; and that the Houſe, on the 17th of June, 1710, declared the Petitioner incapable of being in the Commiſſion of the Peace, and that he made his Submiſſion to his Lordſhip, who has been pleaſed to forgive him, and craving the Pardon of this moſt Hon. Houſe, and expreſſing his Sorrow for his lying ſo long under the Cenſure thereof; and ſetting forth his Behaviour, ſince, to his Lordſhip, and the Gentlemen in his Neighbourhood, as might appear by an annexed Certificate, and praying to have the Cenſure withdrawn, was preſented to the Houſe and read:

And Debate thereupon;

Ordered, that the further Conſideration thereof be adjourned till To-morrow Morning.

Purſuant to the Order of the Day,

Law-ſuit Bill,

Hodie tertia vice lecta eſt Billa, intitled, An Act to prevent frivolous and vexatious Suits in Law.

The Queſtion was put, Whether this Bill ſhall paſs?

It was reſolved in the Affirmative.

and ſent to Commons, for Concurrence.

A Meſſage was ſent to the Houſe of Commons, by Dr. Uſher and Dr. White to carry down the ſaid Bill, and deſire their Concurrence thereunto.

The Lord Altham reported from the Committee, to whom a Bill intitled, An Act to enable Infants' Bill, enable Infants, who are ſeized of Eſtates in Fee, in Truſt, or by way of Mortgage, was referred; that they had compared the ſame with the original Tranſmiſs, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, with which they found it exactly agreed.

Ordered, that the ſaid Bill be committed to a Committee of the whole Houſe To-morrow Morning.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure.

The Houſe was reſumed.

Defaulters called. Ordered, that the Names of the ſeveral Lords who were abſent at the Call of this Houſe on the 22d of November laſt, and who were to have been called over this Day, be again called over on Monday Morning next.

PRAYERS.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

The Lord Chancellor reported their Excellencies the Lords Justices' Answer to the Resolutions of this House of the 5th inst. which he had laid before their Excellencies, as follows, viz.

Lords Justices' Answer to Resolutions.

WE shall forthwith give Directions for the House, Committee-Room and Clerks' Offices, to be fitted up for their Lordships Conveniency, as is desired by their Address; and Bermingham Tower, being the proper Place for keeping Parliamentary Records, a convenient Office shall be prepared there, without Loss of Time, for the better Preservation of Instruments of so great Importance.

Thanks for it.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait on their Excellencies, and return them the humble Thanks of this House, for their Excellencies' Answer to the said Resolutions.

Heads of Vic. Loftus's Bill.

The House being moved by the Lord Moor, that Heads of a Bill might be brought in for vesting Part of the Estate of the Right Hon. Arthur Lord Visc. Lofius of Ely, Letitia Lady Viscountess his now Wife, and Mary Countess of Drogheda, in Trustees, for Payment of Debts and other Uses.

Ordered, that Heads of a Bill be brought in as is desired; and that the Lord Bishop of Kildare and the Lord Moor do prepare and bring in the same.

Upon reading the Orders of the Day, the House took into further Consideration the Petition of Thomas Willington, Esq; and after reading the same;

Ordered, that it be referred to the Lords' Committees of Privileges.

Their Lordſhips, or any three of them, to meet in the Committee-Chamber near the Houſe of Peers, To-morrow Morning, at Ten o'clock, and adjourn as they pleaſe.

The Order for the Day being read,

The Queſtion was put, Whether this Houſe do now proceed thereupon?

It was reſolved in the Negative.

Ordered, that the ſaid Order for the Day be adjourned, till To-morrow Morning.

Complaint on Breach of Privilege.

A Complaint being made to the Houſe, by the Lord Biſhop of Waterford, that Thomas Carr, Eſq; after being examined, according to Order, before a Committee of this Houſe, in his return from the ſaid Committee, was inſulted at the Door of this Houſe, by one Gwillyams.

Ordered, that the ſaid Matter and Complaint, be referred to the Lords' Committees of Privileges.

The Lord Viſc. Strabane, from the Lords' Committees appointed to examine the Journals of this Houſe, Whether Richard Lord Viſc. Mountgarrett hath been allowed a Peer of this Realm?

And alſo, the Lords' Committees, appointed to examine, Whether the ſaid Lord Viſcount Mountgarrett, or any of his Anceſtors, under whom he derives his Honour, is or were outlawed of High Treaſon; and whether ſuch Outlawry or Outlawries remain of Force? Made a Report, as follows, viz.

My Lords,

Committee on Viſc. Mountgarrett's Outlawry.

THE Lords' Committees, appointed to examine the Journals of this Houſe, Whether Richard Lord Viſc. Mountgarrett hath been allowed a Peer of this Realm?

Which ſaid Lords' Committees, who were alſo ordered to examine, Whether the ſaid Lord Viſc. Mountgarrett, or any of his Anceſtors, under whom he derives his Honour, is or were outlawed of High Treaſon; and whether ſuch Outlawry or Outlawries remain of Force? Do find:

That upon the Call of the Houſe, the 17th of October, 1692, Viſc. Mountgarrett, not excuſed: And on the 20th of the ſame Month, it was reſolved, that the Lord Viſc. Mountgarrett, amongſt others, ſhould have Notice to attend the Service of the Houſe on Thurſday the 27th Inſt. on which Day it was ordered, that the Lord Chancellor ſhould write a Letter, according to the Tenor of the former Letter to the Lord Viſc. Mountgarrett, to attend the Service of the Houſe on Saturday following, at which time Richard Lord Viſc. Mountgarrett appeared, and delivered his Writ; and then took the Oath of Fidelity: And being demanded to take the other Oath, and make and ſubſcribe the Declaration, according to the Act made in England, his Lordſhip refuſed ſo to do, declaring it was not agreeable to his Conſcience. And thereupon the Lord Chancellor acquainted the ſaid Lord Viſcount, That he knew the Conſequence of refuſing to take the ſaid Oath, and make and ſubſcribe the ſaid Declaration, was, he could not ſit in the the Houſe: And then ordered him to withdraw. And on the 17th of September, 1695, it was ordered, that the Clerk of the Crown attending this Houſe, ſhould attend the Clerk of the Crown of the Court of King's Bench, to have an Account of the Lords there undernamed, or their Anceſtors, which of them ſtand outlawed; and which of them have reverſed their Outlawries. But no return was made by the Clerk of the Crown, as we can find, in our Journals, purſuant to the foregoing Order.

On the 12th of October, 1695, Richard Lord Viſc. Mountgarrett delivered his Writ, in the accuſtomed Manner, and then his Lordſhip took the Oath of Fidelity; and being demanded to take the other Oath, and ſubſcribe the Declaration, according to the Act, made in England, his Lordſhip refuſed ſo to do, declaring it was not agreeable to his Conſcience: And thereon his Lordſhip was ordered to withdraw.

On the 23d of November, 1697, there were Lords' Committees appointed to inſpect the Journals, and other Books and Papers belonging to this Houſe, and inform themſelves, which of the Lords of this Kingdom ſtand outlawed, and report the ſame to this Houſe; and this Committee had Power to ſend for Perſons, Papers and Records, in order to their proceeding thereon.

That on the 2d of December, 1697, the Lord Viſc. Maſſareene reported from the ſaid Committee, that they found, that in the Year 1641, ſeveral Lords therein mentioned, were all outlawed.

They alſo found, that ſeveral Lords, likewiſe named in that Report, were outlawed, but had ſince reverſed their Outlawries in this Kingdom, at the top of which Liſt of Lords, there is Richard Lord Viſc. Mountgarrett.

That on the 10th of October, 1698, It was ordered, that the Committee of Privileges ſhould inſpect the Records, together with the Journals, and other Books and Papers belonging to this Houſe, and inform themſelves which of the Lords of this Kingdom ſtand outlawed, and report the ſame to this Houſe; and had Power to ſend for Perſons, Papers and Records, in order to their proceeding thereon.

And on the 13th of the ſame Month, the ſaid Committee was ordered to meet that Afternoon, at Five o'clock: And on the 19th the Lord Viſc. Maſſareene reported from the Committee of Privileges, who were ordered to conſider of the wording the Reſolution, made the 2d of December, 1697, in relation to ſuch Lords or their Anceſtors, who ſtood outlawed, had met, and were of Opinion, that the Inconveniencies, which were apprehended in the wording of the ſaid Reſolution, may be avoided, by wording it thus, viz.

Reſolved, that thoſe Lords whoſe Anceſtors ſtand outlawed, ſhall not ſit in this Houſe, nor their Names be continued in the Roll of this Houſe, in the Right of ſuch Anceſtors.

Reſolved, that ſuch Lords who ſtand outlawed on Record, ſhall not have Privilege to ſit in this Houſe; but ought to be ſtruck out of the Roll of the Houſe.

And it was then reſolved, That this Houſe do agree with the Committee in the two foregoing Reſolutions.

And ordered, that the Report made by the Lord Viſc. Maſſareene, on the 15th of this inſt. October, in relation to ſuch Lords who ſtand outlawed, be entered in the Journal of this Houſe, as follows:

The Committee of Privileges, that were ordered to inſpect the Records, together with the Journals, and other Books and Papers belonging to this Houſe, and inform themſelves which of the Lords of this Kingdom ſtand outlawed, met, and on ſearch of Records, find that

Chriſtopher Earl of Fingall,
Nicholas Lord Viſc. Gormanſtown, &c.

do now ſtand outlawed in this Kingdom.

Amongſt whom the Lord Viſc. Mountgarrett is not named.

This is all that appears to the Lords' Committees, on the Journals of this Houſe, which any way relates to Richard Lord Viſc. Mountgarrett's having been allowed a Peer of this Realm.

The Clerk of the Crown being ſummoned, and his Deputy appearing, laid before this Committee, on the 19th of November laſt, an atteſted Copy of the Exigent, bearing date 13° Die Februar' Anno Regis Carol' 18° together with the Return of William Supple, Eſq; then High-Sheriff for the County of Cork.

And alſo two Rules of the Court of King's-Bench, dated 10° Junii (87) for the Reverſal of the Outlawry of Richard late Viſc. Mountgarrett; and he likewiſe produced the original Record of the Exigent, but no Rule of Court: And being aſked for the Record of the Reverſal of the ſaid Outlawry, acquainted their Lordſhips, that he had employed two Clerks to ſearch and likewiſe ſearched diligently himſelf, but could find no Record made up, purſuant to the Rules of Court. But that Mr. Tiſdall, former Officer, told him, that he believed that the Outlawry of the ſaid Richard Lord Viſc. Mountgarrett was reverſed.

W. Hawkins Eſq; produces Certificates, &c.

That William Hawkins, Eſq; attending according to Order, produced two original Certificates, ſigned by Daniel Wybrants, Dep' Cleric' Coron' indorſed as follows, viz.

" An Account of ſuch Iriſh Nobility as ſtand " outlawed, and of ſuch as have their Out- " lawries reverſed. Received from Phil' Savage, " at my Lord Chancellor's Houſe, the 23d of " Auguſt, 1692."

The firſt of which Certificates declares, that Lord Viſc. Mountgarrett had reverſed his Outlawry for High-Treaſon, in 1688.

The

The Second declares, that Lord Viſc. Mountgarrett had reverſed his Outlawry for High-Treaſon, committed in 1641.

Mr. Hawkins alſo produced an original Certificate, ſigned Dan. Wybrants, Dep$^{ty}$ Cleric$^{i}$ Coron$^{i}$ indorſed.

" Outlawries, September 21$^{ſt}$ 1695."

In this Certificate, are theſe Words, viz.

" Theſe ſeveral Perſons have been indicted " and outlawed for High-Treaſon by them " committed againſt his preſent Majeſty, and " her late Majeſty, and have reverſed their " ſeveral Outlawries, which were againſt them " for the ſaid Fact, which I certify the 21$^{ſt}$ of " September, 1695.

" Daniel Wybrants, D. C. C."

Amongſt which we find Richard Lord Viſc. Mountgarrett ſet down.

And in a third Certificate, there are theſe Words, viz.

" Theſe ſeveral Perſons ſtand indicted and " outlawed for High-Treaſon by them ſeve- " rally committed, on account of Rebellion, " which begun in this Kingdom the 23$^{d}$ of " October, 1641, which I certify the 21$^{ſt}$ Day " of September, 1695.

" Daniel Wybrants."

Amongſt whom, the Lord Viſc. Mountgarrett is not named.

Witneſs ſworn.

Mr. Tiſdall, (after being ſworn at the Bar, appearing according to Order before the Lords' Committees, and being examined) ſays.

That he believes the Certificates beforementioned are ſigned by Mr. Wybrants; but is not poſitive, becauſe he of late altered his way of writing; but he doth not take what is written in the Margins relating to the reverſing Lord Mountgarrett's and Lord Ikerrin's Outlawries to be of his Hand-writing.

Says, that Mr. Wybrants was long in the Office, beyond his Remembrance; that he believes him to have been an honeſt Man, and would ſign nothing but what he knew to be true.

That Lord Lowth and ſome other Popiſh Lords, who had Rules in 1687, applied to Mr. Savage, ſometime after the late Troubles, to have the Reverſals entered, purſuant to ſaid Rules: That, to the beſt of the Deponent's Remembrance, he being then concerned for Lord Lowth, Mr. Savage ſaid, It could not be then done without a new Rule of Court, and ſaid, It was their own Faults, that had not their Records made up; for if they had paid their Fees, they might have the Records made up at the time the Rules were made; and none were reverſed of thoſe Outlawries, but Lord Ikerrin's and Lord Mountgarrett's.

The Deponent being aſked, Whether Mr. Savage did not keep a Book, wherein he entered what Fees he received? The Deponent anſwered, That his Clerk did, for what Fees he received for him: But the Deponent did not know that he did, as to what he received for himſelf.

The Deponent being aſked, Whether it was the Cuſtom, in that Office, to indorſe the Reverſal of Outlawries upon the Back of the Record itſelf? Anſwered, It was not, as he believes, for he never ſaw any thing like it.

The Deponent being further aſked, Whether he remembered any Record to have been loſt or miſlaid? Anſwered, That Records have been often miſlaid, but he did not remember any being loſt.

The Deponent did not remember, whether Lord Ikerrin's Record was upon the Roll, when it was inquired after by Mr. Butler, or whether it was by him put upon the Roll upon the ſaid Inquiry, but he muſt believe it to have been then upon the Roll.

Says, that the late Truſtees had as often Recourſe to the Records as they deſired, and that they were often brought to them, and they kept them for a Week or a Fortnight, or as long as they thought fit: And the ſaid Deponent doth not remember that Mr. Wybrants took any Receipts for them, but doth not know of any being thereby loſt.

This Deponent being aſked, Whether the Records were carried to England, at the time of the Revolution? He anſwered, They were not: But that they were hid in ſeveral different Places, as at Mr. King's in Skinner-Row, the Lord Primate Boyle's, &c. to prevent their being deſtroyed.

Mr. Hawkins, (after being ſworn at the Bar, appearing, according to Order, before the Lords' Committees, and being examined) ſays: Witneſs ſworn.

That he the Deponent, having received a Liſt of ſuch Peers from Mr. Savage in the Year 1692, as had been indicted and outlawed, and ſuch as had reverſed; and, being apprehenſive that ſeveral Lords had reverſed, ſince he received that Certificate, he went to Mr. Wybrants, and deſired he would let him know what Lords had reverſed, ſince he received the ſame. Mr. Wybrants took the Certificate, and, in a Day or two, he and his Clerk had made their marginal Notes to that Purpoſe; but this Deponent, thinking it better to have a complete Certificate, deſired him to give him another. The ſaid Wybrants bade the ſaid Deponent call in a Day or two, which he did; and his Clerk brought the Paper, which the Deponent produced, dated in the Year 1695.

Firſt; containing a Liſt of ſuch Peers, as ſtood indicted and outlawed for Treaſon againſt King William and Queen Mary, and had reverſed their Outlawries for the ſame.

Secondly, ſuch as ſtood indicted and outlawed for the ſame, and had not reverſed their Outlawries.

Thirdly, ſuch as ſtood indicted and outlawed for the Rebellion of 1641.

And, on comparing it with the former Certificate, this Deponent found no Mention among the laſt, of Lord Ikerrin or Lord Mountgarrett, as he was in the former Certificate of 1692. He aſked Mr. Wybrants, Why he made no Mention of them? The ſaid Wybrants

Wybrants ſaid, I have given you ſuch Lords as are outlawed (or Words to that Purpoſe) This Deponent replied, you have given me ſuch Lords as were indicted and outlawed, and had reverſed their Treaſon againſt King William and Queen Mary: And why not thoſe that have reverſed the Outlawry of (41)? He the ſaid Wybrants ſaid, You have thoſe that ſtand now outlawed, and that will ſerve your Turn or Words to that Purpoſe.

In the Year 1698 or thereabouts, this Deponent being then King of Arms, gave into the Houſe a Liſt of Peers, as he found them on the Liſt before the Revolution: but Mr. Smith, the Clerk of the Houſe, gave him the ſaid Liſt back, and ſaid, It was the Order of the Houſe (and as he thinks ſhewed him the Order in the Journal) that he muſt take that Liſt, and return another; and leave out all ſuch Lords as then ſtood indicted and outlawed; which he accordingly did, and left out all ſuch Lords as appeared to him by the Certificate he received from Mr. Wybrants, in the Year 1695, amongſt which Netterville Viſc. Dowth was expunged: But Mr. Smith, ſome time after, told him, The Lords were ſatisfied that he was reſtored, by a Clauſe in an Act of Parliament; and it was their Order, that the Deponent ſhould interline him in his Place in that Liſt, which he accordingly did; in which Liſt he returned Richard Butler Viſc. Mountgarrett; the ſaid Deponent, conceiving, by the Certificates he received from Mr. Savage and Mr. Wybrants, that his Outlawry of (41) was reverſed as well as the Outlawry of 1688.

Some time after this Liſt was given (he the ſaid Deponent believes the Parliament that then ſat, was up) one Mr. Kelly, a Lawyer, met him one Day, and ſaid to him, "Haw-"kins, what have you done?" The ſaid Deponent aſked him, What? He ſaid, "You "have done that, which may fall heavy on "you one Day or other." This Deponent, being much ſurprized, preſſed him to tell him what it was. He ſaid, "I was at Jack Smith's "the other Day, where I ſaw a fine Liſt of "the Lords, which you gave to the Parlia-"ment, in which you have returned Lord "Mountgarrett." This Deponent told him, He was a Peer. The ſaid Kelly anſwered, He had ſome Reaſon to know that Matter pretty well, and ſaid, "I will tell you the Secret: "Lord Ikerrin and Lord Mountgarrett in the "Year (87) had Rules for the Reverſal of "their Outlawries of (41) That Lord Ikerrin's "Record of his Reverſal was made up; but "Lord Mountgarrett's never was; for, upon "his inquiring, what it would coſt to make "up the Record, was told, it would coſt £40: "He ſwore if it would coſt 40*s*. he would "not do it."

Mr. Kelly likewiſe ſaid, that Lord Mountgarrett then looking on it, that they had a ſure Game, and expected in a little time all thoſe Outlawries would be laid aſide, in Courſe, he would not be at any Expence to make up the Record; therefore ſay'd Mr. Kelly, "Hawkins, I would have you, the next Liſt "you return, leave him out, for he certainly "is no Peer." To which this Deponent anſwered, "He would not venture to do ſuch a "thing for £500; for ſince I have returned "him, and he has been thereby called in the "Houſe, he is now before the Lords, and they "may do with him what they pleaſe; but "I thank you for your Caution, for I will "now preſerve my Certificates as the Apple "of mine Eye: But I ſhall always return "him, till I have Orders from the Houſe of "Lords to the contrary."

Mr. Hawkins, being further examined, ſays, that what the aforeſaid Mr. Kelly ſpoke to him, relating to Lord Mountgarrett's not being a Peer, he the Deponent believes the ſaid Kelly ſpoke to him, in point of Friendſhip, ſuppoſing, that he, the Deponent, had done that which would, one time or another, be a Prejudice to him by returning Lord Mountgarrett on the Liſt of Peers; and that he, the Deponent, did then think, and is ſtill of the ſame Opinion, that what Mr. Kelly told him, relating to Lord Mountgarrett was true. That Mr. Kelly, being a Lawyer, and probably might have had Occaſion to inſpect the Records and might have informed himſelf of that Matter from thence, or by converſing with Clerks or Officers, in the Offices where his Buſineſs might have called him; and the Deponent did not apprehend, by any Diſcourſe he had with Mr. Kelly, that what Mr. Kelly told him was by any Converſation or Diſcourſe he had with Lord Mountgarrett.

Mr. Caldwell, (after being ſworn at the Bar, appearing, according to Order, before the Lords' Committees,) being aſked, If a Rough Book of Rules, produced by him, was the Book of Rules the Beginning of the 1ſt of King James II. in Eaſter Term 1685? The Deponent anſwered, That it was the Rough Book at that time. Witneſs ſworn.

The Deponent being alſo aſked, If a Fair Book of Rules, beginning Michaelmas, 1683, produced by him, was the true one? He anſwered, That it was.

In which is the following Copy of the Rule for Reverſal, viz. "Ex mot̃on̄ M̃ri Porter, è "Concil̄ p Defend̄ in preſent̄ Rich̃i Nagle, "Mil̄ Att̄ D̃ni Regis hujus R̃ni Hiber̄ "General̄ Revers̄ Utleḡ ver̃s Rich̃um "nuper D̃num Vic̄ Com̄ de Mountgarrett "pmulḡ

"WYBRANTS." 9° Junii 1687, Dom. Rex. Ric. Butler, nup̄ vōc. Vic. de Mountgarrett.

This Deponent, being further aſked, Whether there are not the like Rules in behalf of other Lords, who yet remain outlawed?

He anſwered, There are.

The Deponent being aſked, Whether it is not uſual to make up the Records for the Reverſal of Outlawries, as of the Term wherein the Rule was conceived for the Reverſal, although the Records are not, in Fact, made up, till ſome time after? The Deponent ſaid, It was uſual: but that it could not be regularly ſo done, after the Beginning of the third Term; but muſt, whenever it is done, be as of of the ſame Term, in which the Rule was conceived.

The ſaid Deponent, being aſked, If the Reverſals be always entered at the Foot of the Roll, where the Exigent is inrolled? ſaid, It muſt be entered there.

And being alſo aſked, If Lord Ikerrin's Record of the Reverſal of his Outlawry be inrolled, of the Term the Rule is conceived for the Reverſal of his Outlawry? He anſwered, That it is; and ſays, that he has the Roll of that Term, wherein the Rule of the Reverſal is conceived: But by that Roll, he finds no Footſteps of the Reverſal thereof.

And the ſaid Deponent ſays, That the Reverſal of an Outlawry, is not put at the Foot of the Exigent, but on a Roll, inrolled for that Purpoſe, and believes that there was a Writ of Error brought by the Lord Mountgarrett, but knows not what became of it; for he ſearched for the whole Proceedings thereon, but could not find them.

The Deponent being further aſked, Whether a Record, being made up, and carried into Court, annexed to the Writ of Error, in Order to aſſign Errors; and then, Whether the Errors then aſſigned, upon that Record, that went into Court, be not given to the Clerk, to make up the Record of Reverſal? The Deponent anſwered, That, regularly, it ſhould be ſo; that it is the Clerk of the Crown's Buſineſs to keep the Record of the Writ of Error; but that he cannot find it: Conceives the Affidavits and Certificates are not regular Evidences in Courſe of Law.

Witneſs ſworn.

The Curſitor, Mr. Carr, (after being ſworn at the Bar, appearing according to Order, before the Lords' Committees) produced two Precipe's or Inſtructions, for two Writs of Error; one, at the Seſſions held at Youghall, for the Co. Cork, the 18th of King Charles I. and the other, in the Co. Kildare, of the ſame Year, and to the ſame Purpoſe; he alſo produced a Book of Entries of the Writs, wherein it appears, that the ſaid two Writs were made out, as he believed; for according to the Practice of the Office, the ſame is never done, till after they are ſealed.

Mr. Jackman produces a Letter.

Mr. Jackman, Solicitor for the Lord Viſc. Mountgarrett, laid before the Committee, a Letter, directed to Richard Tiſdall, Eſq; in Dublin, and is as follows, viz.

SIR,

" I HAD Account from Ireland, this Day, " that the Reverſal of the Lord Mountgarrett's " Outlawry is miſſing; at which I much won- " der; and the more, becauſe it is ſaid, That " of Lord Ikerrin's is found: They were both " done together, and inrolled; and I am ſure " you and I have, both of us, ſeen them ſe- " veral times, and an Exemplification of each " of them, made and delivered out. Pray " ſearch more diligently, for it can be but " miſlaid; and if you look carefully, you may " find it entered. You cannot ſurely forget, " that we have, at ſeveral times, given Ac- " count of theſe Matters to the Houſe of " Lords. Perhaps Jack Smith may remember " it. Pray, Sir, be diligent in this Matter.

3° Decemb. 1715°.

" I remain Sir,

" Your affectionate Kinſman,

" and Humble Servant,

It is very hard I cannot hear a Word from you of any Matters

" P. SAVAGE."

☞ Take Care Mr. Caldwell has not miſlaid this Record, for he had it, I am confident.

Witneſſes ſworn.

Mr. Caldwell appearing, was ſhewn Mr Savage's Letter; owns it is his Hand, wherein he mentions that Lord Mountgarrett's Record was made up at the time Lord Ikerrin's was: That this Deponent believed Mr. Savage would not write that Letter, unleſs he had ſome Grounds for it; and Mr. Savage's Letter ſaying, " it may be miſlaid," which this Deponent believes, ſince he writes ſo. Mr. Savage, taking Notice, in the Poſtſcript of his Letter, in theſe Words, " Take Care Mr. Caldwell has " not miſlaid the Record, for he had it, I am " confident." This Deponent ſaid, That, directly or indirectly, he knows nothing of either miſlaying, loſing or making up that Record.

Mr. Richard Dalton, (after being ſworn at the Bar, appearing, according to Order, before the Lords' Committees, and being examined) ſays:

That there was an Indictment found, as this Deponent was informed, againſt Edward Cheevers, Eſq; commonly called Lord Mount Leinſter, about the Year 1710; and about the long Vacation, 1712, Proceſs to the Outlawry (as the Deponent was informed) iſſued, and the Term following, the ſaid Edward Cheevers was outlawed. In December, 1712, this Deponent became firſt concerned for the ſaid Ed. Cheevers's Brother; and the Deponent was in the King's Bench Office, and there obſerved, that all the Examination that was affixed to the Indictment, was taken away, except a ſmall Piece of a Paper Examination, which remained affixed to the Record: That Andrew Cheevers, Brother to the ſaid Edward, ſoon after applied to the late Queen to ſet aſide the ſaid Outlawry, as irregularly obtained; and the Matter of the ſaid Petition was referred by her Majeſty to the Government; and by the Government, to the then Attorney-General; and the Attorney-General ſummoned the Officer of the King's Bench, as he believes, to attend him; and the Officer produced a ſmall Piece of the Examination that remained on the Fyle, which appeared to be the Hand-writing of one Terence Geoghegan, an Attorney of the Exchequer; and believes, that Piece of the Examination is now in Sir Richard Levinge's Hands, who was then Attorney-General; and the ſaid Geoghegan owned, in this Deponent's Preſence, that the Writing on the Piece of the ſaid Examination, was his Hand-writing.

This Deponent, being aſked, Whether he knew of any Records being razed or miſlaid, in in 1687, relating to the Lord Mountgarrett? Said, He did not.

Being alſo aſked, Whether he, the Deponent, was or is an Officer in the King's Bench, or any other Court? Anſwered, He was not.

The ſaid Deponent, being further aſked, Whether he had Recourſe to any Records in the King's Bench, as Agent or Solicitor to any Perſon? Anſwered, He had ſeveral Searches, but had no Recourſe to them himſelf.

Mr. Caldwell, being further examined, in relation to the foregoing Examination of Mr. Richard Dalton, ſays, That in the Year 1710, as he remembers, there was a Bill of Indictment found againſt one Cheevers, commonly called Lord Mount Leinſter, at a Commiſſion of Oyer and Terminer, held at Kilmainham, and believes, upon the Examination of Terence Geoghegan, that the Indictment was removed by Certiorari, into the Court of King's Bench; and thereupon Proceſs to the Outlawry iſſued againſt the ſaid Cheevers, as this Deponent finds by the Entry at the Foot of the Indictment, in Mr. Tiſdall's Hand-writing: That this Deponent ſometime after obſerved, that the Examination was lacerated from the Indictment, and a little Part only remaining. Upon which this Deponent was ſurprized, and made diligent Inquiry about it, but could not find out how it happened, whether done by Deſign, or loſt accidentally. That this Deponent, at that time, made Affidavit, relating thereto. That, upon ſearching in the Clerk's Office for Lord Mountgarrett's Reverſal, found ſome Rolls, which he took thence, and put into a ſafer Place in this Deponent's Office; but never knew of my Lord Mountgarrett's to be there.

This is all that the Lords' Committees can find, in relation to the Lord Viſc. Mountgarrett, which is ſubmitted to your Lordſhip's Conſideration.

Motion for adjourning Report,

A Motion was made, and the Queſtion was put, Whether the Conſideration of the foregoing Report be adjourned to Monday Morning next?

negatived.

It was reſolved in the Negative.

Then the Houſe proceeded to the Conſideration of the ſaid Report; and after a long Debate, the Queſtion was put,

That the Outlawry for the Rebellion in 1641, of the Anceſtor of the Lord Viſcount Mountgarrett, under whom he derives his Honour, is reverſed;

And a Debate ariſing thereupon,

Previous Queſtion.

The previous Queſtion was put, Whether that Queſtion be now put?

It was reſolved in the Affirmative.

Main Queſtion, negatived.

The ſaid Queſtion was then put; and

It was reſolved in the Negative.

DISSENTIENT,

Proteſt.

I James Lord Viſc. Strabane, do hereby take the Liberty of conveying down to Poſterity my Diſſent from the Queſtion:

That the Outlawry for the Rebellion in 1641, of the Anceſtor of the Lord Viſcount Mountgarrett, under whom he derives his Honour, is reverſed:

As being humbly of Opinion, that the former Judgment of this Houſe thereupon might have been ſafely relied on, it having been grounded on the Reports made by Lords' Committees, in two Seſſions of Parliament, who had Power to ſend for Perſons, Papers and Records, as the late Committee likewiſe had: But it having been made appear upon Oath, that during the diſmal time preceding the late happy Revolution in this Kingdom, the Records were hid in ſeveral different Places. That the late Truſtees had as often Recourſe as they pleaſed to the ſaid Records, which were often brought to them, and kept by them, ſometimes a Week, at other times a Fortnight, and even longer, as they thought fit; and that without giving Mr. Wybrants, the then Keeper thereof, any Receipts for the ſame: And it alſo being owned by Mr. Caldwell, in whoſe Cuſtody the Records now are, That the Record relating to the Reverſal of the Lord Mountgarrett's Outlawry might be miſlaid, the old Records, not being all in their proper Places, but lying in Confuſion, and ſome of them not long ago in the Clerk's Room, who conſequently had them in their Power, until he lately removed the ſame to a ſafer Place. All theſe Circumſtances conſidered, though I do, with due Deference, ſubmit to the Reſult of Yeſterday's Proceedings in this Houſe, when the ſaid Queſtion was carried, it may nevertheleſs, in my humble Opinion, be reaſonably preſumed, That the former Lords' Committees, whoſe Reports were confirmed by the Houſe, had ſufficient Proof laid before them to ground the following Reſolutions upon, though what the ſaid Proofs were, do not appear upon the Journals, which did not then contain ſuch Particulars, as have very properly been begun to be inſerted therein, only during this preſent Seſſion.

On the 23d of November, 1697, there were Lords' Committees appointed to inſpect the Journals, and other Books and Papers belonging to this Houſe, and inform themſelves, which of the Lords of this Kingdom ſtand outlawed, and report the ſame to this Houſe, and this Committee had Power to ſend for Perſons, Papers and Records, in order to their proceeding thereon.

That on the 2d of December, 1697, the Lord Viſc. Maſſareene reported from the ſaid Committee, that they found, that in the Year 1641, ſeveral Lords therein mentioned were all outlawed.

They

They alſo found, that ſeveral Lords, likewiſe named, in that Report, were outlawed, but had ſince reverſed their Outlawries in this Kingdom, at the Top of which Liſt of Lords, there is Richard Lord Viſc. Mountgarrett.

That on the 10th of October, 1698, it was ordered, that the Committee of Privileges ſhould inſpect the Records, together with the Journals, and other Books and Papers belonging to this Houſe, and inform themſelves, which of the Lords of this Kingdom ſtand outlawed, and report the ſame to this Houſe, and had Power to ſend for Perſons, Papers and Records, in order to their proceeding thereon.

And on the 13th of the ſame Month, the ſaid Committee was ordered to meet that Afternoon, at Five o'clock.

And on the 19th the Lord Viſc. Maſſareene reported from the Committee of Privileges, who were ordered to conſider of the wording the Reſolution, made the 2d of December, 1697, in relation to ſuch Lords or their Anceſtors, who ſtood outlawed, had met, and were of Opinion, That Inconveniencies, which were apprehended in the wording of the ſaid Reſolution, may be avoided, by wording it thus, viz.

" Reſolved, that thoſe Lords whoſe Anceſtors ſtand outlawed, ſhall not ſit in this " Houſe, nor their Names be continued in the " Roll of this Houſe, in the Right of ſuch " Anceſtors.

" Reſolved, that ſuch Lords who ſtand outlawed on Record, ſhall not have Privilege " to ſit in this Houſe, but ought to be ſtruck " out of the Roll of the Houſe."

And it was then reſolved that this Houſe do agree with the Committee in the two foregoing Reſolutions.

And ordered, that the Report made by the Lord Viſc. Maſſareene on the 15th of this inſt. October, in relation to ſuch Lords who ſtand outlawed, be entered in the Journal of this Houſe, as follows:

The Committee of Privileges, that were ordered to inſpect the Records, together with the Journals and other Books and Papers belonging to this Houſe, and inform themſelves which of the Lords of this Kingdom ſtand outlawed, met, and on Search of Records, find that do now ſtand outlawed in this Kingdom.

Amongſt whom the Lord Viſc. Mountgarrett is not named.

STRABANE.

DISSENTIENT,

WE the Lords under-written, do alſo diſſent from the ſaid Queſtion:

Report about temporary Laws, &c.

The Lord Chancellor, from the Lords' Committees, appointed to inquire what Laws are expired, or are near expiring, and may be thought fit to be revived, continued or made perpetual; and also what Laws are in Force in Great Britain, that may be thought fit to be passed into Laws in this Kingdom; reported as follows, viz.

My Lords,

YOUR Committee, appointed to inquire what temporary Laws are expired, or are near expiring, and may be thought fit to be revived, continued or made perpetual; and also what Laws are of Force in Great Britain, which may be thought fit to be passed into Laws in this Kingdom; have met, and do not find, that any Statute-Law is expired, which, in their Opinion, is fit to be revived, except the Act for Recovery of small Debts and Servants' Wages. They also find, that the Commons, before your Committee met, had ordered Heads of a Bill to be brought in for reviving the said Laws; as also for continuing such other temporary Laws as seem to your Committee fit to be continued; and therefore have not thought fit to trouble your Lordships with mentioning them.

They also find, that there is a Statute of Force in Great Britain, made in the 5th Year of Queen Anne, to ratify and confirm the Grant made by her said Majesty, of the First-Fruits to the Clergy in England; and are come to this Resolution:

Resolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that an Act of the same Tendency to confirm the Grants, made by her said late Majesty of the First-Fruits and Twentieth Parts, payable out of ecclesiastical Benefices in this Kingdom, to the Uses, and subject to the Trusts in the Letters Patents contained, is very fit to pass into a Law in this Kingdom.

They also find, that there is a Statute of Force in Great Britain, made in the 6th of Queen Anne, which gives Bishops four Years' Time for Payment of their First-Fruits, and are come to this further Resolution:

Resolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that an Act of like Tendency, giving the Bishops, and all other inferior Clergymen, four Years' Time for the Payment of First-Fruits, is very fit to pass into a Law in this Kingdom.

And the same, being afterwards read by the Clerk, was agreed to by the House.

Order to prepare Heads of Bill

Ordered, that the said Committee do prepare and bring in Heads of a Bill, pursuant to the said Resolutions.

Ordered, that the Committee appointed to inquire whether the Orders of this House for the Committal of any Person, are to be signed by the Lord Chancellor, as Speaker, or by the Clerk of the Parliaments, be and is hereby revived.

Heads of Bill for preserving Game.

The House being moved, that Heads of a Bill may be brought in for explaining and amending an Act, intitled, An Act for the better Preservation of the Game.

Ordered, that Heads of a Bill be brought in, as is desired; and that the Earl of Cavan do prepare and bring in the same.

Heads of Ld Loftus's Bill.

Then the House, according to Order, was adjourned during Pleasure, and put into a Committee, to take into further Consideration, Heads of a Bill for vesting certain Lands, Part of the Estate of the Right Hon. Arthur Lord Visc. Loftus of Ely, in Trustees, to be sold for raising the Sum of £8000, to be paid to the Right Hon. Mary Countess Dowager of Drogheda, sole Executrix of the last Will and Testament of the Right Hon. Henry Earl of Drogheda, deceased, and for confirming a Settlement made by the said Lord Loftus of his Estate, and for securing a Jointure to the Right Hon. Lætitia Lady Viscountess Loftus, his now Wife, in Case she happen to survive him, and for other Purposes; and after some time spent therein,

Prayers.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

Lord Dillon takes Oath of Allegiance, but declines other Oaths, &c.

This Day, the Lord Visc. Dillon, in Obedience to the Order of this House of the 12th of December last, signified to him by the Lord Chancellor, appeared and delivered his Writ, in the usual manner, and took the Oath of Allegiance; and being asked, Whether he would take the other Oaths, and make and subscribe the Declaration, pursuant to the Statutes? His Lordship was pleased to say, He would consider of it; and then withdrew.

Ordered, that the Earl of Barrymore have Leave to go into Great Britain, upon extraordinary Occasions, leaving his Proxy.

Ordered, that the Lord Visc. Valentia have Leave to go into Great Britain, upon extraordinary Occasions, leaving his Proxy.

The Orders of the Day being read, concerning Popish Lords refusing to take Oaths, &c.

Ordered, that the Earl of Antrim be excused his attending the Service of this House, till this Day Fortnight.

The House (taking Notice, that several of the Popish Lords, who are by Writ summoned to Parliament, and having appeared in the House, delivered their Writs, and took the Oath of Allegiance, but refused taking the other Oaths, and to make and subscribe the Declaration, pursuant to the Statutes, in order to qualify them to attend the Service of the House)

Lords not to have Privilege till they take the Oaths, &c

Resolved, that no Lord of Parliament, after tendering his Parliamentary Writ of Summons in the House, shall have Parliamentary Privilege in this House, till such time as he shall have taken and subscribed the Oath of Abjuration, as well as the Oath of Allegiance, and the other Oaths contained in the Act to prevent the further Growth of Popery, and also make and subscribe the Declaration therein mentioned.

House informed of a Rebellion.

The House, being informed of an unnatural Rebellion, at this time broke out in Great Britain, in favour of the Popish Pretender; and that they had Reason to believe that the said Pretender was actually landed in North Britain: And it being proposed, that the House should enter into an Association, in favour of his most Sacred Majesty King George, and the Protestant Succession in his royal House.

House enter into an Association.

Resolved, that this House do enter into an Association, to defend and assist his most Sacred Majesty King George and the Protestant Succession, in his royal House, with our Lives and Fortunes, against the Pretender and all his Adherents.

Addreſs to Lords Juſtices reported.

To their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices,

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament aſſembled.

Addreſs to Lords Juſtices.

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, obſerving with intire Satisfaction, the great Care which your Excellencies have taken to preſerve this Kingdom in Tranquillity, and to prevent the reſtleſs Malice of the Enemies of our Peace, from bringing their wicked Deſigns to effect, do think it incumbent on us to render to your Excellencies, our hearty and unfeigned Thanks for the Vigilancy and Prudence of your Adminiſtration, in theſe Times of Difficulty and Danger.

The Diſpoſitions already made by your Excellencies, of thoſe Forces which are in this Kingdom, and the Directions given to all Magiſtrates, by your Excellencies' late Order in Council, to quicken them in the Execution of the Laws againſt Papiſts and diſaffected Perſons, might ſeem to take away all Occaſions of addreſſing ourſelves to your Excellencies, on either of thoſe Subjects; yet ſince we have Reaſon to believe, that the Pretender is actually landed in North Britain, we crave Leave, in this manner, to expreſs our Zeal and Concern for the Safety of his Majeſty's Perſon and Government, deſiring your Excellencies to proceed in putting this Kingdom into the beſt Poſture of Defence it is capable of, as the moſt proper Means to prevent inteſtine Commotions, and diſappoint any Attempt that may be made againſt it from abroad.

And though we have no Inclinations, without great Neceſſity, to apply for the Execution of Penal Laws; yet our regard to the Preſervation of our Religious and Civil Intereſts, and the Peace of the Kingdom, oblige us at this Time to make it our Requeſt, that your Excellencies will ſtrictly require, that the Laws in Force againſt Papiſts, and more particularly thoſe againſt Regulars, and all Perſons of the Popiſh Religion, exerciſing eccleſiaſtical Juriſdiction, be put in immediate Execution, as the moſt effectual Method to clear the Land from thoſe

Addreſs to Lords Juſtices reported.

The Lord Chancellor reported from the Lords Committees, appointed to draw up an Addreſs to be preſented to their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices (upon the Reſolution of Monday laſt) that they had drawn up an Addreſs accordingly, which they had directed him to report, and he read the ſame; and afterwards delivered it in at the Table, where the ſame was again read by the Clerk, and afterwards read, Paragraph by Paragraph, and agreed unto by the Houſe, and is as follows, viz.

To their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices,

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament aſſembled.

Addreſs to Lords Juſtices.

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, obſerving with intire Satisfaction, the great Care which your Excellencies have taken to preſerve this Kingdom in Tranquillity, and to prevent the reſtleſs Malice of the Enemies of our Peace, from bringing their wicked Deſigns to effect, do think it incumbent on us to render to your Excellencies, our hearty and unfeigned Thanks for the Vigilancy and Prudence of your Adminiſtration, in theſe Times of Difficulty and Danger.

The Diſpoſitions already made by your Excellencies, of thoſe Forces which are in this Kingdom, and the Directions given to all Magiſtrates, by your Excellencies' late Order in Council, to quicken them in the Execution of the Laws againſt Papiſts and diſaffected Perſons, might ſeem to take away all Occaſions of addreſſing ourſelves to your Excellencies, on either of thoſe Subjects; yet ſince we have Reaſon to believe, that the Pretender is actually landed in North Britain, we crave Leave, in this manner, to expreſs our Zeal and Concern for the Safety of his Majeſty's Perſon and Government, deſiring your Excellencies to proceed in putting this Kingdom into the beſt Poſture of Defence it is capable of, as the moſt proper Means to prevent inteſtine Commotions, and diſappoint any Attempt that may be made againſt it from abroad.

And though we have no Inclinations, without great Neceſſity, to apply for the Execution of Penal Laws; yet our regard to the Preſervation of our Religious and Civil Intereſts, and the Peace of the Kingdom, oblige us at this Time to make it our Requeſt, that your Excellencies will ſtrictly require, that the Laws in Force againſt Papiſts, and more particularly thoſe againſt Regulars, and all Perſons of the Popiſh Religion, exerciſing eccleſiaſtical Juriſdiction, be put in immediate Execution, as the moſt effectual Method to clear the Land from thoſe thoſe Incendiaries and Promoters of the Pretender's Intereſt among the common People, whoſe Credulity leads them to an intire Dependence on their Prieſts and Friars.

Addreſs to be preſented by whole Houſe.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices by the whole Houſe.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait upon their Excellencies to know their Pleaſure, when they will be attended by this Houſe with the ſaid Addreſs.

The Houſe being informed, that Mr. David Coghlan, who was the laſt Seſſion of Parliament ordered into Cuſtody of the Serjeant at Arms attending this Houſe, for a Contempt, in not appearing upon an Order of the Houſe, to anſwer a Breach of Privilege, complained of againſt him by the Lord Shelburne, abſconded, and has not hitherto been taken:

And the Standing Order, N° 72, being read;

It is ordered by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Order for taking the ſaid Coghlan into Cuſtody, be and it is hereby revived; and the Serjeant at Arms is hereby required to attach the Body of the ſaid Coghlan, purſuant thereunto.

Order againſt Mr. David Coghlan revived.

The Lord Chancellor, according to Order, reported the Heads of a Bill for confirming ſeveral Grants made by her late Majeſty, of the Firſt-Fruits and Twentieth Parts, payable out of the eccleſiaſtical Benefices in this Kingdom, to the Uſes, and ſubject to the Truſts, in the ſaid Letters Patents contained; and alſo for giving the Biſhops and all other inferior Clergymen, four Years' Time for the Payment of Firſt-Fruits, as it ſtood amended.

Ordered, that the ſaid Heads of a Bill be read a third time To-morrow Morning.

Report from Lords Juſtices

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that he had waited upon their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices, humbly to know, when they will pleaſe to be attended by this Houſe; and that they have been pleaſed to appoint this Day, at Two of the clock, at his Majeſty's Caſtle of Dublin.

Viſcount Valentia Leave to wave Privilege.

Ordered, that the Lord Viſc. Valentia have the Leave of this Houſe, to wave his Privilege at the Suit of the Lord Altham.

Lords, indiſpoſed, deſire to ſign Aſſociation.

The Houſe, being informed, that the Lord Archbiſhop of Dublin, the Lord Archbiſhop of Tuam and the Lord Biſhop of Oſſory, were incapable, by reaſon of their Indiſpoſition, to attend the Service of the Houſe, and being deſirous to ſign the Aſſociation, entered into by the Houſe, prayed that they may be admitted to ſign the ſame.

Ordered, that the Clerk of the Parliaments do wait upon their Lordſhips with the ſaid Aſſociation, for their Lordſhips' Signature.

L^d Netterville takes Oath of Allegiance, but declines taking other Oaths, &c.

This Day John Lord Viſc. Netterville delivered his Writ, in the uſual Manner, and took the Oath of Allegiance; and being aſked to take the other Oaths, and make and ſubſcribe the Declaration, purſuant to the Statutes, his Lordſhip deſired Time to conſider of it; and then withdrew.

Upon reading the Orders of the Day,

Heads of Firſt-Fruits' Bill,

Heads of a Bill for confirming ſeveral Grants, made by her late Majeſty of the Firſt Fruits and Twentieth Parts, payable out of eccleſiaſtical Benefices in this Kingdom, to the Uſes and ſubject to the Truſts in the ſaid Letters Patents contained, and alſo for giving the Biſhops and all other inferior Clergyman, four Years' Time for the Payment of Firſt-Fruits, was read a third time.

agreed to.

And a Clauſe being offered to be inſerted in the ſaid Heads of a Bill, the ſame was received, and after being twice read, was agreed to by the Houſe, and made Part of the ſaid Heads of a Bill.

and ſent to Lords Juſtices.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do attend their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices with the ſaid Heads of a Bill, and deſire their Excellencies will pleaſe to tranſmit the ſame into Great Britain in due Form.

Prayers.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

The Lord Chancellor reported, that the Houſe did, on Thurſday laſt, attend their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices, and preſented the Addreſs of this Houſe to their Excellencies; to which they were pleaſed to give this Anſwer, viz.

Lords Juſtices' Anſwer.

"WE are glad to find, that what we have "done in Diſcharge of our Duty, for the "Security of this Kingdom, is ſo agreeable "to your Lordſhips' Sentiments; and it is "not to be doubted, but the firm and loyal "Reſolution your Lordſhips have ſhewn "upon this Occaſion, muſt ſtrike a Damp "upon the Spirits of all thoſe who are "Enemies to his Majeſty's Perſon, and the "Proteſtant Succeſſion in his royal Houſe; "whereupon depends the Security of our "moſt excellent Conſtitution, in Church "and State."

Addreſs and Anſwer to be printed.

It is ordered by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Addreſs of this Houſe, preſented to their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices on Thurſday laſt, and their Excellencies' Anſwer thereunto, be forthwith printed and publiſhed.

Reſolved, that the Thanks of this Houſe be returned to their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices, for their Excellencies' Anſwer to the Addreſs of this Houſe.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait on their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices, and acquaint them therewith.

Complaint on Breach of Privilege.

Upon Complaint made to the Houſe by the Lord Viſc. Fitzwilliam, that his Steward was arreſted at the Suit of Thomas Francis, by John Gill, a Bailiff, notwithſtanding the ſaid Francis and the ſaid Gill knew him to be in his Lordſhip's Service; and that his ſaid Steward was continued in Arreſt, until he was ſet at Liberty by the ſaid Francis's Attorney, upon his hearing the Perſon, ſo confined, was his Lordſhip's Servant, and within the Privilege of Parliament.

Orders thereon.

IT is ordered by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Serjeant at Arms attending this Houſe, his Deputy or Deputies, do forthwith attach the Bodies of the ſaid Thomas Francis and John Gill, and keep them in ſafe Cuſtody, until further Order of this Houſe, and this ſhall be a ſufficient Warrant on that behalf.

To Thomas Carter, Eſq; Serjeant at Arms attending this Houſe, his Deputy or Deputies, and every of them.

Lords Juſtices to be waited on with Aſſociation.

Reſolved, that this Houſe do attend their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices with the Aſſociation entered into by this Houſe, and deſire that their Excellencies will be pleaſed to lay the ſame before his Majeſty.

Ordered, that the Lord Moor do wait upon their Excellencies to know their Pleaſure, when they will be attended by this Houſe with the ſaid Aſſociation.

Then the Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, and the Lord Moor went to the Caſtle.

The Houſe was reſumed.

And the Lord Moor acquainted the Houſe, that he had waited upon their Excellencies, to know when they will pleaſe to be attended by this Houſe with the Aſſociation of this Houſe: Their Excellencies have been pleaſed to appoint this Day, at half an Hour after Two of the clock, at his Majeſty's Caſtle of Dublin.

Aſſociation to be printed.

It is ordered by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Aſſociation entered into by this Houſe the 17th inſt. with the Names of the ſeveral Lords thereunto ſubſcribed, be forthwith printed and publiſhed.

The Houſe was reſumed.

Lords Juſtices preſent. And his Grace Charles Duke of Grafton, and his Excellency Henry Earl of Galway, Lords Juſtices General and General Governors of Ireland, having entered the Houſe with the uſual Ceremonies of Grandeur; the Earl of Mount Alexander carrying the Sword of State, the Earl of Cavan, the Cap of Maintenance, and the Earl of Kildare, the Robe of State, the Hon. Arthur St. Leger, Eſq; eldeſt Son to the Lord Viſc. Doneraile, the Hon. John Chicheſter, Eſq; Brother to the Earl of Donegal, and the Honourable Charles O'Brien, Eſq, Son to the Earl of Inchiquin, bearing the Train of the ſaid Robe, which was laid on a Table for that Purpoſe before the Throne, their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices making their Congé to the Throne, ſeated themſelves in Chairs under the Canopy, all the Lords Spiritual and Temporal ſtanding robed in their Places, uncovered, till their Lordſhips took their Seats. And the Lord Chancellor kneeling, conferred with the Lords Juſtices; and then, ſtanding at the right hand of the Chairs of State, commanded the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod to ſignify to the Commons, that it is their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices' Pleaſure, they attend them preſently in the Houſe of Peers:

Who being returned, acquainted their Excellencies, that the Commons were at the Door;

And being ordered to call them in,

They were conducted to the Bar, with the uſual Ceremonies.

And Mr. Speaker, after a ſhort Speech to their Excellencies, in relation to the Bill, intitled, An Act for granting to his Majeſty, an additional Duty on all Wines and ſtrong Waters, &c. and alſo the Act to attaint the Pretender, he delivered the Money-Bill to the Clerk of the Parliaments, who brought it to the Table, where the Clerk of the Crown read the Title of that, and the other Bills to be paſſed, as follows, viz.

Royal Aſſent given to four Bills.

1. An Act for granting to his Majeſty, an additional Duty on all Wines and ſtrong Waters and Spirits perfectly made, and upon all Spirits made and diſtilled of Wine, and alſo a Tax on Salaries, Profits of Employments, Fees and Penſions therein mentioned.

To this the Clerk of the Parliaments pronounced the Royal Aſſent in theſe Words, viz.

"Le Roy remercie ſes bons Subjects, accepte leur Benevolence, et ainſi le veult."

2. An Act to attaint the Perſon, who, during the Life of the late King James, took upon him the Stile and Title of Prince of Wales, and ſince the Deceaſe of the ſaid King James, hath aſſumed the Name and Title of James the Third, King of England and Ireland, and James the Eighth, King of Scotland, commonly called the Chevalier de St. George, or the Pretender, and all his Adherents, and to give a Reward of £50,000 Sterl. to any Perſon who ſhall ſeize and ſecure the ſaid Pretender, if he lands or attempts to land in this Kingdom.
3. An Act for preventing Miſchiefs that may happen by Fire.
4. An Act to enable Infants, who are ſeized or poſſeſſed of Eſtates in Fee, in Truſt or by way of Mortgage, to make Conveyances of ſuch Eſtates.

To theſe Bills the Clerk of the Parliaments pronounced the Royal Aſſent, ſeverally, in theſe Words, viz.

"Le Roy le veult."

Then their Excellencies made a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, delivered by his Grace the Duke of Grafton, as follows, viz.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lords Juſtices' Speech.

HAVING received Letters this Morning from England, by Expreſs, from one of his Majeſty's principal Secretaries of State, adviſing us, that there is Reaſon to believe, that this Kingdom will be very ſuddenly invaded: We thought it our Duty to communicate the ſame to you without Loſs of Time, that you may take ſuch Meaſures thereupon, as may beſt conduce to the Defence and Security of your Country.

Nor have we any Room to doubt (after the Aſſurances you have given in your Addreſſes, and by your voluntary Aſſociations, of your ſincere and hearty Affection for his Majeſty's Perſon and Government,) but that you will exert yourſelves, upon this Occaſion, in the moſt effectual manner, to defeat ſo horrid and treaſonable an Attempt.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

IT will be particularly incumbent on You, to take ſuch Reſolutions, at this Juncture, as may enable us to do what is further neceſſary, to put the Kingdom in a ſufficient Poſture of Defence, with the utmoſt Expedition. Whatever Expence ſhall be made at this time, will be ſo much laid out to preſerve the whole; and you may depend upon it, whatever Powers you ſhall intruſt us with, ſhall be made Uſe of with the greateſt Frugality, and for the Purpoſes, only, which you deſign them.

It is with much Satisfaction, that we can acquaint you, that his Majeſty, upon our Repreſentation, has been graciouſly pleaſed, out of his tender Concern for this Kingdom, to direct, that the ſeveral Regiments, taken from this Eſtabliſhment, ſhall be paid in Great Britain, from the time of their Arrival there.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

AS your Preſence will be abſolutely neceſſary in the Country, we muſt recommend to you all poſſible Diſpatch in your Proceedings, that you may have an Opportunity of ſhewing the ſame Zeal for his Majeſty's Service, and the Preſervation of this Kingdom, in your reſpective Stations, as you have done conjointly, and with great Unanimity, in Parliament.

Lords Juſtices retire.

Then their Excellencies were pleaſed to withdraw, and were attended as they entered; and the Commons returned to their Houſe.

The Lord Chancellor reported their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices' Speech:

And the ſame being afterwards read by the Clerk,

Committee for Addreſs to his Majeſty.

Lords' Committees were appointed to draw an humble Addreſs, to be preſented to his Majeſty, to aſſure his Majeſty of their firm Adherence to his Majeſty, in ſupporting his juſt Right and Title to the Crown and Government of theſe Kingdoms, againſt the Pretender, and all his Adherents; and that this Houſe will uſe their utmoſt Endeavours to prevent and ſuppreſs all Deſigns and Attempts that ſhall be formed or made to diſturb the Peace of this Kingdom, and to oppoſe and diſappoint any Invaſion that may be intended againſt the ſame, and report to the Houſe;

PRAYERS.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

It is ordered by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Thanks of this Houſe ſhall be and are hereby given to the Lord Biſhop of Clogher, for his excellent Sermon, preached before this Houſe, Yeſterday, at Chriſt-Church, and his Lordſhip is hereby deſired to print and publiſh the ſame.

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that he had received a Letter from the Earl of Clanrickard, to deſire, that by reaſon of his Indiſpoſition, he may be excuſed his attending the Service of the Houſe,

And his Lordſhip was thereupon excuſed his Attendance purſuant to a former Order of this Houſe.

The Lord Biſhop of Clogher acquainted the Houſe, that he had received a Letter from his Grace the Lord Archbiſhop of Caſhell, wherein his Grace expreſſes his very great Concern, that his ill State of Health will not admit his Grace to attend the Service of the Houſe, and is thereby incapacitated to ſign the Aſſociation entered into by this Houſe, to ſupport his his moſt Sacred Majeſty King George; and humbly deſired, that the Lord Biſhop of Clogher might have Leave to ſubſcribe his Name to the ſaid Aſſociation.

Biſhop of Clogher not to ſign Aſſociation for Archbiſhop Caſhell.

Whereupon it was ordered, that his Grace, by reaſon of his Indiſpoſition, ſhould be excuſed his attending the Service of the Houſe; but the Houſe would not give Leave to the Lord Biſhop of Clogher to ſubſcribe his Grace's Name to the ſaid Aſſociation, by reaſon his Grace had not, this Seſſion of Parliament, qualified himſelf to ſit in the Houſe.

The Lord Chancellor reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to draw up an Addreſs to be preſented to his Majeſty, to aſſure his Majeſty of their firm Adherence to his Majeſty, in ſupporting his juſt Right and Title to the Crown and Government of theſe Kingdoms, againſt the Pretender, and and all his Adherents; and that this Houſe will uſe their utmoſt Endeavours to prevent and ſuppreſs all Deſigns and Attempts that ſhall be formed or made, to diſturb the Peace of this Kingdom; and to oppoſe and diſappoint any Invaſion that may be intended againſt the ſame: That they had drawn up an Addreſs, which they had directed him to report to the Houſe; and he read the ſame in his Place, and afterwards delivered it in at the Table, where the ſame was twice read, and alſo read, Paragraph by Paragraph; and, with ſome Amendments, agreed unto by the Houſe, and is as follows, viz.

To the KING's moſt excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Addreſs to the King.

THE Intimation, lately given by the Lords Juſtices, in their Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, of an intended Invaſion of this Kingdom, induces your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, to renew their Aſſurances of an immoveable Fidelity to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, in Oppoſition to the Pretender, and all his Favourers and Abettors.

It is not without a very deep Concern, that we find ſo many of your Majeſty's Subjects in Great Britain, ſeduced from their Duty and Allegiance, while the faithful and obedient Proteſtants of this Kingdom (in the Midſt of a great Majority of Papiſts) have preſerved this Country in perfect Tranquility and Peace, and an intire Obedience to your Majeſty's Authority.

And we promiſe to uſe our utmoſt Endeavours, in our ſeveral Stations, to preſerve the Quiet of this Realm, by oppoſing any Invaſion that ſhall be attempted, and ſuppreſſing all Commotions that may be raiſed, to favour the Deſigns of your Majeſty's Enemies. May GOD, who hath raiſed your Majeſty to be a Protector and Defender of your People, defeat and diſappoint the traitorous Deſigns and Attempts of all thoſe, who have taken or ſhall take Arms againſt your Majeſty; may your Enemies be covered with Shame, but on the Head of your Majeſty, and of your royal Poſterity may the Crown ever flouriſh!

Addreſs to Lords Juſtices reported.

And alſo, the Lord Chancellor reported from the Lords' Committes, appointed to draw up an Addreſs of Thanks, to be preſented to their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices, for their Speech, made to both Houſes of Parliament, on Saturday laſt; that they had drawn up an Addreſs, which they had directed him to report to the Houſe, and he read the ſame in his Place, and afterwards delivered it in at the Table, where the ſame was twice read, and agreed unto by the Houſe, and is as follows, viz.

To their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices,

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellencies,

Addreſs to Lords Juſtices.

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, do, with great Satisfaction, obſerve the conſtant Vigilance and unwearied Diligence, that has always appeared in your Excellencies' Proceedings for his Majeſty's Service, ſince your firſt Arrival in this Kingdom, of which the early Communication you have been pleaſed to give us of the late Intelligence which you have received, is a freſh and further Inſtance.

The Bleſſing of Peace, which we happily enjoy, while an unnatural Rebellion is kept up in the neighbouring Kingdom, as it, in the firſt Place, calls for our unfeigned Thanks to Almighty GOD, for his watchful and good Providence over us, ſo does it again require our moſt grateful Acknowledgments to your Excellencies, as, under GOD, and the King's Majeſty, the principal Inſtruments of it: And we aſſure your Excellencies, that, upon this and all other Occaſions, we ſhall be moſt ready, with the utmoſt Diſpatch, to expedite every thing that may conduce to his Majeſty's Service, in whoſe Happineſs and Proſperity we look upon our own to be bound up.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to their Excellencies the Lord Juſtices by the whole Houſe, and that their Excellencies be deſired to lay before his Majeſty, the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Majeſty.

Addreſs to be preſented by Houſe.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait upon their Excellencies, to know their Excellencies' Pleaſure, when they will be attended by this Houſe, with the ſaid Addreſſes.

Then the Houſe adjourned during Pleaſure; and the Lord Chancellor went to the Caſtle.

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that he had waited upon their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices, to know when they will pleaſe to be attended by this Houſe, with the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Majeſty, and alſo the Addreſs of this Houſe to their Excellencies: Their Excellencies have been pleaſed to appoint this Day, at half an hour after Two of the clock, at his Majeſty's Caſtle of Dublin.

Ordered, that the Serjeant at Arms attending this Houſe, his Deputy or Deputies, do, on Monday Morning next, bring the Body of the ſaid Thomas Francis to the Bar of this Houſe, there to be reprimanded for his Offence, in order to his being diſcharged.

Viſcounteſs Ikerrin's Pet.

A Petition of the Right Hon. Olivia Lady Viſcounteſs Dowager Ikerrin, ſetting forth, that upon her Inter-marriage with Pierce Lord Viſc. Ikerrin, deceaſed, in 1703, his Lordſhip agreed to ſettle a Jointure of £300 ℔˜ Ann. out of his real Eſtate, in Caſe ſhe ſurvived him: That the ſaid Lord Viſc. Ikerrin died in 1710, leaving only one Son by a former Wife, of about ten Years of Age. That ſome time after the Death of the ſaid Pierce Lord Viſc. Ikerrin, ſhe preferred a Bill in Chancery, in order to have her ſaid Jointure decreed to her; but James, the then Lord Viſc. Ikerrin, dying about Auguſt, 1712, the ſaid Suit did abate, and the Honour and Eſtate came to Thomas, now Lord Viſc. Ikerrin, Uncle to the ſaid James. That ſhe was neceſſitated to prefer a Bill in Chancery againſt ſaid Thomas, who did not put in any Anſwer, till ſhe had an Order for a Sequeſtration.

That the Cauſe is now ready to be heard, but in regard the ſaid Thomas is a Peer of this Realm, the Petitioner's Lawyers, Six-Clerk and Agent were afraid, by proceeding therein, to incur the Diſpleaſure of this Houſe; and praying (that in regard, that ſhe has been kept out of her ſaid Jointure upwards of five Years, and that her Demand is only for her Life, and ſome of her Witneſſes very old) to grant ſuch Relief as will permit her to proſecute the ſame, without incurring the Diſpleaſure of this Houſe, in ſuch Manner as they ſhould think fit; was preſented to the Houſe and read.

Order thereon.

It is ordered by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the ſaid Petition ſhall be, and it is hereby referred to the Lords' Committees for Privileges, to conſider thereof; and hear ſuch Perſons concerning the ſame as they ſhall think fit, and report their Opinion thereupon to the Houſe; whoſe Lordſhips are to meet on Monday next, at Ten o'clock in the Forenoon, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers.

My Lords,

Report from Committee of Privileges,

THE Lords' Committees of Privileges, to whom the Petition of the Right Hon. Olivia Lady Viſcounteſs Dowager Ikerrin was referred, are come to the following Reſolution, viz.

RESOLVED,

That it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the Lord Chancellor be deſired to write to the Lord Viſcount Ikerrin, and acquaint his Lordſhip, that the Viſcounteſs Dowager Ikerrin has preferred a Petition to this Houſe, praying, that his Lordſhip may be directed to wave his Privilege in a Suit, commenced by her Ladyſhip againſt him, in relation to her Dower; and that a Copy of the ſaid Petition be ſent to his Lordſhip, and that he be deſired to inform the Houſe, why the Courſe of Law in this Caſe ſhould be ſuſpended?

Then the ſaid Report, being read twice by the Clerk at the Table, the Queſtion was put, Whether this Houſe do agree with the Lords' Committees of Privileges in the ſaid Reſolution? not agreed to.

It was reſolved in the Negative.

Then, it being propoſed, that the Houſe ſhould reſolve, that this Houſe will not cenſure or puniſh the Counſel, Clerk, Solicitor or Agent of Olivia Lady Viſcounteſs Dowager Ikerrin, for proſecuting a Suit, now depending between her Ladyſhip and the Right Hon. Thomas Lord Viſc. Ikerrin: Reſolution thereon,

And a Debate ariſing thereupon,

The previous Queſtion was put, Whether the ſaid Queſtion be now put? Previous Queſtion.

It was reſolved in the Affirmative.

The ſaid Queſtion was then put; and

It was reſolved in the Affirmative.

PRAYERS.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

The Houſe being informed, that the Right Hon. the E. of Cavan has been a Commiſſioned Officer 24 Years, and ſerved in Spain, the Weſt Indies and in Portugal, where his Lordſhip was broke Lieutenant-Colonel of the Regiment of Foot commanded by Col. Edm. Fielding, and that his Lordſhip is now upon the Engliſh Eſtabliſhment of Half-pay as ſuch; and there being ſeveral Regiments now to be raiſed in Great Britain, and his Lordſhip, as he is a Peer of this Realm, being obliged to attend his Majeſty's and the Kingdom's Service in Parliament, and thereby incapable of applying perſonally to his Majeſty, ſo as to be provided for in the new Levies now to be raiſed, as aforeſaid, according to the Date of his Commiſſion, and the Merits of his long Service:

Earl of Cavan to be recommended to his Majeſty, as alſo

It is ordered by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Lord Chancellor do attend their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices, and acquaint them, that it is the Deſire of this Houſe, that their Excellencies will recommend the Earl of Cavan to his Majeſty's Favour and Protection, that he may be provided for in the new Levies in this Kingdom, with regard to the Date of his Commiſſion (as Lieutenant-Colonel on the Engliſh Eſtabliſhment of Half-Pay) and long Service in the Army in Spain, the Weſt Indies and Portugal, his Lordſhip, by his attending his Majeſty's and the Kingdom's Service in Parliament, being incapable in Perſon to lay his Caſe before his Majeſty.

Lord Blayney

It is ordered by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Lord Chancellor do attend their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices, and acquaint them, that it is the Deſire of this Houſe, that their Excellencies will recommend the Lord Baron Blayney to his Majeſty's Favour and Protection, that he may be provided for in the new Levies, now to be raiſed in this Kingdom.

The Houſe being moved, that Cha. Baldwin ſen. Eſq; might be called in, and ſworn at the Bar, in order to give his Teſtimony before the Lords' Committees, to whom the Liſt of Fees, taken by the ſeveral Officers of the Four-Courts, was referred.

And the ſaid Charles Baldwin came in, and was ſworn accordingly.

The Houſe being informed, that illegal Practices have, of late, been uſed by ſeveral Officers who demand Fees in right of their Offices, and that great Inconveniencies have been occaſioned thereby:

Officers to bring in Liſt of Fees, &c.

It is therefore ordered by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that all Officers, who take any Fees by Patent, Preſcription or otherwiſe, in right of their Offices within this Kingdom, do, on the firſt Monday after this Houſe ſhall ſit after the Receſs, lay before this Houſe a Liſt, upon Oath, of what Fees appear by antient Tables, Entries or Dockets of Fees, to have been demanded or received in their ſeveral Offices.

Alſo; It is ordered by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that all Officers who take any Fees by Patent, Preſcription or otherwiſe, do them lay before this Houſe a Liſt or Table of ſuch Fees as they now claim to be due to them, in their ſeveral Offices.

And alſo; It is ordered by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the foregoing Orders be forthwith printed and publiſhed, to the end all Perſons concerned may have Notice thereof. Order to be printed.

A Petition of David Coghlan, Gent. in Cuſtody of the Serjeant at Arms attending this Houſe, for a Breach of Privilege by him committed againſt the Lord Shelburne, (ſetting forth his Sorrow for his Offence, and praying to be enlarged) was preſented to the Houſe, and read. D. Coghlan's Petition.

Ordered, that the Serjeant at Arms attending this Houſe, his Deputy or Deputies, do forthwith bring the ſaid Coghlan to the Bar of this Houſe, in order to his being diſcharged.

Then the ſaid Coghlan was accordingly brought to the Bar, where he (upon his Knees) received a Reprimand from the Lord Chancellor. He is reprimanded, and diſcharged.

IT is ordered by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the ſaid David Coghlan, now in Cuſtody of the Serjeant at Arms, his Deputy or Deputies, ſhall be, and is hereby, diſcharged from the Reſtraint he lies under (paying his Fees) and this ſhall be a ſufficient Warrant on that behalf.

To the Serjeant at Arms attending this Houſe, his Deputy or Deputies, and every of them.

Then the Houſe, according to Order, was adjourned during Pleaſure, and put into a Committee, upon Heads of a Bill for the further Security of his Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and for extinguiſhing the Hopes of the pretended Prince of Wales, and all his open and ſecret Abettors; and after ſome time ſpent therein, Heads of Bill for Security of his Majeſty's Perſon, &c.

The Houſe was reſumed.

And the Lord Viſc. Strabane reported from the ſaid Committee of the whole Houſe, that they had gone through the ſaid Heads of a Bill, and made ſeveral Amendments thereunto, and that he was ready to report, when the Houſe will pleaſe.

Ordered, that the ſaid Report be made To-morrow Morning.

PRAYERS.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

Concerning Earl of Cavan and Lord Blayney.

The Lord Chancellor reported, that he had attended their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices with the Orders of this Houſe, in relation to the Earl of Cavan and the Lord Blayney.

Heads of a Bill for Security of his Majeſty's Perſon, &c. reported,

The Lord Viſc. Strabane reported from the Committee of the whole Houſe, to whom Heads of a Bill for the further Security of his Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and for extinguiſhing the Hopes of the pretended Prince of Wales, and his open and ſecret Abettors, was committed; that they had gone through the ſame, and made ſeveral Amendments thereunto, which he read, and the ſame were afterwards read at the Table, as follow, viz.

In the Title of the ſaid Heads of a Bill: Leave out "Pretended Prince of Wales," and inſert "Pretender."

In the Heads of the Bill, 14$^{th}$ Line, 2$^{d}$ Sheet: Leave out "of," and inſert "or College near." In the laſt Line of the ſame Sheet, leave out "Eighteen," and inſert "Sixteen."

Firſt Line of the ſame Sheet: After the Word "Years," inſert "and all other Perſons at the "Age of ſixteen Years, that are "now entered or ſhall hereafter be "admitted as Students in the ſaid "Univerſity or College near Dublin, and all that have or ſhall take "Degrees." In the 5$^{th}$ Line of the ſaid Sheet after "Proctor," inſert "Apparator and all other "Officers in the Spiritual Courts."

Ninth Line, ſeventh Sheet: Leave out "Eighteen," and inſert "Sixteen."

Seventh Line, Ninth Sheet: After "And," inſert "at the."

After the ſeventh Line, tenth Sheet: Inſert "And we pray it may be "further enacted, that all who "ſhall hereafter take any Degree "in the ſaid Univerſity, or College "near Dublin, ſhall be obliged, "under the Penalties aforeſaid, and "revokeable as aforeſaid, to take "the ſaid Oaths (before their Admiſſion to ſuch Degrees) before "ſuch Perſons who are qualified to "confer ſuch Degrees, who are "hereby impowered and required "publickly to adminiſter the ſame."

In the Ninth Line of the ſame Sheet: After aforeſaid, inſert "and other Perſons hereby impowered "to adminiſter the ſaid Oaths."

Thirteenth Line of the Fourteenth Sheet: After "is," inſert "and are," in the fifth Line of the Eighteenth Sheet after "contained," inſert "to the Contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding."

Then the Queſtion was put, Whether to agree with the Committee in theſe Amendments?

It was reſolved in the Affirmative.

The ſaid Heads of a Bill, as it ſtood amended, were read a third time, and agreed to by the Houſe.

And ordered to be brought up to the Lords Juſtices by whole Houſe.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Heads of a Bill be laid before their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices, by the whole Houſe, in order to its being tranſmitted into Great Britain, in due Form.

Ordered, that the Lord Viſc. Charlemont, do attend their Excellencies, to know their Excellencies' Pleaſure, when they will be attended by this Houſe, with the ſaid Heads of a Bill.

Petition of J. Mears and T. Wakely, Eſq'rs.

A Petition of John Mears and Tho. Wakely, Eſq'rs. Executors of John Wakely, deceaſed, (ſetting forth, that Nicholas Nugent, being indebted to the ſaid John Wakely for a great Arrear of Rent, perfected four ſeveral Bonds for the ſame; and the ſaid Nugent neglecting to pay the ſaid Bonds, or Intereſt, the Petitioners commenced Actions upon the ſaid Bonds, and obtained a Rule for Judgment againſt ſaid Nugent: But the ſaid Nugent ſerved the Petitioners' Attorney with a Certificate from the Clerk of the Parliaments, of the ſaid Nugent being protected by a noble Peer of this Houſe, though he is not his Lordſhip's Servant, by Means of which the Petitioners dare not proceed at Law againſt ſaid Nugent, for fear of coming under the Diſpleaſure of this Houſe. And the Money the ſaid Nugent is proſecuted for, being, by the Will of the ſaid Wakely, appropriated for the Maintenance and Education of younger Children, who, by the Delays of the ſaid Nugent, are compelled to run much in Debt; and praying Relief) was preſented to the Houſe, and read.

Ordered,

Ordered, that the ſaid Petition do lie on the Table, till the Report be made by the Lords' Committees of Privileges, in relation to Protections.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure.

The Houſe was reſumed; and

The Lord Viſc. Charlemont acquainted the Houſe, that their Excellencies have been waited upon to know when they will pleaſe to be attended by this Houſe: Their Excellencies were pleaſed to ſay, That they were now ready. Report from Lords Juſtices

Adjourned till To-morrow Morning, at Eleven o'clock.

Ordered, that the Addreſs to his Majeſty, now lying upon the Table, in favour of the Officers and Servants attending this Houſe, be rejected.

And an Addreſs being offered in Favour of the Officers and Servants attending this Houſe, to be preſented to their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices, the ſame was received and read.

Then, it being propoſed, That the ſaid Addreſs ſhould be preſented to their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices; and a Debate ariſing thereupon,

The Queſtion was put, Whether the ſaid Addreſs ſhould be preſented to their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices?

It was reſolved in the Negative.

Ld Chancellor to attend Lords Juſtices in favour of Officers, &c.

It is ordered by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Lord Chancellor do attend their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices, and inform them, that the Fees, Perquiſites and other Emoluments, belonging to the reſpective Officers and Servants of this Houſe, are inconſiderable, and not ſufficient to encourage Men of proper Abilities to employ their Time and Pains in the neceſſary Service of this Houſe; and deſire their Excellencies to repreſent their Caſe and Circumſtances to his Majeſty, for his Princely Conſideration, that they may, of his Goodneſs and Bounty, receive ſuch Encouragement and Reward, as may be proportionable to their Labour, Expence and Services, in their ſeveral Employments.

It is alſo ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do, at the ſame time, lay before their Excellencies the Sums which have been given to the Officers and Servants of this Houſe, for their Service in former Seſſions of Parliament.

The Lord Viſc. Charlemont, from the Lords' Committees of Privileges, to whom the Petition of William Butler was referred, reported that, upon conſidering thereof, they came to the following Reſolution, viz.

Reſolved, that the Houſe be moved, that the Reſolutions which the Houſe came to the 9th of Auguſt, 1711, concerning Protections, be forthwith printed and publiſhed.

And alſo reported, that the ſaid Lords' Committees had directed him to lay before the Houſe, a Liſt of ſuch Protections as have been granted by the Lords of Parliament.

And upon reading the ſaid Liſt of Protections, and alſo the Petition of John Mears and Thomas Wakeley, Eſq'rs. ordered to lie on the Table, the Houſe came to the following Reſolution, viz.

Reſolution concerning Protections.

Reſolved, that from the firſt Day of March next, no written Protection ſhall be allowed, or be of any Validity, which is not ſigned and ſealed by the Lord who gives the ſame, in which ſuch Lord ſhall declare upon his Honour, that the Perſon, ſo protected, is either his menial menial or hired Servant; or that he is a neceſſary Attendant on his Perſon, and employed in that Service, or is employed in the Management of the Eſtate of ſuch Lord, and receives Wages for ſuch Attendance or Service, with the Nature of ſuch Employment; nor ſhall ſuch Protection be of any Validity, unleſs the Reſolutions agreed unto by this Houſe, on the 9th of Auguſt, 1711, relating to Protections, be alſo written or printed on the ſame Paper, containing the ſaid Protection.

It is ordered by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the foregoing Reſolution, with the Reſolutions of this Houſe the 9th of Auguſt, 1711, be forthwith printed and publiſhed. ordered to be printed.

Prayers.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

Ordered, that the Orders for the Day be now read.

And they were read accordingly.

Mrs. Sherlock's Petition in Forma Pauperis.

A Petition of Hester Sherlock, Widow, setting forth, her extreme Poverty, and praying to be admitted to prosecute her Appeal in forma pauperis, was presented to the House, and read.

And the Gentleman-Usher of the Black-Rod, being ordered to call her in, she was at the Bar sworn, and deposed, that she was not worth five Pounds in any worldly Substance, over and above the Matter in Question: Whereupon it is ordered by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, that the said Hester Sherlock be, and she is hereby, admitted to prosecute her Appeal, in forma pauperis.

The House being moved, that Richard Geering, Thomas Towers, John Hill, Isaac Dobson, and Char. Powell, Esq$^{rs}$. five of the Six-Clerks in the High Court of Chancery, be called in and sworn at the Bar of the House, in order to give their Testimony before the Lords' Committees, to whom the Fees of the several Officers of the Four-Court, are committed.

Six-Clerks to be sworn in relation to Fees.

And the said Richard Geering, Thomas Towers, John Hill, Isaac Dobson, and Charles Powell, were accordingly called in, and at the Bar of the House severally sworn, in order to give their Testimonies before the said Lords' Committees.

Upon reading the Orders for the Day,

Fraudulent Conveyance Bill,

Hodie secunda vice lecta est Billa, intitled, An Act for more effectual preventing fraudulent Conveyances, in order to multiply Votes for electing Members, to serve in Parliament, and for preventing the irregular Procedings of Sheriffs and other Officers, in electing and returning such Members.

committed.

Ordered, that the Consideration of the said Bill be committed to a Committee of the whole House To-morrow Morning, and that they compare the same with the original Transmiss, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, and see that it exactly agrees therewith.

Mr. Langrish sworn at the Bar.

John Langrish, Esq; being called in, and sworn at the Bar of the House, in order to his being examined before the Lords' Committees, to whom the Bill, intitled, An Act for the enabling of William Wall of Coolenemuckey in the Co. Waterford, Esq; to sell and dispose of certain Woods, is committed, in relation to the Consents of the Persons concerned in the Consequences of the said Bill.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

The Lord Biſhop of Dromore reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs, purſuant to the Order of this Houſe of Friday laſt, to congratulate his Majeſty on the Succeſs of his Majeſty's Councils and Arms, in ſuppreſſing the late Rebellion in Great Britain; that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read, and after delivered it in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and alſo read, Paragraph by Paragraph; and, with ſome Amendments, agreed to by the Houſe, and is as follows, viz.

To the KING's moſt excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

Addreſs to his Majeſty.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament

Parliament aſſembled, do, with all due Thankfulneſs to God moſt heartily congratulate your Majeſty, upon that glorious Succeſs with which your Councils and Arms have been, of late, ſo ſignally bleſſed. The Aſſurance we have, that by this Means an End is put to that moſt wicked and unnatural Rebellion, which in ſome Parts of Great Britain diſturbed the Quiet of your Majeſty's Reign, fills us with unſpeakable Joy, and encourages us to believe, that the Peace and Quiet, which we of this Kingdom have had, and hope long to enjoy, under your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Government, will be happily ſecured to us.

And as we are perſuaded, that the firm unſhaken Loyalty of your Proteſtant Subjects in this Kingdom (whoſe ſteady Zeal for your royal Perſon and Family conſtantly appeared) was, through God's Bleſſing, an effectual Means of preventing all thoſe Attempts of diſturbing our publick Peace, that might be feared from the great Numbers of Papiſts that live among us.

We ſhall never be wanting in our earneſt Supplications to Almighty God, that his wonderful Providence, which conducted your Majeſty, peaceably, to the Throne of your royal Anceſtors, and has hitherto preſerved you on it, may ſtill watch over you for good.

May thoſe amiable Virtues in your Majeſty, which adorn your Crown, attract the Hearts of all your Subjects, and powerfully engage them unanimouſly to join their beſt Endeavours in promoting (what we are ſure your Majeſty will eſteem the Glory of your Reign) the firm Eſtabliſhment of Peace and Happineſs, Truth and Juſtice, Religion and Piety; that ſo after a long and happy Reign over us, you may be able to tranſmit to your royal Heirs, together with your own Virtues, the peaceable Government of a truly good and loyal People.

Addreſs to be preſented.

Reſolved, that this Houſe do attend their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices with the ſaid Addreſs, and deſire, that they will pleaſe to lay the ſame before his Majeſty.

Ordered, that the Earl of Cavan and the Lord Biſhop of Dromore do attend their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices, to know when they will be waited upon with the ſaid Addreſs.

Witneſs ſworn.

Thomas Weeks, being called in, was ſworn at the Bar, in order to give his Teſtimony before the Lords' Committees, appointed to conſider Mr. Hamerton's Bill.

Hawkins's Petition,

Ordered, that William Hawkins, Eſq; Ulſter King of Arms of all Ireland, have Leave to amend his Petition, preſented to the Houſe the 31ſt of May laſt.

amended.

And he amended his ſaid Petition accordingly, and the ſame was again preſented to the Houſe, and read.

Ordered, that the ſaid Petition be referred to the ſame Committee, who were to conſider his former Petition.

Then William Hawkins was, by Order of the Houſe, ſworn at the Bar, in Order to give his Teſtimony before the ſaid Lords' Committees.

Bog Bill.

Then the Houſe, according to Order, was adjourned during Pleaſure, and put into a Committee upon a Bill, intitled, An Act to encourage the draining and improving of Bogs and unprofitable low Grounds, and for eaſing and diſpatching the inland Carriage and Conveyance of Goods, from one Part to another within this Kingdom; and after ſome time ſpent therein,

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Biſhop of Clogher reported from the ſaid Committee, that they had made ſome Progreſs in the Matter to them committed, and deſired Leave to ſit again.

Ordered, that the further Conſideration of the ſaid Bill be committed to a Committee of the whole Houſe To-morrow Morning.

Ordered, that the Order for the Day, in relation to the Hempen and Flaxen Manufacture Bill, be adjourned till To-morrow Morning.

Salmon-fry Bill,

Hodie ſecunda vice lecta eſt Billa, intitled, An Act to prevent the Deſtruction of Salmon-fry and better preſerving the Salmon-fiſhing in this Kingdom.

committed.

Ordered, that the Conſideration of the ſaid Bill be committed to a Committee of the whole Houſe on Friday Morning; and that they do compare the ſame with the original Tranſmiſs, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, and ſee that it exactly agrees therewith.

Mr. Hamerton's Bill.

The Lord Tullamore reported from the Lords' Committees, to whom the Conſideration of a Bill, intitled, An Act for veſting certain Lands and Tenements belonging to Robert Hamerton, Eſq; in Truſtees, to be ſold for raiſing Money to diſcharge the Debts and Incumbrances of his Father Richard Hamerton, was committed; That they had gone through the ſame, and examined Mr. Thomas Weeks, who proved a Deed, ſetting forth the Conſents of all Perſons, that appeared to them to be concerned in the Conſequences of the ſaid Bill, and have agreed thereunto, without any Amendment.

Ordered, that the ſaid Bill be ingroſſed.

Ordered, that the Order for the Day, in relation to Butter and Tallow Caſks, &c. be adjourned till To-morrow Morning.

The Houſe, according to Order, was adjourned during Pleaſure, and put into a Committee, upon a Bill, intitled, An Act for extinguiſhing the Regalities and Liberties of the Co. Tipperary and Croſs Tipperary, commonly called, The County Palatine of Tipperary; and for veſting in his Majeſty, the Eſtate of James Butler, commonly called James Duke of Ormond, and for giving a Reward of £10,000 to any Perſon who ſhall ſeize or ſecure him, in Caſe he ſhall attempt to land in this Kingdom; and after ſome time ſpent therein,

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Newtown reported, that the Committee of the whole Houſe had been in Conſideration of the ſaid Bill, and had directed him to move, that they may have Leave to ſit again.

Ordered, that this Houſe ſhall be now put into a Committee, to take the ſaid Bill into further Conſideration, and that the ſaid Committee be impowered to demand the Opinion of the Lords the Judges, if they ſhall find Occaſion.

Then the Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, and put into a Committee thereupon; and, after ſome time ſpent therein, Report from Committee.

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Newtown reported, that the Committee of the whole Houſe had gone through the ſaid Bill, and think it fit to paſs, without any Amendment, and alſo compared the ſame with the original Tranſmiſs, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, with which it exactly agrees.

Ordered, that the ſaid Bill be read a third time To-morrow Morning.

Complaint on Breach of Privilege.

A Complaint being made to the Houſe, of a Breach of Privilege committed againſt his Grace the Lord Archbiſhop of Tuam, by William Brabazon of Ballygarry, in the Co. Mayo, Eſq; and other Perſons by him employed in diverting a Water-courſe to his Grace's Mills, on the Lands of Clonee, whereby the ſaid Mills are at a Stand, in the Time, and contrary to the Privilege, of Parliament.

It is ordered by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the ſaid Complaint of his Grace the Lord Archbiſhop of Tuam ſhall be and is hereby referred to the Lords' Committees for Privileges, to conſider thereof; and to hear ſuch Perſons concerning the ſame, as they ſhall think fit, and report their Opinion thereupon to the Houſe.

Witneſſes ſworn.

Ordered, that James Gildea and Martin Coyne be called in, and ſworn, in Order to give their Teſtimony before the ſaid Committee, in relation to the ſaid Breach of Privilege.

And the ſaid James Gildea and Martin Coyne were called in, and ſeverally ſworn at the Bar, in order to give their Teſtimony, accordingly.

Adjourned till To-morrow Morning, at Eleven o'clock.

PRAYERS.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

Report on Hawkins's Petition.

The Lord Tyrawly, according to Order, reported that the Committee of the whole Houſe, (to whom the Conſideration of the Petition of William Hawkins, Eſq; was referred) have come to ſeveral Reſolutions thereupon, which he read to the Houſe, and after delivered them in at the Table, where the ſame were again read, and are as follow, viz.

relative to Coats of Arms.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the bearing Coronets or Supporters, by any Perſon attainted, or as Heir to any Perſon who was outlawed or attainted of high Treaſon, or whoſe Outlawry or Attainder is ſtill of Force and unreverſed, is an Incroachment upon, and a Breach of the Privilege of, the Peerage of this Kingdom.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that it is the Duty of the King of Arms to deface and eraſe Coronets or Supporters, borne by any Perſon bearing the ſame, without other Right thereto, than as they are Heirs to Perſons outlawed, or attainted of Treaſon.

Titles of Peers outlawed, not to be aſſumed.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the aſſuming the Stile or Title of a Lord or Peer, by any Perſon attainted or as Heir to any Anceſtor, who was outlawed or attainted of high Treaſon, and whoſe Outlawry or Attainder is ſtill of Force and unreverſed, is an Incroachment upon, and a Breach of the Privileges of, the Peerage of this Kingdom.

To which Reſolutions, the Queſtion being ſeverally put, the Houſe did agree.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Clerk of the Parliaments do cauſe the ſaid Reſolutions to be forthwith printed and publiſhed.

Report of Committee on Fees,

The Lord Newtown reported, that the Lords' Committees, (to whom the Conſideration of the Fees, taken by the ſeveral Officers of the Four-Courts, &c. was referred) had come to a Reſolution thereon, which he read, and after delivered the ſame in at the Table, where it was again read, and is as follows, viz.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the bringing in Heads of a Bill to oblige all Perſons in publick Offices to bring in Liſts of their Fees, by a Day certain, is the only Method to prevent their inſiſting on unreaſonable and illegal Fees, to the Oppreſſion of his Majeſty's Subjects.

agreed to.

To which Reſolution, the Queſtion being put, the Houſe did agree.

Heads of Bill for Fees.

Ordered, that the Lord Newtown and the Lord Ferrard do prepare and bring in Heads of a Bill, according to the ſaid Reſolution, and that the Lords the Judges do aſſiſt the ſaid Lords Lords in preparing the ſame, if they ſhall require it.

The Houſe, according to Order, was adjourned during Pleaſure, and put into a Committee upon a Bill, intitled, An Act for the real Union and Diviſion of Pariſhes; and, after ſome time ſpent therein,

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Biſhop of Dromore reported, that the ſaid Committee had been in Conſideration of the ſaid Bill, and had directed him to move for Leave to ſit again.

Meſſage from Commons, to return Mr. Harris's Bill.

A Meſſage was brought from the Houſe of Commons, by George Macartney, Eſq; and others, Members of the ſaid Houſe, to return the Bill, intitled, An Act to enable Walter Harris, Eſq; eldeſt Son and Heir of Walter Harris, the elder, late of the City of Dublin, Merchant, to raiſe the Sum of £1200, by Mortgage of Part of his Eſtate, for Payment of the Debts, Portions and other Incumbrances, charged thereon by his Father, the ſaid Walter Harris, the elder, and to make Leaſes for Lives renewable of Part thereof, not diminiſhing the preſent yearly Value, and to charge the ſame with reaſonable Portions for his own younger Children, and to acquaint this Houſe, that they have agreed to the ſame, without any Amendment.

Report on Breach of Privilege.

THE Lords' Committees for Privileges, having been in Conſideration of a Breach of Privilege, complained of to this Houſe by his Grace the Lord Archbiſhop of Tuam, committed againſt him by William Brabazon, Eſq; and others, proceeded to the Examination of Martin Coyne, who depoſed, that he knew the Lands of Clonee, which belong to the See of Tuam: That there are Iron-works upon the ſaid Lands, and now in the Poſſeſſion of James Gildea; that the ſaid Iron-works were wrought, by Force of Water running through an antient natural Water-courſe, and ſaw the ſame at Work in April laſt: That the ſaid Works in the Month of May laſt, were at a Stand, occaſioned (as this Deponent was informed) by the ſtopping the ſaid Water-courſe, and diverting the ſaid Water; and this Deponent has good Reaſon to believe the ſame was done at the Inſtance of William Brabazon, Eſq; by ſome of his Under-tenants, ſome of the ſaid Tenants having told this Deponent, that the ſaid Brabazon would ſtop the ſaid Water-courſe. That ſome time after, in the ſaid Month of May, this Deponent obſerved the ſaid Works at a Stand: That the Workmen employed in the ſaid Works, complained, that there wanted Water to carry on the Works; and that, if they continued therein, they muſt ſtarve, not being able to work, for want of Water, occaſioned, as this Deponent believes, by the ſaid Brabazon's ſtopping and diverting the ſaid Water-courſe, as aforeſaid.

The ſaid Lords' Committees alſo examined one James Gildea, who depoſed, That he knew the Lands of Clonee, and that they belong to the See of Tuam, and that he knew the Mills thereon, and that the ſaid Mills belong to the ſaid See. Said, that the Water-courſe, leading to the ſaid Mills, runs through the Lands of Clonee, and was the natural Water-courſe to the ſaid Mills, to his Knowledge, ever ſince the Year 1689; and that he believed the ſame to be the natural Current, Time out of Mind. He further depoſed, that he knew William Brabazon, Eſq; and that the ſaid Brabazon, ſome time in May laſt, made a Trench through a Bog, which Trench has wholly diverted the Water-courſe of the ſaid Mill, which Water-courſe he never knew to be diverted before; and that the ſaid Water-courſe did run through the Lord Archbiſhop of Tuam's Land, for the length of a Mile, or thereabouts. He further depoſed, that the ſaid Brabazon did dam and bank acroſs the ſaid Water-courſe, and wholly ſtop'd the antient Courſe of the ſame, and the ſaid Mills were wholly at a Stand: And that the ſaid Mills paid four or five Pounds ℔ Ann. or thereabouts. That there are Iron-works on the ſaid Lands, which are entirely ſtop'd, and become of no Uſe, by Means of ſtopping the ſaid Water-courſe; and that the ſaid Iron-works are, and will be damaged, to the value of £800, or thereabouts, if the old Water-courſe be not opened, and the Water reſtored to its antient Current. The ſaid Gildea further depoſed, that he ſpoke to the ſaid Brabazon about the ſtopping of the Water-courſe, and told him, it would be a Breach of Privilege, notwithſtanding which, he proceeded thereon. This Deponent further ſaid, that being told, that ſome Perſons were employed about diverting the ſaid Water, he ſent his Servant to bring him an Account who were employed in diverting the ſaid Water-courſe, who brought him an Account, that the Perſons following were making the Bank acroſs the ſaid Water-courſe, viz.

|---|---|
| William Brabazon, | John Caffry, |
| Gilbert M'Donnell, | Bryan Maly, |
| Hugh M'Donnell, | Walter Stanton, |
| Phelim Caffry, | John Branagan, |
| Toby Burk, | Patrick Branagan, |
| Richard Stanton, | Cormack Towhill, and |
| Edmond M'Veely, | Owen Criſham. |
| Bryan M'Gone, | |

The ſaid Gildea further depoſed, that he dare not go there himſelf, being threatned and damaged by ſome Perſons thereabouts.

The Lords' Committees have not come to any Reſolution on the ſaid Depoſitions, ſubmitting it wholly to your Lordſhips, to do what you ſhall ſee proper therein.

The ſaid Report was again read at the Table, and a Debate ariſing thereupon, Ordered, that the further Conſideration of the ſaid Report be adjourned till Monday next.

Then the Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, and put into a Committee, upon a Bill, intitled, An Act for the real Union and Diviſion of Pariſhes; and after ſome time ſpent therein,

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Biſhop of Dromore reported, that the Committee of the whole Houſe had gone through the ſaid Bill, and think it fit to paſs, without any Amendment; and alſo compared the ſame with the original Tranſmiſs, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, with which it exactly agrees.

Bill for Union of Pariſhes, passed; and

Hodie tertia vice lecta eſt Billa, intitled, An Act for the real Union and Diviſion of Pariſhes.

The Queſtion was put, Whether this Bill ſhall paſs?

It was reſolved in the Affirmative.

ſent to Commons for Concurrence.

A Meſſage was ſent to the Houſe of Commons, by Dr. Warburton and Dr. Lyndon, two of the Maſters in Chancery, to acquaint them that this Houſe hath paſſed the ſaid Bill, and deſire their Concurrence thereunto.

St. Werburgh's Bill, committed.

Hodie ſecunda vice lecta eſt Billa, intitled, An Act for changing the Scite, and new building of the Pariſh-Church of St. Werburgh's, in the City of Dublin.

Ordered, that the Conſideration of the ſaid Bill be committed to a ſelect Committee, and that all the Lords, now preſent, be the ſaid Committee, who are to compare the ſame with the original Tranſmiſs, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, and ſee that it exactly agrees therewith, and to meet on Monday Morning next, at Ten o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers.

Then the Houſe, according to Order, was adjourned during Pleaſure, and put into a Committee upon a Bill, intitled, An Act for preventing Abuſes and Deceits in his Majeſty's Revenue, by the importing of Brandy in ſmall Quantities; and after ſome time ſpent therein, Brandy-Bill,

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Viſc. Charlemont reported, that the Committee of the whole Houſe had gone through the ſaid Bill, and think it fit to paſs, without any Amendment; and alſo compared the ſame with the original Tranſmiſs, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, with which it exactly agrees.

Hodie tertia vice lecta eſt Billa, intitled, An Act for preventing Abuſes and Deceits in his Majeſty's Revenue, by the importing of Brandy in ſmall Quantities.

The Queſtion was put, Whether this Bill ſhall paſs? passed.

It was reſolved in the Affirmative.

Meſſage to Commons, with Concurrence.

A Meſſage was ſent to the Houſe of Commons, by Dr. Uſher and Dr. Warburton, two of the Maſters in Chancery, to acquaint them, that this Houſe hath agreed to the ſaid Bill, without any Amendment.

Inſolvent Debtors Bill, committed.

Hodie ſecunda vice lecta eſt Billa, intitled, An Act for the Relief of inſolvent Debtors.

Ordered, that the Conſideration of the ſaid Bill ſhall be committed to a Committee of the whole Houſe, on Tueſday Morning next, who are to compare the ſame with the original Tranſmiſs, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, and ſee that it exactly agrees therewith.

Adjourned till Monday Morning next, at Ten o'clock.

St. Werburgh's Bill,

The Lord Biſhop of Clogher reported, that the Committee, (to whom the Conſideration of a Bill, intitled, An Act for changing the Scite, and new building of the Pariſh Church of St. Werburgh's, in the City of Dublin, was committed) had gone through the ſaid Bill, and think it fit to paſs, without any Amendment; and alſo compared the ſame with the original Tranſmiſs, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, with which it exactly agrees.

Hodie tertia vice lecta eſt Billa, intitled, An Act for changing the Scite, and new building of the Pariſh Church of St. Werburgh's, in the City of Dublin.

The

passed. The Question was put, Whether this Bill shall pass?

It was resolved in the Affirmative.

Message to Commons, with Concurrence. A Message was sent to the House of Commons, by Dr. White and Dr. Lyndon, to acquaint them, that this House hath agreed to the said Bill, without any Amendment.

Then the House, according to Order, proceeded to take into Consideration the Report made from the Lords' Committees for Privileges, in relation to a Breach of Privilege complained of by the Lord Archbishop of Tuam, committed against him by William Brabazon, Esq;

The said Report was then read.

The House was moved, that Dominick Bourk might be called in, and examined at the Bar, in relation to the said Breach of Privilege.

Witness sworn. The said Bourk was then called in, and sworn at the Bar and examined accordingly; and, being withdrawn, the further Consideration was adjourned.

Message from Commons, with Militia-Bill. A Message was brought from the House of Commons, by Sir William Parsons, Bart. and others, Members of the said House, with a Bill, intitled, An Act to make the Militia of this Kingdom more useful; to which they desire the Concurrence of this House.

Archbishop of Tuam's Case. Then the House proceeded to take into further Consideration the Report, in relation to the Archbishop of Tuam: And the House being informed, that it was necessary Mr. Edmund Soden should be examined, in relation to several Proceedings in the Courts below, betwixt the late Lord Archbishop of Tuam and William Brabazon, Esq;

Witness sworn. The said Soden was then called in, and sworn at the Bar, and examined accordingly; and, being withdrawn,

The Question was put, that Proof hath been made to this House, that William Brabazon, Esq; and other Persons by him employed, made a great Trench through a Bog, and in May last, erected a Dam, and by so doing, diverted the antient Water-course to the Mills belonging to the Lord Archbishop of Tuam, on the Lands of Clonee, whereby the same cannot be wrought, as formerly, before the erecting the said Dam, and making the said Trench?

It was resolved in the Affirmative.

Ordered, that the said Brabazon do attend this House, to answer the said Breach of Privilege, in ten Days after being served with this Order.

Ordered, that the High Sheriff of the County Mayo, do forthwith destroy and pull down the Dam erected to divert the said Water-course from running through the Lands of Clonee.

Warrant to Sheriff on Archbishop of Tuam's Case. WHEREAS William Brabazon of Ballygarry in the Co. Mayo, Esq; and other Persons by him employed, made a great Trench through a Bog, and in May last erected a Dam, and by so doing, diverted the antient Water-course to the Mills belonging to the Lord Archbishop of Tuam, and the Lands of Clonee, whereby the same cannot be wrought, as formerly, before the erecting the said Dam, and making the said Trench, which being within the Time, and contrary to the Privilege, of Parliament; It is this Day ordered by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, that the High Sheriff of the Co. Mayo do forthwith destroy and pull down the Dam, erected to divert the said Water-course from running through the said Lands of Clonee; and this shall be a sufficient Warrant on that behalf.

To the High Sheriff of the Co. Mayo, or his Under-Sheriff.

Message from Commons, with Servants' Wages Bill. A Message was brought from the House of Commons, by Mr. Attorney General and others, Members of the said House, with a Bill, intitled, An Act to impower Justices of the Peace to determine Disputes about Servants, Artificers, Day-Labourers' Wages, and other small Demands, and to oblige Masters to pay the same, and to punish idle and disorderly Servants; to which they desire the Concurrence of this House.

Militia-Bill, Hodie prima vice lecta est Billa, intitled, An Act to make the Militia of this Kingdom more useful.

Ordered, that the said Bill be now read a second time.

Hodie secunda vice lecta est Billa, intitled, An Act to make the Militia of this Kingdom more useful.

committed. Ordered, that the Consideration of the said Bill shall be committed to a Committee of the whole House, To-morrow Morning, who are to compare the same with the original Transmiss, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, and see that it exactly agrees therewith.

Servant's Wages Bill, Hodie prima vice lecta est Billa, intitled, An Act to impower Justices of the Peace to determine Disputes about Servants, Artificers, Day-Labourers' Wages, and other small Demands, and to oblige Masters to pay the same, and to punish idle and disorderly Servants.

Ordered, that the said Bill be now read a second time.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lords Justices Speech.

THOUGH the Session has, by many unavoidable Accidents, been protracted to an unusual Length, you cannot but think your Time well employed, having reaped the Advantage of the many good Laws, his Majesty has been pleased to give you; in which Number, the Act for making the Militia more useful, is a singular Instance of the great Confidence his Majesty places in the Fidelity and good Affection of his loyal Subjects of Ireland, and will greatly contribute to the Security of the Protestant Interest of this Kingdom.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

WE are commanded by his Majesty, to return you Thanks, for the Supplies you have so chearfully granted for his Service, and your own Defence, which we assure you, will be applied with the utmost Frugality to the Purposes for which they were given.

We must likewise thankfully acknowledge the several Marks of Confidence you have placed in us, more particularly, your seasonable and unprecedented Vote of Credit, which will remain a memorable Proof of your unbounded Zeal for his Majesty's Service, and an Obligation upon us to continue our best Endeavours for your Prosperity.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

THE Season of the Year is now far advanced, and it is Time you should return to your several Countries, where you will take Care, in your respective Stations, to see the Laws duly put in Execution, for the Support of our excellent Constitution, both in Church and State. We shall only recommend to you the Continuance of that Unanimity and Resolution, which have hitherto preserved you in perfect Tranquility, and will best enable you to defeat the future Designs of your open and secret Enemies.

It is a great Pleasure to us, to see this Session conclude, as it began, with all possible Marks of Loyalty and good Affection to his Majesty: And, as we have constantly represented the Merit of so good a People, in a just Light to the best of Princes, so we have his Majesty's Commands to assure you, of his perfect Satisfaction in your dutiful Behaviour.

And afterwards the Lord Chancellor, by their Excellencies' Command, said,

My Lords and Gentlemen,

IT is their Excellencies the Lords Justices' Pleasure, that this Parliament be prorogued to Saturday the 25th Day of August next; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued, to meet here on Saturday the 25th Day of August next. Parliament prorogued.

Ld Lieutenant preſent.

The Lord Chancellor, kneeling, conferred with his Grace; and then, ſtanding on the right hand of the Chair of State, commanded the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod to ſignify to the Commons, that it was his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure they ſhould attend him preſently in the Houſe of Peers; who, being returned, ſignified, that the Commons were at the Door.

Commons ſent for.

And being ordered to call them in,

They, with their Speaker, were conducted to the Bar by the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod, with the uſual Ceremonies.

Then his Grace the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to make a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, as followeth:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

HIS Majeſty has commanded me to acquaint you, that it is to his great Satisfaction your preſent Meeting in Parliament, is in a Time of publick Peace and Tranquility; and, after the entire Suppreſſion of the late unnatural Rebellion, which your ſeaſonable Loyalty and Zeal not only kept out of this Kingdom, but contributed likewiſe to extinguiſh in Great Britain, as the Miſeries this Nation hath heretofore experienced from a Popiſh Government, could not but animate you to diſtinguiſh yourſelves on that Occaſion. You may be aſſured, that his Majeſty will make ſuitable Returns to ſuch Inſtances of your Duty and Affection, by ſupporting and maintaining you in the full and free Enjoyment of all your religious and civil Rights.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

YOUR vigorous Reſolutions, added to your Vote of Credit, in the late critical Juncture, were ſo acceptable to his Majeſty, that, though he has by his Act of Grace, pardoned thoſe who were engaged in the late Rebellion, He will always remember the loyal and affectionate Endeavours of ſuch who were ſo active to defeat it.

You muſt be ſenſible, that the Charge occaſioned by thoſe Diſturbances, has conſiderably augmented the national Debt, which has has chiefly incurred ſince that Time, an exact and juſt Account of which, and of what it conſiſts, ſhall be laid before you. And I am to acquaint you that his Majeſty, to prevent its Increaſe, has given Orders for ſuch Reductions in the Military Liſt, as he thinks may be conſiſtent with your preſent Security: And has put the new Eſtabliſhment into ſuch a Form, as will ſhew you the real Number of effective Men you have to depend on. His Majeſty has likewiſe thought fit to leſſen the Civil Liſt on the head of Penſions; and has directed ſuch Rules to be obſerved, as may annually abate the Expence upon them: But, as the yearly Charge of the Eſtabliſhment, exceeds the annual Produce of the Revenue, his Majeſty doubts not to have ſuch Aids and Supplies granted him, as will ſupport the Eſtabliſhment, and diſcharge the Debt. And that you will agree on the Means of doing it with the ſame Unanimity, as you did when it was neceſſary to contract it.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I THINK myſelf obliged to take Notice to you of his Majeſty's great Goodneſs, in having lately paſſed an Act, in the Parliament of Great Britain, for the Encouragement of the Linen Manufacture in this Kingdom; and am commanded by his Majeſty to recommend to you, in a very particular Manner, Unanimity and Agreement amongſt yourſelves, in all your Proceedings, which his Majeſty conceives muſt be of the utmoſt Importance to his Service, and your own Security, in a Country where there is ſo great a diſproportion between the Friends and Enemies of our Religion, Laws and Liberties.

I cannot conclude, without expreſſing the Satisfaction I have in his Majeſty's ſending me again to a Kingdom, where I had formerly the Honour to ſerve the late King William, of glorious Memory, as one of the Lords Juſtices, and where I then received ſo many Inſtances of your Good-will towards me. I ſhall endeavour, ſtill, to preſerve your Affections, by repreſenting your Actions, in a juſt and true Light to his Majeſty, and by doing every thing in my Power that may conduce to the Publick Good.

Then his Grace was pleaſed to withdraw, and was attended, as he entered; and the Commons returned to their Houſe. Ld Lieutenant retires.

Reſolved, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Majeſty, congratulating him on the preſent peaceable Condition of his Dominions, after the late Diſturbances given thereto; and likewiſe on the Succeſs of the prudent Methods taken by him to bring his Subjects to a due Senſe of their Duty and Obedience; and, in a particular Manner, to return him Thanks for his great Care of this Kingdom, in ſending his Grace the Duke of Bolton to be Lord Lieutenant thereof.

Ordered, that all the Lords preſent be appointed Lords' Committees to prepare the ſaid Addreſs.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, at Ten of the clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, and adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Ordered, that the Lords' Committees, appointed to draw up an Addreſs to his Majeſty, do alſo prepare and draw up an Addreſs of Thanks to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, for his Grace's Speech, delivered this Day from the Throne. Committee for Addreſs of Thanks to Ld Lieutenant

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Clerk of this Houſe do cauſe his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Speech, delivered this Day from the Throne, to both Houſes of Parliament, to be forthwith printed and publiſhed.

Adjourned till To-morrow Morning, at Eleven o'Clock.

PRAYERS.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

The Lord Viſc. Hillſtorough, from the Committee appointed to draw up an Addreſs to his Majeſty, reported to the Houſe an Addreſs accordingly, which was read at the Table, Paragraph by Paragraph, and agreed to by the Houſe, with ſome Amendments, and is as follows, viz.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

Addreſs to the King.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on the preſent peaceable and happy Condition of your Dominions, after the Suppreſſion of an unnatural Rebellion, raiſed and carried on within your Kingdom of Great Britain, with a Deſign to bring in a Popiſh Pretender, and thereby eſtabliſh both Popery and arbitrary Power throughout your Majeſty's Realms.

We adore the Divine Goodneſs, which hath filled your royal Heart with a Spirit of Wiſdom, and directed your Majeſty to the Choice of the moſt proper Methods to eſtabliſh your Throne, and bring all your Subjects to a due Senſe of that Duty and Obedience, which they owe to the beſt of Princes.

Your Majeſty's tender Regard and Protection of the Church, as by Law eſtabliſhed, together with the Civil Conſtitution, and the Liberties and Properties of your People, fill our Hearts with the deepeſt Senſe of the inеſtimable Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Government.

We ſhall, by our Zeal and Unanimity, continue to diſappoint the Deſigns of your Majeſty's Enemies, and endeavour to deſerve that Care and Concern which your Majeſty has, on all Occaſions, ſhewed to your Subjects of this Kingdom.

We beg Leave to mention, as one great Inſtance of your Majeſty's Favour and Goodneſs towards us, the appointing his Grace the Duke of Bolton to be Lord Lieutenant of this Kingdom, the happy Effects of whoſe Juſtice and Prudence, we are perſuaded, we ſhall find to our great Satisfaction: This we promiſe ourſelves with the more Aſſurance, from the many Benefits we received under his former Adminiſtration, in the Reign of his late Majeſty King William, of ever-glorious Memory.

An Addreſs was likewiſe reported to be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, which was read at the Table, and alſo read, Paragraph by Paragraph, and agreed to by the Houſe, with ſome Amendments, and is as follows, viz.

To his Grace CHARLES Duke of BOLTON, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of his Majeſty's Kingdom of IRELAND.

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Grace,

IT is with great Satisfaction that we the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, have heard the many Expreſſions of his Majeſty's royal Favour and Goodneſs towards us, in your Grace's moſt excellent Speech from the Throne. Addreſs to L^d Lieutenant

We were alarmed, during our laſt Seſſion, and threatned by a moſt horrid and unnatural Rebellion, raiſed within his Majeſty's Kingdom of Great Britain, which, if it had prevailed, muſt of neceſſity have involved this Kingdom, alſo, in the common Ruin.

But the great Wiſdom and Steadineſs of his Majeſty's Government, in that moſt critical Juncture, being aſſiſted and conducted by the good Providence of GOD, has not only free'd us from the Apprehenſions under which we then lay; but alſo given us ſuch a pleaſing Proſpect of Peace and Tranquility, as, we have great reaſon to hope, will ſecure our common Happineſs, and tranſmit it down to future Generations.

We have the Pleaſure to find, by your Grace's Speech, that our Zeal and Indignation againſt the horrid Deſign, which was formed againſt his Majeſty's Perſon, Government and royal Family, and the Duty and Loyalty ſhewn by us at that Time were graciouſly accepted by his Majeſty.

And now crave Leave to expreſs our Joy, for the Suppreſſion of that moſt horrid Rebellion, and for the quiet and peaceable Condition, into which his Majeſty, by Alliances formed abroad, and by his Wiſdom, Juſtice and Clemency at home, has happily put his Dominions.

Nor ought it to be paſſed over in Silence, that his Majeſty, by his royal Pardon and Act of Grace, has done all that is poſſible to reconcile even his greateſt Enemies to his royal Perſon and Government, except there be any of them who ſtill remain as ungratefully inſenſible of his Majeſty's Clemency, as hitherto they have wickedly been of their own Duty.

We take it alſo as a ſingular Inſtance of his Majeſty's Favour to us, that he has been pleaſed to appoint your Grace, Chief Governor of this Kingdom. We remember, with Pleaſure, the great Advantages we formerly enjoyed under your Grace's Adminiſtration, and promiſe ourſelves the Continuance of the like, or greater, from your early and faithful Adherence to his late Majeſty King William, of ever-glorious Memory; from your firm Zeal for the Intereſt of our preſent happy Eſtabliſhment, both in Church and State, and from the particular Favour and Kindneſs your Grace is pleaſed to expreſs towards this Kingdom.

Ordered,

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait on his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, and acquaint him, that this Houſe has agreed to an Addreſs to be preſented to his Majeſty: And alſo, An Addreſs of Thanks to his Grace, for his excellent Speech, delivered Yeſterday to both Houſes of Parliament, and to know when and where this Houſe may attend his Grace with the ſaid Addreſſes.

Standing Committees to meet.

Ordered, that all the Standing Committees of this Houſe, do meet at the Days and upon the Times they were to meet, the laſt Seſſion of Parliament; and that the ſame Lords who were then of the ſaid Committees, be the Lords for the ſaid Committees, this preſent Seſſion of Parliament.

Committee for Journals.

Ordered, that the ſame Lords that were Lords' Sub-Committees to inſpect the Journals, the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, be Lords' Sub-Committees, to inſpect the Journals this preſent Seſſion of Parliament.

Lords added to the Standing Committees.

Ordered, that all the Lords, who were Yeſterday introduced, be added to the Standing Committees of this Houſe.

The Lord Chancellor reported to the Houſe, that the Houſe had, according to Order, preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Majeſty, of the 28th Inſt. and that his Grace was pleaſed to give this Anſwer, viz.

My Lords,

Anſwer to Addreſſes.

"I WILL, without loſs of Time, ſend "your Lordſhips' dutiful Addreſs to Great "Britain, to be laid before his Majeſty."

And alſo, The Addreſs of this Houſe to his Grace; to which he was pleaſed to give the following Anſwer, viz.

My Lords,

"I AM very ſenſible of your Lordſhips' "good Inclinations and Kindneſs to me, ex- "preſſed in your Addreſs; and, fully con- "vinced, that your Lordſhips will continue "to promote, at all Times, what ſhall be for "his Majeſty's Service, and the Good of the "Kingdom."

Ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Clerk of this Houſe do cauſe the Addreſs of this Houſe, preſented Yeſterday to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, and his Grace's Anſwer thereunto, to be forthwith printed and publiſhed. Addreſs and Anſwer to be printed.

Upon reading the Orders of the Day,

Mr. Crook, who attended, according to Order, was called in, and at the Bar was taxed with his careleſs and negligent printing of his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Speech. Printer called in and examined.

Whereupon the ſaid Crook humbly aſked Pardon of the Houſe for the ſame.

Mr. Crook, being aſked, Whether he inſiſted on any Right, by Patent, to print the Addreſſes, or Orders of the Houſe?

Anſwered, that he had no Right, other than by the Orders of this Houſe; and was thereupon ordered to withdraw.

The ſaid Crook being again called in, was, at the Bar, reprimanded by my Lord Chancellor, for his Neglect; who acquainted him, that the Houſe required from him, for the future, more Care in printing the ſaid Speeches and Addreſſes; which the ſaid Crook promiſed to perform: And was diſmiſſed from further Attendance. Printer reprimanded.

PRAYERS.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

Ordered, that Leave be given to bring in Heads of a Bill for the more eaſy Recovery of Tythes, and other eccleſiaſtical Dues; and for preventing of frequent Excommunications; and that his Grace the Lord Primate do prepare and bring in the ſame.

Ordered, that Leave be given to bring in Heads of a Bill to oblige all Officers to return a Liſt of their Fees, by a Day certain; and that the Lord Newtown do prepare and bring in the ſame. The Lord Chief Juſtice of his Majeſty's Court of Chief-Place, and the Lord Chief Juſtice of his Majeſty's Court of Common-Pleas, to aſſiſt.

Ordered, that Leave be given to bring in Heads of a Bill for ſettling the Quarter Parts upon the Parochial Clergy of the Dioceſe of Tuam, and for impowering the Lord Archbiſhop of Tuam to ſet Leaſes of Part of his Demeſne Lands; and that his Grace the Lord Archbiſhop of Tuam do prepare and bring in the ſame.

Mr. Juſtice Boate takes the Oaths, &c.

Godfrey Boate, Eſq; one of Juſtices of his Majeſty's Court of Chief-Place, delivered his Writ in the uſual manner, and took the Oaths and made and ſubſcribed the Declaration, and alſo took and ſubſcribed the Oath of Abjuration, purſuant to the Statutes.

Upon reading the Standing Orders of the Houſe; It was ordered, that the Standing Order, Number 71, ſhould be read over To-morrow Morning, that the ſame might be amended.

Complaint on Breach of Privilege.

A Complaint was made to the Houſe, by the Biſhop of Clonfert, that Ulick Bourk was protected by the Lord Athenry, contrary to the Reſolutions of the Houſe. And the ſeveral Reſolutions of the Houſe, in relation to Protections, were read. And alſo, the Protection granted by the Lord Athenry to the ſaid Ulick Bourk, was read.

Viſc. Allen introduced.

The Right Hon. John Allen, Eſq; being, by Letters Patents, dated 28° die Auguſti, 4° Georgii Regis, created Lord Viſc. Allen, &c. was, in his Robes, introduced between the Lord Viſc. Strangford and the Lord Viſc. Strabane, alſo in their Robes; the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod, and Ulſter King of Arms, in his Coat of Arms, carrying the ſaid Letters Patents, preceding his Lordſhip, preſented the ſame to the Lord Chancellor, on his Knee, at the Wool-ſack, who gave them to the Clerk of the Parliaments, which were read at the Table by the Clerk of the Crown: His Writ of Summons was alſo read.

Then his Lordſhip came to the Table, and took the Oaths, and made and ſubſcribed the Declaration, and alſo took and ſubſcribed the Oath of Abjuration, purſuant to the Statutes, and was afterwards conducted to, and took his Place at, the lower end of the Viſcounts' Bench.

It is ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do write to the Lord Athenry, and acquaint him, that this Houſe doth require his Lordſhip's Attendance in a Fortnight.

H. Sherlock's Petition.

A Petition of Heſter Sherlock, Widow, ſetting forth, that, purſuant to the Order of the Houſe of the 19th of June, 1716, the Petitioner proceeded to an Account in his Majeſty's Court of Exchequer, and by a Report made by the proper Officer, dated the 19th of February, 1716, there appeared to be due to the Petitioner, upon Balance, over and above all juſt Allowances, given to Maurice Anneſley, one of the Reſpondents to the Petitioner's Appeal, the Sum of £1507 : 14*s*. 8¼*d*. beſides Coſts: That notwithſtanding the ſeveral Delays given the Petitioner by the ſaid Maurice, in making up the ſaid Account, and alſo in taking frivolous and unneceſſary Exceptions to the ſaid Report, the ſame were over-ruled; and on the 10th of May laſt paſt, the ſaid Report was confirmed, and the Petitioner at Liberty to make up and inroll her Decree, for the Money reported due. That the Petitioner, having made up a Draft of a Decree accordingly; and, according to the Practice of the Court of Exchequer, having ſerved the ſaid Maurice Anneſley's Attorney with a Copy thereof, the Petitioner could not get the ſame returned within the uſual Time, but was forced to apply to the Court of Exchequer, who ordered the Officer to ſign the ſame.

That no ſooner was the ſaid Order conceived, but to the Petitioner's great Surprize, the ſaid Maurice Anneſley procured the Petitioner and her Attorney to be ſerved with an Order, as is alledged, from the Right Hon. the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Great Britain, aſſembled in Parliament, dated 12th of June laſt, grounded upon the Petition and Appeal of Maurice Anneſley, from an Appeal brought by the Petitioner before their Lordſhips. Whereby the Judgment and Decree, made by their Lordſhips the 19th Day of June, 1716, amongſt other things, is complained of, and alledged that no Appeal lies before the Houſe of Lords in Ireland, from any Decree of the Court of Exchequer in that Kingdom: And it is thereby further ordered, that the Petitioner may have a Copy of the ſaid Appeal, and is required to put in her Anſwer thereto, in writing, on or before the 10th Day of July laſt, as by a Copy of the ſaid Order, annexed to the ſaid Petition, may appear; by means whereof, the Petitioner is ſtopped from proceeding on her ſaid Decree; Daniel Reading, Eſq; Deputy Chief Remembrancer of the ſaid Court of Exchequer, being unwilling to ſign the Petitioner's Decree, without your Lordſhips' further Direction in the Premiſſes. Inaſmuch therefore, as the Petitioner humbly conceives and is adviſed, that no Proceeding ought to be made or attempted, before any Court of Judicature, to avoid the Judgment and Decree of this Hon. Houſe, and that it is contrary to the known and ſtanding Reſolutions thereof; and for that the Petitioner, by means of the Artifice and Skill of the ſaid Maurice Anneſley, is put under the laſt Straits and Difficulties.

The Petitioner therefore moſt humbly implores, and prays their Lordſhips will be pleaſed to take the Premiſſes into their Conſideration, and make ſuch Order therein, for the Petitioner's Relief, as their Lordſhips, in their great Wiſdom, may think fit;

Was preſented to the Houſe, and read.

Then the ſaid Heſter Sherlock was called in, and ſworn at the Bar, and examined, in relation to her Petition; and alſo to the Service of the Order of the Houſe of Lords in Great Britain; and being withdrawn, Reſolved, that a Day be appointed to conſider of the Petition of Heſter Sherlock, and that all the Lords be ſummoned to attend the Service of the Houſe. Order thereon.

Then it being propoſed, that this Houſe ſhould take the ſaid Petition into Conſideration upon this Day three Weeks;

The Queſtion was put, Whether this Houſe ſhall, upon this Day three Weeks, take the ſaid Petition into Conſideration?

It was reſolved in the Negative.

Ordered, that this Houſe do, upon this Day Fortnight, take the ſaid Petition into Conſideration, and that all the Lords be ſummoned to attend the Service of the Houſe upon that Day.

It is ordered by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Lord Chancellor do write circular Letters to the ſeveral Peers, who have not appeared in the Houſe this Seſſion of Parliament, and acquaint them, that this Houſe doth require their reſpective Attendance upon this Day Fortnight. Ld Chancellor to write Letters to Lords.

Ordered, that this Houſe be called over To-morrow Morning.

Upon reading the Order of the Day, the Standing Order of this Houſe, N° 71, was read, and the ſame, by Order, was amended, by razing out the Word "one" and putting in the Word "two" inſtead thereof. Standing Order amended.

Ordered, that the Committee to inſpect Protections be revived, and that the Earl of Mount Alexander be added to the ſaid Committee.

Complaints on Breaches of Privilege.

A Complaint having been made to the Houſe by the Lord Newtown, of a Breach of Privilege committed againſt the Lord St. George, by John Stanton, by his ſerving his Lordſhip with an Action, within the Time, and contrary to the Privilege, of Parliament, And alſo,

Of a Breach of Privilege committed againſt the Earl of Mountrath, by Bartholomew Meade and others:

Order thereon.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the ſaid Matters and Complaints be, and are hereby, referred to the Lords' Committees for Privileges, who are to conſider thereof, and examine all Perſons concerning the ſame, that they ſhall think fit, and report their Opinion thereupon to the Houſe; whoſe Lordſhips are to meet To-morrow Morning, at Ten o'clock. And,

Witneſs ſworn.

Denis Clancy, being called in, was ſworn at the Bar, in order to give his Teſtimony before the Lords' Committees for Privileges, in relation to the Breach of Privilege complained of to have been committed by Bartholomew Mead and others, againſt the Earl of Mountrath.

Ordered, that Leave be given to bring in Heads of a Bill for taking away the Oath, commonly called, The Little Oath, on Members of Corporations, by the New Rules; and that the Lord Archbiſhop of Dublin, and the Lord Marquis of Catherlough do prepare and bring in the ſame.

The Lord Newtown, from the Lords' Committees, appointed to inſpect and inquire into the ſeveral Protections entered with the Clerk of this Houſe, reported as follows, viz.

My Lords,

Report on Protections.

THE Lords' Committees, appointed to inſpect and inquire into the ſeveral Protections entered with the Clerk of this Houſe, have met and do find, That the Lord King ſton has granted Forty-five Protections, moſt of them bearing Date the 22^d^ 23^d^ and 24^th^ of May laſt; and that by a Letter, bearing Date the 31^ſt^ of the laſt Month, directed to the Clerk of this Houſe, has thereby withdrawn all the ſaid Protections, except three, viz. one to John Butler, one to John Higgins, and another to Richard Delamer, who do not appear to us to be properly intitled to Protections.

Lord Dunkellin has protected Gregory Nolan and Patrick Jones; the former appears to have been his Servant theſe nine Years paſt, and the other, only ſince the 21^ſt^ of May laſt.

Lord Biſhop of Cloyne has protected Capt. John Crow; but the Reſolutions of this Houſe not being inſerted in the ſaid Protection, according to Order, we are humbly of Opinion the ſame is not valid.

Lord Athenry has protected Ulick Burk, Bryan Flaherty and Hugh O'Connor; but he, being in a ſhort time to attend in his Place, we did not think it fit to make any further Inquiry.

Lord Tyrawly protects Charles O'Hara and Francis Palmer, Eſqrs. but there being no Wages ſpecified in either of the Protections, according to the Reſolutions of this Houſe, we are humbly of Opinion, they are not valid.

Lord Powerſcourt protects Owen O'Neal, which is conformable to the Reſolutions of the Houſe.

Lord Altham has protected Charles Harriſon, as his Servant and Clerk; William Doran, as his Solicitor, which is contrary to a Standing Order of the Houſe; William Devereux, as his menial Servant and Driver; and Philip Sherlock, as his menial Servant.

Lord Roſs protects William Power, as his menial Servant; but no Wages expreſſed in the Protection.

Lord St. George protects John Debutts, as a neceſſary Perſon to tranſact his Affairs; and Peter Perry, to take Care of ſome Affairs of his Lordſhip's, in the Country.

Earl Granard protects William Wybrants, to look after his Lordſhip's Affairs, and William Crow, as his Lordſhip's Seneſchal of his Manor of Limerick, in the Co. Leitrim.

Lord Howth protects John Boden, as his Lordſhip's Servant.

All which is humbly ſubmitted to your Lordſhips.

Ordered, that the Lord King ſton do attend in his Place on Tueſday ſev'n-night, to anſwer for the ſeveral Perſons his Lordſhip has protected.

Ordered, that this Houſe do take the ſaid Report into further Conſideration upon Tueſday ſev'n-night.

Ordered, that the Clerk of the Rolls do attend the ſaid Committee with the Roll, whereby the Wardenſhip of Galway is granted to the See of Tuam.

The Lord Viſc. Strabane, from the Lords' Committees for Privileges, made the following Report, viz.

My Lords,

Report on Breach of Privilege.

THE Lords' Committees for Privileges, to whom the Complaint of a Breach of Privilege, committed againſt the Right Hon. the Lord St. George, by John Stanton, Eſq; was referred, have examined all Parties concerned in the ſame; and it appears to the Lords' Committees, that the ſaid John Stanton has filed an original Writ againſt the Lord St. George, in the Curſitor's Office in the Time of the Privilege of Parliament; but it not appearing to the ſaid Lords' Committees, that his Lordſhip was ſerved therewith, their Lordſhips are humbly of Opinion, that barely filing the ſaid Original is not a Breach of the Privilege of this Houſe: Which is humbly ſubmitted to your Lordſhips.

And the ſaid Report being again read at the Table,

The Statute of the 3$^{d}$ of Edward IV. was alſo read.

And alſo the Statute of the 6$^{th}$ of Queen Anne, for the explaining and limiting the Privileges of Parliament.

And a Debate ariſing on the ſaid Report;

Ordered, that the ſame do lie on the Table.

The Lord Viſc. Strabane, from the Lords' Committees for Privileges, made the following Report, viz.

My Lords,

Report on Breach of Privilege.

THE Lords' Committees for Privileges have alſo met upon the Breach of Privilege, committed againſt the Right Hon. the Earl of Mountrath, by Bartholomew Mead and others; and upon the Examination of Denis Clancy, after having been ſworn at the Bar, do find, that the ſaid Clancy, ſome time in the Month of July 1716, ſerved the ſaid Mead with a Copy of the Order of this Houſe, of the 20$^{th}$ of June 1716, by delivering the ſaid Copy into the Hands of the ſaid Mead, at his Houſe, and at the ſame time ſhewed him the Original.

That the ſaid Clancy, in the ſame Month of July, ſerved Mr. John Kennedy with a Copy of the ſaid Order, and ſhewed the ſaid Kennedy the Original, at a time a Seſſions was held in Limerick, where he ſerved the ſaid Kennedy with a Copy of the ſaid Order, as aforeſaid.

The ſaid Clancy further ſaith, that he ſerved Mr. Mead again with the ſaid Order, on the 23$^{d}$ of Auguſt, 1717, by leaving a true Copy with one Peter Mead, in the ſaid Mead's Houſe and Shop, and at the ſame time ſhewed the Original, which ſaid Peter was then in the Nature of an Apprentice or Servant, and kept Shop for the ſaid Bartholomew Mead.

The ſaid Clancy further depoſeth, that on the 30$^{th}$ Day of Auguſt, 1717, he was in Limerick, and in ſearch of Mr. Kennedy, but could not meet him, ſo as to ſerve him perſonally with the ſaid Order: And on the laſt Day of Auguſt, 1717, he again renewed his Search of him the ſaid John Kennedy, but could not find him; ſo believing he abſconded, on Purpoſe to avoid being ſerved, he the ſaid Denis Clancy the ſame Day repaired to the Houſe of one Mr.

Mr. Smith in Limerick, where he was informed the ſaid John Kennedy did lodge, and in the ſame Houſe left a true Copy of the ſaid Order with a Woman, that appeared to him to be Miſtreſs of the ſame, and Wife to the ſaid Mr. Smith; and he, at the ſame time, ſhewed the Original, and prayed her to deliver the Copy to the ſaid Kennedy; but ſhe then, in Anger, threw it away, and ſaid, "She had got "Anger already on account of ſomething of "the like Nature:" Which is humbly ſubmitted to your Lordſhips.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Serjeant at Arms attending this Houſe, his Deputy or Deputies, do forthwith attach the Bodies of the ſaid Bartholomew Mead and John Kennedy, and keep them in ſafe Cuſtody, until the further Order of this Houſe; and this ſhall be a ſufficient Warrant on that behalf. Order on Breach of Privilege.

N. Aylward's Petition.

A Petition of Nicholas Aylward, Esq; setting forth, that his Name, as Counsel at Law, is subscribed to an Appeal depending before this House, at the Suit of John Coyne, Esq; without the Petitioner's Privity or Consent, and praying the Justice of the House in the Premises, was presented to the House, and read.

And the said Aylward was ordered to be called in, and sworn at the Bar, and examined, in relation to what he had set forth in his Petition; and being asked, Whether he signed the said Appeal at the Suit of Mr. Coyne?

Answered, that he did not sign the said Appeal; that his Name thereunto was like his Hand-writing: But that he was not concerned in the Suit in the Court below; and that therefore he was sure he did not sign the said Appeal. But that the said Coyne told him, If he would appear for him on the Appeal, that he should have Satisfaction given him as Counsel.

Witness sworn.

The said Coyne, being then ordered to be called in, was, at the Bar, asked, Who signed the Name Nicholas Aylward to his Appeal?

The said Coyne said he gave Mr. Aylward a Guinea to sign the said Appeal; that Mr. Aylward signed the same at his Lodgings; and that Mr. Wall, a Member of the House of Commons, could justify what he asserted.

The said Mr. Aylward and Mr. Coyne being ordered to withdraw,

A Message was sent to the House of Commons by Mr. Serjeant Witherington and Dr. Usher, to desire, that Mr. William Wall, a Member of their House, may have Leave to be examined before the Lords, in relation to an Appeal, then depending at the Suit of John Coyne, Esq; Ordered, that Mr. Justice Caulfeild have the Leave of this House to give his Testimony, in a Case depending before the House of Commons.

Heads of a Bill for taking away the Oath, commonly called, The Little Oath, on Members of Corporations, by the New Rules, was according to Order, read a third time, and agreed to by the House. Heads of Little Oath Bill, agreed to, and sent to Lord Lieutenant.

Ordered, that the Lord Marquis of Catherlough do attend his Grace the Lord Lieutenant with the said Heads of a Bill, and desire his Grace would be pleased to transmit the same into Great Britain, in due Form.

Upon reading the Order for the Day, the House proceeded to take into Consideration, the Report made by the Lords' Committees, appointed to inquire into the Protections entered with the Clerk of this House. Report on Protections.

The said Report was then read.

And the Lord Chancellor acquainted the House, that among other Lords who were summoned to attend the Service of the House, he had written to the Lord Kingston, but received no Answer from his Lordship.

Resolved, that the several Protections granted by the Lord Kingston to John Butler, John Higgins and Richard Delamer, be declared null and void.

Ordered, that a Committee be appointed to inquire what is the proper and accustomed Method, taken with the several Lords who neglect to attend the Service of the House when summoned; and the Lords under-named were appointed a Committee accordingly, viz. Committee on absent Lords.

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that his Grace the Lord Lieutenant had received an Anſwer from his Majeſty, to the Addreſs of this Houſe of the 28th of Auguſt laſt, which his Grace has directed him to lay before the Houſe; which he read at the Woolſack, and afterwards delivered it to the Clerk, who read the ſame at the Table, and is as follows, viz.

GEORGE R.

King's Anſwer to Addreſs.

" HIS Majeſty returns his Thanks to the " Houſe of Lords, for their very loyal Ad- " dreſs, which is filled with ſo many Expreſ- " ſions of Duty and Affection, that his Ma- " jeſty

" jeſty hath Reaſon to believe they will con" tinue to make his Government eaſy to him;
" as his Majeſty will always endeavour, on " his Part, to make it happy to his People."

Addreſs and Anſwer, to be printed.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Majeſty, and his Majeſty's moſt gracious Anſwer thereunto, be forthwith printed and publiſhed.

Committee for Addreſs of Thanks.

Ordered, that Lords' Committees be appointed to draw up an humble Addreſs of Thanks to his Majeſty, for his Majeſty's moſt gracious Anſwer to the Addreſs of this Houſe; and that all the Lords preſent be appointed Lords' Committees to draw up the ſaid Addreſs, and report: Their Lordſhips, or any three of them, to meet in the Committee-Chamber, To-morrow Morning, at Ten o'clock, and adjourn as they pleaſe.

The Lord Newtown, from the Lords' Committees, appointed to inquire into the Protections, entered with the Clerk of this Houſe, made a further Report, which he read in his Place, and afterwards delivered it to the Clerk at the Table, where the ſame was again read.

Ordered, that the Conſideration of the ſaid Report be adjourned till Tueſday next.

an humble Addreſs of Thanks to his Majeſty, for his Majeſty's moſt gracious Anſwer to the Addreſs of this Houſe of the 28th of Auguſt laſt; that they had drawn up an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and the ſame was afterwards read at the Table, Paragraph by Paragraph, and, with ſome Amendments, agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

Addreſs to the King.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, do beſeech your Majeſty to accept our unfeigned and humble Thanks for your Majeſty's moſt gracious Anſwer to our late Addreſs.

Every Day's Experience makes us more ſenſible of the Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and wiſe Government: And the beſt way we have to demonſtrate the deep Impreſſion which your Majeſty's Goodneſs has left upon our Hearts, is to ſhew the moſt dutiful Regard and inviolable Attachment to your royal Perſon and Family; and with unwearied and united Endeavours, to do all that lies in us, to make your Majeſty's Reign eaſy and proſperous.

This we ſhall do in the moſt effectual Manner, by oppoſing, to the utmoſt of our Power, all your Majeſty's avowed Enemies, and detecting your more dangerous falſe Friends; and by ſupporting your Majeſty's juſt Title to the Crown of theſe Kingdoms, the beſt Security we have (under GOD) to all that can be dear and valuable to us in this World.

May that Crown long flouriſh on your Majeſty's Head, over a happy and obedient People, and be ſafe tranſmitted to your lateſt Poſterity, who, by your royal Example, may ever defend our excellent Conſtitution, in Church and State, to all future Generations.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do attend his Grace the Lord Lieutenant with the ſaid Addreſs, and deſire that his Grace will pleaſe to lay the ſame before his Majeſty.

The Lord Chief Juſtice of his Majeſty's Court of King's Bench, in the uſual Manner brought up a Writ of Error wherein

John Grace is Plaintiff; and

Thomas Wright, Leſſee of the Governor and Company for making hollow Sword-blades in England, and Leſſee of Francis Edwards, Eſq; is Defendant. Writ of Error.

Ordered, that the Conſideration of the ſaid Writ of Error be adjourned till To-morrow Morning.

John Grace, in Error, Plaintiff. Thomas Wright, &c. Defendants.

A Petition of the Defendants, ſetting forth, their having brought an Ejectment for Recovery of the Lands of Inchmore, Inchbegg, &c. the ſame was tried at the Bar of the Court of King's Bench, on the 31ſt Day of January laſt paſt, and the Petitioners obtained a General Verdict and Judgment in the ſaid Action.

That to prevent your Petitioners being put into Poſſeſſion of ſaid Lands, the Plaintiff (being Defendant in ſaid Action) brought a Writ of Error, returnable into this Hon. Houſe on the 1ſt Day of July laſt, but hath neglected proſecuting the ſame, purely for Delay; and the Petitioners, at their own Expence, have been obliged to remove the ſame.

That although your Petitioners, by Means of ſaid Writ of Error, have been kept out of Poſſeſſion of ſaid Lands, ſince January laſt, yet the Plaintiff endeavours to prevent ſaid Cauſe in Error receiving Judgment in this Hon. Houſe, with Deſign, as is believed, to carry ſaid Cauſe to another Juriſdiction, thereby to delay and put your Petitioners to greater Expence.

That inaſmuch as your Petitioners are kept out of Poſſeſſion of ſaid Lands (being upwards of £500 a Year) your Petitioners moſt humbly pray, the Plaintiff may be obliged to aſſign his Errors in a ſhort Day, or in Default, to be non-ſuited, or the Judgment be affirmed, as to their Lordſhips, in their great Wiſdom and Juſtice, ſhall think fit; and that the Plaintiff in Error may pay Coſts.

Which was received and read.

Ordered, that the ſaid Petition do lie on the Table.

Ordered, that the Lords the Judges do attend this Houſe To-morrow Morning.

The Houſe was reſumed.

Ordered, that the further Conſideration of the Report from the Lords' Committees about Protections, be adjourned till Saturday next.

The Lord Viſc. Strabane, from the Lords' Committees, appointed to conſider the propereſt Method for the relieving of Heſter Sherlock, made the following Report, which he read in his Place, and the ſame was afterwards read at the Table, as follows, viz.

My Lords,

Report on Mrs. Sherlock's Petition.

THE Lords' Committees, appointed to conſider the propereſt Method for the relieving of Heſter Sherlock, Widow, purſuant to what was ordered and adjudged by this Houſe, on the 19th Day of June, 1716, in a Cauſe wherein the ſaid Heſter Sherlock, Widow, was Appellant and Maurice Anneſley and John Anneſley, Eſq'rs. were Reſpondents; Do find, by the Decree of this Houſe, That the Appellant ſhall have and recover the Portion and Maintenance decreed to Edward Sherlock, by the late Truſtees for Sale of the forfeited and other Eſtates and Intereſts in this Kingdom, with Intereſt for the ſame. And it was alſo thereby ordered, what Sums ſhould be brought into the Account; and by the Examination of Mr. Francis Iſaac, Chief Clerk in the Chief Remembrancer's Office (after having been ſworn at the Bar of this Houſe) who proved the Minute-Books then before the Lords' Committees to be the Minutes taken in the Chancery-ſide of his Majeſty's Court of Exchequer: By which it appears, that upon the 28th of June, 1716, the ſaid Order of this Houſe was received in his Majeſty's Court of Exchequer, and made an Order of the ſame Court; and thereupon the Plaintiff, and the Defendant Maurice Anneſley proceeded to an Account before the Chief Remembrancer of the ſaid Court, who, upon the 19th of February, 1716, made his Report; and by a ſtated and liquidated Account, there appeared due, at that Time, to the ſaid Heſter, from the ſaid Maurice, the Sum of £1507: 14*s*. 8¼*d*. which Report and Account was laid before ſaid the Lords' Committees, and proved to be the Original by the Depoſition of Mr. Thomas Stanton, who was ſworn at the Bar of this Houſe, and examined by the ſaid Lords' Committees; and who likewiſe depoſed, that he had been Maſter of the References in the Exchequer-Office, about Ten Years laſt paſt, under Mr. Maul, Mr. Reily and Mr. Temple, and ſigned the ſaid Report, and ſtated the ſaid Account. That upon the 20th of the ſame Month, upon Application to the Court of Exchequer, it was ordered, that the ſaid Report ſhould be confirmed, unleſs Cauſe, in four Days. That upon the 25th of the ſame Month, there were Exceptions taken by the Defendant Maurice to the ſaid Report. And upon the 10th of May, 1717, the ſaid Exceptions were over-ruled by the ſaid Court; and the ſaid Report was then confirmed, and the ſaid Heſter was decreed the ſaid Sum of £1507: 14*s*. 8¼*d*. with Intereſt, for the ſame, from the 19th Day of February, the Day upon which the ſaid Report is dated, together with Coſts. That by a Decree of the late Truſtees, for Sale of the forfeited and other Eſtates and Intereſts in this Kingdom, bearing Date the 3d Day of October, 1701, laid before the Lords' Committees, and proved by Daniel Kelly, after having been ſworn at the Bar to be a true Copy of the Original remaining with the Clerk of the Forfeitures, wherein the ſeveral and reſpective Lands of Little Rath, Bodingſtown, Darr, and Mullenefooky, in the Barony of Naas and Co. Kildare, were thereby, among other things, made liable to, and chargeable with, the Portion thereby decreed to Edward Sherlock, with Intereſt for the ſame, till the Payment thereof. Whereupon the ſaid Lords' Committees are come to the following Reſolutions, viz.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the Sum of £1507: 14*s*. 8¼*d*. was due to Heſter Sherlock the Appellant, upon the 19th Day of February, 1716, on account of the Principal and Intereſt of the Portion of Edward Sherlock, decreed unto the ſaid Appellant, as Adminiſtratrix to the ſaid Edward, by this Houſe, on the 19th of June, 1716.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the Lands of Little Rath, Bodingſtown, Darr and Mullenefooky, in the Barony of Naas and Co. Kildare, are chargeable with, and liable to, the Payment of the ſaid Sum.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the Sheriff of the County Kildare is the proper Officer to execute the Decree of this Houſe, by putting Heſter Sherlock into the Poſſeſſion of the before-mentioned Lands, till the Sum of 1507: 14*s*. 8¼*d*. be paid to the ſaid Heſter Sherlock.

Then it being propoſed, that the Conſideration of the ſaid Report ſhould be adjourned to Saturday Morning next;

The Queſtion was put, Whether this Houſe ſhall, upon Saturday Morning next, take the ſaid Report into Conſideration?

It was reſolved in the Negative.

Ordered, that this Houſe do now take the ſaid Report into Conſideration.

The ſaid Report was then read by the Clerk, and the firſt Reſolution, being again read, Clerk to prepare Order to Sheriff.

Ordered, that the Clerk of this House do prepare an Order to the Sheriff of the Co. Kildare, to put the said Hester Sherlock into the Possession of the Lands of Little Rath, Bodingstown, Darr and Mullenafooky, in the Barony of Naas and Co. Kildare, to be held by the said Hester, till she receive the Sum of Money adjudged unto her by this House, and lay the same before this House To-morrow Morning.

Petition of Dr. Ses.

A Petition of the Rev. Robert Ses, Doctor in Divinity, setting forth, his having the Deanry of Cloyne confirmed upon him by Letters Patents, dated the 12th of August, in the 1st of King George.

That the late Dean held the said Deanry by the same Title, accepted by the present Lord Bishop of Cloyne.

That his Lordship refuses to accept of your Petitioner's Title, though under the same Circumstances, with his Predecessor, and has put another into Possession thereof.

That your Petitioner has been obliged to commence a Suit by Quare Impedit, in the Name of the Crown, for Possession of the said Deanry.

That the said Suit has been these three Years depending, barely upon his Lordship's insisting upon his Privilege.

The said Delay, being both a Prejudice to the Crown, and your Petitioner, your Petitioner most humbly prays your Lordships will give him Leave to prosecute the said Suit, and that neither your Petitioner, his Counsel, Agents or Attorney, may thereby incur the Displeasure of this most Hon. House, or otherways to relieve your Petitioner, as you, in your great Wisdom, may seem meet.

Order thereon.

Ordered, that the said Petition be and it is hereby referred to the Lords' Committees for Privileges, whose Lordships are to meet To-morrow Morning.

Prayers.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

Money-Bill,

Hodie ſecunda vice lecta eſt Billa, intitled, An Act for continuing to his Majeſty, the additional Duties on Beer, Ale, ſtrong Waters, Tobacco, and other Goods and Merchandizes.

committed.

Ordered, that the Conſideration of the ſaid Bill be committed to a Committee of the whole Houſe To-morrow Morning, and that they do compare the ſame with the original Tranſmiſs, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, and ſee that it exactly agrees therewith.

Ordered, that the Lord Blayney have the Leave of this Houſe to go into the Country for two Months upon extraordinary Occaſions, leaving his Proxy.

Tenants' Bill,

Hodie ſecunda vice lecta eſt Billa, intitled, An Act to explain and amend an Act, intitled, An Act for the more effectual preventing of Frauds committed by Tenants.

committed.

Ordered, that the Conſideration of the ſaid Bill be committed to a Committee of the whole Houſe, To-morrow Morning, and that they do compare the ſame with the original Tranſmiſs, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, and ſee that it exactly agrees therewith.

The Lord Marquis of Catherlough reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to draw up an humble Addreſs to be preſented to his Majeſty (upon the Reſolution of Yeſterday) that they had drawn up an Addreſs accordingly, which they directed him to report, and he read the ſame in his Place, and afterwards delivered it in at the Table, where the ſame was again read by the Clerk; and afterwards read, Paragraph by Paragraph, and agreed to by the Houſe, without any Amendment, and is as follows, viz.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Addreſs to the King.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, being entirely ſenſible, that the Happineſs and Welfare of theſe Kingdoms depend (next under God) on your Majeſty and your royal Family, and being deſirous on all Occaſions to expreſs our unfeigned Zeal for your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Government, beg Leave, in the moſt humble Manner, to congratulate your Majeſty on her royal Highneſs the Princeſs's ſafe Delivery, and on the happy Increaſe of the royal Family, by the Birth of a Prince.

We cannot but adore the Divine Providence, which has, in ſo particular a Manner, diſappointed the Hopes of your Majeſty's Enemies, ever ſince your Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to the Throne; and we eſteem it one of the greateſt Bleſſings we enjoy, to ſee your Majeſty's Government further ſecured by a numerous Iſſue, who, we aſſure ourſelves, will, in Imitation of your Majeſty's royal Example, continue our Happineſs to the lateſt Poſterity.

Ordered, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, by the whole Houſe.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do attend his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, to know when he will pleaſe to be waited upon with the ſaid Addreſs.

Petition of B. Hartwell, Clerk.

A Petition of Barry Hartwell, Clerk, ſetting forth, his having the Living of Killmurry, in the Dioceſe of Limerick, conferred upon him by Letters Patents, dated the 19th of March, in the 1ſt of King George.

That ſoon after, he preſented the ſame to the Lord Biſhop of Limerick, to have Inſtitution, and that his Lordſhip took a Week's time to conſider what to do therein.

That upon the Petitioner's waiting a ſecond time upon his Lordſhip, to know his Reſult, his Lordſhip acquainted the Petitioner, that he had collated a Clerk, in his own Right, to the ſaid Living.

That the Petitioner thereupon commenced a Suit, by Quare impedit, which has depended theſe three Years, barely upon his Lordſhip's inſiſting on his Privilege, which being of ill Conſequence, and to the great Prejudice of the Petitioner.

And praying their Lordſhips will give him Leave to proſecute the ſaid Suit; and that neither the Petitioner, his Counſel, Agents or Attorney, may thereby incur the Diſpleaſure of this Houſe, or otherwiſe, to relieve the Petitioner, as to their Lordſhips, in their great Wiſdom, might think fit, was preſented to the Houſe, and read.

Ordered, that the ſaid Petition be, and it is hereby, referred to the Lords' Committees for Privileges, who are to conſider thereof, and report their Opinion thereupon to the Houſe, whoſe Lordſhips are to meet upon the riſing of the Houſe. Order thereon.

Ordered, that the Clerk of this Houſe do ſend the Lord Biſhop of Limerick a Copy of the ſaid Hartwell's Petition, and the Order thereupon: And his Lordſhip is hereby required to appear in his Place a Week after the ſending the Copy of the ſaid Petition, and Order. Clerk of Houſe to write to Bp Limerick.

The Houſe, according to Order, proceeded to take into further Conſideration, the Report from the Lords' Committees, in relation to Protections, and the ſaid Report was read.

Reſolved, that no Protection of any Lord of Parliament, granted to any Perſon, ſhall extend further than to his Perſon, and Wearing Apparel, until the next Meeting of the Houſe after the Prorogation of this preſent Parliament. Order on Protections.

Adjourned till To-morrow Morning, at Eleven o'Clock.

A Meſſage from the Houſe of Commons, by Mr. Manly and others, Members of the ſaid Houſe, to return a Bill, intitled, An Act for taking away the Oath, commonly called, The little Oath, on Members of Corporations, by the New Rules, and to acquaint this Houſe, that they have agreed to the ſaid Bill, without any Amendment.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to robe.

The Houſe was reſumed.

Ld Lieutenant preſent. And his Grace Charles Duke of Bolton, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland, entered the Houſe, with the uſual Ceremonies of Grandeur; the Earl of Mount Alexander carrying the Sword of State, and the Earl of Roſcommon, the Cap of Maintenance; the Hon. William Hamilton, Eſq; the Hon. William Moleſworth, Eſq; and the Hon. James Butler, Eſq; bearing the Train of the Robe of State. His Grace the Lord Lieutenant, making his Congé to the Throne, ſeated himſelf in the Chair of State under the Canopy, all the Lords Spiritual and Temporal ſtanding robed in their Places, uncovered, till their Lordſhips took their Seats.

The Lord Chancellor, kneeling, conferred with his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, and then, ſtanding on the right hand of the Chair of State, ſaid,

Commons ſent for: "Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod, his "Grace the Lord Lieutenant commands you "to repair to the Houſe of Commons, and "acquaint them, that it is his Grace's Plea-"ſure they attend him immediately in the "Houſe of Peers."

Who being returned, acquainted his Grace, that the Commons were at the Door.

And, being ordered to call them in,

they enter; They, with their Speaker, were conducted to the Bar, by the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod, with the uſual Ceremonies.

with two Money-Bills. And Mr. Speaker, after a ſhort Speech to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, in relation to the two Money-Bills, delivered them at the Bar to the Clerk of the Parliaments, who brought them to the Table, where the Clerk of the Crown read the Title of thoſe, and the other Bills to be paſſed, as follow, viz.

Royal Aſſent given to 5 Bills.

1. An Act for continuing to his Majeſty, the additional Duties on Beer, Ale, ſtrong Waters, Tobacco and other Goods and Merchandizes.

2. Petition of Mr. Chr. French.

A Petition of Mr. Chriſtopher French, ſetting forth, his being eldeſt Son and Heir of Arthur French, late of Cloniquin, in the Co. of Roſcommon, Eſq; a Papiſt, and that the Petitioner, in his Father's Life-time, became a Proteſtant, and performed all the Requiſites, purſuant to the Acts to prevent the further Growth of Popery, whereby the Petitioner's Father became Tenant for Life, and ſo incenſed that all poſſible Means were uſed to deprive the Petitioner of his Inheritance, and many Law-ſuits commenced thereupon, and Decrees made in favour of your Petitioner: And certain Lands were, by Order of the High Court of Chancery, to be ſet to the beſt Bidder, by one of the Maſters of the ſaid Court for the Petitioner's Service.

That the ſaid Lands were poſted to be ſet to the beſt Bidder, on the 23^d of July laſt, and ſeveral Perſons, appearing before the ſaid Maſter, canted for the ſame. But one Thomas Daly, an Attorney in the Common-Pleas, then producing a Letter of Attorney from the Right Hon. the Lord Athenry, and alſo a Letter from his Lordſhip, ſignifying that his Lordſhip had an Incumbrance on Part of the ſaid Lands, and inſiſted upon his Privilege, thereby prevented the ſaid Maſter's ſetting the ſaid Lands, to your Petitioner's great Loſs and Prejudice; and praying their Lordſhips' Relief in the Premiſes, in ſuch Manner as their Lordſhips might think fit, was preſented to the Houſe, and read.

Order thereon.

Ordered, that the ſaid Petition be, and it is hereby, referred to the Lords' Committees for Privileges, who are to conſider thereof, and hear all Perſons concerning the ſame, that they ſhall think fit, and report their Opinion thereon to the Houſe; whoſe Lordſhips are to meet on Saturday Morning next.

L^d Athenry to attend.

Ordered, that the Lord Athenry do attend the Service of this Houſe on Monday ſe'nnight, and that a Copy of this Order be ſent to his Lordſhip by this Night's Poſt.

Ordered, that the Call of ſuch Lords as made Default upon the Call of the Houſe, and were not excuſed, be adjourned to Monday ſe'nnight.

Petition of R. Whaley, Eſq;

A Petition of Richard Whaley, Eſq; ſetting forth, that Richard Chapell, Eſq; by his Laſt Will and Teſtament, bequeathed to the Petitioner his Intereſt in a Leaſe made to him by the Right Hon. Folliott Lord Viſc. Powerſcourt, of the Manor of Benburb in the Co. Tyrone, with the Benefit of Renewal.

That the Petitioner, having been at Law for a conſiderable time with the ſaid Lord Powerſcourt, on account of the ſaid Renewal, his Lordſhip, upon the 12^th Day of June, 1716, obtained the Leave of this Houſe to wave his Privilege in the ſaid Suit, as did the Petitioner in the Houſe of Commons.

That the ſaid Cauſe, being ſet down to be heard the laſt Trinity-Term, the Petitioner, his Six-Clerk and Agent, were ſerved with Notice from his Lordſhip, that he inſiſted on his Privilege; and, notwithſtanding the ſaid former Order of this Houſe, the Hearing of the ſaid Cauſe was put off, which may prove to the Petitioner's great Prejudice; and praying that the Order of this Houſe of the 12^th of June, 1716, might be confirmed, was preſented to the Houſe, and read.

Order thereon.

Ordered, that the ſaid Petition be, and it is hereby, referred to the Lords' Committees for Privileges.

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that it was his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure, that this Houſe do adjourn itſelf till Saturday Morning next.

Then the Houſe was adjourned till Saturday next, at Eleven o'clock in the Morning.

Petition against Galway-Bill. A Petition of Dominick Bourke, John Smith, Alexander Lynch, Robert Braughton, John Lopdell and Charles Lopdell, setting forth:

That by a Clause in a Bill, now depending, intitled, An Act for regulating the Town of Galway, and strengthening the Protestant Interest therein, it is enacted, that for the further Security of the Town of Galway, the Election and Admission of all and every Person and Persons, who have been admitted and sworn of the Common-Council of the said Town of Galway, since the first Day of August, in the Year of our Lord 1714, except of such who have been approved of, sworn and served as Sheriffs of the said Town, shall be, and are by the said Clause, declared null and void.

That the Petitioners were, since the said first of August, duly elected Sheriffs for the said Town, and were likewise admitted into and sworn of the Common-Council thereof, for which Office they apprehend themselves respectively qualified: And, in Case the said Bill should pass into a Law, the Petitioners will be deprived of the said Office as Common-Council-Men, though they have done no Act to merit the same, or given any Occasion to suspect their Affection to his Majesty's Person and Government.

And praying their Lordships to examine into their Characters and Qualifications, as Common-Council-Men of the said Corporation, and that they might be heard by their Counsel, or otherwise to relieve them, as to their Lordships, in their great Wisdom and Justice, shall seem meet; was presented to the House and read.

Ordered, that the Petitioners be heard by their Counsel, before the Committee of the whole House, to whom the Consideration of the said Bill is committed, as to that Clause in the said Bill, which affects the Petitioners, as Common-Council-Men.

Bill for Pavements, &c. of Dublin. Hodie prima vice lecta est Billa, intitled, An Act for the better Amendment of the Pavements, and more effectual cleansing the Streets of the City of Dublin, and for removing Incroachments and Nuisances, that are or shall be erected therein; and preventing Mischiefs occasioned by Drivers of Carts, Drays or Cars riding thereon; and for regulating the selling of Hay in the City of Dublin and Liberties thereunto adjoining.

Ordered, that the said Bill be read a second time To-morrow Morning.

Bill for Barracks, &c. Hodie prima vice lecta est Billa, intitled, An Act for vesting in his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors the several Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, whereon the Barracks in this Kingdom are built, or building or contracted for, and whereon Light-Houses are or shall be built; and for making reasonable Satisfaction to the several Owners and Proprietors for the same; and likewise for amending an Act made in the 6th Year of her late Majesty's Reign, intitled, An Act to prevent the Disorders that may happen by the marching of Soldiers, and for providing Carriages for the Baggage of Soldiers in their March.

Ordered, that the said Bill be read a second time To-morrow Morning.

Writs of Error Bill. Hodie prima vice lecta est Billa, intitled, An Act for limiting certain Times within which Writs of Error shall be brought for the reversing Fines, and common Recoveries.

Ordered, that the said Bill be read a second time To-morrow Morning.

Marriage-Bill Hodie prima vice lecta est Billa, intitled, An Act for the more effectual preventing Marriages of Infants, against the Wills of their Parents or Guardians.

Ordered, that the said Bill be read a second time To-morrow Morning.

Bill for temporary Laws.

Hodie prima vice lecta eſt Billa, intitled, An Act for reviving, continuing and amending ſeveral Statutes made in this Kingdom, heretofore temporary.

Ordered, that the ſaid Bill be read a ſecond time To-morrow Morning.

Hodie prima vice lecta eſt Billa, intitled, An Act for Sale of the Moiety of the Lands of Duray, and other Lands, ſituate in the Half Barony of Roſs and Co. Galway, Part of the Eſtate of William Smyth, Eſq; for the Payment of £800 charged thereon, and for Purchaſe of other Lands, to be ſettled to the ſame Uſes. Mr. Smyth's Bill.

Ordered, that the ſaid Bill be read a ſecond time To-morrow Morning.

Act made in the 2d Year of his Majeſty's Reign, by which the Dimenſions of Butter-Caſks are aſcertained, and for explaining and further amending the Law in relation to Butter-Caſks.

paſſed. The Queſtion was put, Whether this Bill ſhall paſs?

It was reſolved in the Affirmative.

Meſſage to Commons, with Concurrence. A Meſſage was ſent to the Houſe of Commons, by Dr. Uſher and Dr. Lyndon, two of the Maſters in Chancery, to acquaint them, that this Houſe hath agreed to the ſaid Bill, without any Amendment.

The Lord Marquis of Catherlough, from the Lords' Committees, appoined to draw up an Addreſs to his Grace to Lord Lieutenant, reported to the Houſe an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and afterwards delivered it in at the Table, where the ſame was again read by the Clerk, and alſo read, Paragraph by Paragraph, and with ſome Amendments, agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

May it pleaſe your Grace,

Addreſs to Lord Lieutenant. WE his Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to expreſs our due Senſe of the Wiſdom and Juſtice of your Grace's Adminiſtration during your Continuance in this Kingdom, and to return you our Thanks for the Concern you have, on all Occaſions, ſo remarkably ſhewn both for his Majeſty's Service, and our Welfare and Proſperity.

It is with the greateſt Pleaſure, we ſee that the Malice and Treachery of ill-deſigning Men (however they may have prevailed elſewhere to diſturb the Quiet of his Majeſty's People) have had no other Effect in Ireland, than to unite all loyal Subjects to that becoming Zeal, which they have ſhewn for his Majeſty's Intereſt, and your Grace's Government.

Upon this Occaſion, we cannot but take Notice of, and with Thankfulneſs acknowledge, the great Care which your Grace has taken in obtaining a timely Tranſmiſſion of the ſeveral good Bills prepared by both Houſes of Parliament, ſome of which have been paſſed into Laws, and others are ready to receive the royal Aſſent.

We cannot conclude, without aſſuring your Grace, that we ſhall always preſerve a juſt Senſe of the great Advantages we have received by your Grace's Adminiſtration, and ſhall, in our ſeveral Stations, endeavour to continue it honourable and eaſy.

Ordered, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait upon his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, and acquaint him, that this Houſe has agreed to an Addreſs to be preſented to his Grace, and to know when this Houſe may attend his Grace with the ſaid Addreſs.

The Lord Newtown made a Report from the Lords' Committees for Privileges, as follows, viz.

My Lords,

Report on Breach of Privilege. THE Lords' Committees for Privileges, to whom the Petition of Rich. Whaley, Eſq; was referred, do find, that by an Order of the 12th of June, 1716, the Lord Viſc. Powerſcourt had the Leave of this Houſe, at his own Requeſt, to wave his Privilege at the Suit of the ſaid Richard Whaley, and it appearing by the Examination of Mr. John Draycott (after having been ſworn at the Bar) that the Lord Viſc. Powerſcourt laſt Trinity Term inſiſted upon his Privilege in the High-Court of Chancery in the ſame Cauſe in which he had the Leave of this Houſe to wave his Privilege: But whether his Lordſhip could reſume a Privilege that he had before given up, the Lords' Committees would not take upon them to determine, there being no ſuch Caſe in the Journals, as they could find.

The Lords' Committees thought it proper to acquaint his Lordſhip, by Mr. Sterne, Clerk of this Houſe, that ſuch a Petition was then before the Committee, and to know, Whether his Lordſhip ſtill inſiſted upon his Privilege in that Cauſe? His Lordſhip was pleaſed to make Anſwer, That he did inſiſt upon his Privilege, which is ſubmitted to your Lordſhips.

The Petition of Richard Whaley, Eſq; was then read. Alſo,

The Order of this Houſe, of the 12th of June, 1716:

And a Debate ariſing,

Ordered, that the ſaid Report be re-committed, and that the Lords Committees do report to the Houſe the Difficulties the Lord Viſc. Powerſcourt lies under, in Caſe he waves his Privilege.

Ordered, that all the Lords' that are in Town be ſummoned to attend the Service of the Houſe To-morrow Morning, in a Matter of Privilege.

A Petition of William Parſons, Door-keeper, and Bartholomew Rone, Robe-keeper, ſetting forth, their being Servants, as aforeſaid, in the Years 1705, 1707, 1709 and 1711, and for their ſaid Services, were, by their Lordſhips, recommended to the Government to have a Reward of £10 a-piece for each of the ſaid Seſſions, and that they had received only £5.

And praying their Lordſhips to conſider the Premiſes, and favour the Petitioners in ſuch Manner as to their Lordſhips, in their great Wiſdom, ſhould think fit, was preſented to the Houſe, and read.

Ordered, that the ſaid Petition do lie on the Table.

Ordered, that all Orders for the Day, not proceeded on, be adjourned till To-morrow Morning.

Report from L^d Lieutenant

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that he had waited upon his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, and acquainted him, that this Houſe had agreed to an Addreſs to be preſented to his Grace; and to know when his Grace will be pleaſed to be attended by the Houſe with the ſaid Addreſs: His Grace was pleaſed to appoint Two o'clock this Afternoon at the Caſtle.

Linen-Bill,

Then the Houſe, according to Order, was adjourned during Pleaſure, and put into a Committee, upon a Bill, intitled, An Act for exempting Britiſh Linen imported, from all Duties, and granting to his Majeſty an additional Duty on Cordage; and for the more effectual preventing Frauds and Abuſes in the Hempen and Flaxen Manufactures of this Kingdom, and for the further Encouragement thereof; and, after ſome time ſpent therein,

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Tullamore reported from the ſaid Committee of the whole Houſe, that they had conſidered of the ſaid Bill, and gone through the ſame, and agreed thereunto, and think it fit to paſs, without any Amendment; and alſo compared the ſaid Bill with the original Tranſiniſs, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, with which they find it exactly to agree.

Hodie tertia vice lecta eſt Billa, intitled, An Act for exempting Britiſh Linen imported from all Duties, and granting to his Majeſty, an additional Duty on Cordage; and for the more effectual preventing Frauds and Abuſes in the Hempen and Flaxen Manufactures of this Kingdom, and for the further Encouragement thereof.

The Queſtion was put, Whether this Bill ſhall paſs?

It was reſolved in the Affirmative.

Meſſage to Commons, with Concurrence.

A Meſſage was ſent to the Houſe of Commons, by Dr. Warburton and Dr. Lyndon, two of the Maſters in Chancery, to acquaint them, that this Houſe has agreed to the ſaid Bill, without any Amendment.

The Lord Archbiſhop of Dublin, from the Lords' Committees, to whom the Petition of Nicholas Barnewall, Eſq; was referred, reported, that they had prepared an Addreſs, purſuant to the Order of this Houſe of the 10th inſt. which he read in his Place, and afterwards delivered it in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and, with ſome Amendments, agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To his Grace CHARLES Duke of BOLTON, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND,

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Grace,

Addreſs in favour of N. Barnewall.

WE crave Leave to repreſent to your Grace the Caſe of Nicholas Barnewall, Eſq; and intreat your Grace's Favour in his behalf.

He is a Gentleman of a Noble Engliſh Family in this Kingdom, being Grandſon to the late Lord Kingſland, and is the firſt of that Family, that we can find, who profeſſed himſelf a Proteſtant, ſince the late Sir Chriſtopher Barnewall, who was Speaker of the Houſe of Commons, in the Time of Queen Elizabeth, and Maſter of the Rolls in this Kingdom.

That notwithſtanding their being Roman Catholicks, his Grandfather and Father have adhered to the Engliſh Intereſt, and on that Account, the Grandfather of the ſaid Barnewall avoided all Concern in the Rebellion in the Year 1641.

That his Father Francis Barnewall, Eſq; refuſed to ſerve in any Military Employment under King James, and ſhewed himſelf a moſt hearty and kind Friend to the Proteſtants of Ireland, at that time, who lived near him, protecting them from Injuries, and preſerving them from Impriſonment, for which he was highly regarded, and reſpected by them.

We likewiſe take the Liberty to acquaint your Grace, that the Gentleman has five Sons and two Daughters, whom he educates in the Proteſtant Religion, as by Law eſtabliſhed. That he is in low Circumſtances, as to his Fortune, by reaſon of ſeveral Incumbrances on his Eſtate, and his great Charge of Children, to whom he is not able to give proper Education.

That

That the ſaid Mr. Barnewall has rich Relations of the Popiſh Religion, who would provide for his Children, if he permitted them to be educated in their way, which he has abſolutely refuſed to do, and that he has ſuffered ſeveral Hardſhips, on account of his being a Proteſtant.

That his Sons are capable of ſerving his Majeſty, if duly educated, and that ſome Favour ſhewed him will be a great Encouragement to others, to follow his Example.

We therefore intreat your Grace, to lay his Caſe before his Majeſty, as a proper Object of his Majeſty's royal Conſideration, that he and his Family may be enabled to ſubſiſt, and encouraged to proceed in the good way they have choſen. The gaining of ſuch ſincere and conſiderable Converts being of great Moment to the Engliſh Proteſtant Intereſt in this Kingdom.

Ordered, that his Grace the Lord Archbiſhop of Dublin, the Earl of Kildare and the Lord Viſc. Charlemont, do attend his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, with the ſaid Addreſs.

The Lord Newtown, from the Lords' Committees for Privileges, made the following Report, viz.

My Lords,

Report on Breach of Privilege.

THE Lords' Committees for Privileges, to whom the Complaint of a Breach of Privilege, committed againſt the Lord Viſc. Grandiſon, was referred, have examined John Lynch of Monerood, in the Co. Waterford, who was ſworn at the Bar of the Houſe, who depoſed, that he has known John Lord Viſc. Grandiſon, by himſelf, his Father and Mother, and their Under-tenants, to have been in the quiet and peaceable Poſſeſſion of the ſaid Lands of Monerood, and that Part thereof, called the Rhea, theſe 17 or 18 Years paſt, ſave that about the 15th Day of June, 1716, Auguſtine Nugent, Gent. Pierce Commane, Maurice Commane and Thomas Commane, his the ſaid Auguſtin's Servants and Under-tenants, in a violent and forceable Manner, entered on the ſaid Lands of Monerood, and particularly that Part thereof, called the Rhea, and then and there, with their Plough and Horſes, broke up and ploughed Part of the ſaid Lands of Monerood, then in his and the ſaid Lord Grandiſon's Tenants' Poſſeſſion, by virtue of his ſaid Anceſtors' Title ſtill in being, and undetermined; and with like Force and Violence, the ſaid Auguſtine, by his Under-tenants the ſaid Pierce Commane, Maurice Commane and Thomas Commane, attempted, and did ditch up, and incloſe Part of the ſaid Lands: And have at ſeveral times, and ſtill do, continue to diſturb and moleſt the ſaid Lord Grandiſon, in the Enjoyment and Poſſeſſion of the ſame. The Deponent further depoſed, that he verily believes the ſaid Auguſtine, or his ſaid Under-tenants, would not diſturb the ſaid Lord Grandiſon in the Poſſeſſion of the Premiſes, had not his Lordſhip been at that time, and ever ſince, in the Kingdom of Great Britain, as the Deponent verily believes, and is credibly informed.

The Deponent further depoſed, that on the 7th of Auguſt, 1716, the ſaid Auguſtine Nugent and Pierce Commane took four Horſes from off the ſaid Lands of Monerood, and impounded them, the ſaid Horſes being the Property of the Lord Grandiſon's Tenants, and conſtantly ever ſince continued to diſturb the ſaid Lord Grandiſon's Tenants and their Poſſeſſions, in the Enjoyment of the ſaid Lands.

He further depoſed, that the Cattle of the Tenants of Lord Grandiſon, and of Auguſtine Nugent, have grazed on the Lands of each other, without impounding, and that the Lands of Rhea were never broke up by any of the Lord Grandiſon's Tenants; and that there were ſeveral Indictments on both Sides, not yet determined; but that the Tenants of Lord Grandiſon are in Poſſeſſion of a Garden on the ſaid Lands of Rhea.

It appearing to the Lords' Committees that it is a controverted Poſſeſſion; Their Lordſhips think it not fit to come to any Reſolution thereon, but humbly ſubmit it to your Lordſhip's Conſideration.

Ordered, that the Lords' Committees for Privileges be, and are hereby, diſcharged from further proceeding on their Report, in the Caſe of the Lord Viſc. Powerſcourt and Richard Whaley, Eſq; Order on Whaley's Caſe.

Reſolved, that this Houſe will not cenſure the Counſel, Agents, Solicitor or Clerk of Richard Whaley, Eſq; for proceeding in the High Court of Chancery, in the Cauſe between the Lord Viſc. Powerſcourt and the ſaid Whaley.

The Lord Chancellor reported, that when this House attended his Grace the Lord Lieutenant with their Address of the 12th inst. his Grace was pleased to answer, as follows, viz.

My Lords,

Lord Lieutenant's Answer to Address.

I AM glad to find my Care and Concern for his Majesty's Service, and the Good of the Kingdom, has been so acceptable to your Lordships, and do assure you of the Continuance of my best Endeavours for the publick Welfare, which your Lordships' unanimous and steady Adherence to his Majesty's Service and Interests, have greatly contributed unto; and do hope that his Majesty's Goodness and Clemency toward those who have disturbed the publick Quiet will continue to have their proper Effect, by bringing them to a due Sense of their Duty to the best of Princes.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, that the Clerk of the Parliaments do cause the Address of this House, presented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant on Friday last, and his Grace's Answer thereunto, to be forthwith printed and published.

Address and Answer to be printed.

Upon reading the Standing Order of this House, N° 67,

Resolved, upon the Question, nem. con. that no Lord of Parliament, having once obtained the Leave of this House to wave his Privilege in any Cause, shall at any time after be admitted to resume his Privilege in the same Cause, without the Leave of this House.

Standing Order upon Privilege.

Ordered, that the foregoing Resolution be entered among the Standing Orders of this House.

His Grace the Lord Lieutenant, making his Congé to the Throne, ſeated himſelf in the Chair of State under the Canopy, all the Lords Spiritual and Temporal ſtanding robed in their Places, uncovered, till their Lordſhips took their Seats.

Commons ſent for:

The Lord Chancellor, kneeling, conferred with his Grace the Lord Lieutenant; and then, ſtanding on the right hand of the Chair of State, commanded the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod to ſignify to the Commons, that it was his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure they attend him immediately in the Houſe of Peers.

Who being returned, acquainted his Grace, that the Commons were at the Door.

And being ordered to call them in,

They enter.

They, with their Speaker, were conducted to the Bar by the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod, with the uſual Ceremonies.

Then the Clerk of the Crown read the Titles of the Bills to be paſſed, as follows, viz.

Royal Aſſent given to 12 Bills.

1. An Act for veſting in his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, the ſeveral Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, whereon the Barracks in this Kingdom are built, or building or contracted for, and whereon Light-Houſes are or ſhall be built, and for making reaſonable Satisfaction to the ſeveral Owners and Proprietors of the ſame; and likewiſe for amending an Act, made in the 6th Year of her late Majeſty's Reign, intitled, An Act to prevent the Diſorders that may happen by the marching of Soldiers, and for providing Carriages for the Baggage of Soldiers in their March.
2. An Act for exempting Britiſh Linen imported from all Duties, and granting to his Majeſty an additional Duty on Cordage; and for the more effectual preventing Frauds and Abuſes in the Hempen and Flaxen Manufactures of this Kingdom, and for the further Encouragement thereof.

Prayers.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do attend his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, and acquaint his Grace, that this Houſe returns their moſt humble Thanks to his Majeſty, for his Majeſty's moſt gracious Anſwer to the Addreſs of this Houſe of the 15th of November laſt.

Kilkenny-Bill,

Then the Houſe, according to Order, was adjourned during Pleaſure, and put into a Committee, upon a Bill, intitled, An Act for the better regulating the Corporarion of the City of Kilkenny, and ſtrengthening the Proteſtant Intereſt therein; and puniſhing Alderman Robert Connell, for withdrawing himſelf with the Books and Papers belonging to the ſaid Corporation; and after ſome time ſpent therein,

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Tullamore reported from the Committee of the whole Houſe, that they had conſidered the ſaid Bill, and gone through the ſame, and think it fit to paſs, without any Amendment; and that they had compared the ſame with the original Tranſmiſs, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, with which they found it exactly agreed.

Hodie tertia vice lecta eſt Billa, intitled, An Act for the better regulating the Corporation of the City of Kilkenny, and ſtrengthening the Proteſtant Intereſt therein; and puniſhing Alderman Robert Connell, for withdrawing himſelf with the Books and Papers belonging to the ſaid Corporation.

paſſed.

The Queſtion was put, Whether this Bill ſhall paſs?

It was reſolved in the Affirmative.

Meſſage to Commons with Concurrence.

A Meſſage was ſent to the Houſe of Commons, by Dr. Uſher and Dr. Lyndon, two of the Maſters in Chancery, to acquaint them, that this Houſe had agreed to the ſaid Bill, without any Amendment.

The Houſe, being informed by the Lord Tyrawly, that the Reaſon the Lord Kingſton did not attend the Service of the Houſe, as he had been required, was occaſioned by his Lordſhip's Indiſpoſition, and produced two Certificates from the Phyſicians that attended his Lordſhip; and thereupon moved the Houſe, to have the Fine remitted, which the Houſe impoſed on his Lordſhip this preſent Seſſion of Parliament.

The Order of the Houſe of the 13th of November laſt, whereby his Lordſhip was fined, was then read. And Charles White, being ordered to be called in, was at the Bar ſworn, and depoſed, that Dr. Kelly and Dr. Gough had ſigned the ſaid Certificates; Dr. Kelly at Kilkenny; and Dr. Gough at Mitchelſtown.

The ſaid Certificates were then read.

Lord Kingſton's Fine reduced.

The previous Queſtion being put, Whether a Queſtion be now put, That the Fine impoſed on the Lord Kingſton the 13th of November laſt, be reduced to £100 Sterl.

The Queſtion was then put, That the ſaid Fine be reduced to £100.

It was reſolved in the Affimative.

Ordered, that the Clerk of this Houſe do eſtreat the ſaid Fine of £100 impoſed upon the Lord Kingſton by this Houſe, into his Majeſty's Court of Exchequer.

Report on Addreſs in favour of Mr. Barnewall.

The Lord Archbiſhop of Dublin acquainted the Houſe, that he, with the other Lords, had been to wait upon his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, with the Addreſs of this Houſe, in favour of Nicholas Barnewall, Eſq; who was pleaſed to return for Anſwer: "That he "would lay the ſaid Addreſs before his Ma"jeſty, in the beſt Manner he could."

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to robe.

The Houſe was reſumed: And his Grace Charles Duke of Bolton, Lord Lieutenant General, and General Governor of Ireland, having entered the Houſe, with the uſual Ceremonies of Grandeur, in his Robes of State; the Earl of Mount Alexander carrying the Sword of State, and the Earl of Kildare, the Cap of Maintenance; the Hon. William and Charles Hamilton, Eſq'rs. younger Sons of the Lord Viſc. Strabane, and the Hon. Charles and Henry Caulfeild,

Caulfeild, Eſq'rs. younger Sons of the Lord Viſc. Charlemont, bearing the Train of his Grace's Robe: His Grace the Lord Lieutenant making his Congé to the Throne, ſeated himſelf in the Chair of State, all the Lords Spiritual and Temporal ſtanding robed in their Places, uncovered, till their Lordſhips took their Seats.

The Lord Chancellor, kneeling, conferred with his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, and ſtanding on right hand of the Chair of State, commanded the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black Rod to ſignify to the Commons, that it is his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure, they attend him preſently in the Houſe of Peers:

Who being returned, acquainted his Grace, that the Commons were at the Door; and being ordered to call them in, they, with their Speaker, were conducted to the Bar by the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod, with the uſual Ceremonies.

Then the Clerk of the Crown read the Title of a Bill to be paſſed, as follows, viz.

Royal Aſſent given to a Bill.

An Act for the better regulating the Corporation of the City of Kilkenny, and ſtrengthening the Proteſtant Intereſt therein, and puniſhing Alderman Robert Connell, for withdrawing himſelf with the Books and Papers belonging to the ſaid Corporation.

To this Bill, the Clerk of the Parliaments pronounced the Royal Aſſent in theſe Words, viz.

"Le Roy le veult."

After which his Grace the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to make a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, as follows, viz.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

IT is due to his Majeſty's Goodneſs, and to the tender Regard he always hath to the Welfare of his People, that you have been called together, to conſult what may be neceſſary for the further Security of the Proteſtant Religion and Intereſt of this Kingdom.

You have, with great Diligence and Succeſs, applied yourſelves to the Diſcharge of that Duty, which you owe to his Majeſty, and to your Country, ſo that we are now come to what we all earneſtly deſired, as well as promiſed ourſelves, an happy Concluſion of this Seſſion of Parliament, in which you have had the Satisfaction to be Witneſſes of the royal Aſſent to thoſe Bills, which have paſſed the two Houſes.

It will be for his Majeſty's Service, as well as the Good of the Kingdom, and your private Advantage, that after having employed ſo much of your Time in the Affairs of the Publick, you may now be at Liberty to attend your own; and be enabled, by repairing into your reſpective Countries, to put thoſe Laws in due Execution, to which the Peace and Quiet we now enjoy, are in a great Meaſure due.

But I have it in command from his Majeſty, to acquaint you (before an End is put to the Seſſion) that his Majeſty is very well pleaſed with the hearty Aſſurances and zealous Expreſſions of both Houſes of Parliament, of their Loyalty and Affection to his Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and with the Supplies granted by you, Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons, for the Support of the Eſtabliſhment, and towards the Payment of the Debt of the Nation; and that you may be aſſured, that the dutiful Deportment of ſo loyal a People, will always find his royal Protection and Favour.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

IT is a ſenſible Pleaſure to me, to find, by the Addreſſes of both Houſes, that my Endeavours for the Happineſs and Proſperity of this Kingdom, have given you intire Satisfaction. The moſt ſuitable Return I can make, will be to continue to do every thing in my Power for the publick Peace and Welfare of the Nation, and to lay your loyal Behaviour and hearty Affection to his Majeſty's Perſon and Government, in the beſt Manner before his Majeſty; which you may aſſuredly promiſe yourſelves, I will not fail to do.

And afterwards the Lord Chancellor, by his Grace's Command, ſaid,

My Lords and Gentlemen,

IT is his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure, that this Parliament be prorogued to Thurſday the 14th Day of Auguſt next, and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Thurſday the 14th Day of Auguſt next. Parliament prorogued.

Walter Stephens, Eſq; one of the Maſters in Chancery, delivered his Writ in the uſual Manner, and took the Oaths, and made and ſubſcribed the Declaration, and alſo took and ſubſcribed the Oath of Abjuration, purſuant to the Statutes.

Proceedings on the Introduction of B^p^ Derry.

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that the Lord Biſhop of Derry was without to be introduced: But that his Lordſhip had not his Patent, and in that Caſe it was uſual to have the Inrollment of the Patent out of the Rolls Office read, inſtead thereof; and that it was done in the Caſe of the Lord Viſc. Grandiſon, when he was introduced.

Whereupon it was ordered, that his Lordſhip ſhould be introduced by the original Roll of his Lordſhip's Patent, out of the Rolls Office.

The Right Rev. Father in God, William Lord Biſhop of Carliſle in the Kingdom of Great Britain, being by Letters Patents, dated 2° Die Maii, 4° Georgii Regis, created Lord Biſhop of Derry, was this Day, in his Robes, introduced between the Right Rev. the Lord Biſhop of Clogher and the Right Rev. the Lord Biſhop of Kilmore, alſo in their Robes; the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod; and Ulſter King of Arms, in his Coat of Arms, carrying the original Roll of his Lordſhip's Patent preceding his Lordſhip, preſented the ſame to the Lord Chancellor, on his Knee, at the Wool-ſack, who gave them to the Clerk of the Parliaments, which were read at the Table: His Writ of Summons was alſo read.

Then his Lordſhip came to the Table, and took and ſubſcribed the Oaths, and made and ſubſcribed the Declaration, purſuant to the Statutes; and was afterwards conducted to, and placed himſelf on, the Biſhops' Bench.

Ordered, that the ſaid Debate be adjourned till after his Grace the Lord Lieutenant has been at the Houſe.

Then the Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to robe.

His Grace Charles Duke of Bolton, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland, having entered the Houſe with the uſual Ceremonies of Grandeur, in his Robes of State; the Lord Viſc. Fitzwilliam carrying the Sword of State, and the Lord Viſc. Loftus, the Cap of Maintenance; the Hon. Mr. Hamilton, younger Son to the Lord Viſc. Strabane, the Hon. Mr. Butler, younger Son to the Lord Newtown, and the Hon. Mr. Southwell, younger Son to the Lord Southwell, bearing the Train of his Grace's Robe: His Grace the Lord Lieutenant, making his Congé to the Throne, ſeated himſelf in the Chair of State, all the Lords Spiritual and Temporal ſtanding robed in their Places, uncovered, till their Lordſhips took their Seats.

The Lord Chancellor, kneeling, conferred with his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, and ſtanding on the right hand of the Chair of State, commanded the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod to ſignify to the Commons, that it is his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure, they attend him preſently in the Houſe of Peers:

Who being returned, acquainted his Grace, that the Commons were at the Door, and being ordered to call them in they with their Speaker were conducted to the Bar by the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod, with the uſual Ceremonies.

Then his Grace was pleaſed to make a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, as follows, viz.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

HIS Majeſty's tender Care of the Security and Welfare of his good Subjects, hath moved him, at this time (when one Part of Great Britain hath been actually invaded by a foreign Force in favour of the Pretender, to his Crown) to call you together, to conſult of the moſt proper Methods for continuing you in that Tranquility and Peace you now enjoy: And his Majeſty cannot doubt, but that you will lay hold on this Opportunity to make ſuch further Proviſions as ſhall be found neceſſary to repel or ſuppreſs any Attempt which may be made to involve this Kingdom in the Calamities of an inteſtine Rebellion or a foreign Invaſion.

They deceive themſelves, who imagine, that the Deſigns of the Enemies of our Peace do not extend to Ireland, as well as the reſt of his Majeſty's Dominions; and tho' through the Bleſſing of God on his Majeſty's Councils and indefatigable Endeavours for our Preſervation, thoſe Deſigns have been hitherto prevented from being put in actual Execution: Yet it will become the Wiſdom of a Parliament, to take ſuch timely Precautions, and provide ſuch effectual Remedies, as may render it impracticable to proceed further therein, with any Proſpect of Succeſs.

It is obvious and viſible, to every conſidering Man, that a good Agreement and Union among all Proteſtants, will greatly contribute to this end; and the Numbers as well as ſtrict Union of the Papiſts among themſelves, together with their apparent Inclinations and Attachments to the Intereſt of the Pretender, ſeem to make it more immediately neceſſary at this Time. In what Manner a thing ſo deſirable may be obtained, his Majeſty leaves to your Conſideration, and has commanded me to acquaint you, that as he hath the Welfare of the Church by Law eſtabliſhed, under his peculiar Care, and reſolves always to ſupport and maintain it; ſo it would be very pleaſing to him, if any Method could be found (not inconſiſtent with the Security of it) to render the Proteſtant Diſſenters more uſeful and capable of ſerving his Majeſty, and ſupporting the Proteſtant Intereſt, than they now are; they having, upon all Occaſions, given ſufficient Proofs of their being well affected to his Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and to the Succeſſion of the Crown in his royal Houſe: And this I am ordered to lay before you, as a thing greatly importing his Majeſty's Service, and your own Security.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

AS it hath been your conſtant Care to make Proviſion for the punctual Payment of the Army, and other the neceſſary Charges of the Government, and publick Debts; I cannot doubt of your doing it now, in ſuch a Manner, as will be for his Majeſty's Honour, and the Intereſt of the Kingdom.

I have ordered the proper Officers to prepare the publick Accounts, to be in a Readineſs to be laid before you, by which you will ſee what is due to the Eſtabliſhment, and how far the Hereditary Revenue will fall ſhort of ſupporting it for the future.

The Invaſion with which this Kingdom hath been threatned, hath alſo increaſed the publick Expence; and it will be worth your Conſideration, to take Care of the Fortifications, which are extremely out of Repair, notwithſtanding what hath been done to put them into a better Condition, ſince the firſt Notice of the intended Invaſion.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I HAVE nothing more to recommend to you, but that you will ſhew ſuch Unanimity and Diſpatch in your Proceedings as may bring this Seſſion to a happy Concluſion, to the Honour of his Majeſty, and Good of this Nation.

Then his Grace the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to withdraw, and was attended as he entered, and the Commons returned to their Houſe.

The Lord Chancellor reported his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Speech, and the ſame being afterwards read by the Clerk.

Reſolved, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Majeſty, to congratulate his Majeſty on the Succeſs of his Councils and Arms, in ſuppreſſing and diſappointing the Deſigns and Attempts of his foreign Enemies and rebellious Subjects in North Britain.

And to thank his Majeſty, for his tender Care of the Security and Welfare of his People, and for his indefatigable Endeavours to preſerve us from the Calamities of inteſtine Rebellion or foreign Invaſion; and for his Reſolution to ſupport and maintain the Church by Law eſtabliſhed, and his having the Welfare of it under his peculiar Care: And to aſſure his Majeſty, that as this Houſe will always uſe its utmoſt Endeavours to ſupport the Church as by Law eſtabliſhed, ſo it will take into timely and ſerious Conſideration what may be the moſt proper Method (not inconſiſtent with the Security of the Conſtitution in Church and State) to render all Proteſtants more uſeful and more capable of ſupporting the Proteſtant Intereſt, than they now are.

Ordered, that all the Lords now in the Houſe, be appointed a Committee to draw up the ſaid Addreſs and Report.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet in the Committee-Chamber near the Houſe of Peers, To-morrow Morning, at Ten o'clock, and adjourn as they pleaſe.

Order for Addreſs to Lord Lieutenant,

Ordered, that the Lords' Committees, appointed to draw up an Addreſs to his Majeſty, do alſo prepare and draw up an Addreſs of Thanks to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, for his Grace's Speech, delivered this Day to both Houſes of Parliament.

Then the Houſe reſumed the adjourned Debate, in relation to the Lord Biſhop of Derry.

concerning Tranſlation of an Engliſh Biſhop to See of Derry.

Ordered, that a Committee be appointed to conſider what Seat, Biſhops tranſlated out of another Kingdom, are to take in this Houſe; whether according to the Time of their Conſecration, or their becoming Biſhops in this Kingdom; and that they examine what Precedents they find relating to the ſaid Matter, and report to the Houſe.

And the Lords under-named were appointed a Committee accordingly, viz.

| Lord Viſc. Charlemont | Lord Biſhop of Dromore |
| Lord Viſc. Moleſworth | Lord Tullamore |

Their Lordſhips, or any three of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, at Nine o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, and adjourn as they pleaſe.

Ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Speech, delivered this Day to both Houſes of Parliament, be forthwith printed and publiſhed; and that the Clerk of this Houſe do appoint the printing of the ſaid Speech.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

Addreſs to the King.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, do heartily congratulate your Majeſty, on the Succeſs which Almighty GOD hath given your Majeſty's Councils and Arms, againſt your rebellious Subjects in North Britain, who, notwithſtanding the unparalleled Mercy formerly ſhewn them, with the Aſſiſtance of a foreign Power, have again wickedly endeavoured to diſturb the Quiet of your Majeſty's Reign, in favour of a Popiſh Pretender.

We cannot ſufficiently expreſs our Thanks to your Majeſty, for your tender Regard for the Security and Welfare of all your People, and particularly for your Majeſty's Reſolution to ſupport and maintain the Church by Law eſtabliſhed, and your having it under your peculiar Care: And we are unanimouſly diſpoſed and determined to take into our ſerious Conſideration what may be the moſt proper Methods (not inconſiſtent with the Security of the Conſtitution in Church and State) to promote and cheriſh Union among all Proteſtants, and to render them more uſeful and capable of ſupporting your Majeſty's Government, and our common Intereſt.

We think ourſelves farther obliged to return Thanks to your Majeſty, both for continuing his Grace the Duke of Bolton in the Chief Government of this your Kingdom, and alſo for ſending him again to us, at ſo ſeaſonable a Juncture; that by his active Prudence and Diligence, he might put the Kingdom into a proper Poſture of Defence, againſt all Attempts of foreign and domeſtick Enemies, of which (thro' GOD's Bleſſing) we have found the happy Effect, in the Tranquility which we now enjoy.

As your Majeſty (by the Providence of God) delivered us from all Apprehenſions of Danger, at your ſeaſonable and happy Acceſſion to the Throne; ſo we implore the ſame Divine Providence, to continue your Majeſty long to reign over us, to tranſmit the preſent Bleſſings and Happineſs we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and gentle Reign to future Ages.

Ordered, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe, and deſire the ſame may be laid before his Majeſty.

Adjourned till To-morrow Morning, at Eleven o'clock.

The Lord Tullamore from the Lords' Committees appointed to draw up an Addreſs of Thanks to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, for his Grace's Speech, delivered to both Houſes of Parliament, reported an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and delivered it in at the Table, where the ſame was again read; and alſo read, Paragraph by Paragraph, and, with ſome Amendments, was agreed to by the Houſe as follows, viz.

To his Grace Charles Duke of Bolton, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland.

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Grace,

Addreſs to L$^{d}$ Lieutenant

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, with great Satisfaction congratulate your Grace on your ſafe Return to the Government, at a Time when his Majeſty's Affairs, as well as the Safety of this Kingdom, ſeemed to require the Aſſiſtance of his beſt Subjects.

As our Deliverance from thoſe apparent Dangers with which we were lately threatned, require our thankful Acknowledgments to God for proſpering his Majeſty's Councils and Arms, ſo thoſe gracious Expreſſions of his Majeſty's tender Regard for the Safety and Welfare of his People, contained in your Grace's excellent Speech from the Throne, call for all Returns of Loyalty and Gratitude to the beſt of Princes.

His Majeſty's repeated Aſſurances, that he hath the Welfare of the Church by Law eſtabliſhed, under his peculiar Care, and that he reſolves always to ſupport and maintain it, confirms to us that ſenſible Pleaſure, which we have enjoyed ſince his happy Acceſſion to the Throne, and his Majeſty's ſeaſonable recommending Union amongſt Proteſtants, at a Time when too many who call themſelves ſo, have engaged in the Intereſt of the Pretender, will oblige us to contribute our Endeavours to make all his faithful Subjects as far eaſy, as we ſhall find conſiſtent with the Safety of our Conſtitution in Church and State.

As an Inſtance of Gratitude for his Majeſty's tender Regard for our Welfare, we beg Leave to aſſure your Grace, that we will give the utmoſt Diſpatch to the publick Buſineſs, and in our ſeveral Stations, reſolve to contribute every thing in our Power to promote the Safety and Proſperity of his Majeſty's Government, and to make the Adminiſtration thereof under your Grace happy and eaſy.

Ordered, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait upon his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, and acquaint him, that this Houſe hath agreed to an Addreſs to be preſented to his Majeſty, and alſo an Addreſs to his Grace, and to know when his Grace will be pleaſed to be attended by this Houſe, with the ſaid Addreſſes.

PRAYERS.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

Report from Committee to inspect Laws.

The Lord Archbishop of Dublin, from the Lords' Committees appointed to inspect and consider what Laws are in Force in Great Britain, that are proper to be made Laws in this Kingdom; reported, that they had made some Progress in the Matter to them referred, and desired Leave to sit again.

Ordered, that the said Committee do meet To-morrow Morning at Ten o'clock, and adjourn as they please.

Henry Fleming, being ordered to be called in, was at the Bar sworn, in order to his being examined by the Lords' Committees for Privileges, in the Case of the Lord Altham.

Ordered, that the Lords' Committees for Privileges do meet on Saturday Morning next, at Ten o'clock.

Lord Londonderry introduced.

Thomas Pitt, Esq; being by Letters Patents, dated 3° Die Junii, 5° Georgii Regis, created Lord Baron of Londonderry, was, in his Robes, introduced between the Lord Blayney and the Lord Tyrawly, also in their Robes; the Gentleman-Usher of the Black-Rod, and Ulster King of Arms, in his Coat of Arms, carrying the said Letters Patents, preceding his Lordship, presented the same to the Lord Chancellor, on his Knee, at the Wool-sack, who gave them to the Clerk of the Parliaments, which were read at the Table: His Writ of Summons was also read.

Then his Lordship came to the Table, and took the Oaths, and made and subscribed the Declaration, and also took and subscribed the Oath of Abjuration, pursuant to the Statutes, and was afterwards conducted to, and took his Place at, the lower end of the Barons' Bench.

Report on ill printing of Speech.

The Lord Bishop of Killala, from the Lords' Committees appointed to examine the Occasion of his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Speech being false printed; reported, that they had come to some Resolutions in the Matter to them referred, which he read in his Place, and the same were afterwards read at the Table, as follows, viz.

Resolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the Copy of his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Speech, delivered to the King's Printer, by the Clerk of this House, was a correct Copy of the said Speech.

Resolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the printed Speech, published by the King's Printer, is printed false, and not according to the said Copy, particularly, Page the fourth, Line the first, no Stop is put after the Word Time, when there should have been a full one. And the following Word In should have been with a great Letter, And a Colon is put after the Word obtained, which should have been but a Comma. All which has perverted the Sense of that Paragraph: And in the fourth Line of the same Page, there is a Repetition of the Word and.

Resolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the Faults in the printed Speech were occasioned by the Carelessness of the Printer.

The Question was put, Whether to agree with the said Committee in the first Resolution?

It was resolved in the Affirmative.

The Question was put, Whether to agree with the said Committee in the second Resolution?

It was resolved in the Affirmative.

The Question was put, Whether to agree with the said Committee in the third Resolution?

And a Debate arising,

Printer to attend.

Ordered, that his Majesty's Printer do attend this House on Friday Morning next.

Ordered, that his Grace the Lord Archbishop of Dublin have the Leave of this House to bring in Heads of a Bill for amending and inforcing a Clause, contained in an Act to enable Restitution of Impropriations and Tythes, and other Rights ecclesiastical, to the Clergy, with a Restraint of aliening the same, and Direction for Presentations to the Churches.

John Butler, being ordered to be called in, was at the Bar sworn, in order to his being examined by the Lords' Committees for Privileges, in the Case of the Lord Kingston.

A Petition

C. Morgan's Petition.

A Petition of Charles Morgan, Eſq; ſetting forth, that he is rightfully intitled, to the Advowſons of the Rectory and Vicarage of Ardraghan and Beagh in the Co. Galway and Dioceſe of Killmacduagh, annexed with the Dioceſe of Clonfert; and that the ſame became vacant by the Death of the late Incumbent; and the Petitioner preſented a fit Clerk to the Lord Biſhop of Clonfert, to be inſtituted in the ſaid Living, which his Lordſhip refuſed to do, though he did not object againſt your Petitioner's Clerk: And thereupon the Petitioner ſued out a Writ of Quare impedit, and pending the ſaid Writ, was likewiſe obliged to ſue out his Majeſty's Writ of Ne admittas, directed to his Lordſhip: Notwithſtanding which, his Lordſhip has refuſed to pay Obedience to the ſaid Writ, or to inform himſelf of the Petitioner's Right, by a juſt Patronatus, but has given Inſtitution and Induction to the ſaid Rectory and Vicarage to the Reverend Jonathan Wilſon, Clerk, on a pretended Right of another Perſon, his Lordſhip claiming no Right, only as Ordinary; the Petitioner dare not proceed, for fear of incurring the Diſpleaſure of this Houſe, by reaſon of his Lordſhip's Privilege.

And praying their Lordſhips to take the Premiſſes into Conſideration, and relieve the Petitioner, as to their Lordſhips ſhould ſeem meet;

was preſented to the Houſe and read.

Ordered, that the ſaid Petition be, and it is hereby, referred to the Lords' Committees for Privileges, who are to conſider thereof, and report their Opinion thereon to the Houſe.

Ordered, that the Clerk of this Houſe do ſend a Copy of the ſaid Petition to the Lord Biſhop of Clonfert.

Petition of Rev. Boyle Davis.

A Petition of the Rev. Boyle Davis, Clerk, ſetting forth, his being Patentee of the Crown for the Rectory of Carrigaleene in the Dioceſe of Cork, to which the Crown has preſented ever ſince the Diſſolution of the College of Youghall, and the Lord Viſc. Shannon having ſet up a Title to the ſaid Advowſon, and giving Notice thereof, the Lord Biſhop of Cork was pleaſed to iſſue a Commiſſion De jure Patronatus, whereby it appeared, that the ſole and uninterrupted Poſſeſſion had been in the Crown, ever ſince the Year 1638, at which time the Crown preſented Richard Howlett, Clerk, to the ſaid Rectory, pleno jure. But that the Right Hon. the Lord Viſc. Shannon has the ſole and undoubted Right to preſent now.

That thereupon Caveats were entered in the Regiſtry of the Dioceſe of Cork, in the Name of his Majeſty's Attorney-General, forbidding Inſtitution upon the ſaid Verdict, the Poſſeſſory Right being found in the Crown pleno jure, and that the mere Right was triable only at Common Law.

That notwithſtanding which, the Lord Biſhop of Cork has admitted Samuel Webber, Clerk, upon a Preſentation of the Lord Viſc. Shannon, and thereby obliged your Petitioner to bring a Writ of Quare impedit, to defend the Right of the Crown. But that the ſaid Webber being in Poſſeſſion of the ſaid Benefice, uſes all poſſible Methods to delay a Trial, knowing, that (as long as he can keep Poſſeſſion of the ſaid Pariſh, however unjuſt it may appear to be) he is not, as the Law at preſent ſtands, accountable for any Coſts or meſne Profits upon Recovery, to the great Damage of your Petitioner.

That the Lord Biſhop of Cork does now inſiſt upon his Privilege, whereby a Stop is put to any farther Proceedings in the ſaid Cauſe; and the King is deprived of trying his Right, and the Petitioner damaged, as aforeſaid.

And praying their Lordſhips to relieve the Petitioner, as to their Lordſhips, in their great Wiſdom, ſhould think fit;

was preſented to the Houſe and read.

No Privilege on Quare impedit.

Reſolved, upon the Queſtion, that no Biſhop hath Privilege of Parliament in Quare impedit, where he claims only as Ordinary.

Ordered, that the Lord Ferrard and the Lord Tullamore do prepare and bring in Heads of a Bill for better ſecuring the Rights of Advowſon and Preſentation to eccleſiaſtical Benefices.

Heads of Reſtitution Bill.

The Lord Archbiſhop of Dublin, according to Order, preſented to the Houſe, Heads of a Bill for amending and inforcing a Clauſe contained in an Act to enable Reſtitution of Impropriations and Tythes, and other Rights eccleſiaſtical to the Clergy, with a Reſtraint of aliening the ſame; and Direction for Preſentations to the Churches; which was received and read the firſt time.

Ordered, that the ſaid Heads of a Bill be read a ſecond time on Friday next.

W. Vaughan, Merchant, Appellant. R. Blake, Gent. Reſpondent.

This Day the Houſe received a Petition and Appeal, wherein W. Vaughan, Merchant, was Appellant, and R. Blake, Gent. was Reſpondent.

Upon reading the Petition and Appeal of William Vaughan, Merchant, from a Decree of the Court of Exchequer, of the 19th and 20th of June, 1718, and the ſubſequent Orders made thereupon, on the behalf of Robert Blake, Gent. and praying, that the ſame may be ſet aſide and reverſed; and the final Decree be opened, and the Petitioner relieved in the Premiſes: And that the Service of this Order on the Reſpondent, by his Attorney in the ſaid Court of Exchequer, may be ſufficient Service, in order to anſwering the ſaid Appeal; and all Proceedings in the mean time ſtayed: It is ordered by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the ſaid Robert Blake ſhall be ſerved with a Copy of the ſaid Appeal, and ſhall, and he is hereby, required, to put in his Anſwer thereunto in Writing, on Monday the 27th Day of this inſt. July, at Ten o'clock in the Forenoon; and that in the mean time, all Proceedings in the ſaid Cauſe ſhall be ſtayed; and that the Service of this Order upon the Reſpondent, or his Attorney in the Exchequer, ſhall be good Service, in order thereunto.

Ordered, that the Lord Blayney have the Leave of this Houſe to go into the Country for three Weeks, upon extraordinary Occaſions, leaving his Proxy.

Complaint against Proceedings of Court of Exchequer.

A Complaint being made to the House of some extraordinary Proceedings had in the Court of Exchequer, and the House being moved, that the same should be examined into;

Order thereon.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, that the said Complaint be, and it is hereby, referred to the Lords' Committees for Courts of Justice, who are to inquire, how the said Court of Exchequer hath behaved itself, and whether it hath acted according to Law and Justice; and that their Lordships do meet To-morrow Morning, at Ten o'clock.

A Petition of Alexander Burrowes, Esq; late Sheriff of the Co. Kildare, setting forth,

Petition of A. Burrowes, Esq;

THAT by the Order of this House of the 3d of October, 1717, the High Sheriff of the Co. Kildare was forthwith to put Hester Sherlock into the Possession of the Lands of Little Rath, and other Lands in the said Order mentioned, which were to be held by her till she should receive thereout the Sum of £1507: 14*s*. 8½*d*. chargeable upon the said Lands.

That Charles Nuttall, Esq; the High-Sheriff of the said County, in obedience to, and by virtue of, the said Order, on the 6th of October aforesaid, put the said Hester into the Possession of the Premises, and was in the actual Possession thereof, when the Petitioner was appointed and sworn Sheriff of the said County, for the Year ending at Michaelmas, 1718.

That on the 15th of March, 1717, an Injunction issued out of the Court of Exchequer, signed by the Right Hon. Jeffry Gilbert, Esq; Lord Chief Baron of the said Court, and under the Seal thereof, directed to the Petitioner, being the Sheriff of the said County, whereby the Petitioner was required, immediately after Receipt thereof (pursuant to an Order of the said Court of Exchequer, bearing Date the 19th Day of February preceding, although the Barons of the said Court had due Notice of the said Order of this House, of the 3d of October aforesaid) to restore Maurice Annesley, Esq; to the Possession of those Lands, whereof the said Hester Sherlock was then actually possessed, by virtue of, and under, the said Order of this House; and the Petitioner was also required by the said Injunction, to support and keep the said Maurice Annesley, in such Possession of the Premises till the further Order of the said Court, or till the said Maurice Annesley should be thereout evicted by due Course of Law; which Injunction was delivered to the Petitioner by John Annesley (the said Maurice's Brother) who required the Petitioner to give him Possession of the said Lands, having a Letter of Attorney from his said Brother for that Purpose, (as he informed the Petitioner;) but the Petitioner refused to execute the said Injunction, conceiving it to be a Breach of the said Order of this House of the 3d of Oct. 1717, aforesaid, and of the Rights and Privileges of this House.

Whereupon the said John Annesley, in his proper Person on the 13th of May, 1718, moved the said Court of Exchequer, on his Affidavit, setting forth, that the Petitioner refused to execute the said Injunction, and prayed, that the said Affidavit might be read, which was ordered, and accordingly read by John Bauman, Gent. one of the Attornies of the said Court, and the said Lord Chief Baron and the Hon. John Pocklington, Esq; and Sir John St. Leger, Knight, two other of the Barons of the said Court, then sitting in the said Court of Exchequer, ordered, that the Petitioner should be fined 40*s*. if he did not return the said Injunction in four Days; and on several Motions afterwards, made by said John Bauman, the said Barons imposed several Fines on the Petitioner, which amounted to £77 Sterl. And upon said Bauman's Motion on the 30th of June, 1718, ordered an Attachment to the Pursuivant against the Petitioner, for the Matters aforesaid, which accordingly issued.

That on the 7th of July, 1718, the Petitioner returned the said Writ of Injunction, and thereon returned, in hæc verba, the Order of this House of the 3d Day of October, 1717; and the Resolutions of this House, bearing Date the 11th Day of February, 1703, on the Petition of Edward Earl of Meath and Cecilia Counteſs of Meath his Wife, of which the ſaid Barons had likewiſe due Notice; and that the Petitioner by reaſon of the ſaid Order and Reſolutions of this Houſe, and of the Rights and Privileges of this Houſe, durſt not reſtore the ſaid Maurice Anneſley to the Poſſeſſion of the Premiſes, as by the ſaid Writ of Injunction was required.

That all the ſaid Fines being impoſed on the Petitioner for not returning ſaid Writ, and the Petitioner having complied with the ſaid Orders by returning the ſame, the ſaid Barons Pocklington and St. Leger, on the 16th of July, 1718, (ſitting publickly upon the reducing of Fines in the Exchequer-Chamber, and having heard the ſaid ſeveral Fines impoſed upon the Petitioner, read unto them by the proper Officer; and being by him informed, that the Petitioner had returned ſaid Injunction) were pleaſed to reduce and accordingly took off the ſaid Fines, upon paying Six Pence in the Pound, as by a Rule made by the ſaid Barons has been practiſed in ſuch Caſes; though the ſame was never taken before, as the Petitioner was informed. But in the Afternoon of the ſaid Day, John Draycott, one of the Attornies of the ſaid Court, (who paid the Box for the Petitioner on taking off the ſaid Fines) was ſent for by the ſaid Lord Chief Baron to his Lordſhip's Houſe, where the ſaid other two Barons then were, and after the ſaid Barons had heard the ſaid Writ of Injunction and Return read, and what was offered in behalf of the Petitioner, in juſtification of the ſaid Returns, the ſaid Barons were pleaſed, at his Lordſhip's ſaid Houſe, to oblige the ſaid Draycott to take back the Money he ſo paid for taking off ſaid Fines, and eſtreated the ſame, which have ſince iſſued in Proceſs againſt the Petitioner, although the ſaid Return was never complained of by the ſaid Maurice Anneſley, or his Counſel, nor had the Petitioner an Opportunity or Day given him to juſtify the Legality of the ſaid Return, though the ſame was prayed by the ſaid Draycott, in behalf of the Petitioner.

That the ſaid Barons, without having any Regard to the ſaid Return, on the 7th of November laſt, upon ſaid Bauman's Motion, ordered the ſaid Attachment to the Purſuivant to be renewed againſt the Petitioner, which having iſſued, the Petitioner was obliged to abſcond, and keep as cloſe as poſſible, ſo that he could not attend his Affairs, whereby the Petitioner has ſuffered very much in his Fortune.

That by reaſon of the ſaid Attachments to the Purſuivant, ſo from time to time iſſued againſt the Petitioner, he could not come upon his Accounts before the ſaid Barons in the ſaid Court of Exchequer, the Petitioner being adviſed, and well aſſured, that if he would appear in the ſaid Court, the ſaid Barons would commit the Petitioner in cloſe Cuſtody for not obeying the ſaid Injunction. And the ſaid Barons, taking Advantage of the Petitioner's ſaid Circumſtances, ordered the Petitioner to be fined £1200 and upwards, for not coming upon his Accounts; though the Petitioner always was, and ſtill is, ready to give his Majeſty a juſt and true Account of his ſaid Office of Sheriffwick, while he was concerned therein.

And praying their Lordſhips to take the Premiſes into Conſideration, and to make ſuch Order therein for the Petitioner's Relief, as to their Lordſhips, in their great Wiſdom, ſhall ſeem meet;

was preſented to the Houſe and read.

Ordered, that the ſaid Petition be and it is hereby referred to the Lords' Committees for Courts of Juſtice, who are to conſider thereof, and hear all Perſons concerning the ſame, that they ſhall think fit, and report.

Heads of Advowſon Bill.

The Lord Tullamore, according to Order, preſented to the Houſe, Heads of a Bill for better ſecuring the Rights of Advowſon and Preſentation to eccleſiaſtical Benefices, which was received and read a firſt time.

Ordered, that the ſaid Heads of a Bill be read a ſecond time on Monday next.

Complaint on Breach of Privilege.

Perſons to attend on Mr. Burrowes's Petition.

Ordered, that Alexander Burrowes, Eſq; John Draycott, Gent. Edward Ryley, Eſq; Lewis Roberts, Eſq; and Mr. Francis Duggan, Officers of the Court of Exchequer, do attend this Houſe immediately.

Viſc. Grimſton introduced.

William Grimſton, Eſq; being by Letters Patents, dated 28° Die Maii, 5° Georgii Regis, created Lord Baron of Dunboyne, and Lord Viſc. Grimſton, was, in his Robes, introduced between the Lord Viſc. Charlemont and the Lord Viſc. Doneraile, alſo in their Robes; the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod and Ulſter King of Arms, in his Coat of Arms, carrying the ſaid Letters Patents preceding his Lordſhip, preſented the ſame to the Lord Chancellor, on his Knee, at the Wool-ſack, who gave them to the Clerk of the Parliaments, which were read at the Table: His Writ of Summons was alſo read.

Then his Lordſhip came to the Table, and took the Oaths, and made and ſubſcribed the Declaration, and alſo took and ſubſcribed the Oath of Abjuration, purſuant to the Statutes; and was afterwards conducted to, and took his Place at, the lower end of the Viſcounts' Bench.

Application for Commoner to be examined.

A Meſſage was ſent to the Houſe of Commons by Dr. Uſher and Walter Stephens, Eſq; two of the Maſters in Chancery, to deſire that Daniel Reading, Eſq; a Member of their Houſe, may have Leave to be examined, as an Officer of the Court of Exchequer, by the Lords' Committees for Courts of Juſtice, in a Cauſe between Heſter Sherlock, and Maurice Anneſley, Eſq;

John Humfrey, Gent. and Eliz. his Wife, Appellants.
John Peniſether, Eſq; Reſpondent.

This Day the Houſe received a Petition and Appeal, wherein John Humfrey, Gent. and Elizabeth his Wife, were Appellants, and John Peniſether, Eſq; was Reſpondent.

Upon reading the Petition and Appeal of John Humfrey and Elizabeth his Wife, from four ſeveral Orders of the Court of Exchequer, one of the 10$^{th}$ of December, and one of the 23$^{d}$ of February, 1718; one of the 6$^{th}$ and the other of the 16$^{th}$ Day of May, 1719, on the behalf of John Peniſether, and praying, that the ſaid Orders may be ſet aſide and reverſed, and the Petitioners relieved in the Premiſes, and that the Service of this Order on the Reſpondent's Attorney, in the ſaid Court of Exchequer, may be ſufficient Service, in order to anſwering the ſaid Appeal, and all Proceedings in the mean time ſtayed; It is ordered by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the ſaid John Peniſether may have a Copy of the ſaid Appeal; and ſhall, and he is hereby required to, put in his Anſwer thereunto, in Writing, on Monday the 27$^{th}$ Day of this inſt. July, at Ten of the Clock in the Forenoon, and that in the mean time, all Proceedings in the ſaid Cauſe ſhall be ſtayed; and that the Service of this Order upon the Reſpondent's Attorney in the Exchequer, ſhall be good Service, in order thereunto.

Witneſſes ſworn.

Alexander Burrowes, John Draycott, Lewis Roberts and Francis Duggan, attending according to Order, were called in, and ſeverally ſworn at the Bar, to give their Teſtimony before before the Lords' Committees for Courts of Juſtice, in relation to the Proceedings of the Court of Exchequer, ſo far as the ſame are ſet forth in the Petition of Alexander Burrowes.

Petition of Sir John Byrne.

A Petition of Sir John Byrne, Bart. a Minor, by his Guardian, and the Repreſentatives of Charles Wilcocks, Joſhua Wilcocks and Thomas Wilcocks, deceaſed, ſetting forth, their having had ſeveral Law-ſuits depending for many Years in the High Court of Chancery, concerning the Lands of Coolbanagher, and the Sub-Denominations thereof, lying in the Queen's County, which have been very expenſive to the Petitioners, and thoſe they repreſent; and being deſirous to put an end thereto, did, by indented Articles of Agreement duly executed, dated the 17th Day of March, 1718, mutually covenant, inter alia, in conſideration of the Sum of £2500 to be paid to the Uſes in the ſaid Articles mentioned, that the ſaid Lands and Woods thereon ſhould be enjoyed by the ſaid Sir John Byrne and his Heirs for ever, exonerated from the Petitioner's Demands; but by reaſon of the Minority of ſome of the Perſons intereſted in the ſaid Agreement, it could not be effectually executed, or the Benefit thereof ſecured to the ſaid ſeveral Parties, in any other Manner, than by Act of Parliament, which they had covenanted to apply for, for the Benefit of all the ſaid Parties.

And praying their Lordſhips to order Heads of a Bill to be brought into this moſt Hon. Houſe, for making good and confirming the ſaid Agreement, according to the true Intent and Meaning thereof;

was preſented to the Houſe and read.

Order thereon.

Ordered, that Leave be given to bring in Heads of a Bill according to the Prayer of the ſaid Petition, and that his Grace the Lord Archbhop of Dublin and the Earl of Cavan do prepare and bring in the ſame.

Witneſs ſworn.

Mr. Daniel Forreſt, an Officer of the Court of Exchequer, attending, according to Order, was called in, and ſworn at the Bar to give his Teſtimony before the Lords' Committees for Courts of Juſtice, in the Caſe of Mr. Burrowes.

Earl of Shelburne introduced.

The Right Hon. Henry Lord Shelburne, being by Letters Patents, dated 29° Die Aprilis 5° Georgii Regis, created Earl Shelburne, was, in his Robes, introduced between the Earl of Kilmore, and the Earl of Cavan, alſo in their Robes; the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod and Ulſter King of Arms, in his Coat of Arms carrying the ſaid Letters Patents, preceding his Lordſhip, preſented the ſame to the Lord Chancellor, on his Knee, at the Woolſack, who gave them to the Clerk of the Parliaments, which were read at the Table. His Writ of Summons was alſo read.

Then his Lordſhip came to the Table, and took the Oaths, and made and ſubſcribed the Declaration, and alſo took and ſubſcribed the Oath of Abjuration, purſuant to the Statutes, and was afterwards conducted to, and took his Place at, the lower end of the Earls' Bench.

Petition of Dr. St. George.

A Petition of the Rev. Arthur St. George, Doctor in Divinity, ſetting forth, that he has heard of a Complaint made by the Lord Biſhop of Meath, of a Breach of Privilege, committed againſt his Lordſhip by the Petitioner, and his Brothers George and Henry St. George, Eſq'rs. by cutting down ſome of his Lordſhip's Woods in the Co. Roſcommon.

That the Petitioner's Father, Henry St. George ſen. Eſq; a Member of the Houſe of Commons, is Tenant to the See of Meath, and the Petitioner's Brothers are only his Managers, and the Petitioner is no way concerned therewith.

That the Petitioner humbly hopes this Hon. Houſe will not think a Tenant in Poſſeſſion can be guilty of a Breach of Privilege, if he had cut down any Trees, as is alledged.

That the reſt complained of, are only Servants and poor Labourers, and not able to ſupport themſelves in their Journey to Town.

And praying the Houſe will be pleaſed to accept of his Appearance for the ſaid Perſons, and that he may be heard before the Lords' Committees for Privileges;

was preſented to the Houſe, and read.

Order thereon.

Ordered, that the ſaid Petition be, and it is hereby, referred to the Lords' Committees for Privileges, who are to conſider thereof, and report their Opinion therein to the Houſe.

Complaint on Breach of Privilege.

A Complaint being made to the Houſe, of a Breach of Privilege committed againſt the Earl of Cavan by Luke Rowland and Terence Dunn, in their forceably entering into the Poſſeſſion of ſome Part of his Lordſhip's Lands, within the Time, and contrary to the Privilege of Parliament.

Order thereon.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the ſaid Matter of Complaint be, and it is hereby, referred to the Lords' Committees for Privileges, who are to conſider thereof, and report their Opinion therein to the Houſe.

Mr. Cheney's Petition.

A Petition of Oliver Cheney, was preſented to the Houſe, by the Lord Tullamore, which was received.

Ordered, that the ſaid Petition be read To-morrow Morning.

Then the Houſe, according to Order, was adjourned during Pleaſure, and put into a Committee upon Heads of a Bill for the more eaſy Recovery of ſmall Tythes; and, after ſome time ſpent therein,

The Houſe was reſumed.

The Lord Archbiſhop of Dublin reported from the ſaid Committee, that they had been in Conſideration of the ſaid Heads of a Bill, and that he was ready to report, when the Houſe will pleaſe to receive the ſame.

Ordered, that the Report be made on Saturday Morning next.

The Lord Archbiſhop of Dublin reported from the Committee of the whole Houſe, to whom the Conſideration of the Heads of a Bill for amending and inforcing a Clauſe, contained in an Act to enable Reſtitution of Impropriations of Tythes and other Rights eccleſiaſtical to the Clergy, with a Reſtraint of aliening the ſame, and Direction for Preſentation to the Churches, were committed; that they had gone through the ſame, Paragraph by Paragraph, and agreed thereunto, with the following Amendments, viz.

|---|---|
| In the Heads of the Bill, firſt Line, ſecond Sheet, | The Word "Advice" is inſerted after the Word "the" |
| Second Line of the ſame Sheet, | The Word "and" is inſerted in the Beginning of that Line. |
| Fourth Line of the ſame Sheet, | The Words "preſent Seſſion of Parliament," are left out, and "Firſt Day of July 1719" are inſerted. |
| Seventh Line of the ſame Sheet, | After the word "Vicarage" the Words "at preſent" are inſerted. |
| Eighth Line of the ſame Sheet | Before the word "deemed" the Words "ſo far" are inſerted. |
| Ninth Line of the ſame Sheet, | The Word "and" is left out, and the Word "as" is inſerted. |

And at the Cloſe of the Bill, the following Proviſoe was added, viz.

"Provided always, that nothing in this Act "contained, ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to "avoid any Leaſe or Grant, made by any "Dean, Archdeacon or Prebendary, having "Cure of Souls, as above mentioned, before "the firſt Day of July aforeſaid; but that the "ſame ſhall be, and remain of the ſame and "no other Force, as the ſame was or would "have been if this Act had never been "made."

The Queſtion was put, Whether to agree with the Committee of the whole Houſe in the ſaid ſeveral Amendments?

It was reſolved in the Affirmative.

Ordered, that the ſaid Heads of a Bill be read a third time on Saturday Morning next.

Ordered, that the Conſideration of Heads of a Bill for the better Maintenance of Curates, within the Church of Ireland, and for preventing any eccleſiaſtical Perſons buying the next Avoidance of any Church Preferment, be committed to a Committee of the whole Houſe To-morrow Morning.

Upon reading the Orders of the Day, a Petition of Oliver Cheney, Gent. ſetting forth,

Mr. Cheney's Petition.

THAT in Eaſter Term, 1718, Sir John St. Leger, Knight, one of the Barons of the Court of Exchequer, and Dame Mary his Wife, preferred their Bill in the ſaid Court of Exchequer againſt your Petitioner and others, to examine Witneſſes in perpetuam rei Memoriam, in relation to ſome Meſſuages, with the Appurtenances, and a Parcel of waſte Ground behind the ſame in Caſtle-Street, in the County of the City of Dublin; unto which Bill your Petitioner, and the other Defendants anſwered, and the ſaid Sir John St. Leger and his Wife examined Witneſſes thereon, though all the ſaid Witneſſes were Inhabitants of the ſaid City of Dublin. That your Petitioner is adviſed, that by the conſtant and known Practice of a Court of Equity, where any Perſon has a Title at Law, and the Plaintiff can have an Opportunity to try ſuch Title at Law, ſuch Bill to examine ought not to be exhibited, nor any Examination had thereon, till the Party has firſt affirmed his Title at Law.

That the ſaid Sir John St. Leger and Mary his Wife, as of Trinity Term following, by their Leſſee Joſeph Nipon, brought their Action of Treſpaſs and Ejectment in the ſaid Court of Exchequer, for the Recovery of the Premiſes, mentioned in the ſaid Bill; to which your Petitioner, in Michaelmas Term following, took the Defence, and pleaded the general Iſſue; and on Wedneſday the 6th of May laſt, the ſaid Iſſue was tried by Niſi prius, before the Right Hon. Jeffry Gilbert, Eſq; Lord Chief Baron of the ſaid Court, by an unexceptionable Jury of the County of the ſaid City of Dublin, viz. Sir John Rogerſon, Sir John Eccles, Knights; Anthony Barky, John Stoyte, John Reyſon, Aldermen; William Bridges, Chr. Dominick, David Dunbar, Eſq'rs. James Brownlow, Gent. Daniel Falſener, Merchant; David King, Goldſmith; and James Agar, Merchant; who, after a full and perfect Hearing and Examination being charged by his Lordſhip with the Evidence given on both Sides, and having * chauted on the ſame for ſome time, returned into the ſaid Court, and the Plantiff in the ſaid Ejectment being called, appeared by his Attorney, as in ſuch Caſes is uſual, and the Jury then returned their Verdict for the Petitioner.

That thereupon the ſaid Lord Chief Baron, declaring himſelf diſſatisfied with the ſaid Verdict, told the Jury they muſt go back, and conſider better of it; for that, in his Opinion, they had found againſt Evidence. Upon which the Jury then informed his Lordſhip, that they were ſatisfied in their Conſciences, that the Plaintiff in ſaid Ejectment had not given ſufficient Evidence to make out a Title to the Premiſes; and therefore refuſed to go back, aſſuring his Lordſhip, that they had well weighed and conſidered the Matter before them; and would not, nor could, upon the Evidence offered, alter their Opinions. However, his Lordſhip, in a very angry Manner, ordered and commanded the ſaid Jury to conſider further of the Matter: Whereupon the ſaid Jury, in Compliance merely to his Lordſhip's expreſs Directions, and without any Deſign (as they then declared) of altering their ſaid ſaid Verdict in any Particular, withdrew into the Jury-Room, of which his Lordſhip, taking the Advantage, was pleaſed, ſoon after they had turned their Backs, to adjourn the Court till the Friday following.

That the ſaid Jury, having agreed to their ſaid former Verdict, and having ſealed up the ſame, as uſual, on Thurſday the 7th of May aforeſaid, waited upon his Lordſhip with the ſame, who demanded of them, What the ſaid private Verdict was, or for whom they found? Who declared, They apprehended his Lordſhip had no Right to know the ſame: But his Lordſhip then told the ſaid Jury, and inſiſted, that he had a Right to know it, and that they muſt diſcover it to his Lordſhip; and then one of the Jury, apprehending from his Lordſhip's Aſſertion, that it was proper ſo to do, informed his Lordſhip, that they had found for the Petitioner, as aforeſaid.

That on Friday following, the ſaid Jury appeared in the ſaid Court, purſuant to the ſaid Adjournment, and the ſaid private Verdict, being then produced and read in open Court, they all agreed thereto. But the ſaid Sir John St. Leger (as the Petitioner has great Reaſon to believe) having, by ſome Means or other, come to the Knowledge of the ſaid private Verdict, it was ſo ordered, that the ſaid Joſeph Napon ſhould be called, who, failing to appear, the ſaid Lord Chief Baron then declared, that the Plaintiff in ſaid Ejectment was non-ſuited; though your Petitioner's Counſel then, and afterwards, inſiſted, that the Plaintiff in ſaid Ejectment could not non-ſuit himſelf; for that he had appeared on the Trial the Wedneſday before, when the ſaid Jury had found for your Petitioner, and was then in Court, upon the ſaid Adjournment on Friday aforeſaid: And, that, by the Law, his ſecond Appearance was not neceſſary. All which the ſaid Court of Exchequer was pleaſed to overrule, and admit the Plaintiff to non-ſuit himſelf. And although if ſuch Non-ſuit, upon the Return of the ſaid privy Verdict, was legal, your Petitioner humbly conceives, that ſuch his Lordſhip's Injunction to the ſaid Jury, to conſider further of their Verdict, after they had poſitively declared themſelves determined to abide by it. And the Adjournment immediately ſubſequent to their going out, to conſider further thereof, was contrived by his Lordſhip, to give the Plaintiff in ſaid Ejectment an Opportunity to non-ſuit, when he diſcovered the Verdict to be againſt him.

That in Trinity Term laſt, your Petitioner's Counſel moved, two ſeveral times on the Poſtea to have the ſaid pretended Non-ſuit recorded, which the ſaid Court refuſed to do, to the great Delay of Juſtice, and contrary to Law, (as your Petitioner is adviſed:) And to this Day, your Petitioner is deprived of the Benefit of the ſaid Verdict or Non-ſuit; though your Petitioner has neceſſarily expended £60 and upwards, upon account of the ſaid Trial and Proceedings in this Cauſe.

And praying their Lordſhips to take the Premiſes into Conſideration, and to make ſuch Order therein, as to their Lordſhips ſhould ſeem meet;

was then read.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure.

The Houſe was reſumed.

The Lord Biſhop of Clogher, according to Order, made the following Report, viz.

My Lords,

Report on Burrowes's Petition.

THE Lords' Committees for Courts of Juſtice, to whom the Petition of Alexander Burrowes, Eſq; late Sheriff of the Co. Kildare, was referred, do find,

That by the Order of this Houſe of the 3d of October, 1717, Heſter Sherlock, Widow, was, upon the 6th of the ſame Month, put into the actual Poſſeſſion of the Lands of Little Rath, Bodingſtown, Darr and Mullenefooky, in the Co. Kildare, by Edward Conyers, Under-Sheriff to Charles Nuttal, Eſq; then High-Sheriff of the ſaid County, to continue therein, till ſhe ſhould receive thereout the Sum of £1507 : 14ſ. 8½*d.* chargeable on the ſaid Lands; and the ſaid Heſter continued ſo poſſeſſed, by virtue of the ſaid Order, for near two Years.

That by the Minutes of the Chancery-ſide of the Exchequer, it appears, that the Lord Chief Baron of the Exchequer, on the 19th of February, 1717, produced a Letter, dated London the 8th of February, 1717, ſigned "Cowper, C." in which two Papers were incloſed, dated 6th of February, 1717, ſigned "William Cowper, "Cler? Parliamentor?" directed to the Lord Chief Baron of the Exchequer in Ireland, and the reſt of the Barons of the ſaid Court, alledged by the Lord Chief Baron to be Orders from the Lords in Great Britain, requiring them to reſtore Maurice Anneſley, Eſq; to the Poſſeſſion of the Lands he was diſpoſſeſſed of, pending his Appeal in the Houſe of Lords of Great Britain.

That on the ſaid 19th Day of February, 1717, in Purſuance of the ſaid alledged Orders and Letter (inſerted at the End of this Report) though no Affidavit had been made, that the ſaid Orders or Letter were regularly compared and ſigned, the ſaid Lord Chief Baron and the other Barons, without any Motion by Counſel or Attorney, ordered an Injunction for the reſtoring the ſaid Maurice Anneſley to Poſſeſſion of the Lands he was diſpoſſeſſed of, pending his ſaid Appeal, in the Name of the Chancellor, Treaſurer and Barons of the ſaid Court of Exchequer; whereby the Sheriff or Sheriffs of the County or Counties where the ſaid Lands lay, was forthwith to put the ſaid Maurice into the Poſſeſſion of the ſaid Lands.

That, in order to make out the ſaid Injunction, the ſaid Court ordered the ſaid Maur. Anneſley, his Attorney, Agent, Solicitor or Counſel, ſhould forthwith attend the Chief Remembrancer, or his Deputy, with the Names of the Lands, of which the ſaid Maurice Anneſley was ſo diſpoſſeſſed of, and alſo the County or Counties where the ſaid Lands lay.

That upon the 14th of March, 1717, Affidavit was made before the Lord Chief Baron by John Anneſley of Ballyſax in the County of Kildare, Eſq; wherein Heſter Sherlock was made Plaintiff, and Maurice Anneſley, Eſq; Defendant: That he the ſaid John was diſpoſſeſſed of the Lands of Little Rath, Darr, Bodingſtown and Mullenefooky, which he the ſaid John held by virtue of a Leaſe from the ſaid Maurice Anneſley, pending his ſaid Appeal; and that the ſaid John's Leaſe was then in being, and undetermined.

That upon the 14th of March, 1717, the ſaid Affidavit of the ſaid John Anneſley was filed in the Chief Remembrancer's Office, in order to have the ſaid Injunction made out; but before the ſaid Injunction iſſued, it appears, by the Examination of Mr. John Draycott, Attorney for Mrs. Sherlock in the Exchequer, (after having been ſworn at the Bar of this Houſe) that he the ſaid Draycott attended Mr. John Becher, then Deputy Chief Remembrancer, at his Office, and in the Preſence of the ſaid John Anneſley, informed the ſaid Becher, that the ſaid Affidavit was inſufficient; and that the ſaid Draycott was ready to prove, that the ſaid Maurice Anneſley was not, at the Time of his ſaid Appeal, nor at any Time ſince, in Poſſeſſion of the ſaid Lands, mentioned in the ſaid Affidavit, having ſold the ſaid Lands ſome Years before to Andrew Wilſon, Eſq; and Mrs. Frances Harman.

That by two Copies of Memorials out of the Regiſter's Office (for regiſtering Deeds, &c. purſuant to Act of Parliament) proved by the ſaid Draycott to be true Copies of the Memorials remaining in the ſaid Office, it appears, that by Deeds of Leaſe and Releaſe, bearing Date, reſpectively the 1ſt and 2d Days of March, 1714, the Leaſe being made between Jeffrey Paul, Eſq; of the one Part, and Andrew Wilſon, Eſq; of the other Part, and the Releaſe made between the ſaid Jeffry Paul of the firſt Part, ſaid Andrew Wilſon of the ſecond Part, and Maurice Anneſley, Eſq; of the third Part, whereby the ſeveral Lands of Little Rath, Darr and Bodingſtown, in the Barony of Naas, and Co. Kildare, were, for the Conſiderations therein mentioned, conveyed to the ſaid Andrew Wilſon, and his Heirs, for ever. And the Right Hon. the Lord Altham, upon his Honour, declared, that he knew that John Anneſley of Ballyſax, Eſq; had paid Rent to the ſaid Andrew Wilſon, by virtue of, and under, the ſaid Purchaſe: But believed, that the Lord Chief Baron, or the other Barons, knew nothing thereof: It alſo appears, that by Deeds of Leaſe and Releaſe, bearing Date, reſpectively, the 2d and 3d Days of April, 1715, made between Maurice Anneſley, Eſq; of the one Part, and Frances Harman of the City of Dublin, Widow, of the other Part, by which ſaid Releaſe, the ſaid Maurice Anneſley, for the Conſiderations therein mentioned, conveyed to the ſaid Frances Harman, and her Heirs for ever, the Lands of Mullenefooky, in the ſaid Co. of Kildare. That, notwithſtanding there was no County mentioned in the ſaid Affidavit, and ſaid Notice given of ſaid Sale to the ſaid Officer, as aforeſaid, neither did it appear by the ſaid Affidavit, that the ſaid Maurice Anneſley was diſpoſſeſſed of the ſaid Lands therein mentioned, pending his Appeal. The ſaid Injunction iſſued, directed to the Sheriff of the Co. Kildare, bearing Date the 22d of February, in the 4th Year of his Majeſty's Reign, ſigned "Galfridus Gilbert," and returnable into the ſaid Court, in Quinden' Paſch' then next enſuing.

That by an Affidavit ſworn by John Anneſley on the 7th of May, 1718, before Mr. Baron St. Leger, and filed in the Chief Remembrancer's Office the 9th of the ſame Month, wherein he made Maurice Anneſley, Eſq; Plaintiff, and Heſter Sherlock, Widow, Defendant, in which the ſaid John Anneſley depoſed, That on or about the 15th March preceding, he delivered the before-mentioned Injunction to Alexander Burrowes, Eſq; then High Sheriff of the ſaid Co. Kildare, and ſhewed the ſaid Sheriff a Letter of Attorney from the Plaintiff, impowering the ſaid John Anneſley to receive the Poſſeſſion of the Lands in the ſaid Injunction mentioned; but the ſaid Sheriff refuſed to execute the ſaid Injunction.

That the ſaid John Anneſley, in his proper Perſon, on the 13th of the ſaid Month, moved the ſaid Court, upon an atteſted Copy of the ſaid Affidavit; but the ſaid Draycott inſiſting, that there was no ſuch Cauſe in Court, the ſaid Anneſley was directed by the ſaid Court, to amend his Affidavit, and move it again.

That the ſaid Anneſley thereupon eraſed and altered the ſaid Copy, and made Heſter Sherlock, Widow, Plaintiff, and Maurice Anneſley, Eſq; Defendant, and ſwore the ſame before Mr. Baron St. Leger, and filed the ſaid Affidavit, ſo amended, in the Chief Remembrancer's Office, without any Alteration made in the Body of the ſaid Affidavit, which was proved by the Depoſition of Daniel Reading, Eſq; Deputy Chief Remembrancer, who was ſworn at the Bar of this Houſe, and examined before the ſaid Lords' Committees.

That the ſame Day, viz. 13th May, upon reading the ſaid Affidavit, the ſaid Court was informed by Counſellor Dixon, that what was ſworn in the ſaid Affidavit could not be true, for that the ſaid Anneſley ſwore, he had a Letter of Attorney from the Plaintiff (who was Mrs. Sherlock) to receive Poſſeſſion of the Lands therein mentioned, when in truth Mrs. Sherlock was then in actual Poſſeſſion of the ſaid Lands.

That the Lord Chief Baron ſaid it was only a Miſtake, and without rectifying the ſame, on Motion of Mr. John Bauman, an Attorney, the Court ordered the ſaid Sheriff to be fined 40*s*. if he did not return the ſaid Injunction in four Days, and on ſaid Bauman's ſeveral Motions, there were Fines, at ſeveral Times, laid upon the ſaid Sheriff, for not returning the ſaid Injunction, which amounted to £77, which was proved by the Minutes of the ſaid Court, and the Teſtimony of the ſaid Draycott.

That the ſaid Draycott likewiſe proved, that the ſaid Lord Chief Baron, and the other Barons, had due Notice of the ſaid Order of this Houſe, and the Reſolutions thereof, made the 11th February, 1703, before any Proceedings were had in the ſaid Cauſe, ſubſequent to the ſaid Order of this Houſe, of the 3d of October, 1717; and that the ſaid Anneſley and Bauman were ſerved with Copies of the ſaid Order and Reſolutions, before any Motions were made by them in the ſaid Cauſe.

That by the Minutes of the 13th June, 1718, taken in the ſaid Court, it appears, that Mr. Chancellor of the Exchequer declared, That the Orders of the Houſe of Lords of England, being only directed to the Barons of that Court; and that he found, that the Order of that Court, which was made thereon, was made as if done by him, and the Treaſurer, as well as by the Barons; that he apprehended, that in regard the ſaid Orders were not directed to him, or he preſent, when the ſaid Order of the Court of Exchequer was made, that he had nothing to do therewith, and did not conſent thereto.

That it appeared, by the Teſtimony of the ſaid Mr. Reading, that the ſaid Cauſe between Sherlock and Anneſley was of the Chancery-ſide of the Exchequer, and that all Bills in the Chancery-ſide of the ſaid Court were directed to the Chancellor, Treaſurer and Barons; and believed, that if a Bill was directed otherwiſe, it would be Error.

That upon the 13th of June, 1718, on Motion of the ſaid Bauman, an Attachment to the Purſuivant was awarded againſt the ſaid Burrowes, for not returning the ſaid Injunction, bearing Teſt the 1ſt Day of July, in the 4th Year of his Majeſty's Reign, and returnable before the Chancellor, Treaſurer, and Barons of the ſaid Court, in Cras Animar' then next.

That upon the 7th of July, 1718, the ſaid Burrowes, returned the ſaid Injunction, and the ſaid Bauman was acquainted therewith by the ſaid Draycott, who told the ſaid Bauman, that he was ready to pay him the Coſt of impoſing the ſaid Fines and Purſuivant; which the ſaid Bauman refuſed, and told the ſaid Draycott, That he muſt firſt have the ſaid Sheriff in Cuſtody. That the ſaid Draycott applied again to the ſaid Bauman, and the ſaid Bauman ſaid, He muſt firſt lay the ſaid Sheriff by the Heels.

That by the Teſtimony of the ſaid Mr. Reading and Mr. Draycott, Barons Pocklington and St. Leger, upon 16th July, 1718, ſat in the Exchequer-Chamber on the reducing of Fines: That the Fines impoſed upon the ſaid Sheriff were then read by Mr. Becher the Officer, who informed the ſaid Barons, that the ſaid Injunction was returned. That a Piſtole and Seven Half-Crowns were paid to the Box, and the ſaid Fines were then taken off by the ſaid Barons.

That upon the ſame Day, in the Afternoon, the ſaid Becher, Reading and Draycott were ſent for to the Lord Chief Baron's Houſe, where where the two other Barons were with his Lordſhip. That the ſaid Injunction was ſent for, and ſaid Injunction and Return thereon was read. And the Barons declared, that it was no Return. That the ſaid Draycott told his Lordſhip, that he hoped he would, at leaſt, reſpite the ſaid Fines, till the then next Term, or give the ſaid Sheriff an Opportunity to juſtify his ſaid Return, which was refuſed. That the Liſt of Fines, which was that Day read in the ſaid Exchequer-Chamber, was then called for, and the Fines impoſed upon the ſaid Burrowes were then read. That the ſaid Draycott was obliged to take back the ſaid Money, which he had paid to the Box, for taking off the ſaid Fines, and the ſame were then eſtreated.

That the Return made by the ſaid Sheriff, upon the ſaid Injunction, was to this Purpoſe, viz. That before the ſaid Writ came to him, the Order of this Houſe of the 3d of October, 1717, and the Reſolutions of this Houſe of the 11th of February, 1703, were delivered to him, which he recites in hæc verba: "Which Re- "turn the Lords' Committees have thought "fit to annex to their Report, That Charles "Nuttall, Eſq; late Sheriff of the Co. Kildare, "by virtue of the ſaid Order of the 3d of "October, put Heſter Sherlock into the Poſ- "ſeſſion of the Premiſſes; and that ſhe was "at the time of the Return, in Poſſeſſion "thereof."

That, by Reaſon of their Order and Reſolutions, he durſt not reſtore Maurice Anneſley to the Poſſeſſion of the Lands in the ſaid Injunction mentioned, in Prejudice and Violation of the Rights and Privileges of this Houſe.

That upon the 7th November, 1718, upon Motion of the ſaid Bauman, ſaid Attachment to the Purſuivant againſt the ſaid Burrowes was renewed, bearing Teſt the 6th November laſt, and returnable before the ſaid Chancellor, Treaſurer and Barons, in Octav' Sanct' Hilarii then next enſuing; and on the 30th January following, the ſaid Attachment was again ordered to be renewed. That the ſaid Sheriff, by reaſon of the ſaid Attachments, was obliged to abſcond, and thereby prevented from coming upon his Accounts; and was, upon that Account, fined by the ſaid Court, £1200, and upwards.

That upon the 4th February, 1718, the Lord Chief Baron, and Mr. Baron Pocklington, upon the Receipt of three Papers, which the ſaid Barons alledged to be Orders from the Houſe of Lords of Great Britain, dated the 23d of January, 1718, ſigned, "William Cowper, Cler' "Parliamentor'" in a Letter produced by the ſaid Barons, from the Lord Chancellor, dated London, 27th January, 1718, ſigned, "Parker, C." which came by Poſt, directed to the Lord Chief Baron of the Exchequer in Ireland, and the reſt of the Barons of that Court; whereby it was ordered, that the Barons of the ſaid Court of Exchequer ſhould cauſe Heſter Sherlock to account before them, upon Oath, for the Rents and Profits of the Eſtate in Queſtion, which ſhe had made or received, ſince her gaining the Poſſeſſion thereof, by the Order of the Houſe of Lords in Ireland, and to anſwer and pay the ſame to Maurice Anneſley, Eſq; but without Prejudice, in Caſe of an Appeal. Alſo, that the Barons of the ſaid Court were directed to proceed by the moſt ſpeedy and effectual Methods to cauſe Poſſeſſion of the Eſtate of the ſaid Maurice Anneſley, as required by their Order of the 6th February, to be reſtored to him. And alſo, that the Chancellor of Great Britain ſhould tranſmit to the ſaid Barons, the ſaid Orders, and that they ſhould give an Account of what ſhould be done therein.

That without any Proof by Affidavit (as uſual in Courts of Equity) that the ſaid alledged Orders were regularly ſigned and compared, and without Motion of Counſel or Attorney, it was ordered, in the Name of the Chancellor and Treaſurer, Lord Chief Baron and the reſt of the Barons of his Majeſty's Court of Exchequer in Ireland, that the Injunction of that Court ſhould forthwith iſſue, directed to the ſaid Heſter Sherlock, and to the ſeveral and reſpective Tenants of the Lands in Queſtion, requiring them, and every of them, quietly to reſtore to the ſaid Maurice Anneſley the Poſſeſſion of the Town and Lands of Little Rath, Bodingſtown, Darr and Mullenefooky, lying and being in the Co. Kildare, the ſaid Lands, by the ſaid Barons, ſuppoſed to be comprehended in the ſaid Order.

That the ſaid Injunction was ordered to be ſerved upon the ſaid Perſons by the Purſuivant attending the ſaid Court, or by any other Perſon or Perſons, whom the ſaid Maur. Anneſley, or his Agent, ſhould appoint. And the ſaid Maurice Anneſley, or his Agent, was thereby required to leave the Names of the ſeveral and reſpective Tenants of the ſaid Lands at the proper Office, in order to be inſerted in the ſaid Injunction. And alſo ordered, that the Rents of the ſaid Lands, remaining in the ſeveral Tenants' Hands, from the time the ſaid Heſter Sherlock was put into Poſſeſſion, ſhould be forthwith by them paid over to the ſaid Maurice Anneſley. And that a Copy of the ſaid Order ſhould be ſerved upon the ſaid ſeveral Tenants of the ſaid Lands, together with the ſaid Injunction; though by the Order of the Houſe of Lords of Great Britain, the ſaid Barons were only directed to oblige Heſter Sherlock to account before them, upon Oath, for the Rents of the ſaid Lands, received by her ſince her gaining the Poſſeſſion thereof, which ſhe was to pay to Maurice Anneſley, without Prejudice in Caſe of an Appeal.

That, purſuant to the ſaid Order of the 4th February, an Injunction iſſued out of the ſaid Court, ſigned, "Jeff. Gilbert;" bearing Teſt 12th February laſt, directed to Heſter Sherlock, and twenty-one Perſons, as Tenants to the ſaid Lands. That the ſaid Heſter Sherlock was never ſerved with the ſaid Injunction or Order; notwithſtanding which, ſhe was thereby diſpoſſeſſed of the ſaid Lands, about the 20th of February laſt, by the Attornment of the Tenants, except a ſmall Part thereof, in the Poſſeſſion of Denis Galvin.

That upon an Affidavit made by Richard Lyons, in a Cauſe of Anneſley vers$^{s}$ Sherlock, ſworn before Mr. Baron St. Leger the 23$^{d}$ of February laſt; and upon Motion of ſaid Bauman, an Attachment to the Purſuivant was the ſame Day ordered by the ſaid Court, againſt ſaid Denis Galvin, for not obeying the ſaid Injunction, though no ſuch Perſon was named in the ſaid Writ of Injunction.

The ſaid Lords' Committes had alſo the Oath adminiſtered to the Barons of the Exchequer, laid before them by Mr. Hartley Hutchinſon, Deputy Clerk of the Crown in the High Court of Chancery, and is as follows, viz.

" YE ſhall ſwear, that well and truly ye ſhall " ſerve the King in the Office of Baron of his " Exchequer, and that truly ye ſhall charge " and diſcharge all Manner of People, as well " the Poor as Rich; and that for Highneſs, " nor for Riches, nor for Hatred, nor for the " Eſtate of no Manner of Perſon or Perſons, " nor for any good Deed, Gift, ne Promiſe of " any Perſon, the which is made to you, nor " by Craft, nor by Engine, ye ſhall let the " King's Right, nor none other Perſon's Right, " ye ſhall diſturb, let nor reſpite againſt the " Laws of the Land; nor the King's Debts ye " ſhall put in reſpite, where that they may " goodly be levied. And that the King's " Needs ye ſhall ſpeed, afore all other. And " that for Gift, Wages nor good Deed, ye ſhall " lean, diſturb nor let the Profit and reaſon- " able Advantage of the King in the Advantage " of any other Perſon, nor of yourſelf. And " that nothing ye ſhall take of any Perſon for " to do Wrong or Right or Delay; or for to " deliver or to delay the People, which that " have to do afore you; but as haſtily as ye " may, them goodly to deliver, without Hurt " of the King. And, having no Regard to " any Profit, that might thereof to you be " therein, you ſhall make to be delivered. " And whereas ye may know any Wrong or " Prejudice to be done to the King, ye ſhall " put and do all your Power and Diligence " that to redreſs: And if ye may not do it, " ye ſhall tell it to the King, or to them of " his Council, which may make relation to " the King. If ye may not come to him, to " the King's Majeſty's Lieutenant, or other " Chief Governor or Governors of this Realm " for the time being. And the King's Coun- " ſel ye ſhall keep and layne in all Things, as " GOD you help, and by the Contents of this " Book."

The Committee humbly take Leave to obſerve to your Lordſhips, that there was no Name of any Attorney to the firſt Injunction.

Which Report being again read by the Clerk, at the Table,

Mr. Joſeph Harriſon, an Officer of the Court of Exchequer, being ordered to attend, was called in, and ſworn at the Bar, and examined, who depoſed, That Fines impoſed by the Barons of the Exchequer, upon Alexander Burrowes, Eſq; late Sheriff of the Co. Kildare, amounting to £77, were eſtreated from the Chief Remembrancer's Office to the Pipe-Office: The Clerk of the Pipe wrote them down to the Comptroller of the Pipe; and the Comptroller of the Pipe ſent out thoſe Fines in Proceſs. PRAYERS.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

The House was adjourned during Pleasure.

The House was resumed.

Ordered, that the Lord Visc. Massareene have the Leave of this House to go into the Country for a Month, leaving his Proxy.

Upon reading the Orders for the Day,

Report on Burrowes's Petition further considered.

The House proceeded on the further Consideration of the Report, made by the Lord Bishop of Clogher, from the Lords' Committees for Courts of Justice.

Resolutions thereon.

Resolved, on the Question, nem. con. that it is the Duty of the Barons of the Exchequer, where there is any Wrong or Prejudice done to the King, in Matters lying before them, to inform the King or the Chief Governor or Governors of this Kingdom, or the Council.

Resolved, on the Question, that the Case of Sherlock and Annesley, as it lately lay before the Barons of the Exchequer, being Matter not only of Law, but of State, ought to have been laid before the King, the Chief Governor or Governors of this Kingdom, or the Council of the same, it so nearly concerning his Majesty's Prerogative, and the Interest of the whole Kingdom.

Dr. Usher and Mr. Stephens, being returned from the House of Commons, acquainted their Lordships, that the Commons have given Leave that Capt. Pratt do give his Testimony (if he think fit) in the Matter desired by this House.

Capt. John Pratt, Deputy Vice-Treasurer, being then ordered to be called in, and sworn at the Bar, and upon his Examination being asked, Capt. Pratt, examined.

What Transactions had passed between him and Mrs. Hester Sherlock, in relation to the Lands of Darr and the other Lands decreed to her by this House, till she should receive thereout the Sum of Money in the said Decree mentioned?

Answered, that Mrs. Sherlock and her Friends applied to him to make up that Affair: Mr. Palmer, for Mr. Annesley, had done the same. Upon which, he endeavoured to do good Offices between them, and found there was no other way to put an End to that troublesome Business, but by buying her Decree. And about the 1st or 2d of July last, he agreed with her, and bought her Title for £1860.

Being asked, Whether the Money was paid?

Answered, that it was, and that he has an Instrument from Mrs. Sherlock to make such Conveyance as shall be necessary, which is now in the Hands of a Lawyer.

Being asked, Whether Mr. Annesley consented to the Agreement, or whether he expects expects Poſſeſſion of theſe Lands? whether any Body put the ſaid Pratt upon purchaſing Mrs. Sherlock's Decree?

Anſwered, that he purchaſed the ſame by no Perſon's Order, but private Gentlemen gave it their Opinion, that it would be a very good Act; and that he has no Defeaſance from any Perſon, if he ſhould be evicted.

Being aſked, Whether he had given the £1860, without any Direction, Advice or Hint of being indemnified?

Anſwered, that he has no Manner of Indemnification. Believed it to be a very good Office; and that by Converſation with Perſons of Judgment, thought he ſhould not loſe by it. That he purchaſed the Decree, with Hopes of being recompenſed by the King or Government, as a Man who had loſt a Leg or an Arm in the Service of his Country, but has not any promiſe of being conſidered for the Goodneſs of his Service.

Then Capt. Pratt was ordered to withdraw.

Anneſley and Bauman to be taken into Cuſtody.

IT is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Serjeant at Arms attending this Houſe, his Deputy or Deputies, do forthwith attach the Bodies of John Anneſley of Ballyſax, in the Co. Kildare, Eſq; and John Bauman, Gent. and keep them in ſafe Cuſtody, until further Order of this Houſe, and this ſhall be a ſufficient Warrant on that behalf.

To Thomas Carter, Eſq; Serjeant at Arms attending this Houſe, his Deputy or Deputies, and every of them.

The Lord Chief Baron, and the other Barons of his Majeſty's Court of Exchequer, being ordered to withdraw.

Reſolved, on the Queſtion, that Jeffry Gilbert, Eſq; Lord Chief Baron of the Court of Exchequer, having taken upon him to put in Execution a pretended Order from another Court, contrary to the final Judgment of this High Court of Parliament, in the Cauſe between Sherlock and Anneſley, is a Betrayer of his Majeſty's Prerogative, and the undoubted antient Rights and Privileges of this Houſe, and of the Rights and Liberties of the Subjects of this Kingdom.

Capt. Pratt, being again called in, was at the Bar further examined, and produced an Inſtrument, Capt. Pratt further examined.

Inſtrument, and being aſked, Whether the Subſcription Heſter Sherlock, to the ſaid Inſtrument, was the Hand-writing of the ſaid Heſter?

Anſwered, It was; that Mr. Whitney, mentioned therein, was his Lawyer, and that his Name was made uſe of, in Truſt for him the ſaid Pratt.

Being aſked, Who it was that drew the ſaid Inſtrument?

Anſwered, that it was Mr. Draycott.

The ſaid Inſtrument was then brought to the Table, and read as follows, viz.

" I DO acknowledge to have received from " Boleyn Whitney, of the City of Dublin, Eſq; " the Sum of £1860 Sterl. in full Conſidera- " tion of the Money decreed unto me by the " Right Hon. the Houſe of Lords of Ireland: " And I do hereby promiſe and oblige myſelf " to perfect ſuch further Releaſe, Conveyance " or Aſſignment, of the Decree, made by the " ſaid Houſe in my Favour, as Counſel ſhall " adviſe. And I do hereby for me, my Execu- " tors and Adminiſtrators, abſolutely and for " ever releaſe, and diſcharge the ſame, and " any Demand that I, my Executors and Ad- " miniſtrators may have or claim on account " thereof. Witneſs my Hand and Seal, this " 2d Day of July, in the Year of our Lord " 1719.

Prayers.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

Ld Santry Leave to apply to Commons.

Ordered, that the Lord Santry have the Leave of this Houſe to make Application to the Houſe of Commons, on a Petition of his Lordſhip.

The Lord Newtown, from the Lords' Committees for Privileges, made a Report on the Complaint of the Earl of Cavan, and the ſame was afterwards delivered to the Clerk at the Table, to be again read.

Ordered, that the ſaid Report be recommitted.

Petition of Mr. Morgan.

A Petition of Charles Morgan, Eſq; ſetting forth, that the Petitioner's Grandfather, being ſeized in Fee of the Lands of Garanſpigadane, and other Lands in the Co. Galway, and Co. Clare, did by his Laſt Will and Teſtament in Writing, deviſe the ſame to the Petitioner in Tail.

That the Petitioner's ſaid Grandfather, in his Life-time, contracted ſeveral Debts and left ſeveral Legacies to a very conſiderable Value, and ſubjected his ſaid Eſtate to pay the ſame.

That

That the ſaid Debts and Legacies ſtill continue a Charge upon the Petitioner's Eſtate, at the yearly Intereſt of Ten and Eight Pounds ℔ Cent. and other Debts have been contracted by the Petitioner, by reaſon of ſeveral Law-ſuits, in which he was involved on account of his ſaid Grandfather, and that the Rent of his Eſtate was not ſufficient to pay the Intereſt of the ſaid Sums. But the ſaid Sums remain now a Charge upon the Petitioner's Eſtate: So that, the Petitioner has very little for the Support of himſelf and Family, and the ſaid Eſtate muſt in a little time be ſunk, if Money be not raiſed at a lower Intereſt, by Mortgage of the ſaid Lands, or Part thereof, ſold for to diſcharge the ſaid Debts.

That upon the Petitioner's Inter-marriage with Margaret his Wife, he ſettled Part of his ſaid Eſtate as a Jointure upon her, with a Remainder of ſaid Jointure-Lands, and the reſt of his Eſtate on her Iſſue, ſubject to the ſame Incumbrances, without Power therein, by Sale or otherwiſe, to diſcharge the ſaid Incumbrances, or to raiſe Money at a lower Intereſt.

That the Truſtees in the ſaid Marriage-Settlement (knowing it to be manifeſtly for the Benefit of the Petitioner, his Wife and Iſſue) have conſented, that a Bill ſhould paſs, to veſt part of the Petitioner's Eſtate in Truſtees, therein to be named, for raiſing ſo much Money as will diſcharge the ſaid Incumbrances by Sale thereof, or otherwiſe mortgaging the ſame, as they ſhall judge moſt for the Benefit of the Petitioner, his Wife and Iſſue.

And praying their Lordſhips to give Leave for Heads of a Bill to be brought in for the Relief of the Petitioner, his Wife and Iſſue, in the Premiſes;

was preſented to the Houſe, and read.

Order thereon. Ordered, that Leave be given to bring in Heads of a Bill, according to the Prayer of the ſaid Petition, and that his Grace the Lord Archbiſhop of Tuam, and the Lord Ferrard do prepare and bring in the ſame.

Ordered, that the Lord Chief Juſtice Forſter and Mr. Juſtice Macartney have the Leave of this Houſe to go the Circuit.

Heads of Sir John Byrne's Bill, agreed to, and ſent to L^d Lieutenant The Earl of Cavan reported from the Lords' Committees, to whom Heads of a Bill for veſting the Lands of Coolbanagher, &c. in Sir John Byrne, Bart. a Minor, &c. was committed, that they had conſidered the ſaid Heads of a Bill, and found that all Perſons concerned in the Conſequences thereof had conſented thereunto, and have agreed to the ſame.

Ordered, that the Earl of Cavan do lay the ſaid Heads of a Bill before his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, and deſire the ſame may be tranſmitted into Great Britain in due Form.

Further Debate on Mrs. Sherlock's Petition. Upon reading the Orders for the Day, the Houſe reſumed the adjourned Debate, in relation to Mrs. Sherlock.

An Amendment was propoſed to be added to the Queſtion at the end thereof, viz.

"Although neither the ſaid Heſter Sherlock "nor any Aſſignee of her Decree, pray or de-"ſire the ſame."

The Queſtion was then put, Whether the ſaid Amendment ſtand Part of the ſaid Queſtion?

It was reſolved in the Negative.

Then the previous Queſtion was put, Whether the Queſtion be now put, that Mrs. Heſter Sherlock, having been diſpoſſeſſed of the Lands of Little Rath, Darr, Bodingſtown and Mullenefooky, in the Co. Kildare, or her Aſſignee, ſhould be forthwith put into the Poſſeſſion of the ſaid Lands.

It was reſolved in the Negative.

Repreſentation to be prepared, and Reſolved, on the Queſtion, nem. con. that a Committee be appointed to draw up an humble Repreſention to his Majeſty, of the Proceedings of this Houſe, on the Petition of Alexander Burrowes, Eſq; in the Cauſe of Sherlock and Anneſley, as the ſame appears in the Report from the Lords' Committees for Courts of Juſtice, and the Reſolutions of this Houſe thereupon, and the Proceedings thereof, ſubſequent thereunto.

Committee appointed. Ordered, that all the Lords now preſent be appointed a Committee to prepare the ſaid Repreſentation to his Majeſty, and that their Lordſhips, or any five of them, do meet in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, To-morrow Morning, at Ten o'clock, and report.

Ordered, that his Grace the Lord Archbiſhop of Dublin, do lay the ſaid Heads of a Bill before his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, and deſire the ſame may be tranſmitted into Great Britain in due Form.

His Grace the Lord Archbiſhop of Dublin reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to draw up an humble Addreſs of Thanks to his Majeſty for his Majeſty's moſt gracious Anſwer to the Addreſs of this Houſe of the 2d of July laſt, that their Lordſhips had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and afterwards delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and, with ſome Amendments, agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your moſt ſacred Majeſty,

Addreſs to the King,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, crave Leave, in a moſt humble Manner, to return your Majeſty, our moſt ſincere Thanks, and grateful Acknowledgements, for your Majeſty's gracious Anſwer to our late Addreſs: Particularly, for your Majeſty's repeated gracious Declarations of having ſo much at heart the Preſervation of our Conſtitution in Church and State, and the Welfare and Happineſs of your Subjects of Ireland.

Your Majeſty's great Condeſcenſion, in taking Notice of the Zeal and Affection, which your Proteſtant Subjects of Ireland have ſhewn for your royal Perſon and Government, gives a new Inſtance of your Majeſty's Goodneſs to us, and lays a freſh Obligation on us, to embrace every future Opportunity of demonſtrating our Fidelity, and thereby farther recommending ourſelves to your gracious Favour.

And to ſhew our Readineſs to make all your Majeſty's Proteſtant Subjects more uſeful to your Majeſty's Service, we ſhall willingly concur in allowing them ſuch Indulgence as may conſiſt with the Security of the Conſtitution of this Kingdom in Church and State.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do attend his Grace the Lord Lieutenant with the ſaid Addreſs, and deſire his Grace will pleaſe to lay the ſame before his Majeſty.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

Witneſs ſworn.

Thomas Byrn, attending at the Door, was, by Order, called in, and ſworn at the Bar, to give his Teſtimony before the Lords' Committees for Privileges.

The Lord Newtown informed the Houſe, that the Lords' Committees for Privileges had agreed to a Report, on the Complaint of the Lord Biſhop of Meath, againſt Henry St. George, Eſq; and others, which he then made, and after delivered it in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, as follows, viz.

My Lords,

Report on Breach of Privilege.

THE Lords' Committees for Privileges, to whom the Complaint of a Breach of Privilege committed againſt the Right Rev. the Lord Biſhop of Meath by Henry St. George jun. Eſq; George St. George, Eſq; and Arthur St. George, Clerk, in their ordering and directing Thomas Kilduff, John White, Bryan Naughton, Edmond Heverin, John Keogh, John Fallan, Laughlin Kelly, John Bourke and John Arsford, to cut down the Woods of Clonoulty on the Quarter of Kilcaſhell and Half Quarter of Ballyſhanvoy, whereof his Lordſhip is ſeized in Fee as of Demeſne, in right of his Biſhoprick of Meath, was referred, do find by examining Mr. Lewis Roberts (produced in behalf of the Lord Biſhop of Meath, after having been ſworn at the Bar of this Houſe) who depoſed, that Mr. Henry St. George ſen. was ſerved with an Ejectment, as of Hilary Term, 1716, and that ſaid St. George took Defence, and the Cauſe came to a Hearing at the Bar of the Court of Exchequer, in Trinity Term, 1718, where the Lord Biſhop of Meath's Title to ſaid Lands of Kilcaſhell was proved.

Edmond Dowling (who was alſo produced in behalf of the Lord Biſhop of Meath, and ſworn at the Bar of the Houſe) depoſed, that there were Trees cut in the ſaid Wood, from 16 to 20 Years old and upwards; and that they were all Saplin-Oak, and that ſaid Wood was cut a Mile in length; ſays he ſaw John White Edmond Heverin and others Overſeers.

William Kelly (who was alſo produced in behalf of the Lord Biſhop of Meath and ſworn at the Bar of the Houſe) depoſed, that every Tree that was worth cutting in ſaid Wood, was cut: That he offered £40 for the Bark of the Timber ſo cut. Says, that ſome of the Trees were 15 Feet long, and 20 Inches in girth; and that he meaſured ſome that were cut of that Length and Girth; and ſays, that the Damage done to the ſaid Wood cannot be valued at leſs than £200; and that ſaid Wood began to be cut the 16th of June laſt: And that ſaid Wood was cut for a Mile in Length, and a Quarter of a Mile in Breadth.

Edmond Keogh (who was produced in behalf of Mr. St. George, after having been ſworn at the Bar of this Houſe) depoſed, that what Trees were cut in ſaid Wood, were Oak and Aſh; and that what was cut would only be fit to build Cabbins; and that ſome would make but indifferent Plough-Beams: Says, the beſt of the Trees are left ſtanding; and that the ſaid Woods have been preſerved ever ſince the late War in this Kingdom.

The ſaid Keogh, having ſaid ſeveral other things which did not appear conſiſtent with the Evidence he had given, the Lords' Committees, diſmiſſed him, without giving Credit to what he ſaid.

John Plummer (who was alſo produced in behalf of Mr. St. George, and ſworn at the Bar of this Houſe) depoſed, that the Damage done in ſaid Wood cannot be valued at above £20; that the Timber cut was only fit for building Cabbins, and making Hedge-Stakes; and that the Wood has been preſerved for about 25 Years.

John Mathews (who was alſo produced in behalf of Mr. St. George, and ſworn at the Bar of this Houſe) depoſed, that there were ſome old Trees cut here and there, that would make but Plough-Beams.

Upon which the Lords' Committees are come to the following Reſolutions, viz.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that there has been Waſte committed in the Woods of Clonoulty, belonging to the Lord Biſhop of Meath, in right of his See, by cutting of Timber-Trees of 20 Years Growth and upwards, ſince Privilege of Parliament came in.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that Edmond Heverin and John White, were Directors and Agents in committing the ſaid Waſte.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that Edmond Heverin and John White, in committing the ſaid Waſte, are guilty of a Breach of Privilege.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that Edmond Heverin and John White, be taken into Cuſtody of the Serjeant at Arms attending this Houſe.

A Debate ariſing on the ſaid Report;

Ordered, that the further Conſideration of the ſaid Report be adjourned to Saturday Morning next.

Ordered, that the 46th Standing Order of this Houſe be read.

And the ſame was read accordingly.

W. Vaughan, Appellant. R. Blake, Reſpondent.

Then the Houſe, according to Order, proceeded to the Hearing of the Cauſe, wherein William Vaughan, Merchant, is Appellant, and Robuck Blake, Gent. is Reſpondent.

And Counſel on both Sides were called in, and the Petition and Appeal of the ſaid Will. Vaughan, as alſo the Anſwer of the ſaid Robuck Blake to the ſaid Appeal were ſeverally read, and the Counſel proceeded to the Merits of the Cauſe, and ſeveral Exhibits were read therein.

The Counſel being withdrawn,

Ordered, that the further Conſideration of the ſaid Cauſe be adjourned till Saturday Morning next, and that this Houſe will, upon that Day, further hear the ſaid Cauſe, by Counſel at the Bar.

Adjourned till To-morrow Morning, at Ten o'clock.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure.

The Houſe was reſumed.

Then the Houſe proceeded on the Order of the Day for reading the Repreſentation to his Majeſty of the Proceedings of this Houſe, upon the Petition of Alexander Burrowes, Eſq; in the Cauſe of Sherlock and Anneſley.

And the ſaid Repreſentation was read and agreed to by the Houſe, and is as follows, viz.

To

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble REPRESENTATION of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

IT is with the greateſt Concern, that we your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, do find ourſelves under a Neceſſity of making this our humble Repreſentation to your Majeſty.

It evidently appears, by many ancient Records, and ſundry Acts of Parliament paſſed in this Kingdom, and particularly by one in the 11th of Queen Elizabeth, intitled, An Act for Attainder of Shane O'Neal, &c. That the Kings, with all the Princes and Men of Value of the Land, did, of their own Good-Wills, and without any War or Chivalry, ſubmit themſelves to your Majeſty's royal Anceſtor King Henry II. took Oaths of Fidelity to him, and became his liege Subjects; who (as it is aſſerted by the Lord Chief Juſtice Coke and others) did ordain and command, at the Inſtance of the Iriſh, that "ſuch Laws as he had in England, "ſhould be of Force and obſerved in Ireland." By this Agreement, the People of Ireland obtained the Benefit of the Engliſh Laws, and many Privileges, particularly that of having a diſtinct Parliament here, as in England, and of having weighty and momentous Matters relating to this Kingdom treated of, diſcuſſed and determined in the ſaid Parliament.

Coke, 4th Inſt. Pag. 349. Matt. Paris Anno 1172. Pag. 105.

Coke, 4th Inſt. Pag. 350.

This Conceſſion and Compact, thus made, and afterwards by ſucceeding Kings confirmed to the People of this Land, in Proceſs of Time, proved a great Encouragement to many of the Engliſh to come over and ſettle themſelves in Ireland, where they were to enjoy the ſame Laws and Liberties, and live under the like Conſtitution, as they had formerly done in the Kingdom of England: * Which, through GOD's good Providence, has proved a Means of ſecuring this Kingdom to the Crown of England; and, we truſt, will do ſo to all Futurity. By this happy Conſtitution, and theſe Privileges, by us, for ſo many Years enjoyed, the Engliſh Subjects of this Kingdom have been enabled faithfully to diſcharge their Duty to the Crown of England, and vigorouſly ſet themſelves, upon all Occaſions, to aſſert the Rights thereof, againſt all the Rebellions which have been raiſed by the Iriſh Enemies. And therefore we your Majeſty's loyal Subjects do, with all Submiſſion to your Majeſty, inſiſt upon them; and hope, through your Majeſty's Goodneſs, to have them preſerved inviolable.

And we beg Leave to repreſent to your Majeſty, that though the Imperial Crown of this Realm, was formerly inſeparably annexed to the Imperial Crown of England, and is now to that of Great Britain, yet this Kingdom, being of itſelf a diſtinct Dominion, and no Part of the Kingdom of England, none can determine concerning the Affairs thereof, unleſs authoriſed thereto by the known Laws and Cuſtoms of this Kingdom, or by the expreſs Conſent of the King.

Anno 2 Eliz. P. 214. C. 5. C 7. Pag. 218.

Coke, 4th Inſt. Pag. 349.

And as your royal Anceſtors have always enjoyed the Right and Power of determining all Matters, that related only to this Kingdom, by their royal Authority in their Parliaments held here; ſo, we humbly hope, your Majeſty will always look on this Right as a moſt valuable Jewel of your Crown, which none ſhould preſume to touch, without your Majeſty's Conſent; and that your Majeſty will graciouſly allow us to repreſent it, as an Invaſion of your Prerogative, and a Grievance to your loyal Subjects in this Kingdom, that any Court of Judicature ſhould take upon them to declare, that your Majeſty cannot determine all Controverſies between your Subjects of this Kingdom, and about Matters relating wholly to the ſame, by your royal Authority, in your Parliament ſummoned to meet here; or that your Subjects of Ireland, appealing to your Majeſty, in your Parliament in Ireland, in Matters wholly relating to this Kingdom, do bring their Cauſe before an incompetent Judicature.

We have (may it pleaſe your ſacred Majeſty) endeavoured with our utmoſt Care to inquire into the Grounds of all ſuch Appeals or Removals of Cauſes from this Kingdom, as have at any time been made into England; and are perſuaded, that ſuch Uſages have been introduced by ſlow Degrees: At firſt, the Judges here being to determine the Cauſes that came before them by the Common Laws of England, and ſometimes, not knowing well the Uſages there, applied to Henry III. their then King, for Information, who gave them an Account what the Common Law and Cuſtom of England in like Caſes was. And this undoubtedly, by the Advice of the Juſtices of the King's-Bench, who then were obliged to attend the King, wherever he ſhould be. And, in Proceſs of Time, when his Succeſſors had ſettled the Court of King's-Bench after another Manner, and had forborne to ſit there, themſelves in Perſon, the Application, which formerly formerly uſed to be made to the King who preſided in that Court, came of Courſe to be brought before the Juſtices of the Court, although the King was not there perſonally preſent. And this, as we conceive, gave Riſe to that Cuſtom of removing Cauſes by Writs of Error from the King's-Bench in Ireland, to the King's-Bench in England. But from hence to infer, that therefore Appeals from the Parliament of Ireland, may be brought before the Houſe of Peers in England or Great Britain, is a Conſequence for which there appears to be no Manner of Ground.

As for the Practice of appealing from the High Court of Chancery in Ireland, to the Lords of Great Britain, we can find but two Precedents of ſuch Appeals, before the late happy Revolution; one, in 1670; and the other, in 1679. And we can account for them no otherwiſe, than by obſerving, that they happened at a Juncture, when no Oppoſition could be given them from this Kingdom; becauſe, through the Prevalency of a Popiſh Intereſt, no Parliament had been held here for ſome Years before; nor were we then in any likelihood of having any called here for many Years to come; nor can we find, that any like ſubſequent Appeals from that Court have any other Foundation, than thoſe two Precedents.

And ſuch Appeals (though they had been of longer Standing and better founded) yet were never ſuppoſed to preclude the King's Majeſty from his Right of giving Redreſs to his Subjects of Ireland, in his Parliament when aſſembled here, any more than Writs of Error to the King's-Bench in England, had hindered the like Writs from being returnable in the Parliament here.

And accordingly, when, by God's Bleſſing on the late happy Revolution, this Kingdom came to have a Parliament, after twenty-ſix Years' Intermiſſion, Complaints were heard, Writs of Error and Appeals were received; and proper Orders were made thereon, as formerly; nor were they, as far as we can find, ever queſtioned, or their Validity doubted, till the Year 1699, when two Appeals from the Parliament here were carried before the Lords in England, though no Pleadings to the Juriſdiction of the Parliament of Ireland had been offered or mentioned, by either Party, on hearing the ſaid Cauſes here.

And though the Parliament of Ireland could not then interpoſe, or any ways aſſert their Juriſdiction, becauſe it was not ſitting, yet the Lords of England declared the ſaid Cauſes to be coram non Judice; and, without hearing the Merits of the Cauſes, reverſed the Decrees that had been made here.

Upon which Occaſion, we cannot but obſerve, that the Parliament of Ireland (as the Conſtitution thereof has been for ſome Hundreds of Years) being convened by the ſame Authority, and Writs of Summons, and conſiſting of like Members, and diſtinct Houſes of Peers and Commons; and the former having the ſame Aſſiſtance and Attendance from the Judges of the ſeveral Courts and Maſters of Chancery, as in England or Great Britain, either ſome Record, Act of Parliament or ancient Uſage muſt be ſhewn, whereby to make a Difference (which has never yet been attempted) or elſe, from our very Conſtitution, it muſt, as we conceive, appear, that whatever Power of Judicature is lodged in the Engliſh or Britiſh Parliament, with reſpect to that Kingdom and its inferior Courts, the ſame muſt alſo be allowed to be in the Parliament of Ireland, with like reſpect to the Kingdom and Courts thereof. And if it be looked upon as illegal for any inferior Court in Great Britain, to act in direct Oppoſition to, or Contempt of, the Orders and Decrees of the Houſe of Lords in Parliament there aſſembled; the ſame muſt alſo be concluded upon the like Oppoſition given, or Contempt ſhewn, to ſuch Parliamentary Orders and Decrees, as are or ſhall be made within this Kingdom.

And therefore, in the Year 1703, when a Parliament of Ireland, met on a Complaint of Edward Earl of Meath and Cecilia Counteſs of Meath his Wife, ſetting forth, that during the Interval of Parliament, they had, by order of the Lords in England, been diſpoſſeſſed of the Lands, that had been here decreed them; the ſaid Parliament unanimouſly reſtored the ſaid Earl and Counteſs to the Lands they had been ſo diſpoſſeſſed of, ſo effectually, that neither they, nor their Heirs have been diſturbed in the Poſſeſſion of them.

And we may very juſtly conclude, from the ſtrong Reſolutions in which the Parliament here, did on that Occaſion aſſert their Juriſdiction, that they would have proceeded as effectually in vindicating the Decree on the other Appeal, if the Removal of the Lord Biſhop of Derry, the Appellant here, and a Compoſition made by his Succeſſor with the Iriſh Society of Londonderry, the Appellants in England had not prevented it.

After the Time of thoſe two Appeals, ſeveral Writs of Error and Appeals were brought into your Parliament in this Kingdom; and, among them, an Appeal, wherein Maurice Anneſley, Eſq; was Reſpondent, which were determined, and the Judgment given on them took Effect accordingly. But the ſame Maur. Anneſley, being Reſpondent in an Appeal, brought lately from the Chancery of the Exchequer, before the Parliament of Ireland, by Eſther Sherlock, Appellant, after having appeared to the Juriſdiction here, appealed to the Lords of Great Britain from a Decree made here, in Juſtice to the Appellant Eſther Sherlock, and found ſuch Countenance there, as has given your loyal Subjects juſt Reaſon to complain of much Injury done both to your Majeſty's Prerogative and their Privileges.

For it having (after a full and fair Hearing) been decreed in your Majeſty's Parliament of Ireland, and accordingly ordered, that the Appellant Eſther Sherlock ſhould be put into Poſſeſſion of certain Lands in the ſaid Order named, until ſhe ſhould receive thereout, a certain certain Sum of Money to her decreed to be due and chargeable on the ſaid Lands: And the ſaid Decree and Order having accordingly been obeyed and put in Execution by the then High-Sheriff of the Co. Kildare, to whom the ſaid Order was directed. And the ſaid Eſther Sherlock, being accordingly in the actual Poſſeſſion of the ſaid Lands, the Lord Chief Baron, together with the other Barons of your Majeſty's Court of Exchequer in this Kingdom, have taken upon them, in an illegal and unprecedented Manner to cauſe the ſaid Eſther Sherlock to be diſpoſſeſſed of the ſaid Lands, and to lay ſeveral great Fines upon the late High-Sheriff of the ſaid Co. Kildare, for refuſing to give Obedience unto the Orders of them, the ſaid Barons, in that Caſe iſſued, although their ſaid Orders were manifeſtly contrary to the Laws, Cuſtoms and antient Uſages of this your Majeſty's Kingdom, as well as to the above-mentioned Reſolutions, formerly made in the Caſe of the late Earl of Meath, and continuing upon Record in the Journals of Parliament; of which Reſolutions, as well as of the ſeveral Reſolutions and Decrees in like Manner made, upon the Appeal of the ſaid Eſther Sherlock, the ſaid Barons had ſufficient and timely Notice, before the iſſuing of any of their above-mentioned illegal Orders, as in a Report of this whole Proceeding, now alſo entered in the Journals of Parliament (a Copy whereof, we herewith humbly lay before your Majeſty) may more fully and at large appear.

Hereupon we humbly crave Leave to repreſent unto your Majeſty, that although Appeals from the Courts of Equity in this Kingdom to the Lords of England or Great Britain, are but a very late Practice (as we have already ſet forth) yet in all ſuch Caſes it has been the conſtant and received Practice here, That no Copy of any Order of the ſaid Lords was ever allowed, or demanded to be allowed, as authentic, in any ſuch Court, except the ſame were expreſly directed unto the Court, which was to put the ſame in Execution, and proved by a Witneſs, viva Voce, upon Oath to be a true Copy of the original Order. Nor does it appear, that any ſuch Court ever claimed or pretended to any Authority to ſupply any Defects, ſuppoſed at any time to be in any ſuch Order, or by virtue of ſuch Order in the leaſt to go beyond what expreſly and in Words was in ſuch Order contained. And yet ſo it is, That although the only Pretence of the ſaid Barons for theſe their illegal Proceedings is grounded upon certain Copies of Orders, or pretended Orders, from the Lords of Great Britain. Yet neither were the ſaid Orders, or any of them, directed to the Court of Equity or Chancery-ſide of the Exchequer (where the Cauſe originally lay, and from whence the Appeal was) but only to the Lord Chief Baron and other Barons, which is the Stile of the Common Law-ſide thereof; nor were the ſaid Copies, or any of them, in Manner aforeſaid, proved to agree with the original Orders; neither were the Names of any Lands, or ſo much as of any County, inſerted in the ſaid Copies, or any of them. And yet, notwithſtanding all theſe notorious Defects and Nullities of the ſaid pretended Orders, the ſaid Barons have proceeded, not only in their own Names, to whom the ſaid pretended Orders were directed, but alſo in the Names of the Chancellor and Treaſurer of the Court of Exchequer (to whom the ſaid Orders were no way directed) to iſſue forth ſeveral Injunctions and Orders; and therein, without any Warrant for ſo doing, to inſert the Names of Lands, and of the County wherein they are ſuppoſed to lie, in order to diſpoſſeſs the ſaid Eſther Sherlock of the Lands, whereof ſhe had been put in Poſſeſſion, as is herein above mentioned.

And that your Majeſty may be yet more fully apprized of the Arbitrarineſs as well as Illegality of the Proceedings of the ſaid Barons, we farther, in all humble Manner, lay before your Majeſty, that whereas amongſt other Rules of Practice in all your Majeſty's Courts throughout this your Kingdom, by antient Law and Cuſtom eſtabliſhed, it is univerſally received, that every Order or Rule of Court ought to be made upon the Motion of ſome Counſel or Attorney, or other Perſon by Law or Cuſtom allowed to make ſuch Motion; that no Injunction or Writ ought to iſſue out of any of your Majeſty's Courts (except in the Crown's Cauſe) without the Name of a Six-Clerk or Attorney thereunto ſubſcribed (who is to be accountable unto every Perſon, who through any undue Practice of his ſhall be aggrieved by ſuch Writ or Injunction) and that no Proceedings ſhall be grounded upon any written Affidavit, which is known to be either falſe or defective in any material Part thereof (except ſuch Defect be firſt ſupplied or Falſity expunged) the ſaid Barons, in theſe their Proceedings, have acted in open Violation of theſe as well as other Rules; which by the Law they ought to have obſerved and ſtrictly kept to: The Barons having ordered an Injunction to iſſue for the diſpoſſeſſing of the ſaid Eſther Sherlock, without any Motion for the ſame made, either by Counſel or Attorney, or by any other Perſon, except what was offered in Court by the ſaid Lord Chief Baron himſelf: The ſaid Injunction, alſo, having no Name of any Attorney thereunto affixed or ſubſcribed; and the Affidavit of John Anneſley (upon which the ſaid Barons afterwards proceeded to fine the ſaid late High Sheriff) having ſeveral notorious Falſities in it, of which, though the ſaid Barons were publickly advertiſed at the time when the ſaid Affidavit was read in open Court, yet they took on them to act thereupon, without cauſing the ſame to be rectified, or the ſaid Falſities to be expunged or altered.

And although the ſaid Orders from the Lords in Great Britain expreſly required no more, but that Maurice Anneſley ſhould be reſtored to the Poſſeſſion of thoſe Lands, of which which the ſaid Maurice was diſpoſſeſſed, pending the Appeal before the ſaid Houſe, yet the ſaid Barons, in their ſaid Injunction, not only ordered Poſſeſſion of certain Lands by Name to be given to the ſaid Anneſley, as is already mentioned; but alſo grounded this their Injunction upon an Affidavit, wherein it is not ſo much as alledged, that the ſaid Maurice was at all poſſeſſed or diſpoſſeſſed of any Lands whatſoever, pending the ſaid Appeal.

And whereas it is the Duty of the Barons of your Majeſty's Court of Exchequer in this Kingdom, and a Part of the Oath by each of them taken at their Entrance upon their ſaid Office, " That where they may know any " Wrong or Prejudice to be done to the King, " they ſhall put and do all their Diligence " that, to redreſs: And if they may not do it, " they ſhall tell it to the King, or them of his " Council, or to the King's Majeſty's Lieu- " tenant, or other Chief Governor or Go- " vernors of this Realm for the time being;" So far have the ſaid Barons in the preſent Caſe been from doing all their Diligence to redreſs the Wrong or Prejudice done to your Majeſty's Prerogative, of finally determining in your Parliament here, Matters relating wholly to this your Kingdom, that they ſeem to have acted with great Diligence and Zeal, in direct Oppoſition thereto, and to have taken ſuch Meaſures, as will, in Effect, eſtabliſh a Juriſdiction ſuperior to that which your Majeſty undoubtedly has in your High Court of Parliament in this Kingdom, nor does it in the leaſt appear, or is it at all pretended, that the ſaid Barons, or any of them, during all the above-mentioned Proceedings, did ever tell or make known the ſame, either to your Majeſty's Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors, or to your Majeſty's Privy Council; who, if they had been timely acquainted therewith, might (according to their Duty) have made the ſame known to your Majeſty, or otherwiſe have done what was fit and proper for the ſupporting your Majeſty's royal Prerogative, and defending the juſt Rights and Privileges of this your Parliament and People.

And here we beg Leave to lay before your Majeſty, ſome of the many evil Conſequences which we apprehend muſt neceſſarily follow from ſuch exorbitant Practices as theſe, if a timely and effectual Stop be not put to them.

It is the Right and Happineſs of the Subjects of this Kingdom, as well as of thoſe of Great Britain, that by their reſpective Conſtitutions, the Adminiſtration of Juſtice is near at hand, and within the Kingdom whereunto they belong. So that, if any of your Majeſty's liege People, are at any time wronged or oppreſſed in any of the Courts of Law or Equity, they may, without any great Trouble or Expence, have Recourſe to your Majeſty in your High Court of Parliament, where they may aſſure themſelves of ſpeedy Redreſs. But if this your Majeſty's Higheſt Court within this Kingdom is deprived of the Power of finally determining the Cauſes which come before them, all ſuch of your Subjects as do not abound in Wealth, and thereby are not able to follow their Cauſes, or bear the Expence of them in Great Britain, will be under a perpetual Neceſſity of ſitting down with the greateſt Wrong or Oppreſſion, which at any time, under the Colour of Juſtice, or by the Management of rich and potent Adverſaries, may be laid upon them: Which (conſidering the Poverty that every where prevails throughout this Kingdom) muſt, if not prevented in a ſhort time, become a moſt grievous and intolerable Evil. And your Majeſty's royal Predeceſſor Edward III. was ſo ſenſible of the Hardſhips that his loyal Subjects of this Kingdom ſuffered for Want of having a Means of reverſing erroneous Judgments within the Kingdom, that by his Charter, dated Auguſt 30th, in the 29th Year of his Reign, on the Complaint of his Subjects of Ireland, he " commanded all his Judges and " Miniſters, before whom any Proceſſes ſhould " be held at the Proſecution of the Parties " aggrieved, to return the Rolls of the Re- " cords and Proceſſes into the Parliaments to " be held in the Kingdom of Ireland, and that " the Records and Proceſſes ſhould be recited " and examined, and the Errors (if any ſhould " be found in them) duly corrected." *

It is, under God, the great Security of this your Majeſty's Kingdom of Ireland, That by the Laws and Statutes thereof, the ſame is annexed and united to the Imperial Crown of England, and declared to be depending upon, and for ever belonging to, the ſame. But if all Judgments, Decrees and Determinations made

It appears from the latter end of this Record, that the original Power of Parliaments in Ireland, ſettled by King Henry II. (as is above ſet forth) had afterwards been reſtrained, as to Writs of Error, by ſome ſubſequent Mandates of the Kings of England, which Mandates are hereby recalled, and made void.

made in this your Majeſty's Higheſt Court within this your Kingdom, are ſubject to be nulled and reverſed by the Lords in Great Britain, the Liberties and Properties of all your Subjects of Ireland, muſt thereby become finally dependent on the Britiſh Peers; to the great Diminution of that Dependence, which, by Law, we always ought to have immediately upon the Crown itſelf.

That your Majeſty has, by the Conſtitution of this your Realm of Ireland, the full Power of judging and determining all Cauſes that belong to it alone in Pleno Parliamento, is what no Man hitherto has ventured openly to deny or doubt of.

But if, in all Caſes that relate to this Kingdom, the Dernier Reſort (as ſome of late have affected to ſpeak) ought to be to the Houſe of Lords in Great Britain, however this your Majeſty's Power may ſtill in Words be acknowledged, the Force and Effect of it is in reality taken away, and wholly veſted in the Britiſh Peers.

And we cannot but obſerve with the utmoſt Concern, that by this Practice of the Peers of Great Britain, juſt and unjuſt Cauſes will meet with equal Encouragement: For however rightly ſuch Cauſes may be determined in Parliament here, the Decrees will be annulled and reverſed by the Peers of Great Britain, without hearing or entering into the Merits of the Cauſe, upon Pretence, that the Proceedings were coram non Judice.

The Writs for ſummoning the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and electing the Commons to aſſemble in Parliament here, being the very ſame with thoſe in England or Great Britain, as has been before obſerved, either the reſpective Powers in each Kingdom, muſt ſtill be the ſame, or elſe the Peerage of this your Majeſty's Kingdom muſt remain little more than an empty Title, and the Commons thereof ſtand for ever deprived of that moſt valuable Privilege of impeaching in Parliament, which cannot poſſibly be maintained, if there be no ſuch thing as a Parliamentary Judicature within this Realm, and if the Power of Judicature may, by a Vote of the Britiſh Lords, be taken away from the Parliament of Ireland, no Reaſon can be given, why the ſame Lords may not, in the like Manner, deprive us of the Benefit of our whole Conſtitution.

It is notorious, that the Lords of Great Britain have not in themſelves, either by Law or Cuſtom, any way of putting their Decrees in Execution within this Kingdom, of which they have given moſt undoubted Evidence by their late Application to your Majeſty, to cauſe ſuch their Decrees to be executed by an extraordinary Interpoſition of your royal Power. And ſhould your Majeſty think fit to yield to this their Deſire, we humbly preſume to think it would highly affect the Liberty of your Majeſty's loyal Subjects of this Kingdom.

In order to prevent the Appellant Eſther Sherlock, above-mentioned, from making any farther Application to your Parliament here, your Majeſty's Deputy Receiver John Pratt, Eſq; thought fit to pay above £1800 to the ſaid Eſther Sherlock, which, on Examination, he alledged to be his own Money. And that he made an Agreement with the ſaid Eſther of himſelf, without any Order from any Perſon whatſoever. But that from ſome Converſation which he had with Perſons of Judgment, he thought he had Reaſon to hope and expect, that ſince what he had done, was for the publick Good, the Government would not permit him to be a Sufferer. What particular Grounds the ſaid John Pratt had, thus to hope and expect, has not, as yet, been made known to us. But if ſuch Hopes and Expectations as theſe, are from time to time to be ſatisfied, we leave your Majeſty, in your royal Wiſdom, to judge what the evil Conſequences thereof may be.

And we farther humbly repreſent to your Majeſty, that theſe Proceedings of the Lords of England have greatly embarraſſed your Parliament, and diſquieted the Generality of your moſt loyal Proteſtant Subjects of this your Kingdom, and muſt of neceſſity bring all Sheriffs and Officers of Juſtice under great Hardſhips, by reaſon of the claſhing of different Juriſdictions. Nor can we but with Grief obſerve, that whilſt many of the Peers and Commons, who ſat in Parliament were Papiſts, their Judicature was never queſtioned. But of late, ſince only Proteſtants are qualified to have a Share in the Legiſlature, their Power and the Right of hearing Cauſes in Parliament hath been denied, to the great Diſcouragement and weakening of the Proteſtant Intereſt in Ireland.

And having thus, with all Humility, laid before your Majeſty, your undoubted Power and Prerogative within this your Kingdom of Ireland, the immediate Dependence of the ſame upon your Majeſty's Crown, the Right your Majeſty has to hold Parliaments here, as in Great Britain, and of finally determining therein all Matters that wholly relate to this Realm, together with the great Incroachments that of late have been made upon your Majeſty's Prerogative, and the Rights of this your Parliament, and the illegal unprecedented Proceedings of the Lord Chief Baron and the other Barons of your Majeſty's Court of Exchequer, whereby they have endeavoured to ſupport thoſe Incroachments, with the evil Conſequences of ſuch Proceedings, in Caſe that a ſpeedy and effectual Stop be not thereunto put. We moſt humbly hope, that all theſe Things being duly conſidered and weighed with your Majeſty's uſual Wiſdom, will abundantly juſtify us in the Methods we have taken, as well for the ſupporting of your Majeſty's royal Prerogative as the Preſervation of the juſt Rights and Liberties of ourſelves and our Fellow-Subjects, as the ſame are ſet forth in the ſeveral Reſolutions we have come to, a Copy whereof we have hereunto annexed; with with all Humility aſſuring your Majeſty, that no Difficulties which we may be laid under, ſhall hinder us from giving the utmoſt Diſpatch to all your Majeſty's Affairs, or from moſt chearfully demonſtrating that Loyalty and Affection to your Majeſty's Perſon, and Attachment to your Intereſt, which becomes your Majeſty's dutiful and obedient Subjects. Whereof we again, from our Hearts, make an humble Tender to your moſt Sacred Majeſty.

Diſſenters Bill,

Then the Houſe, according to Order, was adjourned during Pleaſure, and put into a Committee, upon a Bill, intitled, An Act for exempting the Proteſtant Diſſenters of this Kingdom from certain Penalties, to which they are now ſubject; and, after ſome time ſpent therein,

Hodie prima vice lecta eſt Billa, intitled, An Act for exempting the Proteſtant Diſſenters of this Kingdom from certain Penalties, to which they are now ſubject.

The Repreſentation of this Houſe to her late Majeſty Queen Anne, of the 7th November, 1711, being by Order, read:

The Queſtion was put, Whether this Bill ſhall paſs?

paſſed.

It was reſolved in the Affirmative.

DISSENT?

Firſt, BECAUSE the perfect Agreement and Unanimity which has conſtantly hitherto been maintained between the Laws of England and Ireland in all things that relate to Religion and eccleſiaſtical Matters, as far as the Circumſtances of this Kingdom would poſſibly admit thereof, is by this Bill, in a very great meaſure, taken away, to the endangering, as we conceive, of the Security of the Church of Ireland, as at preſent by Law eſtabliſhed.

Secondly, Becauſe the Benefit of the Toleration, by this Bill granted, extends, in an unprecedented Manner, not only to thoſe Diſſenters, whoſe Principles are already known; but alſo to all Perſons whatſoever who go under the Name of Proteſtants, whatever their Principles are, or hereafter at any time may be; whereby it may probably come to paſs, that wicked and evil-deſigning Men, under the Name of Proteſtant Diſſenters, may poiſon the Minds of the People, by inſtilling ſuch Opinions into them as, in their Conſequences, may tend to the total Subverſion, even of Chriſtianity itſelf, as well as of the eſtabliſhed Religion and Civil Conſtitution of this Kingdom; there being no way left (as we apprehend) of diſcovering or reſtraining them, but what is liable to the greateſt Difficulties.

Thirdly, Becauſe we conceive, that this Bill, not reſtraining any Proteſtant Diſſenter from ſetting up for a Teacher, even before he has any Congregation to join with him, will give Encouragement to ſuch Perſons to go about ſeeking for Diſciples and Proſelytes, which (as we apprehend) will greatly tend to the diſtracting and dividing the Minds of the good Subjects of this Kingdom, and conſequently to the weakening of the Government.

Prayers.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

The Lord Tullamore reported from the Lords' Committees, (appointed to prepare an Addreſs of Thanks to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, for his prudent Adminiſtration of the Government of this Kingdom, ſince his coming to the ſame) an Addreſs drawn by them, which he read in his Place, and the ſame was afterwards read at the Table, and agreed to, as follows, viz.

To his Grace Charles Duke of Bolton, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland.

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Grace,

Addreſs to L˜Lieutenant

As our more frequent Opportunities of Acceſs to your Grace's Perſon, and the Part we have, by the Conſtitution of the Kingdom, in publick Affairs, enable us more particularly to obſerve the Conduct of them; we cannot, in Juſtice to your Grace or to ourſelves, forbear profeſſing our intire Satisfaction in the equal and prudent Adminiſtration of the Government, by your Grace, ſince your Acceſſion to it, to the Honour of his Majeſty, and the great Advantage of the Kingdom, over which you are placed.

Theſe Effects of your Adminiſtration, we promiſed to ourſelves on your Arrival, from the Experience we had of the great Benefits this Kingdom received during your former Governments, and do freely own, that your Grace hath fully anſwered our Expectations, and that we continue to retain a moſt grateful Senſe of his Majeſty's Goodneſs towards this Kingdom, in placing over it a Chief Governor, who hath diſcharged that great Truſt with perfect Regard to the Service of the Crown, and the Peace and Happineſs of the People.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe. to be preſented by Houſe.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait on his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, to know when he will pleaſe to be attended by this Houſe with the ſaid Addreſs.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, and the Lord Chancellor went to wait upon his Grace the Lord Lieutenant.

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that he had been to wait on his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, to know when he would pleaſe to be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs: His Grace was pleaſed to appoint this Afternoon, at Four o'clock, at the Caſtle.

Meſſage from Commons, to return Bill.

A Meſſage was brought from the Houſe of Commons, by Mr. Chancellor of the Exchequer, to return a Bill, intitled, An Act for amending and inforcing a Clauſe, contained in an Act to enable Reſtitution of Impropriations and and Tythes, and other Rights eccleſiaſtical to the Clergy, with a Reſtraint of aliening the ſame, and Direction for Preſentation to the Churches, and to acquaint this Houſe, that they have agreed to the ſaid Bill, without any Amendment.

Popery-Bill, The Lord Biſhop of Raphoe, according to Order, reported from the Committee of the whole Houſe, to whom the Conſideration of a Bill, intitled, An Act for ſecuring the Proteſtant Intereſt of this Kingdom, by further amending the ſeveral Acts of Parliament made againſt Papiſts, and to prevent the Growth of Popery, was committed; that they had gone through the ſaid Bill, and agreed thereunto, except that Part thereof which relates to reverſionary Leaſes, and compared the ſame with the original Tranſmiſs, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, with which it agrees.

agreed to; with Amendments. The Queſtion was put, that this Houſe ſhall agree with the ſaid Committee of the whole Houſe in thoſe Parts of the ſaid Bill they have agreed to;

It was reſolved in the Affirmative.

The Queſtion was then propoſed, to agree with the ſaid Committee of the whole Houſe, in that Part of the ſaid Bill, which relates to reverſionary Leaſes:

And a Debate ariſing thereon,

The ſaid Clauſe in the ſaid Bill was then read.

Caſe put to Judges. And the Opinion of the Judges was demanded upon the following Caſe, viz.

A Papiſt being, according to the Statute of the 2d of Queen Anne, duly intitled to a Term of thirty-one Years in certain Lands, continues the Ter-tenants, whom he finds upon the ſame, by an Agreement in Writing for three Years of the ſaid Term; and pending the firſt of the ſaid three Years, he ſets a Leaſe of the Premiſes to another Papiſt for twenty-one Years, to commence at the End of the ſaid three Years.

Quere, If one Papiſt is, by the ſaid Statute, legally intitled to the whole Term of thirty-one Years, will it be contrary either to the Letter or Deſign of the ſaid Statute, that another Papiſt ſhould ſo, under him, be intitled to a Part of the ſaid Term?

Judges' Opinion. To this Caſe, the Lord Chief Juſtice of his Majeſty's Court of Chief-Place gave his Opinion:

That ſuch a Leaſe, derivative from one Papiſt to another, would not be void, by the former Statute, or by this Law under Conſideration.

The Lord Chief Juſtice of his Majeſty's Court of Common-Pleas, and the other Judges, were of the ſame Opinion.

Then the Queſtion was put, Whether to agree with the ſaid Committee of the whole Houſe, in that Part of the ſaid Bill, which relates to reverſionary Leaſes.

The Lord Chancellor declared the Contents to have it.

Proxies being then called for, and read over by the Clerk:

And a Debate ariſing on the Lord Tullamore's voting three Proxies;

The Queſtion was put, Whether a Lord may Vote, as a Proxy, for more than two Lords, where Proxies are allowed this Seſſion?

It was reſolved in the Negative.

The Lord Chancellor then declared, that the Contents, with the Proxies, were thirty.

The Not-Contents, with the Proxies, were but twenty-nine,

Report agreed to. So that the previous Queſtion, to agree with the Committee of the whole Houſe in that Part of the Bill that relates to reverſionary Leaſes,

Was carried in the Affirmative.

The Queſtion was then put, to read the ſaid Bill a third time.

It was reſolved in the Negative.

Bill rejected. Ordered, that the ſaid Bill be rejected.

Meſſage from Commons to return Bill. A Meſſage was brought from the Houſe of Commons, by Mr. Stanton and others, Members of the ſaid Houſe, to return a Bill, intitled, An Act to enable Charles Morgan jun. of Kilcolgan in the Co. Galway, Eſq; to ſell or mortgage Part of his Eſtate for the Payment of his Debts, and to acquaint this Houſe, that they have agreed to the ſaid Bill, without any Amendment.

Then the Houſe, according to Order, was adjourned during Pleaſure, and put into a Committee upon a Bill, intitled, An Act for the more effectual preventing the Marriages of Infants, againſt the Wills of their Parents or Guardians; and, after ſome time ſpent therein,

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Biſhop of Clogher reported from the ſaid Committee of the whole Houſe, that they had been in Conſideration of the ſaid Bill, and that he was ready to report, when the Houſe pleaſe.

Ordered, that the ſaid Report be made this Day ſe'nnight.

Meſſage from Commons to return Bill. A Meſſage was brought from the Houſe of Commons, by Mr. Butler and others, Members of the ſaid Houſe, to return a Bill, intitled, An Act for the more ſpeedy paying the Creditors of Richard Earl of Roſs, and to acquaint this Houſe, that they have agreed to the ſaid Bill, without any Amendment.

Then the Houſe was adjourned till Five o'clock, Poſt Meridiem.

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that his Grace the Lord Lieutenant (at the time this Houſe attended his Grace with their Addreſs at the Caſtle) was pleaſed to give this Anſwer, viz.

My

My Lords,

Lord Lieutenant's Anſwer to Addreſs.

" I THANK you for the good Opinion " which you expreſs yourſelves to have of " my Adminiſtration of the Government in " your Addreſs.

" I ſhall always endeavour to diſcharge " that Truſt, in ſuch a Manner as may be for " his Majeſty's Service, and the Good of the " Kingdom; and hope to merit the Continu- " ance of your Lordſhips' Approbation."

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Addreſs of this Houſe preſented this Day to the Lord Lieutenant, and his Grace's Anſwer thereunto, ſhall be forthwith printed and publiſhed.

Meſſage from Commons, to return Bill.

A Meſſage was brought from the Houſe of Commons, by Mr. Tighe and others, Members of the ſaid Houſe, to return a Bill, intitled, An Act for veſting the Lands of Coolebanagher, alias Coolebanacre alias Coolebannagher, Killgenny, Ballyraghan, Ballynebegg, Glanballiſin and Shanebegg, and the Woods thereon, lying and being in the Queen's County, in Sir John Byrn, Bart. a Minor, and his Heirs, ſubject to the Sum of £2500, to be raiſed by Mortgage of the Lands, or a competent Part thereof, or by Sale of the ſaid Woods, to be paid to the Heirs Executors, Adminiſtrators or Repreſentatives of Charles Wilcocks, Joſhua Wilcocks and Tho. Wilcocks, deceaſed, reſpectively, and to acquaint this Houſe, that they have agreed to the ſaid Bill, without any Amendment.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to robe.

The Houſe was reſumed: And his Grace Charles Duke of Bolton, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland, being arrayed in royal Robes, entered the Houſe with the uſual Ceremonies of Grandeur, the Lord Blayney carrying the Sword of State, and the Earl of Roſcommon the Cap of Maintenance; two Sons of two Noblemen bearing the Train of the Robe of State; his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, making his Congé to the Throne, aſcended the ſame, and ſeated himſelf in the Chair of State under the Canopy, all the Lords Spiritual and Temporal ſtanding robed in their places, uncovered, till their Lordſhips took their Seats.

Commons ſent for:

The Lord Chancellor, kneeling, conferred with his Grace the Lord Lieutenant; and then, ſtanding on the right hand of the Chair of State, commanded the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod to ſignify to the Commons, that it is his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure, they attend him immediately in the Houſe of Peers.

They enter.

And the Houſe of Commons, with their Speaker, being come, he, after a ſhort Speech to his Grace, in relation to the Money-Bill, delivered the ſame to the Clerk of the Parliaments, who brought it to the Table, where the Clerk of the Crown read the Title of that and the other Bills to be paſſed, as follow, viz.

Royal Aſſent given to 24 Bills.

1. An Act for continuing to his Majeſty, the additional Duties on Beer, Ale, ſtrong Waters, Tobacco, and other Goods and Merchandizes; and alſo on all ſorts of Wine, ſtrong Waters, Spirits perfectly made, and upon all Spirits made and diſtilled of Wine; and alſo a Tax on all Salaries, Profits of Employments, Fees and Penſions, therein mentioned; and for the further continuing the additional Duty on Ale, Beer, and ſtrong Waters, and Spirits perfectly made, and upon all Spirits made and diſtilled of Wine, and for granting an additional Duty on Molaſſes, Treacle, Tea, Coffee, Chocolate, and Cocoa-Nuts; and for ſecuring the Repayment of £50,000 Sterl. formerly advanced unto his Majeſty, for the Uſe of the Publick, together with the Intereſt thereof.

After which his Grace the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to make a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, as follows, viz.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

YOU have now the Satisfaction to ſee that the Bills which were tranſmitted into Great Britain, and have been returned hither under the Great Seal of that Kingdom, in this Seſſion, are now paſſed into Laws. Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

His Majeſty's gracious Intentions to ſecure the Quiet, and promote the Happineſs of the Kingdom, firſt inclined him to call you together, to adviſe and propoſe what might moſt effectually attain thoſe Ends; and the ſame Goodneſs hath induced his Majeſty to direct, that the royal Aſſent ſhould be given to the many uſeful Bills ſo returned.

You cannot but recollect with Pleaſure, that his Majeſty's being in the more remote Parts of his Dominions, hath not occaſioned any Delay in the conſidering and approving thoſe Bills; and that more than ordinary Expedition hath been uſed therein: Whereby you will be the ſooner enabled to attend your own Affairs, after having done your Duty to his Majeſty, and your Country, in Parliament.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

THE Unanimity and Chearfulneſs, ſhewn by you in granting to his Majeſty the neceſſary Aids for the Support of his Eſtabliſhment and Government, are freſh Inſtances of your zealous Attachment to his Majeſty's Intereſt and Service; and of the Continuance of the ſame loyal and dutiful Diſpoſition, which you have at all times ſhewn. And I do aſſure you, that I will juſtly lay the ſame before his Majeſty, and make no Doubt of his receiving thoſe Inſtances of Duty and Affection in the moſt gracious Manner.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I THINK myſelf happy to find, by your reſpective Addreſſes, that my Adminiſtration hath been to your Satisfaction; and that, by the Teſtimony of thoſe who have the beſt Opportunities of obſerving and knowing, I have, in ſome Meaſure, attained the End which I propoſed to myſelf, and have ever had in view, ſince my coming to the Government, the Service of the Crown, and general Good of the Kingdom.

The advanced Seaſon of the Year makes it proper to put an End to this Seſſion, that you may have an Opportunity to take Care of the publick Peace, in your ſeveral Countries, and to keep a vigilant Eye over thoſe who may have have a Deſire to diſturb it. But of this you will have leſs Occaſion to be apprehenſive, if you ſhall all uſe your Endeavours to cultivate THAT, which will be your beſt Security againſt all foreign and domeſtick Enemies; and which for that Reaſon, I muſt, in a ſpecial manner, recommend to you, in the Words of one of thoſe excellent Bills paſſed this Day, I mean "an Union in Intereſt and Affection among "all his Majeſty's Proteſtant Subjects."

Afterwards the Lord Chancellor, by his Grace's Command, ſaid:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Parliament prorogued.

The Lord Chancellor, kneeling, conferred with his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, and ſtanding on the right hand of the Chair of State, commanded the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod to ſignify to the Commons, that it is his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure, they attend him preſently in the Houſe of Peers, who being returned, the Commons, with their Speaker, were conducted to the Bar by the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod, with the uſual Ceremonies.

Then his Grace was pleaſed to make a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament as follows, viz.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

HIS Majeſty, who has always the Welfare and Proſperity of this Kingdom at Heart, has commanded me to take the firſt Opportunity of meeting you in Parliament, in order to concert ſuch Meaſures as may tend to the Accompliſhment of thoſe his moſt earneſt Deſires, being fully perſuaded from your Duty and Loyalty, ſo often experienced, that nothing will be wanting on your Part to make his Reign eaſy, and yourſelves a happy People.

His Majeſty, through a moſt tender Concern of all his Subjects, is very ſenſibly affected with any publick Calamities, which may have reached, or even threatened, this Nation, and is extremely deſirous, that the utmoſt Care ſhould be employed to guard this Kingdom from the diſmal Effects which a neighbouring Country hath felt from a contagious Diſtemper: Your Preſervation from which, hitherto, he looks upon to be owing, under GOD, to the Frudence and Vigilance of thoſe intruſted with the Adminiſtration of his Affairs: And although your Trade may have ſuffered, and the neceſſary Means uſed for your Security have created ſome extraordinary Expence, yet there is Ground to hope, that in this Seſſion of Parliament, ſuch Remedies may be applied, as will reſtore the Nation to a flouriſhing Condition. As an Inſtance of his Majeſty's Readineſs to contribute all in his Power to ſo deſirable an End, he has been graciouſly pleaſed, upon the Application of ſeveral conſiderable Perſons of this Kingdom, to direct that a Commiſſion be paſſed under the Great Seal of Ireland, for receiving voluntary Subſcriptions, in order to eſtabliſh a Bank: As this is a Matter of a general and national Concern, his Majeſty leaves it to the Wiſdom of Parliament, to conſider what Advantages the Publick may receive, by erecting a Bank, and in what Manner it may be ſettled upon a ſafe Foundation, ſo as to be beneficial to the Kingdom.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I SHALL order the ſeveral Accounts and Eſtimates to be laid before you. What I have in Command from his Majeſty to aſk, will be ſuch neceſſary Supplies as may ſupport the Eſtabliſhment, and ſecure the Peace of the Kingdom. I am to acquaint you, that ſince, by the unwearied Endeavours of his Majeſty, the Peace abroad draws near to a happy Concluſion, two Regiments are returning to this Kingdom, which, during the Rupture with Spain, were thought neceſſary to remain in England, to be in readineſs for ſuch Service as the Exigence of Affairs, or the Deſigns of the Enemy might require.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

WHATEVER Hopes the Diſaffected may conceive from unhappy Diviſions amongſt ourſelves, I doubt not but you will fruſtrate and defeat them, by your prudent Conduct and perfect Unanimity, which cannot but contribute to the Security of our moſt excellent Church, as by Law eſtabliſhed, and to the ſtrengthening the Proteſtant Intereſt at Home, which will make the deepeſt Impreſſion upon his Majeſty, who has been ſo indefatigable in the Maintenance of it abroad.

I cannot but eſteem it, the higheſt Mark of his Majeſty's Royal Goodneſs to me, in ſending me again into this Kingdom, where I have formerly had the Honour to ſerve him. I have always, with the greateſt Satisfaction, remembered the many Inſtances of your Affections; I ſhall endeavour to deſerve the Continuance of them, by promoting, to the utmoſt of my Power, the publick Good; and I ſhall never fail to do you Juſtice, by a faithful Report of your Actions to his Majeſty.

Then his Grace the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to withdraw, and was attended as he entered, and the Commons returned to their Houſe.

Then the Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to unrobe.

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Chancellor reported his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Speech, and the ſame was afterwards read by the Clerk at the Table.

B^p Elphin takes Oaths, &c.

The Right Rev. Father in GOD, Henry Lord Biſhop of Elphin delivered his Writ in the accuſtomed Manner, and took the Oaths, and made and ſubſcribed the Declaration, and alſo took and ſubſcribed the Oath of Abjuration, purſuant to the Statutes.

Reſolution for Addreſs to the King.

Reſolved, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Majeſty, to thank him for his gracious Acceptance of the Expreſſions of the Duty and Loyalty of this Houſe in former Seſſions of Parliament, and for the tender Concern he hath for the Welfare of this Kingdom, and for his Readineſs to concur with his Parliament in applying ſuch Remedies as may reſtore it to a more flouriſhing Condition; and for his Approbation of the Care and ſucceſsful Endeavours of thoſe intruſted with the Adminiſtration of his Affairs, in preſerving the Nation from the Peſtilence which hath ſo miſerably ravaged a neighbouring Kingdom; and to thank his Majeſty, for his Goodneſs in leaving it to the Choice of his Parliament, to have a Bank in this Kingdom; and to aſſure his Majeſty, that this Houſe will, with the greateſt Attention, weigh and conſider how far the ſame may be beneficial to it; and will, by their Conduct and Unanimity, endeavour to continue the Security of our moſt excellent Church as by Law eſtabliſhed, and to ſtrengthen the Proteſtant Intereſt; and will give his Majeſty all further Teſtimonies of their Reſolution to continue in the ſame dutiful Diſpoſition, which they have at all Times ſhewn to his Perſon and Government, and that nothing ſhall be wanting, on their Part, to make his Reign eaſy, and his People happy; and to expreſs their entire Satisfaction in his Majeſty's again placing his Grace the Duke of Grafton over us as his Lieutenant, whoſe Perſon and former Conduct have rendered him acceptable and deſirable to the Kingdom.

Ordered, that all the Lords preſent be appointed a Committee to draw up the ſaid Addreſs, and report.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet in the Robing-Room, near the Houſe of Peers, To-morrow Morning, at Ten o'clock, and adjourn as they pleaſe.

Reſolution for Addreſs to Lord Lieutenant.

Ordered, that the Lords' Committees appointed to draw up an Addreſs to his Majeſty, do alſo prepare and draw up an Addreſs to be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, to congratulate him on his Re-acceſſion to the Chief Government of this Kingdom; and to thank him for his Speech delivered to both Houſes of Parliament; and for his having, at all Times interpoſed his Credit and Intereſt for our Advantage; and to aſſure him, that this Houſe will never be wanting in their due Reſpect and Acknowledgments for the ſame.

Lord Lieutenant's Speech to be printed.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Speech, delivered this Day to both Houſes of Parliament, be forthwith printed and publiſhed, and that the Clerk of this Houſe do appoint the printing of the ſaid Speech.

Adjourned till Thurſday Morning next, at Ten o'clock.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

Addreſs to the King. WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave humbly to return your Majeſty our moſt unfeigned Thanks, for your gracious Acceptance of our Expreſſions of Duty and Loyalty in former Seſſions of Parliament, and for the tender Concern your Majeſty has been pleaſed to ſhew for the Welfare of this Kingdom, and your Readineſs to concur with your Parliament, in applying ſuch Remedies as may reſtore it to a more flouriſhing Condition.

We likewiſe eſteem it our great Happineſs, that the Endeavours of thoſe entruſted with your Majeſty's Affairs (which, through GOD's Bleſſing, have hitherto been ſucceſsful in preſerving us from the Peſtilence of a neighbouring Kingdom) have obtained your royal Approbation.

We cannot but acknowledge, with the greateſt Gratitude, your Majeſty's Goodneſs, in leaving it to Choice of your Parliament to have a Bank in this Kingdom; and do humbly aſſure your Majeſty, that we will, with the utmoſt Attention, weigh and conſider how far the Eſtabliſhment of one may be beneficial to your People: And whatever Hopes the Diſaffected may conceive, from any unhappy Diviſions amongſt ourſelves, we promiſe, by our Conduct and Unanimity, to endeavour to defeat them, and to do every thing that lies in our Power for the Security and ſtrengthening of our moſt excellent Church as by Law eſtabliſhed, and the Support of the Proteſtant Intereſt. Nor ſhall we fail, on our Parts, in any Teſtimony that may evidence the ſame dutiful Diſpoſitions which we have, at all Times manifeſted to your Perſon and Government, or which may contribute to make your Majeſty's Reign eaſy, and your People happy.

And amongſt the many Inſtances of your Majeſty's great Goodneſs towards us, we beg Leave to expreſs our intire Satisfaction in your Majeſty's again placing over us, as your Lieutenant his Grace the Duke of Grafton, whoſe perſonal Qualifications and former Conduct, have rendered him ſo acceptable, and ſo deſirable to this Kingdom.

DISSENT.

Biſhop of Dublin's Proteſt.

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave humbly to return your Majeſty, our unfeigned Thanks, for your gracious Acceptance of our Expreſſions of Duty and Loyalty, in former Seſſions of Parliament.

I DISSENT from this Part of the foregoing Addreſs, becauſe I have always been againſt Addreſſes of mere Compliment between the Crown and the Parliament, believing they may be of ill-Conſequence.

WM. DUBLIN.

Ordered that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe.

The Lord Viſc. Fitzwilliam reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to draw an Addreſs of Thanks to his Grace the Lieutenant, for his Speech delivered to both Houſes of Parliament; that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in, at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and alſo read, Paragraph by Paragraph, and, with an Amendment, agreed to by the Houſe, and is as follows, viz.

To his Grace CHARLES Duke of GRAFTON, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND.

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Grace,

Addreſs to the Lord Lieutenant.

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, with more than Common Pleaſure, take this Opportunity of expreſſing to your Grace how happy we think ourſelves, and how much we are indebted to the Goodneſs of his Majeſty, that he has been pleaſed again to place your Grace in the Chief Government of this Kingdom, where, by the Experience we have already had of your former Adminiſtration, we have all Reaſon to hope and be convinced, that nothing will be wanting in your Power to put us into a more flouriſhing and happy Condition, than at preſent we enjoy. Whatever doth or may depend upon us, toward this good and deſirable End, we beg Leave to aſſure your Grace, ſhall meet with chearful Concurrence.

We return your Grace our Thanks, for the Speech you have been pleaſed to deliver to both Houſes of Parliament from the Throne; and cannot deny ourſelves the Pleaſure of taking Notice, how expreſſive the Terms therein are of the Confidence you have in us; and thoſe in ſo engaging a manner, that if any thing could endear your Perſon more to us, it would be this Mark of your good Opinion of us. Nor ought we to omit our Acknowledgments, for the Part your Grace has taken in obtaining from his Majeſty (upon the Application of ſeveral conſiderable Perſons of this Kingdom) ſuch a Commiſſion as may terminate in the erecting of a Bank, if the Wiſdom of Parliament ſhall find it of Advantage to the Nation.

The grateful Senſe of what your Grace's noble Father did, and ſuffered, in and for this Kingdom, at the Time of its greateſt Extremity, will always by preſerved by us: And your Conduct in your former Adminiſtration, and ſince your late coming among us, has been ſo good, ſo eaſy, and ſo endearing, and you have at all times ſo interpoſed your Credit and Intereſt for our Good and Advantage, that though your Grace were not veſted with the Honour of being his Majeſty's Lieutenant, we ſhould however have, and expreſs, the higheſt Reſpect and Deference for your Perſon.

Ordered, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, by the whole Houſe.

Ordered, that the Earl of Shelburne and the Earl of Grandiſon, do wait on his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, and acquaint him, that this Houſe has agreed to an Addreſs, to be preſented to his Majeſty. And alſo,

An Addreſs of Thanks to his Grace, for his Speech, delivered to both Houſes of Parliament; and know when and where this Houſe may attend his Grace with the ſaid Addreſſes.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

Lord Besborough introduced.

The Right Hon. William Ponsonby, Esq; being by Letters Patents, dated 11° Die Septembris, 8° Georgii Regis, created Lord Baron of Besborough, was, in his Robes, introduced between the Lord Ferrard and the Lord Tullamore, also in their Robes; the Gentleman-Usher of the Black-Rod and Ulster King of Arms, in his Coat of Arms, carrying the said Letters Patents, preceding his Lordship, presented the same to the Lord Chancellor, on his Knee, at the Wool-sack, who gave them to the Clerk of the Parliaments, which were read at the Table: His Writ of Summons was also read.

Then his Lordship came to the Table, and took the Oaths, and made and subscribed the Declaration, and also took and subscribed the Oath of Abjuration, pursuant to the Statutes; and was afterwards conducted to, and took his Place at, the lower end of the Barons' Bench.

Ordered, that the Lords' Committees appointed to take into Consideration the Lists and Tables of Fees for the several Officers in this Kingdom, deposited in this House by the Clerk of the Council, shall be enlarged, and that all the Lords present, who were not of the said Committee, shall be added thereto; and all Lords, that come to the said Committee, are to have Voices therein.

The House, being informed, that the Lord Visc. Valentia having some time since waved his Privilege at the Suit of the Lord Altham, and it being moved, that his Lordship should have Liberty to re-assume his Privilege, if the Lord Altham did not wave his Privilege, at the Suit of the Lord Visc. Valentia:

Waving of Privilege to be reciprocal.

Ordered, that the Lord Visc. Valentia have the Leave of this House to re-assume his Privilege, till such time as the Lord Altham shall consent to wave his Privilege, at the Suit of the Lord Visc. Valentia.

C. Carter, Printer,

Cornelius Carter, attending, according to Order, was called in and examined at the Bar, in relation to his printing his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Speech, without the Order of this House: In Excuse whereof, he said, That his Wife printed the same without his Knowledge, he being then out of Town; and being withdrawn, discharged.

Ordered, that the said Cornelius Carter be, and is hereby, discharged from further Attendance.

Protections considered.

The House, according to Order, proceeded to take into their Consideration, the several Protections granted by the Lords of this House.

The Resolutions of this House in relation to Protections of the 9th of February, 1715, and also the Resolutions of this House, of the 25th of September, 1717, were then severally read.

Sheriffs of Dublin called in.

The Sheriffs of the City of Dublin attending, according to Order, were called in, and at the Bar delivered a List of the several Persons, who have entered Protections in that Office.

And being withdrawn,

Sub-Sheriff examined;

The Sub-Sheriff of the said City was then called in, and sworn at the Bar, and being asked, Whether the List then returned by the Sheriffs to this House, was a true Return of the Persons who had entered Protections in their Office? Said, the same was a true Return of the several Persons certified by the Clerk of this House, and contains a List of all Persons protected to this Time; that several Protections have been recalled, but he has made no Return of such: And being asked, Whether he has entered in his Office any English Protections? Answered, that all Persons protected by English Protections are returned in that List: And being asked, Whether he had any of the original English Protections? Answered, He had not, for that he certifies his Entry at the Bottom of the Protections.

Sheriffs ordered to amend Return.

Ordered, that the Sheriffs of the City of Dublin do amend their Return made to this Houſe, by inſerting therein the Names of all ſuch Perſons as have been protected, whoſe Protections are withdrawn ſince the ſitting of this Seſſion of Parliament; and that they do alſo lay before this Houſe their original Book of Entries.

Deputy Town Clerk examined.

Mr. Gonne, who officiates for the Clerk of the Tholſel, being ordered to be called in, at the Bar declared, That the Tholſel Officer made no Entries of Protections; but ſays the Attorney is ſerved, and no Entries made in the Office.

Lord Cliſton introduced, &c.

John Bligh, Eſq; being by Letters Patents, dated 14° Die Septembris 8° Georgii Regis, created Lord Baron of Cliſton, was, in his Robes, introduced between the Lord Ferrard and the Lord Tullamore, alſo in their Robes, the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod and Ulſter King of Arms, in his Coat of Arms, carrying the ſaid Letters Patents, preceeding his Lordſhip, preſented the ſame to the Lord Chancellor, on his Knee, at the Wool-ſack, who gave them to the Clerk of the Parliaments, which were read at the Table: His Writ of Summons was alſo read.

PRAYERS.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

Resolved, that an humble Address of Thanks be presented to his Majesty, for his most Majesty's gracious Answer to the Address of this House of the 14th of September last.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do attend his Grace the Lord Lieutenant with the said Resolution, and desire his Grace will please to lay the same before his Majesty.

Lords censured.

The Lord Bishop of Derry reported from the Lords' Committee for Privileges, that they had searched Precedents in what manner the House hath proceeded in censuring Peers, who had incurred the Displeasure of the House, and that their Lordships find the same to be either by Fine or Imprisonment.

And the Earl of Roscommon, being called upon, was heard in his Place, and ordered to withdraw.

The Resolution of this House, of the 29th of September, upon his Lordship, was then read.

And the Question was put, that the Earl of Roscommon, for granting 84 Protections, contrary to the Resolutions of this House, be committed Prisoner to the Gentleman-Usher of the Black-Rod.

It was resolved in the Affirmative.

Earl of Roſcommon ordered into Cuſtody.

IT is ordered by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod attending this Houſe, his Deputy or Deputies, do forthwith attach the Body of Robert Earl of Roſcommon, and keep him in ſafe Cuſtody, until further Order of this Houſe; and this ſhall be a ſufficient Warrant on that behalf.

To William Fiſher, Eſq; Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod attending this Houſe, his Deputy or Deputies, and every of them.

The Lord Viſc. Bleſſinton, being then called upon, and heard in his Place, was ordered to withdraw.

And the Reſolution of this Houſe of the 27th of September laſt, being then read,

The Queſtion was put, that the Lord Viſc. Bleſſinton, for granting 84 Protections, contrary to the Reſolutions of this Houſe, be committed Priſoner to the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod.

It was reſolved in the Affirmative.

V. Bleſſinton ordered into Cuſtody.

IT is ordered by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod, attending this Houſe, his Deputy or Deputies, do forthwith attach the Body of Charles Lord Viſc. Bleſſinton, and keep him in ſafe Cuſtody until further Order of this Houſe; and this ſhall be a ſufficient Warrant on that behalf.

To William Fiſher, Eſq; Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod attending this Houſe, his Deputy or Deputies, and every of them.

Ld Kinſale's Petition.

A Petition of Gerald Lord Baron of Kinſale and Baron Courcy of Rinrone, ſetting forth, that his Anceſtors have been, time out of mind, Peers of this Realm, and ſitting Members of this Houſe, the laſt of which was Almerick the late Lord Kinſale, to whom the Petitioner is Couſin-German and Heir, and who took his Seat in this Houſe in the Year 1710.

That one Mrs. Myles, who pretends to be Widow to the ſaid late Lord Kinſale, had entered a Caveat with the Right Hon. the Lord High Chancellor to prevent the Petitioner having his Writ of Summons to Parliament, under Pretence that the Petitioner's Father Colonel Myles De Courcy was outlawed in the Revolution of 1688.

That the Petitioner's ſaid Father, in the Year 1688, and ſome time before, was a Perſon in Power, and lived in Courcy's Country, in the County of Cork, and a known Protector of the Proteſtants in that Country, till the Siege of Kinſale, at which time he was obliged to leave his Habitation, and was abſent about twelve Months, and in that time was outlawed, and the Crown had Cuſtodium of his Eſtate; but was afterwards reſtored by the Articles of Limerick, took out his Adjudication, by virtue whereof he had Poſſeſſion of his Eſtate reſtored to him, by the Cuſtodees of the Crown:

And praying their Lordſhips would be pleaſed to make ſuch Order for placing the Petitioner in Parliament, in the Seat of his Anceſtors, as to their Lordſhips ſhould ſeem juſt;

was preſented to the Houſe and read.

It is ordered by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that this Houſe do, on Wedneſday Morning next, take the ſaid Petition into Conſideration. Order thereon.

Ordered, that Mr. St. George Jackman do attend this Houſe, on Wedneſday Morning next.

Ordered, that the Clerk of the Crown, of the Court of King's Bench, or his Deputy, do attend this Houſe, on Wedneſday Morning next, with the Record of Outlawry againſt Myles De Courcy, Eſq;

The Lord Altham, according to Order, appearing in his Place, a Liſt of the ſeveral Protections granted by his Lordſhip, was read.

A Petition of James Barry, Eſq; ſetting forth, his having purchaſed a Leaſe of Lives renewable for ever of the Manor of Clonmullin in the Counties of Catherlough and Wexford, from the Lady Urcilla Baroneſs of Altham, and all the Woods growing thereon, and being poſſeſſed of the Premiſſes, had received Part of the Rents thereof, that the Right Hon. Arthur Lord Altham, having made ſome Agreement with one Thomas Owen for a Leaſe which the ſaid Owen pretended to have a Title to, of Part of the Premiſſes, by virtue of which his Lordſhip entered upon the Manſion-Houſe of the ſaid Manor, and cut and carried away Part of the Wood which grew thereon: That the Petitioner had applied to the High Court of Chancery, and obtained an Injunction, to hinder the further cutting the ſaid Wood, but the Lord Altham, inſiſting upon his Privilege, the Sheriff refuſed to execute the ſaid Injunction. Mr. Barry's Petition.

And humbly praying, for other Reaſons therein contained, that their Lordſhips would give him ſuch Relief, as to them, in their great Juſtice and Wiſdom, ſhould ſeem meet, was preſented to the Houſe, and read.

Ordered, that the Conſideration of the ſaid Petition be adjourned till To-morrow Morning.

Mr. Roſs Fox, according to Order, attending at the Door, was called in, and after having been ſworn at the Bar, was ſhewn a Paper, importing a Protection, which was ſealed, and ſigned, "Haverſham, To William Henderſon," who depoſed, That the Paper ſhewed him was wrote by the Lord Altham, and that the Name, "Haverſham," was put thereunto by his Lordſhip, and that his Lordſhip wrote the ſame about two or three Years ago, and that Lord Altham Ld Altham's Petition.

Altham put the Seal thereunto, and that his Lordſhip owned the writing of the ſame this Morning: Being aſked, Upon what Account? anſwered, That it was done for Henderſon his Agent, and that he the ſaid Fox applied to his Lordſhip for the ſame; and that his Lordſhip granted that Protection now produced. Being aſked, How Henderſon came to be protected by Lord Haverſham? Anſwered, He believed it was becauſe Privilege of Parliament was not in Ireland. Being aſked, Whether any Money was given? Anſwered, that Mr. Henderſon gave him the Deponent Money, viz. two Moidores, and twelve Crowns; and that he the Deponent gave Credit for the ſame to his Lordſhip on Account. Says, That Henderſon was in the Marſhalſea at the Time of granting the ſaid Protection, and that no Obedience was paid thereto: And being aſked, Whether Henderſon had the Money paid back? Anſwered, No: Say'd, the Money to be given was propoſed by Henderſon, and that he told his Lordſhip, he ſhould have that Sum for granting the ſaid Protection; and ſay'd, his Lordſhip then told him, That he had a Power from Lord Haverſham to grant Protections in his Name. Being aſked, When he received the Protection from his Lordſhip? Anſwered, A Day or two after; and being then ordered to withdraw,

The Lord Altham, being then called upon, was heard in his Place, and ordered to withdraw.

Reſolved, that the Lord Altham, by granting 21 written Protections, none of which his Lordſhip gave the Houſe Satisfaction, was intitled to be protected, hath obſtructed the Courſe of Juſtice, proſtituted the Honour of the Houſe, and deſerves the Cenſure of the Houſe.

The Queſtion was put, that the Lord Altham for granting 21 Protections, contrary to the Reſolutions of this Houſe, be committed Priſoner to the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod? Lord Altham ordered into Cuſtody.

It was reſolved in the Affirmative.

IT is ordered by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod attending this Houſe, his Deputy or Deputies, do forthwith attach the Body of Arthur Lord Baron of Altham, and keep him in ſafe Cuſtody, until further Order of this Houſe; and this ſhall be a ſufficient Warrant on that behalf.

To William Fiſher, Eſq; Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod attending this Houſe, his Deputy or Deputies, and every of them.

The Earl of Barrymore, attending in his Place, according to Order, was called upon to give an Account of the Perſons by him protected; and his Lordſhip was pleaſed to declare, That thoſe protected by him were his Lordſhip's menial Servants.

Ordered, that the further Conſideration of the Protection granted by Lord Altham to William Henderſon, in the Name of Lord Haverſham, be adjourned till To-morrow Morning.

Ordered, that Mr. Roſs Fox do attend this Houſe To-morrow Morning.

Ordered, that the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod do bring the Lord Altham in Cuſtody to the Bar of this Houſe, To-morrow Morning. Lord Altham to attend in Cuſtody.

Adjourned till To-morrow Morning, at Eleven o'clock.

Lord Conway introduced.

Francis Conway, Eſq; being by Letters Patents, dated 16° Die Octobris, 11° Annæ Reginæ, created Baron Conway, was, in his Robes, introduced between the Lord Blayney and the Lord Tullamore, alſo in their Robes, the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod and Ulſter King of Arms, in his Coat of Arms, carrying his ſaid Letters Patents preceding his Lordſhip, preſented the ſame to the Lord Chancellor, on his Knee, at the Wool-ſack, who gave them to the Clerk of the Parliaments, which were read at the Table: His Writ of Summons was alſo read.

Then his Lordſhip came to the Table, and took the Oaths, and made and ſubſcribed the Declaration, and alſo took and ſubſcribed the Oath of Abjuration, purſuant to the Statutes; and was afterwards conducted to, and took his Place on, the Barons' Bench.

Lord Altham brought to Bar,

The Order for the Day being read, for the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod to bring the Lord Altham to the Bar of this Houſe, his Lordſhip was brought in accordingly.

and

And the Houſe proceeded to take into further Conſideration the Debate, in relation to the Protection granted by his Lordſhip to William Henderſon, in the Name of the Lord Haverſham.

examined.

His Lordſhip, at the Bar, declared, that he did not remember he ever gave the ſaid Protection, and believed and declared upon his Honour that the ſame was not his Handwriting, but that he had made Uſe of Lord Haverſham's Name in ſeveral of his Affairs, having a Power from his Lordſhip ſo to do, but not in that Manner, to the ſaid William Henderſon. Being aſked, Whether he ever made Uſe of Lord Haverſham's Name to ſign Protections? Anſwered, He did not; but that he had a Power to employ ſuch Perſons as were neceſſary for his Lordſhip's Service.

And a Paper being produced, ſigned, "Haverſham and Altham," importing a Protection to one Denis Caſſin, dated at Carrick-Duffe, which was ſerved upon J. Barry, Eſq;

The ſaid James Barry, being then ordered to be called in, was at the Bar ſworn, in order to give his Teſtimony in relation to the ſaid Protection, who depoſed, That he was ſerved with the ſaid Paper at Catherlough, about the 4th of April laſt, by a Country-fellow, who immediately after the Service of it went away. And being aſked, Whether the Original was ſhewed to him? Anſwered, That he did not ſee the Original.

The ſaid Barry then withdrew, and the ſaid Paper was read at the Table.

The Lord Altham, at the Bar, declared, That he wrote the Original, he being then ſick and incapable of attending Lord Haverſham's Affairs, and leſt they ſhould ſuffer by his Indiſpoſition, he appointed the ſaid Denis Caſſin his Lordſhip's Manager. His Lordſhip being aſked, Whether Lord Haverſham had any Eſtate in this Kingdom? Anſwered, That he had in three or four Counties.

His Lordſhip then withdrew in Cuſtody.

Previous Queſtion.

The previous Queſtion being put, Whether the Queſtion ſhall be now put, that the Attorney-General do proſecute Arthur Lord Baron of Altham, for putting the Hand and Seal of the Lord Haverſham, a Peer of Great Britain, to a Protection granted to William Henderſon, dated the 10th of September, 1718, without any Authority from the ſaid Lord Haverſham, and for taking a Sum of Money for the ſaid Protection?

It was reſolved in the Negative.

Ordered, that the further Conſideration of the Protection granted by the Lord Altham, in the Name of the Lord Haverſham, to William Henderſon, be adjourned till Thurſday Morning next.

Then the Houſe, according to Order, proceeded to take into Conſideration the Petition of James Barry, Eſq; and the ſame being read by the Clerk at the Table.

Ordered, that the ſaid Petition ſhall be, and it is hereby referred to the Lords' Committees for Privileges, who are to conſider thereof, and examine all Perſons concerning the ſame, and report their Opinion thereupon to the Houſe.

Their Lordſhips, or any three of them, for this Purpoſe, to meet To-morrow Morning, at Ten o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers.

Ordered, that the Lord Kingſton do attend the Service of the Houſe on Friday ſeven-night, and that the Clerk of this Houſe do ſignify the ſame to his Lordſhip.

Richard Geering, Eſq; and Mr. Luke Vipond, being by Order called in, were at the Bar ſworn, in order to give their Teſtimony before the Lords' Committees for Privileges, in the Caſe of James Barry, Eſq; Viſc. Mountgarrett's Pet.

Upon reading the Orders for the Day, the Petition of Edmond Butler, late upon the Roll of Peers of this Houſe, by the Name and Title of Edmond Lord Viſc. Mountgarrett, ſetting forth, That a Complaint being made to their Lordſhips, in 1715, of a Breach of Privilege committed againſt the Petitioner, their Lordſhips were pleaſed to appoint Lords' Committees to inquire, Whether Richard, late Lord Viſc. Mountgarrett, the Petitioner's Father, or any of his Anceſtors, under whom he derives his Honour, is or were outlawed of High-Treaſon, and whether ſuch Outlawries remain of Force?

That upon the Report from the ſaid Lords' Committees, it appeared to the Houſe, that the Outlawry of Richard Lord Viſc. Mountgarrett, for the Rebellion of 1641, was not reverſed, and your Petitioner's Name ordered to be expunged out of the Liſt of Peers of this Houſe.

That the Petitioner was not then able to offer ſuch Proofs of the Reverſal of the ſaid Outlawry, as he now is.

And humbly praying their Lordſhips to take the Premiſes into Conſideration and grant him a Re-hearing; was then read.

Proceedings thereon.

The Journal of this Houſe, the 15th of October, 1698, alſo the Journal of this Houſe of the 2d of December, 1699.

And alſo, the Report of the Lords' Committees, in relation to the Lord Viſc. Mountgarrett, in 1715, were ſeverally read.

Ordered, that the ſaid Petition be referred to a ſelect Committee, and that all the Lords preſent be the ſaid Committee; whoſe Lordſhips have Power to ſend for Perſons, Papers and Records, and report the Matter, as it appears to them, to the Houſe.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet immediately in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, and adjourn as they pleaſe.

The Houſe was reſumed: And Richard Butler, Eſq; being ordered to be called in, was at the Bar ſworn to give his Teſtimony before the ſaid Lords' Committees, in the Caſe of the Lord Viſc. Mountgarrett.

Then the Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure.

The Houſe was reſumed: And,

Report on Viſc. Mountgarrett's Pet.

The Lord Viſc. Strabane reported from the ſaid Lords' Committees, that they had been on Examination of the Matter to them referred; and upon the Teſtimony of Mr. Thady Dunn, it appeared to their Lordſhips, that Philip Savage, Eſq; in the Year 1687, was Clerk of the Crown of the Court of King's-Bench.

And the ſaid Dunn produced an Affidavit, ſworn by the ſaid Philip Savage before Godfrey Boate, Eſq; one of the Judges of the ſaid Court of King's-Bench, the 24th of November, 1716, which the Lords' Committees thought proper to lay before the Houſe, and is as follows, viz.

Philip Savage, Eſq; late Clerk of the Crown, and Prothonotary of his Majeſty's Court of King's-Bench in Ireland, came this Day before me, and made Oath on the Holy Evangeliſts, that he being in Trinity Term, which was in the Year 1687, and for ſeveral Years before and after, and till the Month of Auguſt, 1715, Clerk of the Crown, and Prothonotary of the ſaid Court of King's-Bench, did, purſuant to the annexed Rules of the ſaid Court of the 10th of June, 1687, cauſe Records of Judgment of Reverſal of two ſeveral Outlawries, grounded on Indictment of High-Treaſon, viz. one in the Co. Cork, and the other in the County Kildare, in the ſaid Kingdom, alledged to be committed by Richard (heretofore) Lord Viſc. Mountgarrett, in the Rebellion, which broke out in this Kingdom the 23d of October, in the Year of our Lord 1641, to be made up and inrolled; for which this Deponent did, about that time, receive the Fees due to him for making up and inrolling the ſame. And this Deponent is very ſure the ſame were made up, and inrolled accordingly, he having peruſed and often ſeen the ſaid Roll in the ſaid Office: And did, by Order of the Houſe of Peers of Ireland, cauſe Certificates of the ſaid Reverſal to be made out and certified to the Houſe of Peers, and to the King of Arms of the ſaid Kingdom, the firſt time the Parliament ſat in this Kingdom after the Rebellion, which was in the Year of our Lord 1688. And this Deponent further depoſeth, that though there were ſeveral Writs of Error brought to reverſe the Outlawries againſt ſeveral other Lords of the ſaid Kingdom, for the ſaid Rebellion of 1641, whoſe Heirs brought ſuch Writs of Error as aforeſaid, and obtained the like Rules for their Reverſal; yet they were not reverſed, nor the Records of their Reverſal made up and inrolled, by reaſon none of them required the ſame, ſo to be done, except the ſaid Lord Viſc. Mountgarrett, and Pierce (heretofore) Lord Viſc. Ikerrin, whoſe Records of Reverſal were made up and inrolled, as aforeſaid. And this Deponent further depoſeth, that ſeveral Records of his ſaid Office, being in the late Troubles in this Kingdom, removed to ſeveral Places to be for ſafe Cuſtody kept, and likewiſe being to this Deponent's certain Knowlege, ſeveral times carried by this Deponent's Deputy to the Houſe of Peers, and to the late Truſtees of Forfeitures in this Kingdom, purſuant to an Act of Parliament made in England, the ſaid Records of the Reverſal of the ſaid Lord Mountgarrett's ſaid Outlawries are by that means, as this Deponent verily believes, miſlaid.

P. Savage.

Jurº corº me 24° Die Novembris, 1716.

GODFREY BOATE.

The ſaid Dunn further depoſed, that the Body of the ſaid Affidavit was the hand-writing of the ſaid Savage, and that he ſaw him ſign the ſame, and that he the Deponent was by, when the ſaid Affidavit was ſworn before Mr. Juſtice Boate, and the ſaid Dunn alſo proved the Hand-writing of the ſaid Mr. Juſtice Boate.

The ſaid Dunn further depoſed, that there was a Motion made in the Court of King's-Bench upon the ſaid Savage's Affidavit, in Michaelmas Term 1716, as the ſaid Dunn believed, but no Rule was made thereon.

Mr. John Caldwell, having been alſo examined by the ſaid Lords' Committees, depoſed, that the ſaid Savage's Affidavit was an Original in the Court of King's-Bench, and that he took the ſame this Morning off the File.

The ſaid Caldwell alſo proved the Hand-writing of Mr. Juſtice Boate, and the ſaid Mr. Savage, to the ſaid Affidavit.

Richard Butler, Eſq; having been alſo examined before the ſaid Lords' Committees, depoſed, that he the Examinant was in the Court of King's-Bench, when the ſaid Court was moved by Sir Richard Levinge, then a Counſel at the Bar, upon the ſaid Savage's Affidavit, to have the Record made up of the Reverſal of the Outlawry of Richard, late Lord Viſc. Mountgarrett, in the Year 1641; but that Lord Chief Juſtice Whitſhead, upon Inquiry, whether the Attorney-General had been attended; and being informed, that he was not, the Court thought proper not to make any Rule thereupon: All which the Lords' Committees thought fit to lay before the Houſe, and is ſubmitted to your Lordſhips.

The Reſolution of this Houſe of the 16th of December, 1715, was then read.

Reſolution thereon.

Reſolved, that upon reading the Journals of this Houſe, and Conſideration had of the Report made by the Lords' Committees, to whom the Conſideration of the Petition of Edmond Butler, late upon the Roll of Peers of this Houſe, by the Name of Edmond Lord Viſc.

Viſc. Mountgarrett, was referred, it appears to this Houſe, that the two Outlawries of Richard Lord Viſc. Mountgarrett for the Rebellion, which began in this Kingdom on the 23d of October, 1641, are reverſed.

DISSENTIENT:

MIDLETON, Canc^r TULLAMORE.

The Order for expunging the Name of Edmond Lord Viſc. Mountgarrett out of the Liſt of Peers of this Houſe, of the 16th of December, 1715, being then read;

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that Ulſter King of Arms do forthwith inſert into the Liſt of Peers of this Houſe, the Name of the ſaid Edmond Lord Viſc. Mountgarrett. Viſcount Mountgarrett reſtored.

PRAYERS.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

The Earl of Cavan reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to draw up an Addreſs in favour of the Maſters in Chancery, an Addreſs drawn by them, which was read and agreed to, as follows, viz.

To his Grace CHARLES Duke of GRAFTON, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND.

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Grace,

Addreſs to Lord Lieutenant in behalf of Maſters in Chancery.

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, having conſidered that the Maſters in Chancery are conſtant Attendants on the Houſe of Lords; that the Salaries allowed to each of them on the Eſtabliſhment is but Sixty Pounds a Year, and their Fees inconſiderable, are humbly of Opinion, that their Salaries ſhould be augmented to One Hundred and Twenty Pounds a Year for each of them, to bear ſome Proportion to the Dignity, Truſt and Attendance of their Employments.

We therefore earneſtly requeſt your Grace, effectually to recommend this our humble Addreſs to his Majeſty.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait upon his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, with the ſaid Addreſs.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that this Houſe ſhall be put into a Committee To-morrow, at One o'clock, to take into Conſideration his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Speech from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament, the 12th of September laſt, and particularly that Part thereof, which relates to the erecting of a Bank in this Kingdom.

Ordered, that the ſaid Speech be referred to the ſaid Committee.

Ordered, that the Clerk of the Hanaper do, To-morrow Morning, lay before this Houſe, the original Fiant, on which the Commiſſion paſſed the Great Seal for taking in Subſcriptions for erecting a Bank.

Reſolved, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, that he will be pleaſed to give Directions for all the Papers in his Power, which paſſed in Great Britain, or in this Kingdom, in relation to the ſaid Bank ſo to be erected, or that Copies of them, be laid before this Houſe.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do attend his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, with the ſaid Addreſs.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Thanks of this Houſe ſhall be, and are hereby, given to the Lord Biſhop of Raphoe, for his Sermon preached before this Houſe, Yeſterday, at Chriſt-Church, and his Lordſhip is hereby deſired to print and publiſh the ſame.

Connor Bryan, Denis Bryan, Mary Bryan, Sarah Malone and William Butler, being by Order called in, and attending at the Bar to be ſworn, in order to give their Teſtimony before the Lords' Committees for Privileges, in the Caſe of Richard Power. Witneſſes ſworn.

And the Houſe being informed, that the ſaid Perſons could not ſpeak Engliſh;

The ſaid Oath was adminiſtered to them by William Power, who was by Order called in, and ſworn at the Bar for that Purpoſe.

Mr. Charles Donnellan, Committee-Clerk upon that Occaſion, was alſo ſworn true Interpretation to make between the ſaid Evidence, and the Lords' Committees for Privileges.

Ordered, that this Houſe ſhall be put into a Committee, To-morrow Morning, to take into further Conſideration, Heads of a Bill for the Amendment of an Act, intitled, An Act for the Preſervation of the Game, and the more eaſy Conviction of all ſuch as ſhall deſtroy the ſame.

Ordered, that the Report made on Saturday laſt, from the Lords' Committees, appointed to inſpect the Table of Fees, brought into this Houſe by the Clerk of the Council (which were depoſited in his Office, purſuant to an Act of Parliament) be read To-morrow Morning, and that this Houſe will then conſider thereof.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

Upon reading the Orders for the Day,

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, and put into a Committee, upon Heads of a Bill for the Amendment of an Act, intitled, An Act for the Preſervation of the Game, and the more eaſy Conviction of all ſuch as ſhall deſtroy the ſame; and, after ſome time ſpent therein,

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Earl of Cavan reported from the ſaid Committee of the whole Houſe, that they had gone through the ſaid Heads of a Bill, and that he was ready to report, when the Houſe ſhall pleaſe.

Ordered, that the ſaid Report be made To-morrow Morning.

Then the Houſe, according to Order, proceeded on the Conſideration of the Report from the Lords' Committees, appointed to conſider of the ſeveral Liſts of Fees, delivered in, to this Houſe by the Clerk of the Council.

And the ſame was read at the Table.

Ordered, that the ſaid Report be re-committed, and that the Lords' Committees do give their Opinion thereupon, in order that Heads of a Bill may be prepared for ſettling and eſtabliſhing the Fees of the ſeveral Officers in this Kingdom; the Lords the Judges to aſſiſt.

Meſſage with Papers from L^d Lieutenant

The Houſe being informed, that Mr. Maddocks, from the Secretary's Office, attended at the Door, he was by Order called in, and, purſuant to the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, delivered at the Bar, Copies of ſuch Papers as his Grace had in his Power, in relation to the erecting a Bank in this Kingdom, and then withdrew.

The Titles of the ſaid ſeveral Papers were read as follow, viz.

Titles of Papers.

N° 1. A Memorial of Lord Abercorn, and others, to the Lords Juſtices.

N° 2. The Petition of Lord Abercorn, and others, to his Majeſty.

N° 3. Order of Reference in Council, on the Petition of Lord Abercorn, and others.

N° 4. An Extract of the Duke of Grafton's Letter to the Lords Juſtices, dated the 8th Day of December, 1720.

N° 5. Lord Lieutenant's Report about the Bank.

N° 6. A Memorial of the Earl of Abercorn, and others, to the Lords Juſtices of Ireland.

N° 7. Lords Juſtices' Report to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, about the Bank, dated the 7th of January, 1720.

N° 8. King's Letter to the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, for a Commiſſion and Charter to erect a Bank there.

Ordered, that the ſaid ſeveral Papers be referred to the Committee of the whole Houſe, who are appointed to take into further Conſideration his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Speech, and particularly that Part thereof, which relates to the erecting a Bank in this Kingdom.

Then the Houſe, according to Order, was adjourned during Pleaſure, and put into a Committee thereupon; and, after ſome time ſpent therein,

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Tullamore reported from the ſaid Committee of the whole Houſe, that they had been in further Conſideration of the Matter to them referred, and had come to a Reſolution therein, which he was directed to report, when the Houſe will pleaſe to receive the ſame.

Ordered, that the Report be now made.

The Lord Tullamore then reported the ſaid Reſolution, as follows, viz.

Report, &c. concerning Bank.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the erecting a Bank in this Kingdom, or incorporating any Number of Perſons into a Body Politick for the Management and Government of ſuch Bank, may, in the preſent Circumſtances, be prejudicial and of extreme ill Conſequence to this Kingdom.

The

The Queſtion was put, Whether this Houſe ſhall agree with the ſaid Committee in this Reſolution?

It was reſolved in the Affirmative.

DISSENT.

WE whoſe Names are under-written, do diſſent from the foregoing Reſolution, for the following Reaſons:

1. That nothing relating to a Bank, having been moved in this Houſe, till Monday the 6th inſt. nor any of the Papers which were previous to his Majeſty's Letter and Commiſſion for taking Subſcriptions to a Bank being brought into the Houſe, till the Day in which this Reſolution paſſed, we conceive that the time was much too ſhort for the due Conſideration of a Matter of ſo great Importance.

2. We are of Opinion, that the Eſtabliſhment of a Bank upon ſufficient Securities, and under proper Regulations, would be highly for the Advantage and Increaſe of the Trade of this Kingdom, by furniſhing Money to the Merchant at a low Intereſt, and by receiving the Money lent in ſuch Sums and at ſuch Times as might be moſt for the Eaſe and Benefit of the Trader.

3. We are of Opinion, that a Bank, well eſtabliſhed, would much increaſe and improve the Manufactures of this Kingdom, by employing many thouſand more Hands in Work, which are now a Loſs and Burden to the Kingdom, and by a more ſpeedy and certain Sale of the Manufactures in the ſeveral Markets, which the Circulation of Paper-Credit could not fail to effect, where the Security for the ſaid Paper is undeniable.

4. That the current Species of Money in this Kingdom, being, in our humble Opinion, no way equal either to the carrying on the Trade, or paying the Rents, of the Kingdom, there ſeems to us to be an abſolute Neceſſity of a Paper-Credit to ſupply the Deficiency of Coin, which Credit we take to be far better ſecured by an incorporated Bank, properly limited by Act of Parliament, than as it is, in the Hands of a few Bankers, without Limitation, Security or Regulation.

5. That the ſtrongeſt and moſt material Objections made againſt a Bank, were taken from the Schedule annexed to his Majeſty's Commiſſion, all or moſt of which (if they had any Force in them) might have been removed by due Reſtrictions, in an Act of Parliament. But this Reſolution prevents the Houſe from coming into any Heads of a Bill, either to erect a Bank, or to put the Charter under due Reſtrictions.

6. Laſtly, That his Grace the Lord Lieutenant (out of a generous Concern for the true Intereſts of this Kingdom) having, with great Pains and Care, obtained this Favour for us; and his Majeſty, by the Advice of his principal Miniſters of State, and the Lords Commiſſioners of his Treaſury, having been graciouſly pleaſed to approve of the Bank, as a real Benefit to his Subjects of this his Majeſty's Kingdom, we have juſt Reaſon to fear, that the above Reſolution may prove an Obſtacle to any future Solicitations, that we may ſtand in need of, for the Advantage of this Kingdom.

PRAYERS.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

Upon reading the Orders for the Day,

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, and put into a Committee, upon Heads of a Bill for the Amendment of an Act, intitled, An Act for the Preſervation of the Game, and the more eaſy Conviction of all ſuch as ſhall deſtroy the ſame; and, after ſome time ſpent therein,

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Earl of Cavan reported from the ſaid Committee of the whole Houſe, that they had gone through the ſaid Heads of a Bill, and that he was ready to report, when the Houſe ſhall pleaſe.

Ordered, that the ſaid Report be made Tomorrow Morning.

Then the Houſe, according to Order, proceeded on the Conſideration of the Report from the Lords' Committees, appointed to conſider of the ſeveral Liſts of Fees, delivered in, to this Houſe by the Clerk of the Council.

And the ſame was read at the Table.

Ordered, that the ſaid Report be re-committed, and that the Lords' Committees do give their Opinion thereupon, in order that Heads of a Bill may be prepared for ſettling and eſtabliſhing the Fees of the ſeveral Officers in this Kingdom; the Lords the Judges to aſſiſt.

Meſſage with Papers from L$^{d}$ Lieutenant

The Houſe being informed, that Mr. Maddocks, from the Secretary's Office, attended at the Door, he was by Order called in, and, purſuant to the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, delivered at the Bar, Copies of ſuch Papers as his Grace had in his Power, in relation to the erecting a Bank in this Kingdom, and then withdrew.

The Titles of the ſaid ſeveral Papers were read as follow, viz.

Titles of Papers.

N° 1. A Memorial of Lord Abercorn, and others, to the Lords Juſtices.

N° 2. The Petition of Lord Abercorn, and others, to his Majeſty.

N° 3. Order of Reference in Council, on the Petition of Lord Abercorn, and others.

N° 4. An Extract of the Duke of Grafton's Letter to the Lords Juſtices, dated the 8$^{th}$ Day of December, 1720.

N° 5. Lord Lieutenant's Report about the Bank.

N° 6. A Memorial of the Earl of Abercorn, and others, to the Lords Juſtices of Ireland.

N° 7. Lords Juſtices' Report to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, about the Bank, dated the 7$^{th}$ of January, 1720.

N° 8. King's Letter to the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, for a Commiſſion and Charter to erect a Bank there.

Ordered, that the ſaid ſeveral Papers be referred to the Committee of the whole Houſe, who are appointed to take into further Conſideration his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Speech, and particularly that Part thereof, which relates to the erecting a Bank in this Kingdom.

Then the Houſe, according to Order, was adjourned during Pleaſure, and put into a Committee thereupon; and, after ſome time ſpent therein,

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Tullamore reported from the ſaid Committee of the whole Houſe, that they had been in further Conſideration of the Matter to them referred, and had come to a Reſolution therein, which he was directed to report, when the Houſe will pleaſe to receive the ſame.

Ordered, that the Report be now made.

The Lord Tullamore then reported the ſaid Reſolution, as follows, viz.

Report, &c. concerning Bank.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the erecting a Bank in this Kingdom, or incorporating any Number of Perſons into a Body Politick for the Management and Government of ſuch Bank, may, in the preſent Circumſtances, be prejudicial and of extreme ill Conſequence to this Kingdom.

The

The Queſtion was put, Whether this Houſe ſhall agree with the ſaid Committee in this Reſolution?

It was reſolved in the Affirmative.

DISSENT.

WE whoſe Names are under-written, do diſſent from the foregoing Reſolution, for the following Reaſons:

1. That nothing relating to a Bank, having been moved in this Houſe, till Monday the 6th inſt. nor any of the Papers which were previous to his Majeſty's Letter and Commiſſion for taking Subſcriptions to a Bank being brought into the Houſe, till the Day in which this Reſolution paſſed, we conceive that the time was much too ſhort for the due Conſideration of a Matter of ſo great Importance.

2. We are of Opinion, that the Eſtabliſhment of a Bank upon ſufficient Securities, and under proper Regulations, would be highly for the Advantage and Increaſe of the Trade of this Kingdom, by furniſhing Money to the Merchant at a low Intereſt, and by receiving the Money lent in ſuch Sums and at ſuch Times as might be moſt for the Eaſe and Benefit of the Trader.

3. We are of Opinion, that a Bank, well eſtabliſhed, would much increaſe and improve the Manufactures of this Kingdom, by employing many thouſand more Hands in Work, which are now a Loſs and Burden to the Kingdom, and by a more ſpeedy and certain Sale of the Manufactures in the ſeveral Markets, which the Circulation of Paper-Credit could not fail to effect, where the Security for the ſaid Paper is undeniable.

4. That the current Species of Money in this Kingdom, being, in our humble Opinion, no way equal either to the carrying on the Trade, or paying the Rents, of the Kingdom, there ſeems to us to be an abſolute Neceſſity of a Paper-Credit to ſupply the Deficiency of Coin, which Credit we take to be far better ſecured by an incorporated Bank, properly limited by Act of Parliament, than as it is, in the Hands of a few Bankers, without Limitation, Security or Regulation.

5. That the ſtrongeſt and moſt material Objections made againſt a Bank, were taken from the Schedule annexed to his Majeſty's Commiſſion, all or moſt of which (if they had any Force in them) might have been removed by due Reſtrictions, in an Act of Parliament. But this Reſolution prevents the Houſe from coming into any Heads of a Bill, either to erect a Bank, or to put the Charter under due Reſtrictions.

6. Laſtly, That his Grace the Lord Lieutenant (out of a generous Concern for the true Intereſts of this Kingdom) having, with great Pains and Care, obtained this Favour for us; and his Majeſty, by the Advice of his principal Miniſters of State, and the Lords Commiſſioners of his Treaſury, having been graciouſly pleaſed to approve of the Bank, as a real Benefit to his Subjects of this his Majeſty's Kingdom, we have juſt Reaſon to fear, that the above Reſolution may prove an Obſtacle to any future Solicitations, that we may ſtand in need of, for the Advantage of this Kingdom.

LIMERICK. BOYNE.
FERRARD. RALPH DROMORE.
STRABANE. FR. DOWN and CONNOR.

It being then propoſed to addreſs his Majeſty upon the ſaid Reſolution:

And long Debate thereupon;

Ordered, that the ſaid Debate be adjourned till To-morrow Morning.

Adjourned till To-morrow Morning at Eleven o'clock.

The Lord Viſc. Fitzwilliam reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs, purſuant to the Reſolution of this Houſe, Yeſterday, to be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant; that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which was read, and agreed to by the Houſe, and is as follows, viz.

To his Grace Charles Duke of Grafton, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland.

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Grace,

Addreſs to L$^{d}$ Lieutenant WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, gratefully reflecting on the many good Offices your Grace has done for us and this Kingdom, ſince your Acceſſion to the Chief Government of it, crave Leave to return our hearty Thanks for the Care you have employed, and always uſed, for the publick Advantage of his Majeſty's Subjects, by which you have further convinced the World, that you are every way qualified to diſpenſe his Majeſty's royal Goodneſs to us.

As we had Reaſon earneſtly to wiſh for your Grace's Return to the Adminiſtration of his Majeſty's Affairs in this Country, ſo, from our late Experience of your equal and juſt Conduct, we cannot but deſire a Continuance of thoſe happy Influences we have enjoyed, during the Time both of this and your former Government among us.

We think it a Juſtice to ourſelves to tell your Grace, that you have on all Occaſions ſhewed a noble and publick Spirit, free from any ſiniſter or private Views, having nothing in your Wiſh either derogatory from his Majeſty's Prerogative and Crown, or hurtful to the Intereſts, or encroaching on the Liberties, of his Majeſty's Subjects of this Kingdom.

His Majeſty, having been thus gracious to us, in chooſing one to repreſent his royal Perſon, adorned, in ſo great a Degree, with his own innate and Princely Virtues, his Prerogative is not only ſafe in the Wiſdom and Loyalty of your Grace; but his People too in the Steadineſs of a Patriot, from whom both his Majeſty and they, are to expect every thing that is good, every thing that is deſirable.

The two great Intereſts of his Majeſty's Crown and People being thus ſecured, we have nothing more to wiſh, but for a long Continuance of theſe Bleſſings under his Majeſty's moſt glorious and auſpicious Reign, and your Grace's happy and wiſe Adminiſtration.

Ordered, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait on his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, to know, what Time his Grace will pleaſe to appoint for this Houſe to attend him with the ſame.

The Houſe was reſumed: And his Grace Charles Duke of Grafton, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland, being arrayed in royal Robes, entered the Houſe, with the uſual Ceremonies of Grandeur; the Earl of Mount Alexander carrying the Sword of State, and the Earl of Kildare, the Cap of Maintenance; the Lord Colooney, eldeſt Son to the Earl of Bellamont, and two other Noblemens' Sons bearing the Train of the Robe of State: His Grace the Lord Lieutenant, making his Congé to the Throne, aſcended the ſame, and ſeated himſelf in the Chair of State under the Canopy; all the Lords Spiritual and Temporal ſtanding robed in their Places, uncovered till their Lordſhips took their Seats.

Commons ſent for.

The Lord Chancellor, kneeling, conferred with his Grace the Lord Lieutenant; and then, ſtanding on the right hand of the Chair of State, commanded the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod to ſignify to the Commons, that it was his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure they attend him immediately in the Houſe of Peers.

The Commons being come, they, with their Speaker, were conducted to the Bar, by the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod, with the uſual Ceremonies.

Then the Clerk of the Crown read the Titles of the Bills to be paſſed, as follow, viz.

Royal Aſſent given to 14 Bills,

1. An Act to oblige Ships coming from infected Places, more effectually to perform their Quarantine, and for the better preventing the Plague being brought from foreign Parts into this Kingdom.
2. An Act for the more effectual quieting and ſecuring Poſſeſſions, and preventing vexatious Suits at Law.
3. An Act to oblige Proprietors and Tenants of neighbouring Lands, to make Fences between their ſeveral Lands and Holdings.
4. An Act for the further Amendment of the Law, and for continuing and amending ſeveral Acts near expiring.
5. An Act for the further Amendment of the Laws, in relation to Butter and Tallow-Caſks, Hides and other Commodities of this Kingdom, and for preventing the Deſtruction of Salmon.
6. An Act for repealing Part of an Act, paſſed in the 10th Year of King William III. intitled, An Act for planting and preſerving Timber Trees and Woods, and alſo for giving further Encouragement to plant and preſerve Timber-Trees and Woods.
7. An Act for amending an Act, intitled, An Act for the better and more effectual apprehending and tranſporting Felons and others, and for continuing and amending ſeveral Laws made in this Kingdom, for ſuppreſſing Tories, Robbers and Rapparees, and and alſo to prevent the liſting of his Majeſty's Subjects, to ſerve as Soldiers in foreign Service, without his Majeſty's Licence.

8. An Act for continuing and amending an Act, intitled, An Act for the better regulating the Pariſh-Watches, and amending the High-ways in this Kingdom, and for preventing the Miſapplication of publick Money.

9. An Act for the ſupplying a Defect in an Act, paſſed in the 2d Year of the Reign of her late Majeſty Queen Anne, intitled, An Act for the Exchange of Glebes belonging to Churches in this Kingdom.

10. An Act for the better enabling of the Clergy, having Cure of Souls, to reſide upon their reſpective Benefices, and for the Encouragement of Proteſtant Schools within this Kingdom of Ireland.

11. An Act for reducing the Intereſt of Money to 7 ℔ Cent.

12. An Act for the better ſecuring the Payment of Bankers' Notes.

13. An Act for explaining and amending two ſeveral Acts, in relation to the publick regiſtering of all Deeds, Conveyances and Wills.

To theſe Bills, the Clerk of the Parliaments pronounced the royal Aſſent, ſeverally, in theſe Words, viz.

"Le Roy le veult."

14. An Act for amending an Act, intitled, An Act for erecting and continuing Lights in the City of Dublin, and the ſeveral Liberties adjoining, and alſo in the Cities of Cork and Limerick, and Liberties thereof.

To this Bill the Clerk of the Parliaments pronounced the royal Aſſent, in theſe Words, viz.

"Soit fait comme il eſt deſiré."

After which, his Grace the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to make a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, as follows, viz.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

IT is with the greateſt Satisfaction imaginable, that, at the Concluſion of this Seſſion of Parliament, I am to aſſure you, that his Majeſty is very ſenſible that you have, in the moſt dutiful Manner, complied with every thing which I had in command to recommend to you at the opening of it; and that your Zeal for his Majeſty's Government, and the Intereſt of your Country, has manifeſtly appeared in the many excellent Laws you have offered for the royal Aſſent: You cannot but obſerve with what uncommon Diſpatch the Bills tranſmitted to Great Britain have been returned back again to you.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I AM commanded by his Majeſty, to return you Thanks for the Supplies you have voted, and given with ſo remarkable a Chearfulneſs and Unanimity, a Conduct ſo full of Loyalty and Affection, moſt juſtly demands that they ſhould be applied with the utmoſt Frugality to the Purpoſes for which they were granted: The Augmentation of Pay to ſo conſiderable a Part of the Army, will be a memorable Inſtance both of Duty and Wiſdom, becoming this Houſe of Commons, as it will very much tend to the Defence of the Crown, and the Security of the Subject. I ſhall not be wanting on my Part, by all proper Methods and Regulations, to make it effectually anſwer thoſe great and deſirable Ends.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I PERSUADE myſelf, that the ſame Principles which have influenced your Actions in Parliament, will excite you to put the Laws in Execution, when you return to your ſeveral Countries. I think it incumbent upon me, particularly, to recommend to you, to keep a watchful Eye over the Papiſts, ſince I have Reaſon to believe, that the Number of Popiſh Prieſts is daily increaſing in this Kingdom, and already far exceeds what, by the Indulgence of the Law, is allowed.

I ſhould not diſcharge myſelf of the Duty I owe to his Majeſty, if I did not make a faithful Repreſentation to him of all your Proceedings; by which, at the ſame time, I ſhall do the greateſt Juſtice to your Behaviour: And I can never fail of ſeeking Occaſions to ſerve a Nation to the utmoſt of my Power, to which I have ſo many and ſo great Obligations.

Afterward the Lord Chancellor, by his Grace's Command, ſaid:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Parliament prorogued.

IT is his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure, that this Parliament be prorogued to Tueſday the 13th Day of February next; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to meet here on Tueſday the 13th Day of February next.

Ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Lord Kilmaine may be introduced by a Viſcount and a Baron.

Ld Kilmaine introduced.

The Hon. James O'Hara, Eſq; being by Letters Patents, dated 8° Die Februarii 8° Georgii Regis, created Lord Baron of Kilmaine, was, in his Robes, introduced between the Lord Viſc. Fitzwilliam and the Lord Santry, alſo in their Robes; the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod and Ulſter King of Arms, in his Coat of Arms, carrying the ſaid Letters Patents preceding his Lordſhip, preſented the ſame to the Lord Chancellor, on his Knee, at the Wool-ſack, who gave them to the Clerk of the Parliaments, which were read at the Table: His Writ of Summons was alſo read.

Then his Lordſhip came to the Table, and took the Oaths, and made and ſubſcribed the Declaration, and alſo took and ſubſcribed the Oath of Abjuration, purſuant to the Statutes; and afterwards was conducted to, and took his Place at, the lower end of the Barons' Bench.

No Lord to take Oaths, till, after he takes his Place.

Ordered that, for the future, no Lord of Parliament ſhall come to the Table to take the Oaths, upon his firſt Introduction into Parliament, till after he takes his Place in this Houſe.

Judge Parnell takes the Oaths, &c.

John Parnell, Eſq; having been appointed one of the Judges of his Majeſty's Court of Chief-Place, delivered his Writ, in the uſual Manner, and took the Oaths, and made and ſubſcribed the Declaration, and alſo took and ſubſcribed the Oath of Abjuration, purſuant to the Statutes.

Maſter in Chancery takes the Oaths, &c.

Alſo, James Reilly, Eſq; having been appointed one of the Maſters in Chancery, delivered his Writ, in the uſual Manner, and took the Oaths, and made and ſubſcribed the Declaration, and alſo took and ſubſcribed the Oath of Abjuration, purſuant to the Statutes.

Reading-Clerk ſworn.

And alſo, Richard Henry Keating, having been appointed Reading-Clerk to this Houſe, took the uſual Oaths, and made and ſubſcribed the Declaration, and alſo took and ſubſcribed the Oath of Abjuration, purſuant to the Statutes.

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that it was his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure, that this Houſe ſhall adjourn till Thurſday the 5th Day of September next.

The Queſtion for Adjournment being put;

The Houſe adjourned till Thurſday the 5th of September next, at Eleven o'clock in the Morning.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to robe.

The Houſe was reſumed: And

Ld Lieutenant preſent.

His Grace Charles Duke of Grafton, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland, being arrayed in royal Robes, entered the Houſe, with the uſual Ceremonies of Grandeur; the Earl of Meath carrying the Sword of State, and the Earl of Roſcommon, the Cap of Maintenance; two Sons of two Noblemen bearing the Train of his Grace's Robe: His Grace, making his Congé to the Throne, aſcended the ſame, and ſeated himſelf in the Chair of State under the Canopy; all the Lords Spiritual and Temporal ſtanding robed in their Places, uncovered, till their Lordſhips took their Seats.

Commons ſent for.

The Lord Chancellor, kneeling, conferred with his Grace the Lord Lieutenant; and then, ſtanding on the right hand of the Chair of State, commanded the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod to ſignify to the Commons, that it is his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure they attend him immediately in the Houſe of Peers.

And the Houſe of Commons being come, they, with their Speaker, were conducted to the Bar, with the uſual Ceremonies.

Then his Grace was pleaſed to make a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, as follows, viz.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

I AM fully perſuaded, from the Experience I have of your unſhaken Loyalty and Fidelity to his Majeſty's Perſon and Government, that I meet you with Hearts full of Joy for the timely Diſcovery of a moſt dangerous Conſpiracy, lately formed and carried on by inveterate Enemies to our Religion and Liberty, in order to ſubvert the happy Conſtitution of theſe Kingdoms. As the Providence of God has been moſt conſpicuous in this Event, ſo the inceſſant Care of his Majeſty, for the Good of his Subjects, and the vigilant Endeavours of his Miniſters, were moſt ſeaſonably exerted in that Juncture, for the Preſervation of all that is dear and valuable to us. Your Duty to the King, your Love of your Country, and your juſt Deteſtation of ſuch wicked and unnatural Contrivances, will, I am confident, animate you to convince the World, how ſenſible you are of the many Bleſſings you enjoy under a Prince, whoſe Juſtice is duly tempered with Mercy, and who makes the Laws, the only Rule of his Government. I am, on his Majeſty's Part, to aſſure you by his royal Commands, that the Proſperity of this Nation, both in Church and State, ſhall always be his peculiar Care, and that he has nothing more at Heart, than to make you a happy Proteſtant People.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

YOU cannot but be ſenſible, that the neceſſary Means uſed for preſerving you from two two dreadful Evils that lately threatned his Majeſty's Dominions, Rebellion and the Plague, muſt have occaſioned an extraordinary Expence, as well as ſome Interruption, to your Trade and Commerce: However, I have the Satisfaction to obſerve to you, that ſuch has been the Frugality of thoſe intruſted with the Adminiſtration of Affairs, that (notwithſtanding thoſe Exceedings) there appears to me no Occaſion to burden the Nation, on that Account, with any new Taxes.

The traitorous Projects that were near ripe for Execution the laſt Year, made it adviſeable to call for ſix Regiments of Foot from Ireland: And, as the Scene of Blood and Confuſion that was then opening in Great Britain muſt ſoon have reached this Country, his Majeſty could not more effectually ſhew his tender Regard for his Subjects, than by ordering that ſeaſonable Reinforcement for ſecuring Peace in that Part of his Dominions. The impending Danger was no ſooner, by GOD's Bleſſing, averted, but his Majeſty, upon the ſame Motive, cauſed that Body of Troops to return into this Kingdom.

I have directed the proper Officers to make up and prepare the ſeveral Accounts and Eſtimates, in order to be laid before you: And I have nothing in Command from his Majeſty to aſk, but ſuch neceſſary Supplies, as may ſupport the Eſtabliſhment, and ſecure the Tranquillity of the Kingdom.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I MAKE no Doubt, but you will improve this Opportunity of our Meeting, by preparing Heads for ſuch Laws as you ſhall judge to be yet wanting, for the Good of the Publick. I would particularly recommend to your Conſideration the finding out ſome Method for the better employing the Poor.

I cannot but think it a Matter deſerving your ſerious Attention, to provide ſome Laws for the further ſtrengthening the Proteſtant Intereſt of this Kingdom, particularly for preventing more effectually the eluding of thoſe in being, againſt Popiſh Prieſts; it being too notorious, that the Number of ſuch is of late greatly increaſed.

As for my own Part, I think myſelf obliged to promote, upon all Occaſions, the Welfare and Proſperity of this Country: There is no good Office I ſhall not rejoice to do for you. And I hope my earneſt Endeavours to this End, will beſt expreſs the grateful Remembrance I have of the many Inſtances of your kind Regards to me, when I had the Honour formerly to be ſent by the King amongſt you.

I make no Queſtion, but that I find you ſtill the ſame dutiful Subjects I left you: And you may depend upon me, for a faithful Report to his Majeſty, of your Behaviour and Affection.

Then his Grace the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to withdraw, and was attended as he entered, and the Commons returned to their Houſe.

The Lord Chancellor reported his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Speech, and the ſame being afterwards read by the Clerk:

Then it being propoſed to reſolve, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Majeſty, to expreſs particularly the Thanks of this Houſe, and their Gratitude to him, for his great Care in taking ſuch proper Meaſures, as (under GOD) have prevented the Execution of a wicked Conſpiracy, laid with Deſign to ſubvert our happy Conſtitution; and to declare our Reſentment againſt the Authors of ſo unnatural and deteſtable Practices; and to congratulate him upon the ſeaſonable Diſcovery of Projects ſo dangerous to the Peace of his Government; and to aſſure his Majeſty, of our unalterable Zeal to ſupport and defend him, to the utmoſt of our Power, againſt all his Enemies; and to make our dutiful Acknowledgments, for the gracious Aſſurance delivered to us from the Throne, That "the "Welfare and Proſperity of this Nation ſhall "always be his peculiar Care;" and to repreſent to his Majeſty, how great our Satisfaction is for his Goodneſs, in continuing to us his Grace the Duke of Grafton as Chief Governor, who has taken ſo equal Care, both of his Majeſty's Intereſt, and the Happineſs of this Country. Reſolution for Addreſs of Thanks.

And a Debate ariſing,

The Queſtion was put ſeverally to each Paragraph in the foregoing Reſolution, and, with an Amendment, agreed to by the Houſe: And all the Lords preſent were appointed a Committee to prepare an Addreſs upon the ſaid Reſolution, and report to the Houſe.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, at Ten o'clock, in the Robing-Room, and to adjourn as they pleaſe.

Ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that it be referred to the Lords' Committees, appointed to draw up an Addreſs to his Majeſty, to prepare and draw up an Addreſs of Thanks to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, for his Grace's Speech, delivered this Day from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament. Committee to draw Addreſs of Thanks to Ld Lieutenant.

Ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Speech, delivered this Day from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament, be forthwith printed and publiſhed; and that the Clerk of this Houſe do appoint the printing of the ſaid Speech. Lord Lieutenant's Speech to be printed.

PRAYERS.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

Order againſt providing Refreſhment.

Ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod, or any Perſon by him appointed, ſhall not, for the future, provide or diſtribute any Wine or other Refreſhment for the Uſe of this Houſe, till further Order of this Houſe.

Two Judges to attend.

Ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that this Houſe ſhall, at preſent, diſpenſe with the daily Attendance of all the Judges; and that two only be required daily to attend the Service of this Houſe.

The Lord Viſc. Fitzwilliam reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs, purſuant to the Reſolution of this Houſe of Thurſday laſt, to be preſented to his Majeſty; that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read and agreed to, as follows, viz.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

Addreſs to the King.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to expreſs to your Sacred Majeſty, our unfeigned Thanks for your Care, in taking ſuch proper Meaſures, as (by the good Providence of Almighty GOD) have prevented the Execution of a wicked Conſpiracy, which, if it had ſucceeded, would have deprived your loyal Subjects of the invaluable Bleſſing of your Majeſty's reigning over us, and in conſequence ſubverted our happy Conſtitution, and the beſt Religion that ever was eſtabliſhed among Mankind: A Conſpiracy, in itſelf ſo odious and ſo deteſtable, that it is not within our Power to declare Reſentments equal to the Enormity of it. We congratulate your Majeſty, upon ſo ſeaſonable a Diſcovery, which we hope will prevent all future Practices, dangerous to the Peace of your Majeſty's Government, and the Well-being of your Subjects. And we aſſure your Majeſty, that our unalterable Zeal is ſuch, that nothing ſhall be wanting within our Power to defend and ſupport your royal Perſon and Government, againſt all your Enemies.

We approach your Majeſty with our dutiful Acknowlegments, for the gracious Aſſurance given to us by your Majeſty's Command from the Throne, that the Welfare and Proſperity of this Nation, both in Church and State, ſhall always be your peculiar Care: This Inſtance of your royal Goodneſs lays us under ſuch Ties of Gratitude, as loyal Subjects will always think due, and be ready to pay to the beſt and moſt tender of Princes.

We are ſo ſenſible of the Merits of his Grace the Duke of Grafton, that we cannot in Juſtice forbear, on this Occaſion, repreſenting to your Majeſty, the Satisfaction we have in his being continued our Chief Governor, ſince he has ſo thoroughly convinced us, that your Majeſty's Intereſts, and the Happineſs of this Country, are equally his Wiſhes and Endeavours.

The Lord Viſc. Mountjoy alſo reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, for his Speech from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament; that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which was read, and, with an Amendment, agreed to by the Houſe, and is as follows, viz.

To his Grace CHARLES Duke of GRAFTON, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND.

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Grace,

Addreſs to L^d Lieutenant.

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, do, with the greateſt Pleaſure, again addreſs your Grace, to congratulate your Return to this Kingdom, in the high Station of Lord Lieutenant, and to return our heartieſt Acknowlegments, for your excellent Speech, delivered from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament.

The

The Experience we have already had of your mild and juſt Adminiſtration, gives us the faireſt Proſpect and greateſt Hopes of being made eaſy, under ſo prudent a Governor: And the repeated Aſſurances your Grace has been pleaſed to give us, that you will uſe your beſt Offices, in promoting the Good of this Country, leave us no Room to doubt of your good Intentions towards us.

Your Grace's propoſing to have ſuch Laws made, as may beſt provide for and employ the Multitudes of Poor that infeſt the whole Kingdom, and free us from the Crowds of Popiſh Prieſts, whoſe Numbers of late, contrary to Law, are greatly increaſed among us, is a clear Demonſtration, that the King's Service, and the Good of this Kingdom, are moſt in your Thoughts.

We ſhould be wanting to our Country and ourſelves, if we neglected laying hold of this Opportunity, of ſerving both: And therefore, we do aſſure your Grace, that we will apply ourſelves to prepare ſuch Heads of Laws, as may be moſt conducive to relieve us from the Difficulties we labour under; and ſhall at all Times readily concur in every thing elſe that can be thought of, towards ſtrengthening the Proteſtant Intereſt of this Kingdom, and ſhewing our ſincere Duty to the King, and Gratitude to your Grace.

It is ordered by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the ſaid Addreſſes be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, by the whole Houſe.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait upon his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, to know what time his Grace will pleaſe to appoint for this Houſe to attend him with the ſaid Addreſſes.

Ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that this Houſe ſhall be called over upon this Day Fortnight.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do write circular Letters to all the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, who have not been preſent this Seſſion of Parliament, to attend the Service of this Houſe on that Day.

Message from Commons for Conference.

A Message was brought from the House of Commons, by Dr. Trotter and others, Members of the said House, to acquaint this House, that the Commons desire a Conference with their Lordships, on the Subject-matter of the last Conference; and then the Messengers withdrew.

The Messengers from the Commons were again called in; and the Lord Chancellor acquainted them, that this House hath agreed to a Conference as desired, and hath appointed the same immediately in the Conference-Chamber.

Ordered, that the Managers at the last Conference be appointed Managers for this Conference.

Then the House was adjourned during Pleasure, and the Managers went to meet the Commons in the Conference-Chamber.

The Managers being returned,

The House was resumed: And his Grace the Lord Archbishop of Dublin reported to the House,

Report from Conference.

House, that he, with the other Lords, who were appointed Managers, went to the Conference-Chamber, and there met the Managers for the Commons, and that Mr. James Macartney, who managed the said Conference for the Commons, acquainted them, that the Commons had ordered them to deliver to their Lordships the Exemplification of a Patent, granted to William Wood, Esq; for the coining of Copper Half-pence and Farthings, and all Papers and Letters, relating to the said Copper Half-pence, which were laid before the Commons, together with the Schedule thereof, which were received by his Grace.

And the said Schedule was afterwards read at the Table, as follows, viz.

Schedule of Papers, &c. concerning Half-pence, &c.

THE Exemplification of a Patent, granted to William Wood, Esq; for coining and making of Copper Farthings and Half-pence.

PRAYERS.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

Upon reading the Orders for the Day,

Ordered, that the Report from the Committee of the whole House, upon Heads of a Bill for Maintenance and Execution of Pious Uses, be made on Monday next.

Then the House was adjourned during Pleasure, and put into a Committee, to take into further Consideration the State of the Nation; and after some time spent therein, Report on Wood's Half-pence, &c.

The House was resumed: And the Earl of Barrymore reported from the said Committee of the whole House, that they had been in Consideration of the Matter to them referred, and had come to several Resolutions therein, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the same were again read, and with an Amendment, agreed to by the House, nem. con. as follow, viz.

Resolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the Letters Patents, granted to William Wood, Esq; for the coining of Copper Farthings and Half-pence for this Kingdom, have been obtained in a clandestine and unprecedented Manner, and by a gross Misrepresentation of the State of this Kingdom.

Resolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the uttering in this Kingdom the Copper Half-pence and Farthings, coined by William Wood, would tend to the Diminution of his Majesty's Revenue, the Impoverishing of the People, and the Ruin of Trade.

Resolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that whatever Persons have confederated with the said William Wood, in procuring the said Letters Patents, are justly chargeable with a Design to enrich themselves, by the Impoverishment of this Kingdom.

Resolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that it would be for his Majesty's Service, and the great Good of this Kingdom, to reserve the coining of Half-pence and Farthings to the Crown, and not to entrust the same with any private Person, Body politick or corporate.

The House was moved, that an humble Address be presented to his Majesty on the said Resolutions, and the Debates of this House thereupon.

To which the House agreed.

PRAYERS.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

Upon reading the Orders for the Day, the House proceeded to the Call of the House.

The Lord Visc. Fitzwilliam reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Address, pursuant to the Resolutions of Thursday last, and the Debates of this House upon the State of the Nation, that they had prepared an Address accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, as follows, viz.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled.

May it please your most Sacred Majesty,

Address to the King, concerning Wood's Half-pence, &c.

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, are under the utmost Concern, to find that our Duty to your Majesty and our Country, indispensibly calls upon us to acquaint your Majesty with the ill Consequences, which will inevitably follow from a Patent for coining Half-pence and Farthings, to be uttered in this Kingdom, obtained under the Great Seal of Great Britain by one William Wood, in a clandestine and unprecedented Manner, and by a gross Misrepresentation of the State of this Kingdom.

We are most humbly of Opinion, that the Diminution of your Majesty's Revenue, the Ruin of our Trade, and impoverishing of your People, must unavoidably attend this Undertaking. And we beg Leave to observe to your Majesty, that from the most exact Inquiries and Computations we have been able to make, it appears to us, that the Gain to William Wood will be excessive; and the Loss to this Kingdom, by circulating this base Coin, greater than this poor Country is able to bear.

With the greatest Submission and Deference to your Majesty's Wisdom, we beg we may offer it as our humble Opinion, that the reserving the Coining of Half-pence and Farthings to the Crown, and the not intrusting it with any private Person, Body politick or corporate, will always be for your Majesty's Service, and the Good of your People in this Kingdom.

In Confidence, Sir, of your paternal Care of the Welfare of this Country, we beseech your Majesty, that you will be pleased to extend that Goodness and Compassion to us, which has so eminently shewed itself to all your other Subjects, who have the Happiness to live under your Protection and Government; and that you will give such Directions as may effectually free us from the terrible Apprehensions we labour under from this Patent, granted to William Wood.

And a Debate arising thereon,

The said Address was read, Paragraph by Paragraph.

An Amendment was proposed after the second Paragraph in the said Address as follows, viz.

'And give us Leave, Sir, upon this Occa'sion, to lay before our most gracious Sove'reign, that whosoever were the Persons that 'have confederated with the said William 'Wood in procuring the said Patent, are justly 'chargeable with a Design to enrich them'selves, whatsoever fatal Consequences to this 'Kingdom would manifestly ensue, if a timely 'Stop should not be graciously put thereunto 'by your Majesty.'

The Question was put, Whether this Amendment shall stand Part of the said Address?

It was resolved in the Negative.

Another Amendment being proposed after the said Paragraph, as follows, viz.

And

'And give us Leave, Sir, upon this Occa-
'ſion, to lay before our moſt gracious Sove-
'reign, that whoſoever were the Perſons that
'adviſed your moſt Sacred Majeſty to grant
'the ſaid Patent, are juſtly chargeable with a
'Deſign to enrich William Wood and his Part'ners and Abettors, whatſoever fatal Con-
'ſequences to this Kingdom would manifeſtly
'enſue, if a timely Stop ſhould not be gra-
'ciouſly put thereunto by your Majeſty!

The Queſtion was put, Whether this Amendment ſhall ſtand Part of the ſaid Addreſs?

It was reſolved in the Negative.

DISSENTIENT:

Proteſt. THE foregoing Amendments were grounded on a Reſolution of the Houſe, when a Committee was ordered to draw up an Addreſs on the Reſolutions and Debates of the Lords; and we conceive, that leaving out any Mention of Confederates, and of Adviſers (as above propoſed, but rejected) may give a Handle to Perſons diſaffected to his Majeſty's Government, to inſinuate, that his Majeſty, of himſelf, did order the ſaid pernicious Patent to be paſſed; a Thought we abhor, and believe was never intended by the Lords.

WILL. DUBLIN. STRABANE.

The ſaid Addreſs being then again read, the Houſe agreed thereunto, as it was reported by the Lords' Committees.

Ordered, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, by the whole Houſe, in order to have the ſame laid before his Majeſty.

Ordered, that the Lord Viſc. Fitzwilliam do wait upon his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, to acquaint him, that this Houſe hath agreed to an Addreſs to be preſented to his Majeſty, and to know when his Grace will pleaſe to be attended by this Houſe with the ſaid Addreſs.

The Lord Viſc. Fitzwilliam reported, that he had waited on his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, to know when he would pleaſe to be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Majeſty, and his Grace was pleaſed to appoint immediately at the Caſtle.

And the Lords went then in a Body to the Caſtle.

The Lord Archbiſhop of Tuam preſented to the Houſe, Heads of a Bill to enable Truſtees to ſell Part of the Eſtate of Murrogh Flaherty, a Minor, for Payment of the Debts of his Father, which were received and read.

Mr. Flaherty's Bill, committed.

Ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Conſideration of the ſaid Heads of a Bill ſhall be, and is hereby, referred to a ſelect Committee, and that all the Lords now preſent be the ſaid Committee; whoſe Lordſhips are to meet on Saturday Morning next, at Ten o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers; and two of the Judges are to aſſiſt their Lordſhips, to adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

And Walter Joyce, being, by Order, called in, was ſworn at the Bar, in order to give his Teſtimony before the ſaid Lords' Committees.

Ordered, that Leave be given to bring in Heads of a Bill for explaining and amending an Act, intitled, An Act for the real Union and Diviſion of Pariſhes; and that the Lord Biſhop of Derry do prepare and bring in the ſame.

Ordered, that the Lord Viſc. Maſſareene have the Leave of this Houſe to go into the Country for three Weeks, leaving his Proxy.

Ordered, that the Lord Baron of Altham have the Leave of this Houſe to go into the Country for ten Days, leaving his Proxy.

Report on Breach of Privilege.

THE Lord Archbiſhop of Tuam reported from the Lords' Committees for Privileges, that they had taken into Conſideration a Breach of Privilege, complained of to have been committed by Daniel Hintz and others, and do find, by the Examination of John Ennis, Sub-Sheriff of the Co. Dublin, that a Replevin, dated the 21ſt of September, was granted to Daniel Hintz, for a Bay Gelding, and a Bond taken to indemnify the Sheriff, in which Lewis Jones was bound: And, by the Examination of Thomas Carroll, it appeared, that the ſaid Horſe was put into his Cuſtody by Mr. Moſely, about the 1ſt of September laſt, and that he ſent the ſame to graze upon the Demeſne Lands of the Lord Fitzwilliam, where he had taken the After-Graſs of the ſaid Lands, and that the ſaid Horſe was removed out of a Field in the ſaid Demeſne, without his Privity, though the Gate was locked; and that when the ſaid Carroll went to the ſaid Field, he found the Stones of the Wall about the ſaid Gate thrown down.

That by the Examination of Simon Johnſton, who is employed by the Lord Fitzwilliam to look after ſaid Lands, it appeared, that on the 23d of September laſt, Daniel Hintz, one Jones and another, whom he did not know, went into a Field belonging to the Lord Fitzwilliam, and there caught a Bay Horſe, which they brought to the Gate of the ſaid Field; but the ſame being locked, they endeavoured to force him over the Wall adjoining to the ſaid Gate, which the Horſe refuſing to take, they pulled down the Stones of the ſaid Wall, and brought out the ſaid Horſe. This was alſo confirmed by the Examination of one Thomas Talbot; and it appeared, by the further Examination of the ſaid Carroll, that the ſaid Hintz was told, that the Lord Fitzwilliam would not take it well to have a Horſe taken off his Ground in ſuch a Manner. To which the ſaid Hintz replied, with an Oath, That if the Horſe had been in his Lordſhip's Parlour, they would have done the ſame, or Words to that Effect.

It alſo appeared, by the Examination of Edmond Moor, that he the ſaid Moor executed the ſaid Replevin, for which he had 3*s*. 4*d*. And that he heard the ſaid Land belonged to the Lord Merryon; and being ſhewed the Replevin, the Execution of which was directed to Edward Moor, was aſked, How he, whoſe Name was Edmond, came to execute the ſame? He ſaid, He believed it was by Miſtake, and if that it had been directed to William Moor, he would not have executed the ſame: And ſays, that Daniel Hintz and Patrick Jones were in the Field at the Time the ſaid Horſe was taken. It appeared, by the Examination of the ſaid Patrick Jones, that he was preſent at the Execution of the ſaid Replevin.

It alſo appeared to the Committee, on Examination of Lewis Jones, that he the ſaid Jones was upon my Lord Fitzwilliam's Ground on Saturday the 21ſt of September, in company with the ſaid Daniel Hintz, who ſhewed him the ſaid Horſe; and that he procured a Replevin for him, and gave Bond to indemnify the Sheriff; and that he heard Hintz ſay, That if the Horſe had been in my Lord Fitzwilliam's Parlour, he would have taken him from thence.

Upon which their Lordſhips came to the following Reſolutions, viz.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that Patrick Jones is guilty of a Breach of Privilege.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that Lewis Jones is guilty of a Breach of Privilege.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that Edmond Moor is guilty of a Breach of Privilege.

Their Lordſhips take Leave to inform the Houſe, that Daniel Hintz, being already ordered to be taken into Cuſtody for his Contempt, in not appearing upon Summons before their Lordſhips, they have not come to any Reſolution upon the ſaid Hintz.

Which ſaid Report being read and agreed to;

L. Jones, &c. ordered into Cuſtody.

IT is ordered by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod attending this Houſe, his Deputy or Deputies, do forthwith attach the Bodies of the ſaid Lewis Jones, Patrick Jones and Edmond Moor, and keep them in ſafe Cuſtody, until further Order of this Houſe; and this ſhall be a ſufficient Warrant on that behalf.

To Capt. Francis Bogguſt, Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod attending this Houſe, his Deputy or Deputies, and every of them.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

Complaint on Breach of Privilege.

A Complaint being made to the Houſe, that Richard Jones, a Wood-Ranger, and Servant to the Right Hon. the Lord Viſc. Mayo, a Peer of this Realm, was arreſted, and has been detained in Cuſtody, in the Gaol of Ballinrobe, ſince the 23$^{d}$ of October laſt, by John Clarke and Patrick Clarke, within the Time, and contrary to the Privilege of Parliament;

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the ſaid Matter of Complaint be, and is hereby, referred to the Lords' Committees for Privileges, to conſider thereof, and hear ſuch Perſons concerning the ſame, as they ſhall think fit, and report their Opinion thereupon to the Houſe.

The Lord Archbiſhop of Tuam reported from the Lords' Committees, to whom the Conſideration of Heads of a Bill to enable William Longfield of Kilbride in the Co. Meath, Eſq; and Robert Longfield of Caſtlemary in the Co. Cork, Eſq; to make Fee-Farms or Leaſes for Lives renewable for ever, of the ſeveral Lands and Tenements herein after-mentioned, by and with the Conſent of Edward Euſtace of Caſtlemore in the Co. Catherlough, Eſq; was committed; that they had gone through the ſaid Heads of a Bill, and had the Aſſiſtance and Opinions of Mr. Juſtice Caulfeild and Mr. Juſtice Gore thereon; and alſo had examined the Parties concerned in the Conſequences of the ſaid Heads of a Bill, who have conſented thereunto, and have agreed to the ſame, with ſome Amendments, which were read twice, and agreed to.

Heads of Meſſ. Longfield's, &c. Bill, agreed to;

The ſaid Heads of a Bill were then read a third time.

Ordered, that the Lord Archbiſhop of Tuam do lay the ſaid Heads of a Bill before his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, and deſire the ſame may be tranſmitted into Great Britain in due Form. and ſent to L$^{d}$ Lieutenant

The Lord Viſc. Strangford reported from the Lords' Committees for Privileges, who had, in Conſideration the Complaint made by the Lord Kingſton againſt Edward Raymond; that they had examined the ſame, and had come to Reſolutions thereupon, which he was ready to report, when the Houſe ſhall pleaſe to receive the ſame.

A Petition of Edward Raymond being then offered to the Houſe for his Juſtification; and praying to be heard by his Counſel, at the Bar of this Houſe, againſt the ſaid Matter of Complaint, was received and read. Mr. Raymond's Pet.

Ordered, that the Report from the Lords' Committees for Privileges, on the Complaint of the Lord Kingſton, be now read:

And the Lord Viſc. Strangford reported that their Lordſhips, after having examined Mr. Redmond Barry and Florence M'Carthy, touching the ſame, are come to the following Reſolutions, viz. Report on Lord Kingſton's Complaint.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the printed Paper, intitled, "Mr. Raymond's Caſe, in Defence of himſelf," publiſhed by Edward Raymond, is falſe, ſcandalous and malicious, highly reflecting on the Right Hon. the Lord Baron of Kingſton, and the Privilege of the Peerage of this Kingdom.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the ſaid Edward Raymond ſhall, ſhall, for his ſaid Offence, be taken into the Cuſtody of the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod attending this Houſe.

And Debate thereupon;

The Statute of Richard II. Chap. the 5th, was by Order read.

Mr. Raymond to be heard by Counſel.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that this Houſe will hear the ſaid Edward Raymond, by Counſel, at the Bar, againſt the ſaid Matter of Complaint, according to the Prayer of his Petition, on the firſt Monday after the Meeting of this Houſe, after the Receſs.

Ordered, that Redmond Barry, Eſq; and Florence M'Carthy, be ſummoned to attend the Houſe upon that Day, to be examined in relation to the ſaid Complaint.

And alſo, ordered, that John Redwood, Robert Rieves and Pierce Donovan, be ſummoned to attend at the Bar of this Houſe on that Day.

Clerk of Parliaments has Leave to go into Great Britain.

Ordered, that Enoch Sterne, Eſq; Clerk of the Parliaments, have the Leave of this Houſe to go into Great Britain for three Weeks, upon extraordinary Occaſions.

Heads of Bill for Church Lands.

The Lord Biſhop of Clonfert, according to Order, reported from the Committee of the whole Houſe, to whom the Conſideration of Heads of a Bill for explaining and amending an Act for the Preſervation of the Inheritance, Rights and Profits of Lands belonging to the Church and Perſons eccleſiaſtical, were committed; that they had gone through the ſaid Heads of a Bill, and agreed thereunto, with ſome Amendments, which were read, and agreed to by the Houſe. agreed to,

The ſaid Heads of a Bill were then read a third time: And a Clauſe being propoſed to be added to the ſaid Heads of a Bill;

The Queſtion was put, Whether the ſaid Clauſe ſhall ſtand Part of the ſaid Heads of a Bill?

It was reſolved in the Negative.

Ordered, that the Lord Biſhop of Clonfert do lay the ſaid Heads of a Bill before his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, and deſire his Grace will pleaſe to tranſmit the ſame into Great Britain, in due Form. and ſent to Ld Lieutenant Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do write circular Letters to all the Lords of this Houſe, who have not attended the Service of this Houſe this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, and acquaint their Lordſhips, that this Houſe do require their Attendance under the higheſt Diſpleaſure of the Houſe, on the firſt Meeting of this Houſe after the Receſs. Lord Chancellor to write to Lords.

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that it was his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure, that this Houſe ſhould adjourn itſelf to Thurſday the 12th Day of December.

Adjourned till Thurſday the 12th of December next, at Ten o'clock in the Morning.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that his Grace the Lord Lieutenant had received his Majeſty's moſt gracious Anſwer to the Addreſs of this Houſe of the 28th Day of September laſt, which he directed him to lay before this Houſe, and he read the ſame in his Place, as follows, viz.

GEORGE R.

" HIS Majeſty is very much concerned to " ſee that his granting the Patent for coining " Half-pence and Farthings, agreeable to the " Practice of his royal Predeceſſors, has given " ſo much Uneaſineſs to the Houſe of Lords. " And if there have been any Abuſes com- " mitted by the Patentee, his Majeſty will give " the neceſſary Orders for inquiring into, and " puniſhing, thoſe Abuſes; and will do every " thing that is in his Power, for the Satiſ- " faction of his People." King's Anſwer, concerning Wood's Half-pence, &c.

And

And the ſame was afterwards read by the Clerk at the Table, and a Debate thereupon.

The Standing Order of this Houſe, N° 78, was then read.

Alſo, the third Reſolution agreed to by this Houſe the 26th of September, on a Report of the State of the Nation.

And alſo, the Addreſs of this Houſe of the 28th of September, to his Majeſty, upon the ſaid Reſolutions, were ſeverally read.

Committee to prepare Addreſs of Thanks to the King.

The Queſtion was then put, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Majeſty, to return him the hearty and ſincere Thanks of this Houſe, for his moſt gracious Anſwer to the Addreſs of this Houſe of the 28th of September laſt, in relation to the Patent, granted for the coining of Copper Half-pence and Farthings for this Kingdom.

It was reſolved in the Affirmative.

And the Lords under-named were appointed a Committee, to prepare an Addreſs upon the ſaid Reſolution; and all Lords who come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein, viz.

Report on Ld Tyrawly's Complaint.

The Ld Viſc. Strangford reported from the Lords' Committees for Privileges, that they had taken into Conſideration the Complaint of the Ld Tyrawly, againſt John Elwood, Richard Johnſton and Dowchy O'Ladan, for entering on Part of the Lands of Cloghlear in the Co. Mayo, belonging to his Lordſhip, and which were demiſed by him to Darby King; and for driving the ſaid King's Cattle off the ſaid Lands in the Month of October laſt, to the Pound of Iſlandmore in the ſaid County: And that, by the Teſtimony of Edward Hendy, after having been ſworn at the Bar and examined before the ſaid Lords' Committees, it appeared to their Lordſhips, that John Elwood, Richard Johnſton and Dowchy O'Ladan, were ſeverally ſummoned the 12th Day of November laſt, to appear before their Lordſhips; but that none of them have appeared, in Contempt of the ſaid Summons, before their Lordſhips.

Which Report being read, and agreed to;

Elwood, Johnſton and O'Ladan ordered into Cuſtody.

IT is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Serjeant at Arms attending this Houſe, his Deputy or Deputies do forthwith attach the Bodies of the ſaid John Elwood, Richard Johnſton and Dowchy O'Ladan, for their Contempt, and keep them in ſafe Cuſtody, until further Order of this Houſe; and this ſhall be a ſufficient Warrant on that behalf.

To Thomas Carter, Eſq; Serjeant at Arms attending this Houſe, his Deputy or Deputies, and every of them.

The Earl of Kildare reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Majeſty, purſuant to the Reſolution of this Houſe of Thurſday laſt, upon his Majeſty's moſt gracious Anſwer; that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which was read, and with an Amendment, agreed to by the Houſe, and is as follows, viz.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

Addreſs to the King.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, do, with more than ordinary Pleaſure, return your Majeſty our hearty and ſincere Thanks for your moſt gracious Anſwer to the Addreſs of this Houſe, in relation to the Patent for coining Copper Half-pence and Farthings, for this your loyal Kingdom of Ireland.

As it has been the diſtinguiſhed Glory of of your Majeſty's Life, to be univerſally eminent for your ſteady Adherence to your Word, and your paternal Care of your People; ſo neither we nor any of your Majeſty's Subjects, after ſo many repeated Inſtances of both, can remain under any Apprehenſion of ſuffering, from the great Evils that, without your Majeſty's gracious Interpoſition, would undoubtedly ariſe from the ſaid Patent.

Such, great Sir, is our intire Confidence in, and Reliance upon, your royal Majeſty, that we are under an abſolute Perſuaſion, that we ſhall be always happy and ſafe in the Aſſurances you have been pleaſed to give us, that your Majeſty will do every thing in your Power for the Satisfaction of your People of this Kingdom.

Ordered, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe.

Ordered, that the Earl of Kildare do wait upon his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know, what Time his Grace will pleaſe to appoint for this Houſe to attend him with the ſame.

Concerning Abſence of Civil Officers.

Ordered, that this Houſe ſhall, on Saturday next, be put into a Committee to take into Conſideration the Grievances which have of late ariſen to this Kingdom, by the Abſence of Officers neceſſary to the carrying on the Buſineſs and Juſtice thereof.

Ordered, that the Clerk of this Houſe do deliver to the Lord Altham, a Letter of Attorney from the Lord Haverſham to his Lordſhip, depoſited by Order of this Houſe.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, and put into a Committee, upon an ingroſſed Bill, intitled, An Act for explaining and amending an Act, intitled, An Act for the better Maintenance of Curates within the Church of Ireland; and, after ſome time ſpent therein,

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Biſhop of Clogher reported from the ſaid Committee of the whole Houſe, that they had gone through the ſaid Bill, and have agreed to the ſame, without any Amendment; and alſo compared the ſame with the original Tranſmiſs, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, with which it exactly agrees.

Ordered, that the ſaid Bill be now read a third time.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the aforeſaid ſeveral Rolls and Papers be, and the ſame are hereby, referred to the ſaid Lords' Committees.

It is further ordered, that Richard Malone, Eſq; and the ſaid Richard Geering, Thomas Carter, Cuſack Baldwin, William Cooper and Jervis Keron, be called in and ſworn at the Bar of the Houſe, true Anſwer to make unto all ſuch Queſtions as ſhall be demanded of them by the ſaid Lords' Committees. Witneſſes ſworn.

And they were accordingly ſworn.

Then the Houſe, according to Order, adjourned itſelf during Pleaſure, and reſolved itſelf into a Committee of the whole Houſe, to take into their Conſideration the Grievances, which have of late ariſen to this Kingdom, by the Abſence of Officers neceſſary to the carrying on the Buſineſs and Juſtice thereof; and, after ſome time ſpent therein, Committee thereon.

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Archbiſhop of Tuam reported from the ſaid Committee, to whom the Conſideration of the ſaid Matter was committed, that they had met and made ſome Progreſs in the Matter to them referred, and deſired Leave to ſit again.

Reſolved, that this Houſe will, on Monday Morning next, put itſelf into a Committee of the whole Houſe, to take the ſame into their further Conſideration.

Adjourned till Monday Morning next, at Eleven o'clock.

PRAYERS.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

Upon reading the Order for the Day,

Committee on Abſence of Civil Officers

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, and put into a Committee, to take into further Conſideration the Grievances, which have of late ariſen to this Kingdom by the Abſence of Officers neceſſary to the carrying on the Buſineſs and Juſtice thereof; and after ſome time ſpent therein,

The Houſe was reſumed: And his Grace the Lord Archbiſhop of Tuam preſented to the Houſe, a Report and ſeveral Reſolutions agreed to by the ſaid Committee of the whole Houſe; and, by reaſon of the Defect of his Grace's Eyes, the ſame were ordered to be read by the Clerk at the Table: And the ſaid Report and Reſolutions were read by the Clerk; and, with ſome Amendments, agreed to by the Houſe, and are as follow, viz.

My Lords,

Report. THE Lords' Committees of the whole Houſe, appointed to take into their Conſideration the Grievances which of late have ariſen to this Kingdom by the Abſence of Officers, neceſſary to the carrying on the Buſineſs and Juſtice thereof, and who were likewiſe directed to inquire into the Reaſons and Grounds of ſuch Abſence; and alſo to report the Facts as they ſhould appear before their Lordſhips, ſpecially; and alſo to whom the ſeveral Rolls and Papers brought in by the Clerk of the Rolls and others were committed, have met and conſidered thereof.

It appears to them, by a Liſt brought in by William Cooper, Deputy Regiſter of the High Court of Chancery, purſuant to your Lordſhips' Orders, that Sir Charles Porter, Knight, being Lord High Chancellor of Ireland, went into England, by Licenſe, the 4th Day of November, 1693; and returned again the 2d of June, 1694.

That John Methuen, Eſq; being Lord High Chancellor of Ireland, went into England, about the 11th of December, 1697; and returned the 15th of Auguſt, 1698: That the ſaid John Methuen, whilſt Lord Chancellor, went into England about the Beginning of December, 1699; and returned about the 15th of June, 1700: That the ſaid Lord Chancellor Methuen went into England the 20th of January, 1700; and returned the 7th of July, 1701: That the ſaid Lord Chancellor Methuen went into England in December, 1701; and the Court of Chancery continued in Commiſſion till the 6th of Auguſt, 1703, at which Time Sir Richard Cox, Knight, was ſworn Lord Chancellor.

It appears, that the preſent Lord Chancellor went into Great Britain, by Licenſe for the diſpatching certain private Affairs of his own, about the 7th of Auguſt, 1716, and returned the 9th of November, 1716: That his Lordſhip alſo went into Great Britain, by his Majeſty's Command, to attend his royal Perſon in Great Britain, the 4th of November, 1718; and returned the 20th of April, 1719: That his Lordſhip, upon Application, as he affirms, to the Lord Lieutenant, for a Licenſe of Abſence for the Recovery of his Health, and having obtained ſuch Licenſe, in which a Command was inſerted for his Attendance upon the King's Perſon at St. James's, again went into Great Britain, the 18th or 19th of February, 1721; and returned the 12th of June, 1723: And the Lord Chancellor being aſked, If it was not Part of his Duty to adviſe the King for his Service and the Good of his People; and, Whether he had laid before his Majeſty, the Inconvenience that would attend the King's Service, and the Good of his People (by his Abſence required on the 3d of February, 1721, by a Licenſe from his Majeſty) anſwered, That he had not at that time. But ſaith, That his Intention in ſaying he had not laid before his Majeſty, the Inconveniencies which would attend the King's Service and the Good of his People in the Queſtion contained, meant, That he did not, in February, 1721, adviſe the King of any Inconvenience that might attend his Majeſty and the Kingdom, by his going out of it at that time, he being in that State of Health, which neceſſarily required his going out of the Kingdom for the Preſervation of his Life, ſo as not to admit of a Return of his Majeſty's further Pleaſure: But adds, That in Auguſt, 1722, after he had in ſome Meaſure, by the Uſe of the Bath Waters, and other Methods, recovered ſome Uſe of his Limbs, he returned to London, and acquainted the Secretaries of State with his being in ſuch a Condition, as to be able to return into Ireland: And that he was ready ſo to do on the Signification of his Majeſty's Pleaſure. And that they, or one of them, acquainted him, That it was his Majeſty's Pleaſure, that he ſhould continue longer in England till his Majeſty ſhould give further Directions, or Words to this Effect. And his Majeſty ordered him a further Licenſe of Abſence for that Purpoſe, bearing Date the 4th Day of October, 1722.

For what Reaſon any of the ſaid Lords Chancellors, at any of the Times before-mentioned, went out of this Kingdom, appears no farther unto this Committee; ſaving only, that the laſt Time the preſent Lord Chancellor was abſent, it appears to have been in Obedience to his Majeſty's Commands, under his Privy Signet and Sign manual, whereby the ſaid Lord Chancellor was required to attend his Majeſty at St. James's, as the ſame is contained and expreſſed in his Majeſty's ſeveral Letters, directed to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant; the firſt, bearing Date February the 3d, 1721; the other, October the 4th, 1722; and another, to the Lords Juſtices, dated the 29th of December, 1722, which recites, that his Lordſhip did, upon Signification of his Majeſty's royal Will and Pleaſure, and in Obedience to the ſame, attend his royal Perſon, at his Court at St. James's; and his Majeſty did, by the ſaid Letter, for his ſpecial Service, command and require his Lordſhip's further Attendance, until his Majeſty ſhould ſignify his Pleaſure to the contrary.

It alſo appears to the ſaid Lords' Committees, that during the Abſence of every Lord Chancellor herein before-mentioned, Commiſſioners were appointed under the Great Seal of Ireland, as well for the Cuſtody of the Great Seal as for hearing and determining Cauſes in Chancery.

It appears, by the Oaths of Richard Geering, Eſq; one of the Six-Clerks, and the ſaid William Cooper, who were ſeverally ſworn at the Bar of this Houſe, that in Hilary Term, 1721, or immediately after, the preſent Lord Chancellor, before his Departure, heard and determined all Cauſes and Motions then depending in the High Court of Chancery, that were ripe for hearing.

It

It appears by the Oath of the ſaid William Cooper, that during the ſaid Lord Chancellor's Abſence, the Judges and others, who were in Commiſſion for hearing of Cauſes in Chancery, conſtantly ſat to hear all common Motions, and make interlocutory Orders.

It appears, by the Oath of the ſaid Mr. Cooper, that during the Abſence of the preſent Lord Chancellor, one hundred and eighty-nine Cauſes, and no more, were ready for hearing in the High Court of Chancery, that of theſe, one hundred and two were determined by the ſaid Commiſſioners; of which four only were, upon Petition, re-heard, by the Lord Chancellor, at his Return; and that in every one of the ſaid Cauſes, ſo re-heard, the Decrees made by the ſaid Commiſſioners were affirmed.

That eighty-ſeven of the ſaid one hundred and eighty-nine Cauſes, were ſtill depending at the time of the Lord Chancellor's Return into this Kingdom; Part of which Cauſes, by the common Methods of the Court, might have been determined in Hilary Term, 1722, and the reſt in Eaſter Term following, and not ſooner.

It appears alſo, by the Oath of the ſaid Mr. Cooper, that five Cauſes, which had been determined by the Lord Chancellor, before his Departure, were ſet down to be re-heard; but were not actually re-heard, until the ſaid Lord Chancellor's Return.

It appears, by the Oath of the ſaid Richard Geering, that, by the end of Trinity Term, 1723, or very ſoon after, all theſe Cauſes, and all others in the High Court of Chancery then depending, and ready for hearing, were actually heard and determined by the Lord Chancellor: And that about a Fortnight after the ſaid Trinity Term, the ſaid Lord Chancellor, in open Court, deſired to know if any Cauſe or Motion remained, which was ready for hearing, for that he was ready to hear the ſame: But was thereupon told by the Practitioners, That there were none, and that he the ſaid Richard Geering was apprehenſive, that the Labour, which the Lord Chancellor underwent, in diſpatching all the ſaid Buſineſs, might be prejudicial to his Lordſhip's Health.

It appears, by the Oaths of the ſaid Richard Geering and William Cooper, that during the ſaid Lord Chancellor's Abſence, there was ſome Delay (as they believed) in diſpatching the Cauſes depending in the ſaid High Court of Chancery, by reaſon that the Judges could not conſtantly attend the Buſineſs of the ſaid Court.

The ſaid Richard Geering alſo declared, that he had been about twenty-three Years a Six-Clerk in the ſaid Court, and that he never obſerved a greater Diſpatch of Buſineſs therein, than ſince the Time of the preſent Lord Chancellor.

It appears, by the Patent of the Maſter of the Rolls, which was read, that he the ſaid Maſter of the Rolls, in the Abſence of the Lord Chancellor, has full Power to hear and determine Cauſes and Suits in the High Court of Chancery.

William Cooper, before-mentioned, further depoſed, that there were one hundred and twenty-three Cauſes determined in the High Court of Chancery, in Trinity Term, 1723, by the Lord High Chancellor, after his Return; and one hundred and two by the Commiſſioners, in five Terms, during the Abſence of the ſaid Lord High Chancellor.

Richard Malone, Eſq; a Barriſter, of about twenty Years Standing, and a very conſtant Practitioner in the ſaid High Court of Chancery (being duly ſworn at the Bar of this Houſe) declared, upon his Oath, that he had not obſerved more Re-hearings in the ſaid Court, ſince the Lord Chancellor's Return, than at other Times; but rather, as he thought, fewer: And alſo, that he did not think there was more Buſineſs brought into the Chancery of the Exchequer, during the Lord Chancellor's Abſence, than what uſed at other Times to be, although the Attendance of Lawyers was greater there than uſual, becauſe the High Court of Chancery did not ſit ſo often as formerly.

Thomas Carter, Eſq; Clerk of the Errors in the Exchequer-Chamber, being duly ſworn at the Bar of this Houſe, declared, that Cauſes have been determined in the Exchequer-Chamber, in the Abſence of the Lord High-Treaſurer and Vice-Treaſurer; but never, that he knows, in the Abſence of the Lord Chancellor: No Lord-Treaſurer, or Vice-Treaſurer, having (that he remembers) ever attended in the ſaid Court of Exchequer-Chamber. That eleven Cauſes had been depending in the ſaid Court, ſince the Reign of King William III. and were not yet determined; the Reaſon of which, as he apprehends, was not the Want of due Attendance of any of the Judges of the ſaid Court, but that no Motion, that he can find, has been made in any of the ſaid Cauſes; and whether the ſaid Cauſes have abated by Death, Compoſition or otherwiſe, he knows not.

That ſix Writs of Error have been brought into the ſaid Court from February, 1721, to this preſent Time; four of which, as he thinks, were brought in before the Lord Chancellor's Return; two or three of which have been determined ſince the Lord Chancellor's Return: And the Lord Chancellor, upon his Honour, declared, that it was not any Neglect of his in attending the ſaid Court, ſince his Return; which was the Reaſon, that the reſt of them have not alſo been determined.

It appears alſo, by the Statute of the 15th of Charles I. Chap. 5. that the Lord Chancellor, Lord Treaſurer, or Vice-Treaſurer in the Abſence of the Lord Treaſurer, in the Preſence, and by the Advice, of both the Chief Juſtices of either Bench, have full Power of proceeding in all Cauſes, upon Writs of Error returned into the Court of the Exchequer-Chamber, and of giving Judgment in the ſame.

The ſaid Mr. Carter was alſo aſked, Whether the Lord Chancellor could have proceeded to determine any Cauſe in the ſaid Court of Exchequer-Chamber, in the Abſence of either of the Chief Judges? To which he anſwered, That that was a Queſtion of Law, which he would not take upon him to determine. But the Lord Chancellor affirmed, That, in his Opinion, by Law, ſuch a Cauſe, during the Abſence of one of the Chief Judges, could not be determined; and that a Motion, having once in ſuch a Caſe been made for Judgment, it was ſaid by a Chief Judge, That in his Opinion, Judgment could not be given, the other Chief Judge being abſent.

William Cooper, before-mentioned, being aſked, Why more Cauſes in the High Court of Chancery were not determined by the Commiſſioners for hearing of Cauſes? Deſired to be excuſed from making any Anſwer, becauſe he thought it muſt be a Reflection on ſome one or other.

Whereupon the Lords' Committees came to the following Reſolutions:

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that through the Abſence of the Lord High Chancellor, there has been a Failure of Juſtice in this Kingdom by the great Delays in the High Court of Chancery, and in the Exchequer-Chamber, the Lord High-Treaſurer and the Vice-Treaſurer, and the Maſter of the Rolls, being alſo abſent.

Reſolved, that it appears to this Committee, that the Lord High Chancellor's Abſence from this Kingdom was in Obedience to his Majeſty's Command, under his Privy Signet and Sign manual to attend his Majeſty, at St. James's, contained in his Majeſty's Letters to the Lord Lieutenant, dated February the 3d, 1721; and October the 4th, 1722; and his Majeſty's Letter to the Lords Juſtices, dated the 29th of December, 1722.

Reſolved, that it does not appear to this Committee, that the Lord High Chancellor, upon his Majeſty's Command to him to repair into England, or at any time after, did, according to his Duty, lay before his Majeſty the Miſchiefs that would attend his Majeſty's Service, and the Properties of his Subjects of this Kingdom.

The ſaid Reſolutions being again read by the Clerk at the Table:

The Queſtion was put, Whether to agree with the Committee in the firſt Reſolution?

It was reſolved in the Affirmative.

Proceedings on Abſence of Civil Officers, to be printed.

Ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the whole Proceedings of this Houſe, in relation to the Grievances, which have of late ariſen to this Kingdom by the Abſence of Officers, neceſſary to the carrying on the Buſineſs and Juſtice thereof, be forthwith printed and publiſhed, and that the Clerk of this Houſe, or his Deputy, do appoint the printing the ſame.

Then the Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to robe.

The Houſe was reſumed:

And his Grace Charles Duke of Grafton, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland, being arrayed in royal Robes, entered the Houſe with the uſual Ceremonies of Grandeur; the Earl of Roſcommon carrying the Sword of State, and the Earl of Kildare, the Cap of Maintenance; two Sons of two Noblemen, bearing the Train of the ſaid Robe: His Grace the Lord Lieutenant, making his Congé to the Throne, aſcended the ſame, and ſeated himſelf in the Chair of State under the Canopy; all the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, ſtanding robed in their Places, uncovered, till their Lordſhips took their Seats.

The Lord Chancellor, kneeling, conferred with his Grace; then, ſtanding on the right hand of the Chair of State, commanded the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod to ſignify to the Commons, That it is his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure, they attend him immediately in the Houſe of Peers.

Commons enter;

And the Houſe of Commons, with their Speaker, being come, he, after a ſhort Speech to his Grace, in relation to the Money-Bill, delivered the ſame to the Clerk of the Parliaments, who brought it to the Table, where the Clerk of the Crown read the Title, as follows, viz.

Royal Aſſent given to Money-Bill.

An Act for granting and continuing to his Majeſty, the additional Duties on Beer, Ale, ſtrong Waters, Tobacco, and other Goods and Merchandizes; and alſo upon all Sorts of Wine, ſtrong Waters and Spirits perfectly made; and upon all Spirits made and diſtilled of Wine; and alſo for granting and continuing the further additional Duties on Beer, Ale, Aquavitæ and ſtrong Waters, brewed and made in this Kingdom, and upon Brandy or Spirits above Proof; and on Tea, Coffee, Chocolate and Cocoa-nuts; and alſo a Tax on all Salaries, Profits of Employments, Fees and Penſions therein mentioned; and for ſecuring the Re-payment of £50,000 Sterl. formerly advanced to his Majeſty, for the Uſe of the Publick, together with the Intereſt thereof.

To this Bill, the Clerk of the Parliaments pronounced the royal Aſſent in theſe Words, viz.

" Le roy remercie ſes bons Subjects, accepte
" leur Benevolence, et ainſi le veult."

Then his Grace was pleaſed to withdraw, and was attended as he entered, and the Commons returned to their Houſe.

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that it was his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure, that this Houſe ſhall adjourn itſelf to Tueſday the 7th of January next.

The Lord Biſhop of Clonfert reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Majeſty, an Addreſs drawn by them, which was read, and, with ſome Amendments, agreed to, as follows, viz.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

Addreſs to the King.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, do, with the ſincereſt Joy, congratulate your Majeſty upon your ſafe and happy Return to theſe your Dominions.

When we reflect on the many and ſignal Preſervations of your ſacred Perſon from the Conſpiracies of wicked Men at Home, and from the Dangers which attend your Majeſty, as often as the Repoſe of Europe and the Security of the Proteſtant Intereſt call you abroad, we cannot but aſcribe theſe Bleſſings to a ſingular Providence, that watches over a Life ſo precious to your Subjects, and of ſuch Importance to the common Good of Mankind.

We cannot find Words ſufficient to expreſs the grateful Sentiments of our Hearts, for the many Bleſſings we enjoy under your moſt auſpicious Reign; and, at this Time particularly, for the Continuance of that intire Tranquility in theſe your Kingdoms, which, by your Majeſty's Wiſdom was, before your Departure, ſo happily eſtabliſhed: All we can do, is to beſeech your Majeſty to accept our ſincereſt Acknowledgments; and to offer up our conſtant Prayers to Almighty GOD, that your Majeſty may long reign over us; and ſee the Fruits of your great and glorious Deſigns, in the flouriſhing Eſtate of your own Dominions, and the laſting Peace of all Europe.

Ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the ſaid Addreſs ſhall be laid before his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, by the whole Houſe.

Ordered, that the Lord Viſc. Charlemont and the Lord Biſhop of Clonfert do wait upon his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he will pleaſe to be attended by this Houſe with the ſaid Addreſs.

First-Fruits' Bill.

The Lord Biſhop of Clogher preſented to the Houſe an ingroſſed Bill, intitled, An Act for amending an Act, intitled, An Act for confirming the ſeveral Grants made by her late Majeſty, of the Firſt-Fruits and Twentieth Parts, payable out of the eccleſiaſtical Benefices in this Kingdom; and alſo for giving the Archbiſhops and other eccleſiaſtical Perſons four Years' Time for the Payment of Firſt-Fruits; and for incorporating the Truſtees and Commiſſioners of the ſaid Firſt-Fruits; which was received and ordered to be read.

Lord Bishop of Clonfert

Their Lordships, or any three of them, to meet presently in the Committee-Chamber, near the House of Peers, and adjourn as they please.

And Thady Mahon, being by Order called in, was sworn at the Bar, in order to give his Testimony upon the said Bill before the said Lords' Committees.

Message from Commons for Conference.

A Message was brought from the House of Commons, by Mr. Tynte and others, Members of the said House, to acquaint this House, that the Commons desire a Conference with their Lordships, upon the Subject-matter of the several Papers, delivered to their Lordships at a former Conference; and being withdrawn,

The Lord Chancellor reported the Message to the House.

Ordered, that this House do agree to a present Conference with the Commons, in the Conference-Chamber.

The Messengers for the Commons being then called in, the Lord Chancellor acquainted them, that this House hath agreed to a Conference, as desired, and hath appointed the same immediately in the Conference-Chamber.

Ordered, that the Lords who were appointed Managers at the last Conference, be appointed Managers at this present Conference.

Ordered, that the Earl of Kildare, Earl of Cavan, Earl of Mount Alexander, Lord Visc. Charlemont and the Lord Bishop of Killaloe, be added to the former Managers.

The Gentleman-Usher of the Black-Rod acquainted the House, that the Managers for the Commons waited in the Conference-Chamber.

Then the House was adjourned during Pleasure, and the Managers went to meet the Managers for the Commons, in the Conference-Chamber.

The Managers being returned,

The House was resumed: And Report from Conference.

His Grace the Lord Archbishop of Dublin reported to the House, that he, with the other Lords who were appointed Managers, went to the Conference-Chamber, and there met the Managers for the Commons; and that Mr. Joshua Allen delivered in a Paper to their Lordships, as follows, viz.

" THE Commons, having Occasion for the " several Papers, delivered to your Lordships " at a former Conference, desire to have the " said Papers returned to them."

And the Schedule of the said several Papers was then read.

Ordered, that a present Conference be desired with the Commons, and that the said Papers be delivered to them at the Conference; and also, that the Lords, who are appointed Managers at the Conference, do, at the same time, acquaint them, that this House desires to have the Use of the said Papers, when their Lordships have Occasion for them.

A Message was sent to the House of Commons, by Dr. Warburton, and Dr. Reilly, two of the Masters in Chancery, to acquaint them, that this House desires an immediate Conference with them in the Conference-Chamber, upon the Subject-matter of the last Conference.

Dr.

Dr. Warburton and Dr. Reilly, being returned, reported, that the Commons have agreed to an immediate Conference with their Lordſhips, in the Conference-Chamber.

The Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod acquainted the Houſe, that the Managers for the Commons were waiting in the Conference-Chamber.

Then the Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, and the Managers went to meet the Managers for the Commons, in the Conference-Chamber.

The Managers being returned,

Report from Conference. The Houſe was reſumed: And his Grace the Lord Archbiſhop of Dublin reported, that he, with the other Lords who were appointed Managers, went to the Conference-Chamber, and met the Managers for the Commons, and that he delivered a Paper to Mr. Joſhua Allen, who managed the ſaid Conference for the Commons, which ſignified, That the Lords have, according to the Deſire of the Houſe of Commons, returned, by a Schedule of the Roll, the ſeveral Papers delivered by them to the Lords at a Conference: But their Lordſhips deſire they may have the Uſe of the ſaid Papers, when their Lordſhips ſhall have Occaſion for them.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, and the Lords withdrew to conſider of Mr. Bell's Bill.

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Earl of Cavan reported from the Lords' Committees, to whom the Conſideration of an ingroſſed Bill, ſent up by the Commons, intitled, An Act for veſting Part of the Eſtate of Robert Bell of Parane in the Co. Mayo, Eſq; in Truſtees, to be ſold for the Payment of Debts affecting the ſame, was committed; that they had gone through the ſaid Bill, and agreed thereunto, and that all Parties concerned in the Conſequences thereof, had conſented to the ſame, and compared the ſaid Bill with the original Tranſmiſs, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, with which it agrees, and think it fit to paſs.

The Queſtion was put, Whether the ſaid Bill ſhall be committed?

It was reſolved in the Affirmative.

committed. Ordered, that the Conſideration of the ſaid Bill be committed to a Committee of the whole Houſe on Monday next, and that the ſaid Committee do compare the ſame with the original Tranſmiſs, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, and ſee that it exactly agrees therewith.

The Queſtion was put, That it ſhould be an Inſtruction to the Committee of the whole Houſe, to whom the Conſideration of the ſaid Bill is committed, to examine ſuch Witneſſes as ſhall be produced, to prove Falſity or Prevarication in the Anſwer of Samuel Watſon, a Quaker, to a Bill filed againſt him by Charles Tuthill; and alſo to examine ſuch Witneſſes for the ſaid Watſon, as he ſhall think proper to produce;

It was reſolved in the Negative.

Then it being propoſed, that it be an Inſtruction to the ſaid Committee of the whole Houſe, to examine ſuch Witneſſes as ſhall be produced, to prove Falſity or Prevarication in the Anſwer of William Tryell, a Quaker, to a Bill filed againſt him by Henry Doyle; and alſo to examine ſuch Witneſſes for the ſaid Tryell, as he ſhall think proper to produce.

The previous Queſtion was put, Whether the Queſtion ſhall be now put?

It was reſolved in the Negative.

It being then propoſed, that John Stothard, Clerk to the Quakers, ſhall, To-morrow Morning, lodge with the Clerk of this Houſe all Books and Entries, in his Cuſtody, of the Proceedings of the Quakers, at their publick or general Meetings.

And Debate thereupon,

The previous Queſtion was put, Whether that Queſtion ſhall be now put?

It was reſolved in the Negative.

DISSENTIENT:

MIDLETON, Canc^r

Proteſt. Firſt; BECAUSE it being a great Security to all his Majeſty's Subjects of this Kingdom, in the quiet Enjoyment of their private Fortunes, that no Man, as the Law now ſtands, can be deprived of his Property, but by Teſtimony given upon Oath (which is the ſtrongeſt Obligation that can be laid upon Conſcience) if this Bill ſhould paſs into a Law, this Security will be, in very many Caſes, taken away, without any Equivalent being given for it; the Obligation of a ſolemn Affirmation or Declaration, being not ſo great a Tie upon the Conſcience, as that of an Oath: And the principal Men of the Quakers, having ſeveral times refuſed to ſubmit to any Declaration or Affirmation, wherein it ſhould be expreſly mentioned, that to ſpeak falſely or deceitfully, in ſuch a Declaration or Affirmation, is a great Sin, or to have any Clauſe to that Purpoſe inſerted in the Bill, before it was tranſmitted into Great Britain: For which Reaſon, if we ſhould conſent to the paſſing of this Bill, we think it would be, in us, a betraying and giving up the Rights and Properties of ourſelves and of our Fellow-ſubjects, wherewith we are intruſted, by making them ſubject to the bare Affirmation or Declaration of every Quaker, in all the ſeveral Caſes in the ſaid Bill mentioned.

Secondly; BECAUSE if this Bill ſhould paſs into a Law, it will thus affect the Rights and Properties of the Subjects of this Realm, in relation not only to the Time to come, but alſo to that which is paſt, there being very many Perſons, who at this Time, in the way of Trade and Buſineſs, have Accounts current with ſeveral of the Quakers; and, by this Law, will ſtand obliged to pay all the Demands, which ſuch Quakers, under the Limitations in this Bill mentioned, ſhall pretend to have upon them, without any other Proof of the Juſtice of the ſaid Demands, but the bare Affirmation or Declaration of ſome of themſelves, which we look upon to be a Retroſpect; and therefore, as much as may be, to be avoided in the making of every new Law.

Thirdly; BECAUSE we are of Opinion, that the granting ſo great a Privilege, as this Bill does, to the Quakers, will not only tend to the great Hurt of his Majeſty's good Subjects of this Kingdom, but alſo be a great Temptation to many weak, as well as worldly, Perſons, to hazard their Salvation, by joining themſelves to that Sect, as ſeemingly acknowledged by us, to be Men of greater Probity, than all others; as well as thereby to become, for the moſt Part, uſeleſs to the Publick, as Magiſtrates, Soldiers, Jury-men, Conſtables, or in any other Capacity, except that of getting Wealth for themſelves alone: For all which, we conceive, that we ſhould be anſwerable, in Caſe we ſhould give our Conſent to this Bill.

Fourthly; BECAUSE this Bill preſcribes no certain way of knowing who is a Quaker (and conſequently intitled to the great Privilege therein propoſed to be granted to that Sect) ſave only a Certificate to be ſigned by ſix credible Perſons of his being one of their Congregation, without directing any Method of Inquiry, Whether they who ſign the ſaid Certificate, are really Perſons of Credit, or even themſelves Quakers: Nor are the Perſons who are impowered in any Caſe to receive their Affirmations or Declarations, required or obliged to demand any ſuch Certificate from them; which we take to be a granting of a very very extraordinary Privilege, without ſufficiently pointing out or deſcribing the Perſons who are to enjoy the ſame; whereby a Matter of very great Conſequence to the Properties of his Majeſty's good Subjects, is left at a great Uncertainty.

Fifthly; BECAUSE, by this Bill, the Puniſhment which is to fall upon a Quaker, in Caſe he falſely affirms or declares, ſeems not ſo great, as in Reaſon it ought to be; which, we fear, may be an Encouragement to Men of that Sect to prevaricate in their Teſtimony, whenever they ſhall be thereunto tempted by the Proſpect of Gain to themſelves or their Friends: For as ſcarce any Man has the ſame dreadful Apprehenſion of the Sin of lying, as moſt Men have of that of falſe ſwearing: ſo by our Laws, as they now ſtand, Perjury ſubjects a Man not only to certain Penalties and Forfeitures, but alſo to a perpetual Incapacity of ever again being admitted as a Witneſs in any other Cauſe: Whereas this Bill, though it appoints the ſame Penalties and Forfeitures to be incurred by a Quaker, for falſely affirming or declaring, as for Perjury; yet it ſeems not to lay him under any future Incapacity of being admitted as a Witneſs; nor could we obtain a Reſpite to the paſſing of this Bill, even for one Day, that the Opinion of his Majeſty's Judges touching this Point might firſt be required.

Sixthly; BECAUSE it is plain to us, that the Quakers (whatever they may pretend) do not really look upon an Oath to be unlawful, none of them having ever made the leaſt Scruple of producing other Witneſſes, whenever there was Occaſion to ſwear in their behalf; and many of themſelves having often taken an Oath in the common Courſe of Juſtice: And therefore, we cannot but look upon the great Privilege granted them by this Bill (however otherwiſe intended) in reality to be not ſo much an Indulgence to the Tenderneſs of their Conſciences, as a Gratification of their Vanity and Singularity, as well as greatly promoting of their worldly Intereſt.

Seventhly; BECAUSE we cannot but look upon the great Honour, by this Bill done to the Quakers, to be, in its Conſequences, a Diſhonour done to all the reſt of Mankind; their Affirmation or Declaration, without an Oath, being, in many Caſes, to be taken, where the Teſtimony of any other Man, and even of a Member of this High Court of Parliament, is not to be admitted, except it be given upon Oath; which we take to be, in ſome ſort, a degrading of ourſelves, as well as all other Men below the Rank of the meaneſt and moſt contemptible Quaker.

DISSENT

Firſt,

Proteſt. BECAUSE, by the Act made in the 8th Year of his Majeſty's Reign, intitled, An Act for the further Amendment of the Laws, in relation to Butter and Tallow Caſks, &c. the Weigh-Maſter is to be paid for each Caſk of Butter of Half of an Hundred Weight or under, only one Farthing; and for each Caſk of one Hundred Weight or upwards, one Half-penny: And by this Bill he is to receive for each empty Caſk, weighed and branded, and for every Barrel, Half-Barrel or Ferkin, or other Caſk of Butter, one Penny for each Caſk; and for every Caſk of Tallow, for each Hundred Weight, one Half-penny; which Increaſe of Fees to the Weigh-Maſters, beyond what they are intitled unto by the Act now in Force, will, as is conceived, be a great Clog on Trade, and to the publick Detriment, by leſſening the Price of Butter and Tallow, eſpecially in the Port of Cork, where Butter is generally exported in ſmall Caſks.

Secondly; Becauſe the Weigh-Maſters, already appointed in the City of Cork, which is the great Port of this Kingdom for Exportation of Butter and Tallow, have hitherto diſcharged their Duty without giving Cauſe of Complaint, and contented themſelves with the Fees given by the Act already in being, without deſiring or expecting any Increaſe; and have been, and ſtill continue, ready to do the ſame for the former Fees, without becoming burdenſome to the Trade of that Place, by the Increaſe of Fees.

Thirdly; Becauſe by this Bill, Edmond Knap and Edward Hoare, Eſqrs. are the two Citizens elected to repreſent the City of Cork in this Parliament, and, as ſuch, are intruſted with the Preſervation of the Rights, Liberties and Properties of that City, to whom the Appointment of Weigh-Maſters doth belong, by the Act now in Force: And by this Bill, the ſaid Edmond Knap and Edward Hoare are appointed Weigh-Maſters of that City for Life; which Office, if the ſaid Knap and Hoare have endeavoured to be granted to them, their ſo doing ſeems to be to the Prejudice of their Employers and Conſtituents, whom they repreſent in Parliament, and to be a Breach of the Truſt in them repoſed by the Perſons who elected them their Repreſentatives in Parliament; and therefore it ſeems not proper to lay them under an Obligation to take on them the Execution of that Office.

Fourthly; Becauſe there are Perſons already legally appointed by the Mayor and Corporation of Cork, purſuant to the Act now in Force, to execute the Office of Weigh-Maſters in that City, who have erected Weigh-Houſes, bought Beams, Scales and other Things neceſſary for the Execution of that Office, which will be of no Uſe to them, if they are deprived of their legal Intereſt in the ſaid Office; as they will be, if this Bill paſs, without any Satisfaction or Amends made to them, or obliging their Succeſſors to purchaſe thoſe Things neceſſary to the carrying on the weighing Butter, &c. in the ſaid City.

Fifthly; Becauſe the private Property and Right of the City of Cork, in granting the ſaid Office, and the Intereſt of the Weigh-maſter already appointed by them, will be taken away, without aſſigning any Miſmanagement or Default in them, in the Execution of their reſpective Duties, which ſeems not conſiſtent with the Rules of Equity and Juſtice.

21. An Act for making a Proviſion, by way of Jointure, for the Right Hon. Martha Lady Viſcounteſs Bleſſinton, in Caſe ſhe ſhall ſurvive her Huſband, the Right Hon. Charles Lord Viſc. Bleſſinton.

To theſe Bills, the Clerk of the Parliaments pronounced the royal Aſſent, ſeverally, in theſe Words, viz.

"Soit fait comme il eſt deſiré."

After which, his Grace the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to make a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, as follows, viz.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

THERE now remaining no Buſineſs before you unfiniſhed, it muſt be a Satisfaction to us all, that we are come to the Concluſion of a Seſſion, which has been carried into an unuſual Length, occaſioned partly by ſome Delay in bringing in ſuch Bills (before it was far advanced) as were thought proper for the Conſideration of Parliament. As your private Affairs will probably, after ſo long an Attendance, call you into your reſpective Countries, I muſt earneſtly recommend to you, in your ſeveral Stations, the Care and Preſervation of the publick Peace: This deſirable End will, in my Opinion, be greatly promoted by a vigorous Execution of the Laws againſt Popiſh Prieſts, to the Neglect of which, I muſt tell you, is imputed, in a great Meaſure, the Increaſe of their Numbers. I ſhall contribute my Part towards the Prevention of this growing Evil, by giving proper Directions, that henceforward ſuch Perſons only be put into the Commiſſion of the Peace, who have diſtinguiſhed themſelves by their Fidelity to his Majeſty, and by their ſteady Adherence to the Proteſtant Intereſt.

I am, by the King's Command, to thank you, Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons, for the ample Supplies which you have given this Seſſion; and to aſſure you of his Majeſty's gracious Acceptance of them. All due Care ſhall be taken, that the utmoſt Frugality be obſerved in the Application of the publick Money: As nothing can render the Aids you have granted more effectual, for ſtrengthening the Hands of the Government, and ſecuring the Tranquility of this Nation, than a perfect Union amongſt Proteſtants, I am ſatisfied, from your known Loyalty to the King, and your Love of your Country, that you will promote and cultivate ſo great a Bleſſing: And the ſame Principles muſt induce you to diſcountenance the reſtleſs Endeavours of any who may attempt to ſow Jealouſies, or raiſe groundleſs Apprehenſions in the Minds of his Majeſty's Subjects.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

IT is with great Pleaſure, that I perſuade myſelf, from your reſpective Addreſſes to me, that the Adminiſtration in my Hands has been to your Satisfaction. I muſt, in Return, aſſure you, that I ſhall make a faithful Repreſentation to the King, of the Affections and Behaviour of his dutiful Subjects of Ireland. I will not fail to lay before his Majeſty the true State of this Country; and ſhall, upon all Occaſions, recommend it to his royal Grace and Favour.

Afterward, the Lord Chancellor, by his Grace's Command, ſaid:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Parliament prorogued.

IT is his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure, that this Parliament be prorogued to Saturday the 7th Day of March next; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued, to meet here on Saturday the 7th Day of March next.

Memorandum: This Parliament, by Proclamation of his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, dated the 23d of March, 1723-4, was further prorogued to Thurſday the 27th of Auguſt, next following.

Then his Lordſhip took his Place on the Viſcount's Bench, and came to the Table, and took the Oaths, and made and ſubſcribed the Declaration, and alſo took and ſubſcribed the Oath of Abjuration, purſuant to the Statutes.

The Houſe adjourned during Pleaſure, to robe.

The Houſe reſumed: And

His Excellency John Lord Carteret, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland, being arrayed in royal Robes, entered the Houſe with the uſual Ceremonies of Grandeur, the Earl of Barrymore carrying the Sword of State, and the Earl of Roſcommon the Cap of Maintenance; three Sons of three Noblemen bearing the Train of the ſaid Robe: His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, making his Congé to the Throne, aſcended the ſame, and ſeated himſelf in the Chair of State under the Canopy; all the Lords Spiritual and Temporal ſtanding robed in their Places, uncovered, till their Lordſhips took their Seats.

The Lord Chancellor, kneeling, conferred with his Excellency, and then, ſtanding on the right hand of the Chair of State, commanded the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod to ſignify to the Commons, that his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant commanded their Attendance immediately in the Houſe of Peers:

Commons ſent for:

Who being returned, ſignified that the Commons were at the Door; and being ordered to call them in,

They, with their Speaker, were conducted to the Bar by the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod, with the uſual Ceremonies.

they enter.

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to make a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, as follows, viz.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

I HAVE his Majeſty's Commands, at the opening of this Seſſion, to acquaint you, that an intire End is put to the Patent, formerly granted to Mr. Wood, for the coining Copper Half-pence and Farthings for this Kingdom, by a full and effectual Surrender thereof to his Majeſty, an Exemplification of which, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, ſhall be laid before you. So remarkable an Inſtance of his Majeſty's royal Favour and Condeſcenſion muſt fill the Hearts of a loyal and obedient People, with the higheſt Senſe of Duty and Gratitude: And I doubt not but you will make ſuch ſuitable Returns as may convince the World, that you are truly ſenſible of the Happineſs you have enjoyed under his Majeſty's moſt mild and gracious Government, ever ſince his Acceſſion to the Throne of theſe Kingdoms; and that the Preſervation of all our Religious and Civil Rights, muſt be ever owing, under GOD, to the Support of his Majeſty's Government, and the Succeſſion in his royal Houſe.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I HAVE ordered the ſeveral Accounts and Eſtimates to be laid before you, and have received his Majeſty's Commands to aſk the neceſſary Supplies, for the Support of the Eſtabliſhment, and making good the former Deficiencies; for which his Majeſty doth not queſtion, but you will chearfully provide, and in ſuch Manner, as will be leaſt burdenſome to his People.

My

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I CANNOT omit this Opportunity of recommending to your Conſideration, the late Diſtreſs of the Poor of this City, for want of a more effectual Law for regulating the Aſſize of Bread; and alſo what Methods may be proper for more uſefully employing the Poor throughout the Kingdom. I could wiſh our Succeſs in the Linen Trade, within theſe few Years paſt, might encourage us to endeavour at an equal Improvement in the Hempen Manufactures; whereby the Wealth and Riches of this Nation would be greatly increaſed, and in which you may depend upon his Majeſty's royal Favour and Protection.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

THE Funds appropriated by Law to the Poor-Houſe of this City, being near expiring, you will conſider if that Charity may not be better regulated to anſwer the Ends of its Inſtitution; and, as it is of the utmoſt Conſequence to preſerve the Port of Dublin, I am fully ſatisfied, you will take Care to enable the Ballaſt-Office to apply that Revenue in the moſt effectual Manner.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

IT may be proper, at this Time, to review the Laws, and to conſider what others may be neceſſary to prevent the pernicious Practice of the clandeſtine running of Goods, which doth not only diminiſh the Revenue, but neceſſarily tends to the Ruin and Deſtruction of the fair Trader. You will likewiſe think of ſome Law, which may be proper for the effectual Tranſportation of Felons. I alſo recommend it to you, to conſider of the beſt Methods for ſecuring us from the Miſchiefs, which may be reaſonably apprehended from the Numbers of Popiſh Prieſts and Regulars, which daily increaſe.

As all Proteſtants of this Kingdom can have but one common Intereſt, and have too often fatally experienced that they have the ſame common Enemy, there ought to be the ſtricteſt Union among us; and a good Temper and Unanimity in your Proceedings, will not only contribute to the Quiet and Happineſs of the Kingdom, but will be the greateſt Inſtance you can give of your Loyalty and Affection to his Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Government.

For my own Part, I aſſure you, I ſhall, on all Occaſions, uſe my utmoſt Endeavours to promote his Majeſty's Service and the Welfare and Proſperity of this Kingdom; and you may depend upon me for a juſt and faithful Report to his Majeſty, of your loyal and dutiful Behaviour.

Then his Excellency was pleaſed to withdraw, and was attended as he entered; and the Commons returned to their Houſe.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to unrobe.

The Houſe was reſumed: And

The Lord Chancellor reported his Excellency's Speech, which was afterwards read by the Clerk at the Table.

Ordered, by the Right Hon. the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Speech, delivered this Day from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament, be forthwith printed and publiſhed, and that the Clerk of this Houſe do appoint the printing of the ſame. Lord Lieutenant's Speech to be printed.

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant had directed him to lay before this Houſe the Exemplification of a Deed of Surrender of the Patent, granted to Mr. Wood, for the coining Copper Half-pence and Farthings, for this Kingdom. Exemplification of Mr. Wood's Patent read.

And the ſame was read at the Table.

The Houſe being moved, that an humble Addreſs be made to his Majeſty, to return the unfeigned Thanks of this Houſe for, and to expreſs the grateful Senſe they have of, his Majeſty's royal Favour and Condeſcenſion, in putting ſo effectual an End to the Patent, formerly granted to Mr. Wood, for the coining of Copper Half-pence and Farthings for this Kingdom. Reſolution for Addreſs to the King,

And to aſſure his Majeſty, that they will endeavour to make ſuch ſuitable Returns, as may convince the World, they are truly ſenſible of the Happineſs they enjoy under his Majeſty's moſt mild and gracious Government; and that they are perſuaded, the Preſervation of all their Religious and Civil Rights muſt (under GOD) be ever owing to the Support of his Majeſty's Government, and the Succeſſion in his royal Houſe.

And likewiſe to aſſure his Majeſty, that this Houſe will chearfully concur in every thing for the Service of his Majeſty, and Support of his Government.

And to expreſs the Thanks of this Houſe, for his Majeſty's having appointed his Excellency the Lord Carteret to be our Governor, whoſe great Abilities and unwearied Application and Diligence, have equally contributed to the Service of his Majeſty, and Happineſs of this Kingdom.

And Debate thereupon;

The firſt Head thereof was then read.

It was propoſed, that after the Word "Majeſty's" and before the Word "royal," theſe Words be inſerted, viz. "great Wiſdom."

After Debate;

The Queſtion was put, Whether the ſaid Words be inſerted?

It was reſolved in the Affirmative. amended,

The other Heads being then read, and agreed to by the Houſe;

The Queſtion was put, Whether the whole Heads, as agreed to, ſhall be the Inſtruction to the Lords' Committees for preparing ſuch an Addreſs? and

It was reſolved in the Affirmative. agreed to.

And

And all the Lords preſent were appointed a Committee, to draw up an humble Addreſs, to be preſented to his Majeſty accordingly, and report to the Houſe.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, at Ten o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, and adjourn as they pleaſe.

Ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Lords' Committees, appointed to draw up the ſaid Addreſs to his Majeſty, do alſo prepare and draw up an Addreſs of Thanks to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, for his Speech, delivered this Day to both Houſes of Parliament.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet on Thurſday Morning next, at Ten o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, and adjourn as they pleaſe.

Adjourned till To-morrow Morning, at Eleven o'clock.

Prayers.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

His Grace the Lord Primate reported from the Lords' Committees appointed to draw up an humble Addreſs to be preſented to his Majeſty, purſuant to the Reſolution of Tueſday laſt, an Addreſs drawn by them, which he read in his Place, which was afterwards read by the Clerk, and alſo read, Paragraph by Paragraph.

Debate on Addreſs.

And a Debate ariſing on the Words "great "Wiſdom" contained in the firſt Paragraph of the ſaid Addreſs, after the Word "Ma- "jeſty's" and before the Word "Royal."

The Addreſs of this Houſe to his Majeſty, of the 28th of September, 1723, in relation to the Patent, granted to Mr. Wood, was then, by Order, read:

Alſo, his Majeſty's Anſwer to the ſaid Addreſs:

And alſo, the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Majeſty, of the 17th of December, 1723, for his Majeſty's moſt gracious Anſwer, were ſeverally read.

The Queſtion was put, That the Words "great Wiſdom" after the Word "Majeſty's" and before the Word "Royal" ſtand Part of the ſaid Addreſs;

It was reſolved in the Negative.

Proteſt.

DISSENT˜

Will. Dublin.

The other Paragraphs of the ſaid Addreſs, were then read, and agreed to, and alſo agreed to the Addreſs, as follows:

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

Addreſs to the King.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, do beg Leave to return our unfeigned Thanks to your Majeſty, for putting an End to the Patent, formerly granted to Mr. Wood, for coining copper Half-pence and Farthings for this Kingdom, by a full and effectual Surrender of the ſame to your Majeſty. We eſteem it a remarkable Inſtance of your Majeſty's royal Favour and Condeſcenſion, and have the higheſt Senſe of Duty and Gratitude that can fill the Hearts of the moſt loyal and obedient People; and we ſhall always endeavour to make ſuch ſuitable Returns as may convince the World how truly ſenſible we are of the Happineſs we have continually enjoyed under your Majeſty's moſt mild and gracious Government; and that the Preſervation of all our Religious and Civil Rights muſt (under God) be owing to the Support of your Majeſty's Government, and the Succeſſion in your royal Family.

We ſhall likewiſe do our utmoſt Endeavour to preſerve and cultivate a ſtrict Union among the Proteſtants of this Kingdom, who, we are ſenſible, have one common Intereſt; and cannot but know, by repeated Experience, that they have one common Enemy.

And we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will, by a good Temper and Unanimity in our Proceedings, contribute all we can to the Quiet and Welfare of this Kingdom; and that we will readily concur in every thing that may advance your Majeſty's Service, and the Support of your Government.

We cannot, on this Occaſion, without Injuſtice, omit returning our moſt humble Thanks to your Majeſty, for having appointed his Excellency the Lord Carteret our Governor, whoſe great Abilities, and unwearied Application and Diligence have equally contributed to the Service of your Majeſty, and to the Happineſs of this Kingdom.

Ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the ſaid Addreſs ſhall be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, by the whole Houſe, in order to have the ſame laid before his Majeſty.

The

The Lord Biſhop of Elphin reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to draw up an humble Addreſs of Thanks to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant for his Speech delivered from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament, an Addreſs drawn by them, which he read in his Place; and the ſame was afterwards read by the Clerk at the Table; and, with an Amendment, agreed to, as follows, viz.

To his Excellency JOHN Lord CARTERET, Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND.

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

Addreſs to L^d Lieutenant

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, with the greateſt Chearfulneſs, attend your Excellency, to return our humble and hearty Thanks, for your excellent Speech, delivered from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament.

We ſhould be inſenſible of his Majeſty's great Goodneſs and tender Concern for the Welfare of his People, in putting an intire End to the Patent, formerly granted to Mr. Wood, if we did not lay hold of this Occaſion, to make our moſt grateful Acknowledgments to your Excellency, by whom ſo remarkable an Inſtance of his royal Favour has been derived to us; and declare our more than ordinary Satisfaction, in the whole Courſe of your prudent, equal and juſt Adminiſtration.

When we perceive our late Fears and Apprehenſions removed, and univerſal Tranquility and Satisfaction reſtored to the Minds of his Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, by your Excellency's Vigilance and Wiſdom, we cannot but thankfully acknowledge his Majeſty's particular Regard for his faithful People of Ireland, in ſending your Excellency to be our Chief Governor.

As your unwearied Application, and the exact Inquiries you have made into every thing that relates to the State of this Kingdom, have given you a perfect and diſtinct Knowledge of its true and real Intereſt, ſo the many good Laws you have recommended to us, are a convincing Proof, that our future and laſting Proſperity has been as much your Care, as the preſent Peace and Tranquility we enjoy.

We aſſure your Excellency, we are highly ſenſible of the affectionate Concern you have ſhewn for the Welfare of this Nation, and we ſhall, with the greateſt Unanimity, do every thing that in us lies, to promote thoſe great and deſirable Ends, which you have mentioned, with regard to the Employment of the Poor, and freeing them from the Hardſhips they lie under, for want of proper Laws to regulate the Aſſize of Bread. The ſecuring of the Trade of this City, by amending the Harbour; tranſporting of Felons; and preventing the clandeſtine Practices in running of Goods, which not only diminiſh his Majeſty's Revenue, but neceſſarily tend to the Deſtruction of the fair Trader.

The Aſſurances you give us of his Majeſty's royal Favour and Protection, in the Improvement of the Hempen as well as Linen Manufactures, are further Inſtances of his gracious Inclinations towards us, and of your Excellency's great Regard for the Welfare of this Kingdom: And we doubt not, but under your Conduct, ſuch Meaſures will be taken to inlarge and improve thoſe uſeful Branches of Trade, as may, in Time, increaſe the Wealth of this Kingdom, and be of Advantage to all his Majeſty's Subjects.

We are ſenſible of the Danger that may reaſonably be apprehended from the Increaſe of Popiſh Prieſts and Regulars among us; and ſhall duly conſider of ſuch Laws as may remedy that Evil, and more effectually enable us to contribute to the Support of his Majeſty's Government, and the Succeſſion in his royal Houſe; to which we acknowlege, under GOD, the Preſervation of all our Religious and Civil Rights muſt be ever owing.

We aſſure your Excellency, we will take the greateſt Care to preſerve Temper and Unanimity in all our Proceedings, and to ſhew in this, and all other Inſtances, our Loyalty and Affection to his Majeſty's Sacred Perſon and Government; and we have a firm Reliance upon your Excellency's Goodneſs, that you will make a favourable Report of our dutiful Behaviour and conſtant Zeal for his Majeſty's Service.

Ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the ſaid Addreſs ſhall be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe.

Ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Lord Chancellor do attend his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know, when he will pleaſe to be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Majeſty; and alſo the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Excellency.

PRAYERS.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that this Houſe had, according to Order, preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Majeſty of Thurſday laſt; and that his Excellency was pleaſed to give this Anſwer, viz.

My Lords,

Lord Lieutenant's Anſwers.

"I WILL take the firſt Opportunity to "tranſmit this loyal and humble Addreſs, "and doubt not but the ſame will be very "agreeable to his Majeſty."

And alſo, the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Excellency; to which he was pleaſed to give this Anſwer, viz.

My Lords,

"IT is a Pleaſure to me, that my Endea-"vours for his Majeſty's Service and the Good "of the Kingdom, are agreeable to your "Lordſhips. I will do all that is in my "Power

" Power to deſerve the Continuance of your " Kindneſs to me, by faithfully repreſenting " your Duty and Affection to his Majeſty."

Addreſs and Anſwer to be printed.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, and his Excellency's Anſwer thereunto, ſhall be forthwith printed and publiſhed, and that no Perſon preſume to print the ſaid Addreſs and Anſwer, but whom the Clerk of this Houſe ſhall appoint.

Complaint for printing Speech in Dublin Courant.

A Complaint being made to the Houſe, that his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, has been printed and publiſhed by Thomas Hume, in a Paper called The Dublin Courant, contrary to the Order of this Houſe, and the Privilege thereof.

The Standing Order of this Houſe N° 66, being then read;

T. Hume to be taken into Cuſtody.

IT is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod attending this Houſe, his Deputy or Deputies, do forthwith attach the Body of the ſaid Thomas Hume, for the ſaid Breach of Privilege, and keep him in ſafe Cuſtody, until further Order of this Houſe; and this ſhall be a ſufficient Warrant in that behalf.

To Michael Broughton, Eſq; Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod attending this Houſe, his Deputy or Deputies, and every of them.

Witneſſes ſworn.

Sir Chamberlain Walker and Mr. William Lindſay being, by Order, called in, were ſeverally ſworn at the Bar, in order to give their Teſtimony before the Lords' Committees, who are to conſider of Mr. Waller's Petition.

Then the Houſe, according to Order, proceeded to the reading of the Standing Orders of this Houſe:

And the ſame were ſeverally read.

Judges' Attendance diſpenſed with.

Upon reading the Order of this Houſe of the 7th of September, 1723; It is ordered by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that this Houſe ſhall, till further Order, diſpenſe with the daily Attendance of all the Judges; and that only two of the Judges be required daily to attend the Service of this Houſe.

Mr. Netterville's Petition.

A PETITION of Luke Netterville, Eſq; ſetting forth that he is only Brother to the preſent Lord Viſc. Netterville, who is the fourth of that Rank of Nobility in this Kingdom, and has a plentiful Eſtate.

That the Petitioner is the only Proteſtant of his Family, having, in the Year 1707, renounced the Errors and Idolatries of the Church of Rome, and was then received into the Church as by Law eſtabliſhed, by his Grace the preſent Archbiſhop of Dublin, and educates his Children in that Faith; and has ever ſince approved himſelf a ſincere and zealous Member thereof; from which time the Petitioner has been abandoned by all his Popiſh Relations, and thereby left to ſtruggle under the extremeſt Want and utmoſt Neceſſity, having a numerous Iſſue to provide for.

That the Petitioner's Brother, having but one Son, the Title and Honour of his Family may probably deſcend to the Petitioner or his Sons, and would therefore, if enabled, give them ſuch Education as might qualify them, in Caſe of that Event, to ſerve their King and Country, in ſo honourable a Station.

That the Petitioner's Circumſtances were ſo much commiſerated by their Lordſhips, that they, the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, were pleaſed to recommend the Petitioner to his Grace the Duke of Grafton, the then Lord Lieutenant, whoſe good Offices the Petitioner believes were not wanting, though they happened to prove unſucceſsful.

That through the Bounty of the Chief Governors, and his Majeſty's moſt Hon. Privy Council, the Petitioner has been relieved, for which he is truly thankful; but that being only a temporary Support, the Petitioner craved Leave to lay his Caſe before their Lordſhips, that the Petitioner, through their Lordſhips' great Clemency and Compaſſion, may have ſome more certain Proviſion for the Relief of himſelf and his diſtreſſed Family.

And humbly praying their Lordſhips to recommend him to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, that, through his Excellency's Interceſſion with his Majeſty, his Majeſty may, of his royal Goodneſs and Compaſſion, order ſuch Proviſion, either by Penſion or otherwiſe, for the Support of the Petitioner, and his indigent Family, as to his Majeſty, in his great Wiſdom, may think moſt convenient;

was preſented to the Houſe and read.

Reſolution thereon.

Reſolved, upon the Queſtion, nem. con. that the Petitioner be recommended by this Houſe to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, as an Object of his Majeſty's Compaſſion; and that, if his Majeſty ſhall be graciouſly pleaſed to order ſome Proviſion to be made for the Support of the Petitioner and his indigent Family, by Penſion or otherwiſe, it will be a Mark of his Majeſty's royal Favour very well beſtowed.

Ordered, that the Lord Viſc. Charlemont and the Lord Ferrard do attend his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant with the ſaid Reſolution, and deſire his Excellency will pleaſe to lay the ſame before his Majeſty.

Report on Mr. Waller's Petition,

The Lord Viſc. Midleton reported from the Lords' Committees, to whom the Conſideration of a Petition of John Waller, Eſq; Elizabeth his Wife and others, was referred; that the ſeveral Parties to the ſaid Mr. Waller's Settlement have ſigned the ſaid Petition, and have alſo executed Conſents, under their Hands and Seals, dated the 8th of September laſt, for the obtaining an Act of Parliament to the Purpoſes therein mentioned, and alſo proved the other Allegations of their Petition; and the Lords' Committees are humbly of Opinion, that Leave be given to bring in Heads of a Bill, according to the Prayer thereof.

To which the Houſe agreed.

agreed to.

Ordered, that Leave be given to bring in Heads of a Bill, purſuant to the Prayer of the ſaid Petition; and that the Lords' Committees, to whom the Conſideration of the ſaid Petition was referred, do prepare and bring in the ſame.

Ordered, that the Earl of Shelburne and the Lord Biſhop of Killaloe be added to the ſaid Committee.

Report on Lord and Lady Cahir's Petitions.

The Lord Biſhop of Elphin reported from the Lords' Committees, to whom the Conſideration of the Petitions of the Lord and Lady Cahir was referred; That her Ladyſhip, being a principal Perſon concerned in the Conſequences of the Lord Cahir's Petition, has withdrawn her Conſent: The Lords' Committees are therefore humbly of Opinion, that the Prayer of the Lord Cahir's Petition ought not to be complied with:

And Debate thereon;

The Lord Cahir's Petition, and alſo the Lady Cahir's Petition, were then ſeverally read.

The Queſtion was put, Whether to agree with the ſaid Lords' Committees?

It was reſolved in the Affirmative.

Ordered, that the Lords' Committees, appointed to examine Sarah Harding, in relation to a ſcandalous Libel, printed by her (called Wiſdom's Defeat) ſhall have Power to ſend for Perſons, Papers and Records, and to examine any other Perſon they ſhall think fit, in relation to the ſaid Libel.

Then his Lordſhip was placed on the lower End of the Earls' Bench, and came to the Table, and took the Oaths, and made and ſubſcribed the Declaration, and alſo took and ſubſcribed the Oath of Abjuration, purſuant to the Statutes.

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant had received his Majeſty's moſt gracious Anſwer to the Addreſs of this Houſe of the 23d of September laſt, which he directed him to lay before this Houſe, which he read, and the ſame was afterwards read by the Clerk at the Table, as follows, viz.

GEORGE R.

King's Anſwer to Addreſs.

" THE dutiful and loyal Addreſs from the " Houſe of Lords of Ireland, gave his Ma-
" jeſty great Satisfaction; and they may be " aſſured, that his Majeſty will always have
" the greateſt Attention to the Intereſt and " Safety of his People of that Kingdom."

Addreſs and Anſwer to be printed.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Majeſty, of the 23d of September laſt, and his Majeſty's moſt gracious Anſwer thereunto, be forthwith printed and publiſhed, and that the Clerk of this Houſe do appoint the printing of the ſaid Addreſs and Anſwer.

Reſolved, that an humble Addreſs of Thanks be preſented to his Majeſty, for his Majeſty's moſt gracious Anſwer.

And the Lords under-named were appointed a Committee to prepare an Addreſs accordingly, and report to the Houſe, viz.

|---|---|
| Lord Primate | Lord Viſc. Doneraile |
| Lord Archbp of Dublin | Lord Viſc. Charlemont |
| Earl of Clanrickard | Lord Viſc. Midleton |
| Earl of Cavan | |

Their Lordſhips, or any three of them, to meet at the riſing of the Houſe, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, and to adjourn as they pleaſe.

Report on Fees.

The Earl of Cavan reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to examine and inſpect into the Fees of the ſeveral Officers and Offices of this Kingdom; that they had conſidered of the Matter to them referred, and are of Opinion, that it is neceſſary that Heads of a Bill ſhould be prepared and brought in for regulating the ſame.

Ordered, that the Lords' Committees, appointed to examine and inſpect into the Fees of the ſeveral Officers and Offices of this Kingdom, do prepare and bring in Heads of a Bill for regulating the Fees of the ſeveral Officers and Offices of this Kingdom; whoſe Lordſhips are to meet this Afternoon, at Three o'clock.

The Earl of Cavan acquainted the Houſe, that he had, according to Order, attended his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant with their Addreſs of Tueſday laſt; and that his Excellency was pleaſed to ſay, That he would give Directions for a Proclamation as deſired by this Houſe.

Complaint on Breach of Privilege.

A Complaint being made to the Houſe, by the Lord Forbes, of a Breach of Privilege committed againſt the Right Hon. the Lord Bellew, by John Halpen, John Cooke, John Weſtenhallam, and others.

Ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the ſaid Complaint ſhall be, and is hereby, referred to the Lords' Committees for Privileges; who are to conſider thereof, and hear ſuch Perſons concerning the ſame, as they ſhall think fit, and report their Opinion thereupon to the Houſe.

Witneſſes ſworn.

And John Mulhollan, Thomas Kelly, Hugh Daly, Richard Hand, William Walſh, Patrick Poterly, Patrick Nangle, Richard Daniel and Patrick Ferragh, were by Order called in, and ſeverally ſworn at the Bar, in order to give their Teſtimony before the Lords' Committees for Privileges, on the ſaid Complaint.

Heads of Bill for building on Church-Lands, &c.

The Lord Biſhop of Dromore, according to Order, preſented to the Houſe, Heads of a Bill to amend and explain an Act, intitled, An Act to encourage building of Houſes and making other Improvements on Church-Lands, and to prevent Dilapidations; which were received, and read a firſt and ſecond time.

committed.

Ordered, that the Conſideration of the ſaid Heads of a Bill be committed to a Committee of the whole Houſe on Monday Se'nnight.

Ordered, that the Lord Viſc. Duncannon ſhall have the Leave of this Houſe to go into the Country for three Weeks, on extrordinary Occaſions, leaving his Proxy.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, and the Lords' Committees withdrew, to draw up the Addreſs to his Majeſty.

The Houſe was reſumed: And his Grace the Lord Primate reported from the ſaid Committee, an Addreſs drawn by them, which was read, and, with an Amendment, agreed to, as follows, viz.

To

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

Addreſs to the King.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, do beſeech your Majeſty to accept our humble Thanks, for your Majeſty's moſt gracious Anſwer to our late Addreſs.

It is a very great Pleaſure to us, that our Addreſs has given your Majeſty ſuch Satisfaction; and we ſhall at all times depend on your Majeſty's Goodneſs, and the gracious Aſſurances you have been pleaſed to give us, that your Majeſty will always have the greateſt Attention to the Intereſt and Safety of the People of this Kingdom.

Ordered, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe, and deſire his Excellency will be pleaſed to tranſmit the ſame to his Majeſty.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait upon his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, to know what Time his Excellency will pleaſe to appoint for this Houſe to attend him with the ſame.

Adjourned till To-morrow Morning, at Eleven o'clock.

Ordered, that Col. Edward Richbell do attend this Houſe, as Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod, in the Abſence of Michael Broughton, Eſq;

And then the ſaid Richbell came to the Table, and took the Oaths, and made and ſubſcribed the Declaration, and alſo took and ſubſcribed the Oath of Abjuration, purſuant to the Statutes.

The Lord Chancellor reported, that this Houſe had attended his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant with their Addreſs of Thanks to his Majeſty, of Friday laſt; and that his Excellency was pleaſed to return this Anſwer, viz.

Lord Lieutenant's Anſwer.

"I WILL by the firſt Opportunity tranſmit "this dutiful Addreſs to his Majeſty."

Upon reading the Order for the Day for the Houſe to be called over; It is ordered by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that this Houſe ſhall be called over on this Day ſeven-night.

Heads of Bill for building on Church-Lands, &c.

Upon reading the Order for the Day for the Houſe to be put into a Committee, upon Heads of a Bill to amend and explain an Act, intitled, An Act to encourage building Houſes, and making other Improvements on Church-Lands, and to prevent Dilapidations; It is ordered by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that this Houſe ſhall, on Monday Morning next, be put into a Committee, to conſider of the ſaid Heads of a Bill.

Mr. Euſtace's Petition.

A Petition of Edward Euſtace, a Minor, of the Age of ſixteen Years, ſetting forth, that, by the Death of Edward Euſtace, Eſq; the 13th of October laſt, an Eſtate, worth near £300 a Year, came to the Petitioner, as his Nephew and Heir. That in the time of the ſaid Edward's Sickneſs, the Petitioner, being then a School-Boy, by the Contrivance of Robert Dillon, was ſent with a Letter to a Gentleman, four Miles from his Uncle's Houſe, where the Petitioner then was; and on the Road was overtaken by the ſaid Dillon, and by him intoxicated with Brandy and other Liquors, and was afterwards compelled by the ſaid Dillon to marry Mary Dillon, the ſaid Dillon's Siſter, a Papiſt, in a mean Station and of no Fortune, by the Name of Edward Smith, whereby the Petitioner will be inevitably ruined, the ſaid Eſtate being very much incumbered.

That the Petitioner's Father was of the Communion of the Church of Ireland as by Law eſtabliſhed, and died in that Faith, and the Petitioner is willing to be educated therein.

And humbly praying, that the ſaid Marriage may be diſſolved; and that the Petitioner may have their Lordſhips' Aid and Protection, whereby he may be enabled to prove the Allegations herein ſet forth, or otherwiſe be relieved by their Lordſhips, as to them, in their great Juſtice, ſhould ſeem meet; was preſented to the Houſe, and read.

Order thereon.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the ſaid Petition ſhall be, and is hereby, referred to a ſelect Committee, and that the Lords preſent be the ſaid Committee; whoſe Lordſhips ſhall have Power to ſend for Perſons, Papers and Records; and having conſidered the ſaid Petition, and heard ſuch Perſons concerning the ſame, as they ſhall think fit, are afterwards to report their Opinion thereupon to the Houſe.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, at Ten o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, and adjourn as they pleaſe.

Ordered, that the ſaid Lords' Committees do alſo prepare and bring in Heads of a Bill for preventing clandeſtine and irregular Marriages.

A Complaint being made to the Houſe, of a Breach of Privilege, committed by Edmond Murphy, againſt the Lord Kingſton, a Peer of this Realm, by entering on his Lordſhip's Lands, in the Co. Kerry, on the 22d Day of October laſt, and reſcuing ſome Cows, then diſtrained by Timothy Bryan, his Lordſhip's Servant, being within the Time, and contrary to the Privilege of Parliament;

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the ſaid Complaint ſhall be, and is hereby, referred to the Lords' Committees for Privileges, who are to conſider thereof; and having heard ſuch Perſons concerning the ſame as they ſhall think fit, are afterwards to report their Opinion thereupon to the Houſe.

Mr. Gregory's Petition.

A Petition of Francis Gregory, Gent. humbly praying Liberty, for the Reaſons therein contained, to proceed in a Cauſe commenced by him in the Court of Exchequer, againſt the Lord Biſhop of Cork, without incurring their Lordſhips' Cenſure; was preſented to the Houſe, and read.

Ordered, that the Clerk of this Houſe do ſend the Lord Biſhop of Cork a Copy of the ſaid Gregory's Petition, and his Lordſhip is hereby ordered to attend in his Place, in this Houſe, the firſt Meeting of this Houſe after the Receſs.

The Earl of Cavan informed the Houſe, that in the Journal of the 20th Day of October, 1707, an Entry is made of a Petition preſented to the Houſe, in the Name of Edward (commonly called) Lord Baron of Athenry, and in the ſeveral ſubſequent Orders made on the ſaid Petition, the Stile is continued, though the ſaid Edward was at that time a Peer of this Realm. And his Lordſhip moving the Houſe, that the ſaid Journal might be amended;

The ſaid Journal was then read.

Ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Conſideration of the ſaid Matter be, and is hereby, referred to the Lords' Sub-Committees, appointed to peruſe and perfect the Journals of this Houſe: Whoſe Lordſhips, or any five of them, have Power to ſend for Perſons, Papers and Records; and having examined ſuch Perſons as they ſhall think fit, are afterwards to report their Opinion thereupon to the Houſe.

Upon reading the Orders for the Day;

Ordered, that this Houſe ſhall, To-morrow Morning, be put into a Committee to take into further Conſideration Heads of a Bill to explain and amend an Act, intitled, An Act to encourage the building of Houſes, and making other Improvements on Church-Lands, and to prevent Dilapidations.

Then the Houſe, according to Order, was adjourned during Pleaſure, and put into a Committee, upon Heads of a Bill for regulating of Fees in the ſeveral Offices, and the Tolls in Fairs and Markets throughout this Kingdom; and, after ſome time ſpent therein,

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Earl of Cavan reported from the ſaid Committee of the whole Houſe, that they had gone through the ſaid Heads of a Bill, and agreed thereto, with ſome Amendments, which he was ready to report, when the Houſe would pleaſe to receive the ſame.

Ordered, that the Report be made To-morrow Morning.

Ordered, that this Houſe ſhall, To-morrow Morning, be put into a Committee, to take into Conſideration Heads of a Bill for preventing clandeſtine and irregular Marriages.

Adjourned till To-morrow Morning, at Eleven o'clock.

Report on Petition of Officers, &c. of Houſe,

The Earl of Cavan reported from the Lords' Committees, to whom the Petition of the Clerk and other Officers and Servants attending this Houſe was referred; that they had conſidered thereof, and have come to ſeveral Reſolutions thereon, which he read as follow, viz.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the Lord Chancellor do attend his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, and deſire his Excellency will pleaſe to repreſent to his Majeſty the Caſe of the Officers and Servants attending this Houſe; that they may, of his Princely Bounty, receive ſuch Encouragement and Reward as may be proportionable to their Labour, Expence and Services, in their ſeveral Employments in this Houſe.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the Lord Chancellor do, at the ſame time, lay before his Excellency, as the Opinion of this Houſe, that the ſeveral Officers and Servants of this Houſe, for their extraordinary Services this Seſſion of Parliament, deſerve the ſeveral Sums annexed to their reſpective Names and Stations, as follow, viz.

agreed to. The ſaid Reſolutions, being ſeverally read by the Clerk at the Table, were agreed to by the Houſe.

Upon reading the Orders for the Day;

The ſeveral Depoſitions taken before the Lords' Committees for Privileges, in relation to Mr. Joſeph Nagle's acting as a Solicitor, were laid before the Houſe, and twice read at the Table, as follow:

Proceedings on Complaint againſt J. Nagle.

Charles Powell, Eſq; (one of the Six-Clerks in Chancery, after having been ſworn at the Bar) upon his Examination, depoſed, that he has known Mr. Joſeph Nagle twelve Years and upwards, and has been employed by the ſaid Nagle in many Cauſes, wherein the ſaid Nagle was either Plaintiff or Defendant.

The ſaid Powell alſo depoſed, that he has been employed in about eight Cauſes by the ſaid Nagle, wherein the ſaid Nagle was neither Plaintiff nor Defendant; and believes the firſt time he was employed by the ſaid Nagle, was about the Year 1718.

That the ſaid Nagle was not conſidered by him as a Solicitor; but ſays that he gave an Account to the ſaid Nagle of the Steps taken in the Cauſes.

Says, that he ſometimes received his Fees from the ſaid Nagle, and ſometimes from the Client.

That the ſaid Nagle uſed to come to his Office, but does not know that he went to any other Office.

Says, he believes the ſaid Nagle might have drawn the Pleadings in the Cauſe between Roche and Baggot, and that ſaid Nagle employed ſome of the Deponent's Clerks as Solicitors in ſome Cauſes.

Says, that in Three Cauſes of the Eight, in which ſaid Nagle employed him, the Plaintiffs in ſaid Cauſes came to him, the Deponent, themſelves.

Says, that ſaid Nagle, in reſpect to the Deponent, acted the Part of a Solicitor, ſo far as coming to inquire of the Steps taken in the Cauſes.

Says, that the Notices in the ſaid Cauſes were always ſent to the ſaid Nagle, when the ſaid Nagle was in Town.

Says, that he ſaw ſeveral Draughts of the Pleadings in the ſaid Cauſes in ſaid Nagle's Hand-writing; but does not know whether ſaid Nagle drew them, or copied them.

Says, that he always gives an Account to Proteſtant Solicitors, in Cauſes of the Notices received by him in the ſaid Cauſes; and the Steps taken in thoſe Cauſes, in which they are employed; and that he, the Deponent, did ſo to the ſaid Nagle.

Says, he has ſeen ſeveral Solicitors' Bills of Coſt, but does not know of ſaid Nagle's receiving any Fees.

Edward Richardſon, Eſq; (one of the Six-Clerks in Chancery, after having been ſworn at the Bar) upon Examination, depoſes, that he knows Joſeph Nagle by Sight, and that he believes, about ten Years ago, the ſaid Nagle and the Deponent's Father, who was then a Six-Clerk, had ſome Dealing; but that the Deponent never had any with the ſaid Nagle.

Says, that in a Cauſe between Roche and Deane, in a Letter from the Defendant to the Deponent's Father, the ſaid Nagle is mentioned as Agent in the Cauſe.

Says, that the ſaid Nagle frequents the Courts, and is reputed a Popiſh Adviſer.

Mr. Maurice Roche (who was alſo ſworn at the Bar, being examined by the ſaid Lords' Committees) depoſes, that he knows Mr. Joſeph Nagle, and that he is a Roman Catholick or Papiſt.

Says, that he, the Deponent, employed him the ſaid Nagle as Chamber-Counſel, and gave him ten Pounds a Year to manage his Affairs.

Says, that he, the Deponent, has fee'd the ſaid Nagle ſeveral times as a Chamber-Counſel, and gave him two Shillings in the Pound for receiving his Rent.

Says,

Says, that he had a Cauſe depending in the Four-Courts againſt one Deane, but does not know whether ſaid Nagle received any Coſt or no.

Says, he had a Cauſe againſt one Coulſon, and that he gave Mr. Nagle a Letter of Attorney to act for him; but that the Deponent paid Mr. Powell the Six-Clerk, the Coſts; and ſays Mr. Nagle drew his Bill in Chancery.

Says, that Mr. Francis Roche, a Relation of his, managed the firſt Suit for him, and that the Cauſe againſt Deane was in 1720: Says the ſaid Francis Roche was not a Solicitor.

Says, he believes that the ſaid Nagle did fee the Lawyers.

Lewis Pollard (Clerk to Mr. Powell the Six-Clerk, after having been ſworn at the Bar, and being produced by Joſeph Nagle) upon Examination depoſed, that he knows Joſeph Nagle, and believes that he is a Papiſt.

Says, that he received a Declaration from ſaid Nagle, in the Cauſe between Cantelan and Tiſdall, in the Petty-bag Side of the Court of Chancery to ingroſs, and that he received a Fee from the ſaid Nagle.

Says, that he was employed in two other Cauſes by the ſaid Nagle, and received Fees from him.

Says, that it is uſual for Solicitors, when they go out of Town, to leave Money with the Under-Clerks in the Six-Clerks Office, to carry on their Buſineſs, and pay the Fees of Offices.

Says, the ſaid Nagle employed him in Cantelan againſt Tiſdall, and believes the ſaid Nagle drew the Declaration himſelf.

Says, that he took the ſaid Nagle to be a private Counſel; and ſays, that he knows Mr. Powell the Six-Clerk has ſent the ſaid Nagle, Notices received in Cauſes; but did not look upon ſaid Nagle as a Solicitor.

Mr. Denis Swiny (after having been ſworn at the Bar and produced for Mr. Nagle) on his Examination, depoſed, that he was employed by Joſeph Nagle in 1720, in a Cauſe (Saywell againſt Magrath) and received Solicitation-Fees from ſaid Nagle, and was alſo employed by ſaid Nagle in a Cauſe wherein ſaid Nagle was a Party.

Says, he does not know of ſaid Nagle's managing any Cauſes in the Courts.

Mr. James Webb (an Attorney in the Court of Exchequer, after having been ſworn at the Bar, and alſo produced for Mr. Nagle) upon his Examination, depoſed, that in laſt Hilary Term, by ſaid Nagle's Recommendation, the Deponent was concerned in a Cauſe for Mr. M'Carthy, in the Court of Exchequer; but ſays, ſaid Nagle did not, in the Courſe of the Cauſe, give him any Directions.

Says, he received his Coſt from Mr. M'Carthy, and not from ſaid Nagle.

Reſolution on Depoſitions; and

Reſolved, that the foregoing Depoſitions are a ſufficient Ground for this Houſe to order a Proſecution againſt Joſeph Nagle, a Papiſt, for having acted as a Solicitor, Agent or Manager of Cauſes, in ſeveral of his Majeſty's Courts, contrary to the ſeveral Acts of Parliament, made in this Kingdom, to prevent Papiſts being Solicitors.

Attorney-General to proſecute Nagle.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that his Majeſty's Attorney-General do forthwith proſecute the ſaid Joſeph Nagle, a Papiſt, for acting as Solicitor, Agent or Manager of Cauſes, in ſeveral of his Majeſty's Courts, contrary to the ſeveral Acts of Parliament, made in this Kingdom, to prevent Papiſts being Solicitors.

Complaint on Breach of Privilege.

Whereas a Complaint was made to this Houſe, the 13th inſt. of a Breach of Privilege committed by Henry Purdon, Eſq; againſt the Earl of Barrymore; and the Conſideration thereof being referred to the Lords' Committees for Privileges; It is ordered by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the ſaid Lords' Committees ſhall be, and are hereby, diſcharged from proceeding further on the ſaid Complaint.

No Papiſt intitled to Protection, made a Standing Order.

Ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Reſolution of this Houſe of Yeſterday, in relation to Papiſts being intitled to the Protection of this Houſe, by reaſon of their being employed by any Lord of Parliament, ſhall be, and is hereby, declared to be a Standing Order of this Houſe, and entered on the Roll.

The Lord Viſc. Strabane, in the Caſe of the Lord Athenry, made the following Report, viz.

My Lords,

Report on L.d Athenry's Caſe. THE Lords' Sub-Committees, appointed to peruſe and perfect the Journals of this Houſe, and alſo to inſpect an Entry in the Journal of the 20th of October, 1707, of a Petition preſented to this Houſe, in the Name of Edward, commonly called, Lord Baron of Athenry, and the ſubſequent Entries made on the ſaid Petition:

Do find, upon the Examination of Peter Daly, Eſq; who was ſworn at the Bar of this Houſe, that a Petition was preferred to this Houſe on the 20th of October, 1707, in the Name of Edward Lord Baron of Athenry, againſt a Bill then depending in this Houſe, for the ſettling the Eſtate of Anne Lady Viſcounteſs Dowager of Clanmaleery; and it being repreſented to the Houſe, that the ſaid Lord Baron of Athenry had been outlawed: It was then ordered, that the ſaid Petition ſhould be withdrawn, and amended: And the ſame was, on that Day, altered accordingly by the ſaid Daly, and Mr. Andrew Caldwell, who ſolicited the ſaid Petition, by the Stile of Edward commonly called, Lord Baron of Athenry, without the Privity or Conſent of his Lordſhip, the ſaid Solicitors being fearful that the ſaid Bill might paſs, before the ſaid Petition could be preferred.

They alſo find, by the ſaid Daly's Depoſition, that the ſaid Solicitors being apprehenſive that they were in a Miſtake, by altering the ſaid Petition as aforeſaid, the ſaid Daly went the Day after to the King's Bench Office; and upon Search, he there found a Rule of Reverſal of the Outlawry for High-Treaſon of Edward Lord Baron of Athenry, and thereupon acquainted the late Earl of Drogheda of the Miſtake in the ſaid Alteration, for that the ſaid Edward Lord Baron of Athenry's Outlawry was reverſed; and prayed his Lordſhip to move to have the ſaid former Amendment altered; whoſe Lordſhip replied, That it was not material, the Matter to which the Petition related, being determined by the Lords, having before agreed to the ſaid Bill.

They alſo find, by an Act of the 9th of his late Majeſty King William, intitled, An Act to hinder the Reverſal of ſeveral Outlawries and Attainders, and to prevent the Return of Subjects of this Kingdom, who have gone into the Dominions of the French King in Europe; there is a Proviſo, that the ſaid Act ſhould not extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to confirm the ſeveral Outlawries and Attainders of Edw. Lord Baron of Athenry, and Lieut. Col. John Kelly, or either of them, for any Crime or Crimes committed or done by them, or either of them, ſince the 5th Day of November, 1688; but that the ſame ſhall be ſubject and liable to ſuch Order and Direction, for Reverſal thereof, as his Majeſty ſhould pleaſe to declare, touching and concerning the ſame.

That, upon peruſing the Records of the Rolls' Office, it appears, that his ſaid late Majeſty, by Letter, dated at Kenſington, the 10th Day of July, 1698, in the 10th Year of his Reign, was pleaſed to direct, that a Pardon ſhould paſs to the ſaid Lord Baron of Athenry; and alſo directed a Reverſal of the Outlawry and Attainder of the ſaid Edward Lord Baron of Athenry.

That, purſuant to his late Majeſty's ſaid Letter, a Pardon, under the Great Seal of Ireland, dated at Dublin, the 5th Day of June, in the 12th Year of his ſaid late Majeſty's Reign, was paſſed to the ſaid Edward late Lord Baron of Athenry; and alſo the ſaid Attainder and ſeveral Outlawries were reverſed before the time of preferring the ſaid Petition: Whereupon the Lords' Committees are come to the following Reſolutions, viz.

Reſolved, that it appears to this Committee, that the Outlawry of Edward Lord Baron of Athenry, for the Rebellion of 1688, was reverſed, purſuant to his late Majeſty's Letter of the 10th of July, 1698; and ſtood reverſed on and before the 20th Day of October, 1707.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the Entry of the Journal of the 20th of October, 1707, on a Petition preſented to the Houſe in the Name of Edward (commonly called) Lord Baron of Athenry, ſhall be amended by erazing the Words "com- " monly called," in the ſaid Journal, as often as they are annexed to the Name of Edward Lord Baron of Athenry.

To which Reſolutions, the Queſtion being ſeverally put, the Houſe did agree, nem. con.

Ordered, that the Lord Blayney have the Leave of this Houſe to go into the Country for ſix Weeks, upon extraordinary Occaſions, leaving his Proxy.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to robe.

The Houſe was reſumed: And

Ld Lieutenant preſent.

His Excelleny John Lord Carteret, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland, being arrayed in royal Robes, entered the Houſe with the uſual Ceremonies of Grandeur, the Earl of Clanrickard carrying the Sword of State, and the Earl of Kildare, the Cap of Maintenance; the Hon. John Fitzmaurice, Eſq; younger Son of the Earl of Kerry, the Hon. Folliot Ponſonby, Eſq; Son of the late Lord Viſc. Duncannon, and the Hon. Robert Butler, Eſq; younger Son of the Lord Newtown, bearing the Train of the ſaid Robe: His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, making his Congé to the Throne, aſcended the ſame, and ſeated himſelf in the Chair of State under the Canopy; all the Lords Spiritual and Temporal ſtanding robed in their Places, uncovered, till their Lordſhips took their Seats.

Commons ſent for:

The Lord Chancellor, kneeling, conferred with his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant; and then, ſtanding on the right hand of the Chair of State, commanded the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod to ſignify to the Commons, that it is his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure they attend him immediately in the Houſe of Peers.

they enter;

And the Houſe of Commons, with their Speaker, being come, were conducted to the Bar, with the uſual Ceremonies, where Mr. Speaker, after a ſhort Speech to his Excellency, in relation to the Money-Bill, delivered the ſame to the Clerk of the Parliaments, who brought it to the Table, where the Clerk of the Crown read the Title, as follows:

Royal Aſſent given to Money-Bill.

An Act for granting and continuing to his Majeſty the additional Duties on Beer, Ale, ſtrong Waters, Tobacco and other Goods and Merchandizes, and alſo upon all Sorts of Wine, ſtrong Waters and Spirits perfectly made, and upon all Spirits made and diſtilled of Wine; and alſo for granting and continuing the further additional Duties on Beer, Ale, Aquavitæ and ſtrong Waters, brewed and made in this Kingdom, and upon Brandy or Spirits above Proof; and on Tea, Coffee, Chocolate and Cocoa-Nuts; and alſo for granting a further additional Duty on Brandy or Spirits above Proof; and alſo a Tax on all Salaries, Profits of Employments, Fees and Penſions therein mentioned; and for ſecuring the Repayment of £50,000 Sterl. formerly advanced to his Majeſty for the Uſe of the Publick, together with the Intereſt thereof.

To this Bill, the Clerk of the Parliaments pronounced the royal Aſſent in theſe Words, viz.

" Le Roy remercie ſes bons Subjects, accepte " leur Benevolence, et ainſi le veult."

Then his Excellency was pleaſed to withdraw, and was attended as he entered, and the Commons returned to their Houſe.

Meſſage from Ld Lieutenant to adjourn Houſe.

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that it was his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure, that this Houſe do adjourn itſelf to Thurſday the 27th Day of January next:

Upon reading the Orders for the Day;

Ordered, that the Lord Bishop of Cork do attend the Service of this House on Thursday the 17th Day of February next.

Ordered, that the Lord Bishop of Waterford do attend the Service of this House on Thursday the 17th Day of February next.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, that an humble Address shall be presented to his Majesty, to congratulate his Majesty upon his safe Arrival into his British Dominions, and to acknowlege his Majesty's generous Concern and powerful Interposition in behalf of our oppressed Protestant Brethren abroad, and to assure his Majesty, that we will do every thing in our Power in Support of his Government, and the Succession in his royal House.

And all the Lords present were appointed a Committee to draw up the said Address, and to report to the House.

Their Lordships, or any five of them, to meet presently in the Committee-Chamber, near the House of Peers, and to adjourn as they please.

Then the House was adjourned during Pleasure, and the Lords withdrew to prepare the said Address.

The House was resumed: And the Earl of Cavan reported from the said Lords' Committees, an Address, which was read, and agreed to, as follows, viz.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled.

Most gracious Sovereign,

Address to the King.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, being highly sensible of the many Blessings we have enjoyed ever since your Majesty's happy Accession to the Throne, beg Leave humbly to congratulate your Majesty upon your safe Arrival in your British Dominions.

The Preservation of our Liberties, and of the true Religion established among us, do, next under God, depend upon your Majesty, and the Succession in your royal House: And we are persuaded, that your Majesty's generous Concern and powerful Interposition in behalf of our oppressed Protestant Brethren abroad, must still, if possible, endear your Majesty and your Government more and more, to all who have a just Sense of Religion and Liberty.

We rest assured, that your Majesty's great Wisdom will effectually disappoint the Views of all those who may endeavour to render themselves formidable; and that, by the Blessing of that Providence, which has always powerfully assisted your Majesty, and has, by a peculiar Care, brought you back in Safety to your People, you will be able to protect us in, and secure to us, the Enjoyment of all our valuable Rights and Privileges.

We doubt not but that the Enemies to your Majesty and their Country, will conceive fresh Hopes from a Prospect of new Troubles and Commotions in Europe, and will again employ their traitorous Endeavours in Favour of a Popish Pretender: We think ourselves, in Duty obliged, upon this Occasion, to renew our Assurances to your Majesty, that we will chearfully, to the utmost of our Power, do every thing that shall be for the Service of your Majesty, and for the Support of your Government, and that we will, with the greatest Zeal, employ our Lives and Fortunes in Defence of your sacred Person and the Succession in your royal House, by the Preservation of which only, we can, through the Blessing of God, hope to transmit our Religion and Liberties to our Posterity.

Ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, that the said Address be presented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole House; and that his Excellency be desired to lay the same before his Majesty.

Ordered,

Ordered, that the Earl of Roſcommon and the Earl of Cavan do wait upon his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, to know his Excellency's Pleaſure when he will be attended by this Houſe with the ſaid Addreſs.

The Earl of Cavan acquainted the Houſe, that he, with the Earl of Roſcommon, had waited upon his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, to know when he will pleaſe to be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Majeſty: His Excellency was pleaſed to appoint this Day at Two o'clock, at his Majeſty's Caſtle of Dublin.

Rev. Mr. Hamilton's Petition.

A Petition of John Hamilton, Clerk, ſetting forth, that his Majeſty had been graciouſly pleaſed, by Letters Patents under the Great Seal of Ireland, to grant to him the Deanry of Dromore, for which there is an Action of Quare impedit now depending in his Majeſty's Court of King's-Bench, and that the Lord Biſhop of Dromore had preſented the Rev. Mr. Leſlie to the ſaid Deanry, and inſiſted on his Privilege, and praying Relief; was preſented to the Houſe, and read.

Order thereon.

Ordered, that the ſaid Petition do lie on the Table.

Ordered, that the Lord Altham have the Leave of this Houſe, at his own Requeſt, to wave his Privilege, at the Suit of the Lord Viſc. Valentia and Dr. Richard Stone.

Ordered, that the Lord Biſhop of Cork have the Leave of this Houſe, at his own Requeſt, ſignified by his Grace the Lord Archbiſhop of Tuam, to wave his Privilege, at the Suit of Mr. Francis Gregory.

Then the Houſe adjourned till half an Hour after Two o'clock,

POST MERIDIEM.

The Houſe met, according to Adjournment: And the Lord Chancellor reported, that the Houſe did attend his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, with their Addreſs to his Majeſty, and deſired his Excellency would pleaſe to lay the ſame before his Majeſty; to which his Excellency was pleaſed to give this Anſwer, viz.

My Lords,

" I WILL by the firſt Opportunity, tranſ- Lord Lieutenant's Anſwer.

To his Excellency JOHN Lord CARTERET, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland,

The Humble ADDRESS of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

Addreſs to Ld Lieutenant

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, being, by continued Experience, convinced of the great Wiſdom and Juſtice of your Excellency's Adminiſtration could not ſee a Period put to this Seſſion of Parliament, without acknowledging the ſame in the moſt grateful and ſolemn Manner.

The Zeal your Excellency has ſhewn for the Service and Honour of the great King, whom you repreſent, and your tender Concern for the true Intereſts of his faithful Subjects of this Kingdom, have been ſo equally conſpicuous, that it is evident you have wiſely judged theſe to be inſeparable; and the World will readily confeſs in you, all the Characters of a conſummate Governor.

It is the happy Mixture of theſe, in every Inſtance of your Conduct, that has gained your Excellency the univerſal Eſteem and Affection of the People of this Kingdom; and the Lords think themſelves obliged to thank your Excellency, in a particular Manner, for your great Care of our Welfare, and conſtant Attention to the publick Service of this Country; and to acknowledge the Goodneſs of his Majeſty, in putting the chief Government of Ireland into the hands of a Miniſter, ſo diſtinguiſhed by his Integrity, Experience and Abilities.

Ordered, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, by the whole Houſe.

Prayers.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

Revenue-Bill, paſſed;

Hodie tertia vice lecta eſt Billa, intitled, An Act to prevent the fraudulent and clandeſtine importing of Goods.

The Queſtion was put, Whether this Bill ſhall paſs?

It was reſolved in the Affirmative.

Meſſage to Commons with Concurrence.

A Meſſage was ſent to the Houſe of Commons, by Dr. Warburton and Dr. Reilly, to acquaint them, that this Houſe hath agreed to the ſaid Bill, without any Amendment.

The L^d^ Chancellor reported, that this Houſe did Yeſterday preſent their Addreſs to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant; and his Excellency was pleaſed to make this Anſwer, viz.

Lord Lieutenant's Anſwer to Addreſs.

" THE obliging Manner in which your " Lordſhips expreſs your Approbation of my " Conduct, through the Courſe of this Seſſion " of Parliament, and of my Government here, " is very acceptable to me; by continuing to " uſe my beſt Endeavours for his Majeſty's " Service, and the Intereſts of this Kingdom, " I ſhall hope to preſerve the Eſteem and " Affection of your Lordſhips."

Addreſs and Anſwer to be printed.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, and his Excellency's Anſwer thereunto, ſhall be forthwith printed and publiſhed, and that no Perſon preſume to print the ſaid Addreſs and Anſwer, but ſuch as the Clerk of this Houſe ſhall appoint.

The Lord Chancellor alſo reported, that, in obedience to the Order of this Houſe of Yeſterday, he had laid the Reſolutions of this Houſe on the Petition of the Clerk of the Parliaments, before his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant; and his Excellency was pleaſed to give this Anſwer:

" I WILL give the proper Orders, as deſired " by the Houſe of Lords."

Then the Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to robe.

His Excellency John Lord Carteret, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland, being arrayed in royal Robes, entered the Houſe with the uſual Ceremonies of Grandeur; the Earl of Roſcommon carrying the Sword of State, and the Earl of Clanrickard, the Cap of Maintenance; the Hon. Mr. Barry, Son to the L^d^ Santry; the Hon. Mr. Moleſworth, Son to the late Lord Viſc. Moleſworth, and the Hon. Mr. Butler, Son to the Lord Newtown, bearing the Train of his Excellency's Robe.

His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, making his Congé to the Throne, aſcended the ſame, and ſeated himſelf in the Chair of State under the Canopy. All the Lords Spiritual and Temporal ſtanding robed in their Places, uncovered, till their Lordſhips took their Seats.

Commons ſent for:

The L^d^ Chancellor, kneeling, conferred with his Excellency the L^d^ Lieutenant; and then, ſtanding on the right hand of the chair of State, commanded the Gentleman-uſher of the Black Rod to ſignify to the Commons, that it is his Excellency the L^d^ Lieutenant's Pleaſure they attend him immediately in the Houſe of Peers.

they enter

And the Houſe of Commons, with their Speaker, being come, were conducted to the Bar, with the uſual Ceremonies.

Royal Aſſent given to 16 Bills.

Then the Clerk of the Crown read the Titles of the Bills to be paſſed, as follow, viz.

1. An Act to prevent the fraudulent and clandeſtine importing of Goods.
2. An Act to prevent Marriages by degraded Clergymen and Popiſh Prieſts, and for preventing Marriages conſummated, from being avoided by Precontracts, and for the more effectual puniſhing of Bigamy.
3. An Act for the better regulating the Office of Sheriffs, and for the aſcertaining their Fees, and the Fees for ſuing out their Patents, and paſſing their Accounts.
4. An Act for explaining and amending an Act, intitled, An Act for continuing and amending of the Laws in relation to Butter and Tallow, and the Caſks in which ſuch Goods are to be made up; and in relation to the curing of Hides, and making up of Beef and Pork for Exportation; and for preventing the Deſtruction of Salmon.

5. An Act for continuing ſeveral temporary Statutes made in this Kingdom, now near expiring, and for allowing further Time to Perſons in Offices to qualify themſelves, purſuant to an Act, intitled, An Act to prevent the further Growth of Popery.
6. An Act for the better preſerving the Salmon Fiſhery of this Kingdom.
7. An Act for the more effectual tranſporting of Felons and Vagabonds.
8. An Act for the more effectual erecting and better regulating of Free-Schools, and for re-building and repairing of Churches.
9. An Act to amend and explain an Act, intitled, An Act to encourage building of Houſes and making other Improvements on Church-Lands, and to prevent Dilapidations.

To theſe Bills, the Clerk of the Parliaments pronounced the royal Aſſent, ſeverally, in theſe Words, viz. "Le Roy le veult."

10. An Act to enable the Right Hon. John Lord Viſc. Moleſworth and Richard Moleſworth, and the ſeveral other Perſons in Remainder for Life, when in Poſſeſſion of certain Lands, near St. Stephen's-Green and Dawſon-Street, in the County of the City of Dublin to make Leaſes thereof.
11. An Act for finiſhing the Church of Chriſt-Church, in the City of Cork.
12. An Act for enabling Pryce Hartſtonge of Bruffe, in the Co. Limerick, Eſq; to raiſe the Sum of £2000, by Mortgage of all or any Part of the Lands of Court and Collum in the ſaid County, for the Purpoſes therein mentioned.
13. An Act to enable Robert Hickman, Eſq; to charge his Eſtate for Payment of his Father's Debts and Legacies, and to make Leaſes.
14. An Act to enable Sir Pierce Butler, Bart. and Richard Butler, Eſq; Son and Heir of James Butler, Eſq; deceaſed, only Brother of the ſaid Sir Pierce Butler, to make a further Settlement of the Eſtate, lately belonging to Sir Thomas Butler, deceaſed, for the Benefit of themſelves and their Family, without Prejudice to the Jointure of Dame Anne Butler, Wife of the ſaid Sir Pierce, or to the Proviſions made for their Iſſue, by a Settlement made on their Marriage by the ſaid Sir Thomas Butler.
15. An Act for the Relief of Edmond, Catherine, Mary, Margaret and Elizabeth Morres, Minors, being the younger Children of Sir John Morres jun. deceaſed.
16. An Act for veſting Part of the Eſtate of John Pyke, late of Woodenſtown in the Co. of Tipperary, Eſq; deceaſed, in certain Truſtees, for Sale thereof, in order to pay and diſcharge his Debts and Legacies.

To theſe Bills, the Clerk of the Parliaments pronounced the royal Aſſent, ſeverally, in theſe Words, viz. "Soit fait comme il eſt deſiré."

After which, his Excellency was pleaſed to ſay:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

I HAVE, with great Satisfaction obeyed his Majeſty's Commands, in giving his royal Aſſent to thoſe good Laws, which have been prepared by you during this Seſſion; and am perſuaded they will not only contribute to the Advancement of the Proteſtant Religion, but alſo to the Peace and Tranquillity of the Country, and to the Preſervation and Increaſe of the Trade of this Kingdom. His Majeſty's Goodneſs in giving you the Bill for the more eaſy paſſing of Sheriffs' Accounts, is a freſh Inſtance of his royal Favour and Care to promote, upon every Occaſion, the Security and Eaſe of his People.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I AM commanded by his Majeſty, to return you Thanks for the Supplies which you have ſo chearfully given for the Support of the Eſtabliſhment: I muſt likewiſe particularly acknowledge the late Inſtance of your inviolable Attachment to his Majeſty's Intereſt and Service; which you have ſhewn, by that unanimous Reſolution, whereby you have enabled his Majeſty to give an immediate Credit to the Warrants for clearing the Army, and the Half-pay Officers; and to put the Forces upon this Eſtabliſhment, into a Condition to diſcourage all Attempts of our Enemies.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

IT has been my earneſt Deſire, ever ſince my coming to this Government, to promote every thing to the utmoſt of my Power, which I thought might conduce to his Majeſty's Service, and the general Good of this Kingdom: And your reſpective Addreſſes give me Reaſon to hope, that my Endeavours, having proved to your Satisfaction, have not been altogether unſucceſsful.

I queſtion not, but, by your Vigilance in your ſeveral Stations throughout the Country, effectual Care will be taken, that thoſe who have it in their Inclinations, may not be able to diſturb the publick Peace, to the Preſervation of which nothing can contribute more, than a due and impartial Execution of the Laws, which, under GOD, are the chief Security of our Conſtitution in Church and State; and a ſtrict Union among Proteſtants, who ought at this time, when all Europe ſeems alarmed, to be particularly active againſt the Deſigns of the Pretender, and his Adherents.

I cannot put an End to this Seſſion, without expreſſing how agreeable it has been to me, to obſerve, from time to time, the many Marks of Loyalty and Affection, which you have ſhewn to his Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, to his royal Family and Government: And ſhall not fail, on my return into his Majeſty's Preſence, to make a faithful Report to his Majeſty, of the dutiful Behaviour of his loyal Subjects of Ireland.

The Lord Chancellor, afterwards, by his Excellency's Command, ſaid:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Parliament prorogued.

IT is his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure, that this Parliament be prorogued to Thurſday the 14th Day of April next; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to meet here on Thurſday the 14th Day of April next.

☞ Memorandum: This Parliament, by Proclamation of his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, dated the 25th Day of March, 1726, was further prorogued to Tueſday e 17th Day of May following.

☞ Memorandum: This Parliament, by Proclamation of their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices, dated the 4th Day of May, 1726, was further prorogued to Thurſday the 11th Day of Auguſt next following.

☞ Memorandum: This Parliament, by Proclamation of their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices, dated the 28th Day of July, 1726, was further prorogued to the 23d Day of March next following.
